

Middle Level Act 2018

2018 CHAPTER ii

PART 1

INTRODUCTORY

1 Citation and commencement

This Act may be cited as the Middle Level Act 2018, and comes into force at the end of 28 days beginning with the day on which it is passed.

2 Interpretation

In this Act—

“the 1810 Act” means an Act of the fiftieth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, entitled “An Act for improving the Drainage of certain Lands within the North and South-west Parts of the Middle Level, Part of the Great Level of the Fens commonly called Bedford Level”;

“authorised officer” means any person authorised in writing by the Commissioners under section 17 to carry out the functions of the Commissioners in respect of navigation under the provisions of the navigation Acts;

“the Commissioners” means the Middle Level Commissioners constituted under the Middle Level Acts;

“master” means the person taking or having for the time being (whether lawfully or not) the command, charge or management of a vessel;

“the Middle Level” means the fen lands and low grounds subject to be taxed by virtue of the 1810 Act;

“the Middle Level Acts” means—

the 1810 Act;

an Act of the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled “An Act for improving the Drainage and Navigation of the Middle Level of the Fens”;

---

the Middle Level Drainage Amendment Act 1848;
the Middle Level Act 1862;
the Middle Level Act 1867; and
the Middle Level Act 1874;

“the navigation Acts” means the Middle Level Acts, the Nene Navigation Act 1753, the Wisbech Canal Act 1794, and this Act;

“navigation byelaws” means byelaws made under section 51 of the Middle Level Act 1874 (power to make byelaws for navigation) or under section 11 (byelaws) of this Act;

“the Nene Navigation Act” means the Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, entitled “An Act for improving and preserving the Navigation from Salter’s Load Sluice in the County of Norfolk, to Standground Sluice in the County of Huntingdon; and from Flood’s Ferry in the Isle of Ely in the County of Cambridge, to Ramsey High Load in the said County of Huntingdon; and also the Navigation from Old Bedford Sluice in the said County of Norfolk to the River Nene, in the Parish of Ramsey, in the said County of Huntingdon”;

“owner” includes—

- (a) in relation to any vessel, the master or hirer of that vessel; and
- (b) in relation to any building or structure—
  - (i) the tenant;
  - (ii) occupier; or
  - (iii) any person for the time being who, whether in that person’s own right or as agent or trustee for any other person, is entitled to receive the rack rent of the land, or who would be so entitled if the land were so let;

“personal water craft” means any water craft (not being a structure which, by reason of its concave shape, provides buoyancy for the carriage of persons or goods) propelled by a jet drive or other mechanical means of propulsion and steered either—

- (a) by means of a handlebar operated linkage system (with or without a rudder at the stern);
- (b) by movement of the body weight of the person or persons riding the craft; or
- (c) by a combination of those methods;

“polluting matter” means sewage or any other offensive or injurious matter, whether solid or liquid;

“power-driven vessel” means any vessel propelled by machinery, including any vessel propelled by a detachable outboard engine, but does not include any vessel for the time being proceeding solely by or under sail, oar or paddle;

“small unpowered pleasure vessel” means any unpowered vessel having a block area of less than 6 square metres which is not for the time being in use for commercial purposes;

“use” in relation to any vessel on a waterway, includes launching the vessel onto the waterway, keeping or mooring it on the waterway, navigating it on the waterway, and letting it for hire on the waterway;

“vehicle” includes every description of vehicle, apparatus, machinery or equipment capable of being used as a means of transportation on land;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

“vessel” includes every description of craft, including a personal water craft, with or without means of propulsion of any kind, used or capable of being used to carry persons, goods, plant or machinery, or of being propelled or moved, on, in, or by water;

“water control structure” means any structure or appliance for introducing water into or removing water from a waterway or for controlling, regulating or affecting the level of the water or the flow of water in, into or out of a waterway and any aqueduct;

“the waterways” means the waterways in respect of which the Commissioners are the navigation authority under the navigation Acts, including—

