

This Statutory Instrument supersedes the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (Disapplication of Section 85(1), Fines Expressed as Proportions and Consequential Amendments) Regulations 2014 laid on the 9th June 2014 and subsequently withdrawn and is being issued free of charge to all known recipients of that Statutory Instrument.

Draft Regulations laid before Parliament under sections 85(13) and 149(5) of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012, for approval by resolution of each House of Parliament.

DRAFT STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2015 No.

CRIMINAL LAW, ENGLAND AND WALES

The Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (Fines on Summary Conviction) Regulations 2015

Made - - - - *****

Coming into force in accordance with regulation 1(1)

A draft of these Regulations has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament in accordance with sections 85(13) and 149(5) of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012(1).

The Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 85(5) to (8), (10) and (11) and 149(1) and (2) of that Act, makes the following Regulations.

Citation, commencement, extent and interpretation

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (Fines on Summary Conviction) Regulations 2015 and come into force on the day after the day on which they are made.

(2) These Regulations extend to England and Wales only.

(3) In these Regulations, “the 2012 Act” means the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012.

Disapplication of section 85(1) of the 2012 Act and alternative provision

2.—(1) Section 85(1) of the 2012 Act does not apply in relation to the offences specified in Schedule 1.

(2) Schedule 2 contains amendments to make provision for those offences to be punishable on summary conviction by a fine or maximum fine of an amount specified or described.

Fines or maximum fines expressed as proportions

3.—(1) Part 1 of Schedule 3 contains amendments to provide for certain offences punishable on summary conviction by a fine or maximum fine expressed as a proportion of £5,000 or more (however that amount is expressed) to be punishable on summary conviction by a fine or maximum fine of that proportion of an amount specified or described.

(2) Part 2 of Schedule 3 contains amendments to provide for powers which can be exercised to create an offence punishable on summary conviction by a fine or maximum fine expressed as a proportion of £5,000 or more (however that amount is expressed) to be exercisable to create an offence punishable on summary conviction by a fine or maximum fine of that proportion of an amount specified or described.

Consequential amendments

4.—(1) Part 1 of Schedule 4 contains amendments (consequential on section 85(1) of the 2012 Act) to legislation which expresses the fine or maximum fine for an offence punishable on summary conviction as a numerical amount of £5,000 or more.

(2) Part 2 of Schedule 4 contains amendments (consequential on section 85(2) of the 2012 Act) to legislation which confers power to create offences punishable on summary conviction and expresses the fine or maximum fine which may be imposed for an offence so created as a numerical amount of £5,000 or more.

(3) Part 3 of Schedule 4 contains amendments which are consequential on the provision made by Parts 1 and 2 of that Schedule.

(4) Schedule 5 contains other amendments consequential on section 85 of the 2012 Act.

Transitional and saving provision

5.—(1) These Regulations do not affect—

- (a) fines for offences committed before these Regulations come into force,
- (b) the operation of restrictions on fines that may be imposed on a person aged under 18, or
- (c) fines that may be imposed on a person convicted by a magistrates' court who is to be sentenced as if convicted on indictment.

(2) An amendment made by Part 2 of Schedule 3 or Part 2 of Schedule 4 does not authorise the alteration of a fine or maximum fine that applies in respect of an offence that is, immediately before these Regulations come into force, contained in an instrument made under the legislation amended (whether or not the instrument is in force).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision in relation to fines and maximum fines which may be imposed on summary conviction, for the purpose of implementing section 85 of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (“the Act”). Section 85(1) of the Act, which is commenced alongside these Regulations, provides that a relevant offence which is, on the commencement day, punishable on summary conviction by a fine or maximum fine of £5,000 or more (however expressed) becomes punishable on summary conviction by a fine of any amount. An offence is relevant if, immediately before the commencement of section 85(1), it is a common law offence or it is contained in an Act or an instrument made under an Act (whether or not the offence is in force at that time).

These Regulations only apply to England and Wales and nothing in these Regulations affect a fine imposed on conviction in Scotland and Northern Ireland.

Regulation 2(1) provides that section 85(1) of the Act does not apply in relation to the offences specified in Schedule 1; and regulation 2(2) introduces Schedule 2, which makes provision for the offences in Schedule 1 to be punishable on summary conviction by a fine or maximum fine of an amount specified or described in the amendments.

Regulation 3 makes provision pursuant to section 85(8) of the Act, to ensure that provisions for maximum fines which are expressed as proportions of an amount of £5,000 or more (however expressed) continue to work. Regulation 3 introduces Schedule 3, which makes amendments to provide for certain offences punishable on summary conviction by a fine or maximum fine expressed as a proportion of £5,000 or more (however expressed) to be instead punishable on summary conviction by a fine or maximum fine expressed as a proportion of the amount specified or described in the amendments.

Regulation 4 introduces Schedules 4 and 5, which make amendments consequential on section 85 of the Act. Schedule 4 contains amendments to legislation which makes provision for offences to be punishable on summary conviction by a fine or maximum fine expressed as a numerical amount of £5000 or more. In order to assist users of legislation, the Schedule amends the text of the legislation to reflect the provision made by section 85(1) and (2) by changing the references to fines of a numerical amount to references to “a fine”.

Schedule 5 contains amendments which (among other things) make alternative provision for non-criminal penalties which are calculated by reference to the maximum penalty on summary conviction in circumstances where that maximum penalty no longer applies (by virtue of section 85(1) or (2) of the Act).

Draft Legislation: This is a draft item of legislation. This draft has since been made as a UK Statutory Instrument: The Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (Fines on Summary Conviction) Regulations 2015 No. 664

Regulation 5 sets out restrictions on the effect of the amendments in these Regulations and reflects the limitations mentioned in section 85(9) of the Act.

A full regulatory impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no impact on the private or voluntary sectors is foreseen.
