 - (i) whether the account was previously held in the name of the liable person specified in the order, and
 - (ii) if so, the new name in which the account is held, only where the liable person named in the order is the same person as the person in whose name the account specified in the order is held.

- (a) the number and sort code of that account; and
- (b) the type of account.

(6) The requirements of this regulation apply only in so far as the deposit-taker has the information or can reasonably be expected to acquire it.

25F. The Commission must notify the deposit-taker within 7 days of making a decision that a regular deduction order has—

- (a) been varied by virtue of regulation 25I (variation of a regular deduction order);
- (b) lapsed under regulation 25J (lapse of a regular deduction order);
- (c) been revived under regulation 25K (revival of a regular deduction order); or
- (d) ceased to have effect by virtue of regulation 25L (discharge of a regular deduction order).

Review of a regular deduction order

25G.—(1) A deposit-taker at which a regular deduction order is directed or the liable person against whom the order is made may apply to the Commission for a review of the order.

(2) The circumstances in which an application may be made under paragraph (1) are that—

- (c) any amounts payable under the order have been paid;

- (e) due to an official error, an incorrect amount has been specified in the order; or
- (f) the order does not comply with the requirements of section 32A(5) of the Act or regulation 25B(1) or 25C.

(3) Following a review of an order under this regulation—

- (a) where the Commission changes the amount to be deducted by the deposit-taker under the order, it may vary the order; or
- (b) where the Commission extinguishes the amount to be deducted by the deposit-taker under the order, it must discharge the order.

(4) In paragraph (2)(e) “official error” has the same meaning as in regulation 1(3) of the Social Security and Child Support (Decisions and Appeals) Regulations 1999 (interpretation)(11).

Priority as between orders – regular deduction orders

25H.—(1) Paragraphs (2) to (5) apply where one or more third party debt orders or garnishee orders provide for deductions to be made from the same account as that specified in a regular deduction order.

(2) Where—

- (a) one or more third party debt orders or garnishee orders are served on a deposit-taker before or on the day a payment is due to be made under a regular deduction order; and
- (b) the regular deduction order was served on the same deposit-taker before those orders, the deposit-taker must make that payment except where the deposit-taker has taken action to comply with the obligations under any third party debt order or garnishee order.

(3) Where a regular deduction order is served after an interim third party debt order or a garnishee order nisi the deposit-taker must take action to comply with any of those orders before making a deduction under the regular deduction order.

(11) S.I. 1999/991, relevant amending instruments are S.I. 2002/1379, 2008/2656 and 2008/2683.

(4) Where paragraph (2) or (3) applies, the deposit-taker must take action to comply with any third party debt orders or garnishee orders before making further deductions under the regular deduction order.

(5) Where a decision to revive a regular deduction order takes effect on the same day as or any day after a third party debt order or garnishee order has been served, the deposit-taker must take action to comply with any of those orders before making a deduction under the regular deduction order.

(6) Paragraphs (1) to (5) do not apply to Scotland.

(7) In Scotland, paragraphs (8) to (10) apply where a deposit-taker receives one or more arrestment schedules (“arrestments”) and a regular deduction order which apply to the same account.

(8) Where—

- (a) one or more arrestments are served on a deposit-taker before or on the day a payment is due to be made under a regular deduction order; and
- (b) the regular deduction order was served on the same deposit-taker before any of those arrestments,

the deposit-taker must make that payment except where the deposit-taker has taken action to comply with the obligations under any of the arrestments.

(9) Where paragraph (8) applies, the deposit-taker must take action to comply with any of those arrestments before making further deductions under the regular deduction order.

(10) Where a decision to revive a regular deduction order takes effect on the same day as or any day after any arrestments have been served, the deposit-taker must take action to comply with any of those arrestments before making a deduction under the regular deduction order.

Variation of a regular deduction order

25I.—(1) The Commission may vary a regular deduction order by changing the amount to be deducted in the circumstances set out in paragraph (2).

(2) The circumstances are that—

- (a) the Commission has accepted—
 - (i) that a payment of arrears has been made by the liable person, and
 - (ii) no alternative method of payment of child support maintenance has been arranged;
- (b) a decision has been made under section 11, 12, 16 or 17 of the Act or there has been an appeal against a maintenance calculation;
- (c) the Commission has reviewed the order under regulation 25G (review of a regular deduction order); or
- (d) there has been an appeal under regulation 25AB(1)(a) or (b) (appeals).