- (a) so much of the waterways set out in column 1 of the table in Schedule 1 as lie between the points set out in column 2 of that table and the points set out in column 3 of that table;
- (b) all water control structures in, on, or on the banks of, those waterways; and
- (c) any watercourse in the Middle Level, or any lake, pit, pond, marina or other substantially enclosed water, adjacent to those waterways and from which any vessel may be navigated (whether or not through a lock or other similar work) into the waterways other than—
  - (i) any waters which are used, for mooring or navigation, only by the owner of the land upon which those waters are situated; and
  - (ii) any waters which are used, for mooring or navigation, only by an occupier of an adjoining residential building; and

“the Wisbech Canal Act” means the Act of Parliament passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, entitled “An Act for making and maintaining a Navigable Canal from Wisbech River, at or near a Place called the Old Sluice, in the Town of Wisbech in the Isle of Ely and County of Cambridge, to join the River Nene in the Parish of Outwell, in the said Isle of Ely, and in the County of Norfolk, and for improving and maintaining the Navigation of the said River from Outwell Church to Salters Load Sluice”.

REGULATION OF NAVIGATION

3 Navigation Advisory Committee

- (1) The Commissioners must establish a body, to be known as the Navigation Advisory Committee (in this section referred to as “the Committee”), to advise the Commissioners on the exercise of their functions in respect of navigation under the navigation Acts.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the Committee is to consist of persons appointed by the Commissioners who appear to the Commissioners to be (taken together) representative of—
  - (a) recreational motor-boating interests in the waterways;
  - (b) the interests of individuals who use vessels on the waterways as their sole residence (including individuals who do not own or have access to a permanent mooring);

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

---

- (c) other navigation interests in the waterways;
  - (d) other recreational users of the waterways and their banks;
  - (e) riparian owners in the Middle Level; and
  - (f) other local interests in the Middle Level.
- (3) When appointing a person to the Committee, the Commissioners must make a statement of their reasons for appointing that person.
- (4) No person appointed to the Committee may take part in the proceedings of the Committee unless that person has disclosed to the clerk of the Commissioners details of every financial or other direct or indirect interest in any matter with which the Commissioners are concerned.
- (5) A person who fails to make that disclosure within three months of being appointed ceases to be a member of the Committee.
- (6) The Commissioners must, except in a case of urgency where it is not reasonably practicable to do so, consult the Committee on—
- (a) proposals to provide facilities or services in respect of the waterways and their banks;
  - (b) proposals to impose or vary charges or fees relating to the waterways or their banks;
  - (c) proposals to make navigation byelaws; and
  - (d) proposals for a protocol for the removal of vessels under section 16.
- (7) In consulting the Committee pursuant to subsection (6) the Commissioners must allow a reasonable time (not being less than 28 days) for the Committee to meet and report back to them.
- (8) If the Committee reports back to the Commissioners within the time allowed in response to consultation under subsection (6), the Commissioners must—
- (a) adjust the proposals in accordance with the report; or
  - (b) give the Committee reasons in writing for their refusal to do so.
- (9) If the Committee's report relates to proposals under subsection (6)(a), (b) or (d) and the Committee reasonably considers that the Commissioners' reasons do not justify their refusal to amend the proposals, the Committee may refer the matter—
- (a) to mediation, or
  - (b) with the agreement of the Commissioners, to determination by a person acting as an expert.
- (10) If the matter is referred to mediation—
- (a) the mediator is to be appointed by the agreement of the Commissioners and the Committee or, failing agreement, by the President of the Institute of Civil Engineers;
  - (b) the mediator is to decide the procedure for the mediation; and
  - (c) within seven days of the conclusion of the mediation, the mediator is to provide to the Commissioners and the Committee a report describing the outcome of the mediation.
- (11) If the matter is referred to determination by a person acting as an expert—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

---

- (a) the person is to be appointed by the agreement of the Commissioners and the Committee or, failing agreement, by the President of the Institute of Civil Engineers;
  - (b) the person is to determine the matter acting as an expert, having regard to the Commissioners' duties under the navigation Acts and such other matters as may be agreed by the Commissioners and the Committee;
  - (c) the person is to decide the procedure for determining the matter;
  - (d) the person is to determine the matter and notify the Commissioners and Committee of the determination as soon as reasonably practicable after hearing the representations of the Commissioners and the Committee on the matter; and
  - (e) if the person determines that the Commissioners' proposals should be adjusted, the proposals are deemed to have been adjusted in accordance with the determination.
- (12) The Committee may at any time make representations or recommendations in relation to, or refer to the Commissioners, any matter affecting the navigation or use of the waterways and their banks.
- (13) The Commissioners must take into consideration any matter, recommendation or representation which may from time to time be referred or made to them by the Committee.

