2014 No.

The Marriage of Same Sex Couples (Conversion of Civil Partnership) Regulations 2014

Correction of errors

21. If—

- (a) one of the parties or a superintendent registrar discovers any error in an entry in the conversion register which is complete, they must report it to the Registrar General giving such information as the Registrar General may require;
- (b) the Registrar General receives from one of the parties or from a superintendent registrar satisfactory evidence relating to an error caused by the superintendent registrar when the information was recorded in the conversion register, the Registrar General may correct it, or may authorise the superintendent registrar to correct it, but the corrected entry is only to show the information as corrected;
- (c) the Registrar General receives from a party or from a superintendent registrar satisfactory evidence relating to an error caused by a party when providing information to the superintendent registrar, the Registrar General may correct it, or may authorise the superintendent registrar to correct it, by making a marginal note to show the correct information, but the original entry must remain unchanged after that correction.