(3) The Commission may from time to time vary the deduction period.

(4) Where—

- (a) a regular deduction order has been varied under this regulation; and
- (b) a copy of the order as varied has been served on the deposit-taker at which it is directed, that deposit-taker must comply with the order; but the deposit-taker is not to be under any liability for non-compliance before the end of the period of 7 days beginning on the day on which the copy of the order as varied is served on the deposit-taker.

Lapse of a regular deduction order

25J.—(1) A regular deduction order is to lapse in the circumstances set out in paragraph (2).

(2) The circumstances are where—

- (a) the Commission has agreed with the liable person an alternative method of payment of the child support maintenance due under the maintenance calculation; or
- (b) there is an insufficient amount standing to the credit of the account specified in the order to enable a deduction to be made on two consecutive deduction dates, unless the Commission has decided that the order is to continue for a greater number of deduction dates, and the Commission considers it is reasonable in all the circumstances that the order is to lapse.

(3) A regular deduction order lapses on the day on which the deposit-taker receives notification that the order has lapsed from the Commission.

(4) A regular deduction order which has lapsed under this regulation is to be treated as remaining in force for the purposes of regulations 25E (notification by the deposit-taker to the Commission), 25G (review of a regular deduction order) and 25AB (appeals).

Revival of a regular deduction order

25K.—(1) Where a regular deduction order has lapsed it may be revived by the Commission where—

- (a) the liable person has failed to comply with any agreement reached under regulation 25J(2)(a) (lapse of a regular deduction order); or
- (b) the Commission has reason to believe that following the lapse of an order under regulation 25J(2)(b) there is sufficient amount standing to the credit of the account specified in the order to enable a deduction to be made.

(2) Where the Commission decides to revive a regular deduction order that decision is to take effect on the day notification that the order has been revived is received by the deposit-taker.

Discharge of a regular deduction order

25L.—(1) A regular deduction order must be discharged by the Commission where—

- (a) the account specified in the order has been closed;
- (b) the maintenance calculation in question is no longer in force and the amount of child support maintenance due under that calculation has been paid in full in accordance with regulation 2 (payment of child support maintenance);
- (c) the liable person has complied with any agreement reached under regulation 25J(2)(a) for such period as the Commission considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case;
- (d) the Commission has reviewed the order under regulation 25G and it has extinguished the amount to be deducted by the deposit-taker under the order;

- (e) on an appeal under regulation 25AB(1)(a) (appeals) the court has set aside the order;
 - (f) unless sub-paragraph (g) applies, a regular deduction order has lapsed under regulation 25J(2) and 6 months have passed beginning on the day the lapse took effect;
 - (g) an appeal is brought by virtue of regulation 25AB(1)(a) or (b), against a regular deduction order which has lapsed under regulation 25J(2) and 1 month has passed beginning on—
 - (i) the day proceedings on the appeal (including any further appeal) concluded, or
 - (ii) the end of any period during which a further appeal may ordinarily be brought,whichever is the later; or
 - (h) the liable person has died.
- (2) A regular deduction order may be discharged where the Commission considers it is appropriate to do so in the circumstances of the case.
- (3) Where a regular deduction order is discharged that discharge takes effect immediately after the payment of the last regular deduction prior to discharge.

CHAPTER 3

Lump Sum Deduction Orders

Period in which representations may be made

25M. Where a lump sum deduction order has been made under section 32E(1) of the Act the period for making representations to the Commission in respect of the proposal specified in that order is 14 days beginning on the day a copy of the order was served.