4 Continuity of navigation functions

- (1) The Commissioners are to continue to exercise the functions in relation to navigation conferred by the navigation Acts.
- (2) The Commissioners are to exercise their functions in relation to navigation in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

5 Charges

- (1) The Commissioners may fix and recover reasonable charges for—
  - (a) the use of any waterway by any vessel;
  - (b) the provision of services and facilities in respect of the waterways and their banks; and
  - (c) the registration of any vessel under navigation byelaws.
- (2) In exercising the power under subsection (1) the Commissioners must aim to secure that, taking one financial year with another, the income from charges under that subsection does not exceed the annualised costs incurred by the Commissioners in exercising their functions in respect of navigation under the navigation Acts.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not require the Commissioners to aim to secure that the income from charges under subsection (1) meets those costs.
- (4) The Commissioners may revise, waive or remove any charge fixed under subsection (1), and different charges may be fixed for different cases or classes of case.
- (5) The Commissioners may make the use of the services and facilities referred in subsection (1)(b) subject to such terms and conditions as the Commissioners may specify in writing.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

---

- (6) Within 28 days of fixing or revising charges under this section, the Commissioners must publish notice of—
- (a) the amounts of the charges;
  - (b) the date on which they were fixed or revised; and
  - (c) the period in respect of which they are in force (which may not commence before the date of publication).
- (7) The notice required by subsection (6) must be—
- (a) displayed at one or more convenient places on or adjacent to the waterway;
  - (b) made available by the Commissioners free of charge on request; and
  - (c) published in some other way.
- (8) No charge shall be payable in respect of the use of a waterway by a vessel belonging to or employed in the service of any public authority or body for the purpose of the exercise of any functions conferred upon that authority or body by statute.
- (9) No charge is to be payable for the use of a waterway by a small unpowered pleasure vessel except with the agreement of the Navigation Advisory Committee, or in accordance with the determination of a person appointed to act as an expert under section 3(11).

6 Arrangements with other authorities

- (1) The Commissioners may enter into arrangements with any other authority which is authorised to require registration of vessels navigating any waterway under the jurisdiction of that authority for the purpose of co-ordinating—
- (a) the exercise of the functions conferred under this Act and under any navigation byelaws regarding the registration of vessels or the collection of charges; and
  - (b) the exercise by that authority of any functions conferred on them regarding the registration of vessels or the collection of charges in respect of vessels of the same or a similar class or description.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing any such arrangements may provide—
- (a) for treating registration certificates issued by one of the parties to the arrangements as registration certificates issued by the other and a vessel registered by one of the parties to the arrangements as registered by the other;
  - (b) for treating distinguishing marks or numbers assigned to a vessel registered by one party to the arrangements as having been assigned to that vessel by the other; and
  - (c) for apportioning any charges between the parties to the arrangements.