Disapplication of sections 32G(1) and 32H(2)(b) of the Act

25N.—(1) Something that would otherwise be in breach of sections 32G(1) and 32H(2)(b) of the Act may, with the consent of the Commission, be done in the following circumstances—

 - (b) the liable person is under a written contractual obligation, agreed before the lump sum deduction order was made, to make a payment;

- (4) Where the Commission gives consent it is to take effect on the day on which the deposit-taker receives notification from the Commission to disapply section 32G(1) or 32H(2)(b) of the Act.
- (5) Something that would otherwise be in breach of section 32G(1) and 32H(2)(b) of the Act may be done where—
- (a) the amount standing to the credit of the account specified in the lump sum deduction order is less than the amount specified in that order, except in respect of any amount dealt with in compliance with section 32G(1) of the Act; or
 - (b) the deposit-taker has made a payment in accordance with section 32H(1)(a) of the Act.
- (6) Paragraph (5) has effect until the Commission gives notice to the deposit-taker that paragraph (5) has ceased to have effect in a particular case and that notification is to take effect on the day on which the deposit-taker receives notification from the Commission.
- (7) In this regulation—
- “partner” has the same meaning as in regulation 3(9) (method of payment) and the definition of “couple” in that regulation is to apply accordingly; and
 - “relevant other child” is to be interpreted in accordance with paragraph 10C(2) of Schedule 1 to the Act⁽¹²⁾ and regulations made for the purposes of that paragraph.

(3) Where there is an outstanding amount section 32G(1) of the Act applies in respect of that amount.

(4) Where a decision to revive a lump sum deduction order takes effect on the same day as or any day after a third party debt order or garnishee order has been served, the deposit-taker must take action to comply with any of those orders before making a deduction under the lump sum deduction order.

(5) Paragraphs (1) to (4) do not apply to Scotland.

(6) In Scotland, where a deposit-taker would, but for this paragraph, be obliged to comply with an order under section 32F of the Act, and one or more arrestment schedules (“arrestments”) it must give preference to that order and those arrestments according to the order in which they were served on the deposit-taker.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Child Support (Collection and Enforcement) Regulations 1992 (S.I. 1992/1989) (“the Collection and Enforcement Regulations”) inserting a new Part 3A into those Regulations. Part 3A provides for regular deduction orders under section 32A of the Child Support Act 1991 (c. 48) (“the Act”) and lump sum deduction orders under sections 32E and 32F of that Act which were inserted into that Act by sections 22 and 23 of the Child Maintenance and Other Payments Act 2008 (c. 6) (“the 2008 Act”).

These Regulations have effect in cases to which the Act applies prior to the amendments made to that Act by the Child Support, Pensions and Social Security Act 2000 (c. 19) (“the 2000 Act”), some of which amendments are not fully in force, and relate to the child support scheme which was in force prior to 3rd March 2003 and which remains in force for the purposes of certain cases (a “1993 scheme case”). The regulations also have effect in cases to which the Act as amended by the 2000 Act, which relate to the child support scheme provided for by those amendments, which came into force for the purposes of specified categories of cases on 3rd March 2003 (see the Child Support, Pensions and Social Security Act 2000 (Commencement No. 12) Order 2003) (a “2003 scheme case”).

These Regulations are made in respect of functions of the Child Maintenance and Enforcement Commission (“the Commission”). Section 13 of the 2008 Act transfers functions from the Secretary of State to the Commission and that section was brought into force by the Child Maintenance and Other Payments Act 2008 (Commencement No. 4 and Transitional Provision) Order 2008 on 1st November 2008.

These Regulations make provision for regular deduction orders and lump sum deduction orders, by inserting regulations 25A to 25AD into the Collection and Enforcement Regulations.

Regulation 25A sets out definitions and makes provision for: the service of orders and the sending of notifications, evidence and the application of these Regulations to a 1993 scheme case and a 2003 scheme case.

Regulation 25B provides the additional matters which must be specified in a regular deduction order.

Regulation 25C provides the maximum deduction rate under a regular deduction order.

Regulation 25D specifies the minimum amount which may be deducted under a regular deduction order.

Regulation 25E makes provision for the matters which have to be notified by a deposit-taker to the Commission giving the time limits within which the deposit-taker is required to comply. The information which is required to be notified includes whether the account specified in the order does not exist, whether the account contains less than the minimum amount and where requested information relating to other accounts held by the liable person with the deposit-taker.

Regulation 25F provides that the Commission must notify the deposit-taker where a regular deduction order is varied, lapsed, revived or ceases to have effect.

Regulation 25G makes provision for the circumstances in which a regular deduction order may be reviewed and where it is reviewed the decision which may result from that review.

Regulation 25H makes provision for the priority of orders. This regulation makes separate provision for Scotland.