7 Temporary closure of waterways

- (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 8 the Commissioners may temporarily prohibit, restrict or regulate the use of a waterway for any of the following purposes—
- (a) the construction, improvement, maintenance or alteration of any waterway or water control structure or other work in, on, under, over or adjoining the waterway;
  - (b) subject to subsection (2), to facilitate the holding of functions in connection with the use of the waterway as a place of recreation and for leisure pursuits;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (c) subject to subsection (3), in the case of the waterway known as Well Creek, for the purposes of allowing ice to form and remain for the purposes of facilitating ice skating on any part of that waterway.
- (2) The Commissioners may not prohibit, restrict or regulate the use of a waterway under subsection (1)(b) for more than one half-hour in any period of one hour or for more than eight periods each of one half-hour in any period of twenty-four hours.
- (3) The Commissioners may only prohibit the use of Well Creek under subsection (1)(c) in the periods—
  - (a) starting on 1 December and finishing on 24 December;
  - (b) starting on 25 December and finishing on 1 January, but only if ice which, in the Commissioners’ opinion, is of sufficient thickness to allow ice skating to take place, has already formed on the waterway; and
  - (c) starting on 2 January and finishing on 1 March.
- (4) Before exercising their powers under subsection (1) the Commissioners must, except in an emergency, publish a notice in one or more local newspapers circulating in the Middle Level.
- (5) The notice must—
  - (a) be published not less than 28 days (or, in the case of subsection (1)(c), 7 days) before the powers are to be exercised; and
  - (b) state the extent to which, the period during which, and the purpose for which, the use of the waterway is to be prohibited, restricted or regulated.
- (6) A copy of the notice must be conspicuously displayed—
  - (a) in one or more places on or adjacent to the waterway to which it relates; and
  - (b) in such other place or places as the Commissioners consider appropriate for bringing its contents to the notice of persons using the waterway.

8 Closure of locks

- (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 7 the Commissioners may direct that Stanground Lock, Salters Lode Lock, or both of them may be closed to navigation—
  - (a) on Christmas Day;
  - (b) between sunset and sunrise; or
  - (c) on any one day each week (not being a Saturday or a Sunday and not including Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Monday) between 1 October in one year and 31 March in the following year, as the Commissioners may determine.
- (2) Without prejudice to the effect of section 67 of the Middle Level Act 1874 (penalty for unlawful passing through a sluice), a person who uses, interferes with, opens or closes any lock or its mechanism when the lock is closed to navigation under subsection (1) commits an offence, and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

9 Repairs to buildings

- (1) This section applies where any building or structure in, on, under or over a waterway or its banks is, because of its state of disrepair, causing or in imminent danger of causing an obstruction to the passage of vessels on that waterway.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (2) Where this section applies, the Commissioners may serve notice on the owner of the building or structure requiring the owner to carry out such reasonable and practicable works as are specified in the notice for the purpose of remedying or preventing the obstruction within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), if the owner does not carry out the works specified in the notice, the Commissioners may proceed to carry out those works and recover the expenses reasonably incurred in so doing from the owner as a civil debt.
- (4) Any person on whom notice is served under subsection (2) may within 14 days serve on the Commissioners a counter notice objecting to the necessity for such works.
- (5) Where a counter-notice is served under subsection (4)—
  - (a) the operation of the notice is suspended until—
    - (i) agreement has been reached as to the necessity of the works; or
    - (ii) the dispute has been determined in accordance with paragraph (b);and
  - (b) if that person and the Commissioners cannot reach agreement the dispute is to be referred to the arbitration of a single arbitrator to be appointed in default of agreement by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers on the application of either party.