Regulations 25I to 25K provide for the circumstances in which a regular deduction order may be varied, is to lapse or may be revived. An order may be varied in circumstances which may lead to a change in the amount to be deducted under the order. The Commission may also vary the deduction period. An order is to lapse either where the Commission has agreed an alternative method of payment or where there is an insufficient amount standing to the credit of the account specified in the regular deduction order on a specified number of deduction dates. An order may be revived where the liable person has failed to comply with the alternative method of payment agreed by the Commission or it has reason to believe that there is a sufficient amount standing to the credit of the account specified in the order to make a regular deduction.

Regulation 25L makes provision setting out the circumstances in which the Commission must discharge a regular deduction order, which includes where the account specified in the order has been closed, the amount due under the maintenance calculation has been paid and no further payment is due and the amount to be deducted has been extinguished on review. It also includes provision for a lapsed order to be discharged after the expiry of specified periods of time.

Regulation 25M makes provision for representations to be made in respect of the proposal specified in the interim lump sum deduction order made under section 32E(1) of the Act within 14 days for the deposit-taker and 16 days for the liable person from the date a copy of that order was served.

Regulation 25N provides the circumstances in which something that would otherwise be a breach of sections 32G(1) and 32H(2)(b) of the Act, with the consent of the Commission can be done. It sets out the matters which must be taken into account when the Commission is deciding whether to give consent. Further provision is made for the circumstances in which those sections are to be disapplied until the deposit-taker receives notification from the Commission.

Regulation 25O makes provision for the information which has to be provided by a deposit-taker to the Commission giving the time limits within which the deposit-taker is required to comply. The information which is required to be notified includes whether the account specified in the order does not exist, cannot be traced or has been closed and where requested, information relating to other accounts held by the liable person is required to be provided by the deposit-taker to the Commission in specified circumstances.

Regulation 25P makes provision for the priority of orders. This regulation makes separate provision for Scotland.

Regulation 25Q specifies the minimum amount which may be deducted under a lump sum deduction order.

Regulations 25R to 25T provide for the circumstances in which a lump sum deduction order may be varied, is to lapse or may be revived. An order may be varied in circumstances which lead to a reduction in the amount to be deducted under the order. An order is to lapse either where the amount in the account specified in the order is nil, the amount in the account specified in the order is reduced to nil where the Commission has consented to the disapplication of sections 32G(1) and 32H(2)(b) of the Act or the Commission has agreed an alternative method of payment. The circumstances in which an order may be revived include where an amount has been paid into the account specified in the order, or where the liable person has failed to comply with the alternative method of payment agreed by the Commission.

Regulation 25U makes provision setting out the circumstances in which the Commission must discharge a lump sum deduction order, including where the account specified in the order has been closed, the amount of arrears specified in the order has been paid in the required manner and the Commission has decided not to make an order under section 32F of the Act having considered representations.

Regulation 25V prescribes the time at which an order made under section 32E of the Act ceases to be in force.

Regulation 25W prescribes the circumstances which arise for the purposes of the meaning of “the relevant time” as defined in section 32H(6) of the Act (the time at which a lump sum deduction order will cease to operate).

Regulations 25X and 25Y prescribe accounts in respect of which a regular or lump sum deduction order may not be made and the circumstances in which amounts standing to the credit of an account are to be disregarded, respectively.

Regulation 25Z specifies the amount which a deposit-taker may deduct towards its administrative costs before making any payment to the Commission.

Regulation 25AA specifies the time at which and the method by which payment is to be made by the deposit-taker to the Commission.

Regulation 25AB makes provision for appeals against the making of a regular deduction order, any decision on the review of a regular deduction order, the withholding of consent to the disapplication of sections 32G(1) and 32H(2)(b) of the Act by the Commission and the making of an order under section 32F of the Act.

Regulation 25AC designates regulations 25E(1) to (5), 25I(4), 25O(1) to (5), 25R(3) and 25AA(1) for the purposes of sections 32D(1)(b) and 32K(1)(b) of the Act. Failure to comply with the requirements of those regulations is an offence in accordance with those sections of the Act.

Regulation 25AD provides that the Commission must set out the consequences of a failure to comply with a regular or lump sum deduction order or a requirement to provide information in accordance with regulation 25E or 25O including details of the offences provided for by sections 32D and 32K of the Act.

An assessment of the impact of these Regulations on the private and voluntary sectors has been made.