10 Stranded, grounded and sunken vessels and vehicles

- (1) Whenever any vessel or vehicle is sunk in any waterway—
  - (a) the owner of the vessel or vehicle must as soon as may be—
    - (i) raise and remove it; and
    - (ii) remove any obstructions caused by the sinking and raising of the vessel or vehicle; and
  - (b) if the owner of the vessel or vehicle fails to comply with paragraph (a), the Commissioners may raise and remove the vessel or vehicle, and any such obstructions.
- (2) Whenever any vessel is stranded or abandoned in any waterway the Commissioners may after serving not less than 14 days' notice on the owner of the vessel, unless it is not practicable after reasonable inquiry to ascertain the name and address of the owner, raise and remove the vessel.
- (3) Whenever any vessel is, without lawful authority, left or moored in any waterway the Commissioners may after serving not less than 28 days' notice on the owner of the vessel, unless it is not practicable after reasonable inquiry to ascertain the name and address of the owner, raise and remove the vessel.
- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not require notice to be served in the case of emergency.
- (5) The Commissioners may recover from the owner of any vessel or vehicle to which subsection (1), (2) or (3) applies all expenses reasonably incurred by the Commissioners in respect of the raising, removal and storage of the vessel or vehicle or in raising, removing or storing any furniture, tackle and apparel from such vessel or vehicle or any goods, chattels and effects raised or removed from the vessel or vehicle, or in removing any obstructions.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (6) If any vessel or vehicle to which subsection (1), (2) or (3) applies is not within six weeks of its removal by the Commissioners proved to the reasonable satisfaction of the Commissioners to belong to any claimant, the vessel or vehicle (together with any furniture, tackle, apparel, goods, chattels and effects) shall vest in the Commissioners.
- (7) If within six months of its removal, a claim is made to the vessel or vehicle by a person who subsequently proves to the reasonable satisfaction of the Commissioners that he is the owner of such vessel or vehicle, then the Commissioners must—
- (a) if the vessel or vehicle is unsold, permit the owner to retake it together with any furniture, tackle, apparel, goods, chattels and effects belonging to such vessel or vehicle upon payment of the expenses referred to in subsection (5); or
  - (b) if the vessel or vehicle and such furniture, tackle, apparel, goods, chattels and effects have been sold, pay to such owner the amount of the proceeds of such sale after deducting those expenses, and where the proceeds are insufficient to reimburse the Commissioners those expenses, the deficiency may be recovered by the Commissioners from that person.
- (8) For the purposes of this section—
- “owner” means—
    - (a) in relation to any vessel or vehicle aground, sunk, stranded, abandoned, left or moored as described in subsection (1), (2) or (3), the owner of the vessel or vehicle at the time of its grounding, sinking, stranding, abandonment, leaving or mooring; and
    - (b) in relation to a vessel any person registered or deemed to be registered with the Commissioners as the owner of the vessel under the provisions of section 6 or of any navigation byelaws is to be conclusively deemed to be the owner of such vessel;
  - “vehicle” includes any part of a vehicle; and
  - “vessel” includes any part of a vessel.
- (9) For the purposes of this section, a vessel is left or moored without lawful authority if—
- (a) navigation byelaws are in force requiring the vessel to be registered, and it is unregistered;
  - (b) the position or mooring of the vessel constitutes a trespass; or
  - (c) the vessel obstructs navigation in the waterways.
- (10) This section does not limit the Commissioners’ ability at any time to move without notice a vessel if it is causing obstruction or is a source of danger, pursuant to any byelaws made under section 11 or under section 51 of the Middle Level Act 1874.

11 Byelaws

- (1) Without prejudice to section 51 of the Middle Level Act 1874 (power to make byelaws for navigation), but subject to the provisions of this section, the Commissioners may make byelaws in relation to the waterways and their banks for maintaining and improving those waterways and banks, for the purposes of recreation and leisure pursuits, for controlling the navigation of those waterways and regulating the conduct and activities of persons using those waterways or banks.
- (2) In particular, but without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Commissioners may make byelaws for the purposes of—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (a) regulating the use of the waterways by vessels, and the use of the banks of the waterways and any works, water control structures, facilities or services in or adjoining the waterways, including rules prescribing which class of vessels may enter which waterways;
  - (b) prescribing rules for navigation on the waterways, including rules regulating the speed of vessels and rules prescribing a minimum age for persons to be in control of or navigating a power-driven vessel;
  - (c) regulating the placing, maintenance and use of moorings in the waterways;
  - (d) prescribing standards for the construction, equipment and condition of vessels or categories of vessels using the waterways, including in particular standards for any engines, appliances (including sanitary appliances), fittings or equipment in such vessels, and authorising the Commissioners to inspect vessels to confirm compliance with those standards;
  - (e) prescribing additional standards to be met by commercial vessels or categories of commercial vessels;
  - (f) requiring vessels or categories of vessels not to be used on the waterways unless there is in force in relation to the vessel a policy of insurance complying with the requirements of Schedule 2;
  - (g) requiring notification to be given to the Commissioners of serious incidents involving vessels on a waterway, and—
    - (i) that any vessel involved in such an incident be made open for inspection by the Commissioners; and
    - (ii) where an incident involves a vessel slipping, parting from or losing any anchor, cable, propeller or other object, requiring the master to recover that anchor, cable, propeller or object, or providing for the Commissioners to do so, and to recover their expenses of so doing from the owner of the vessel as a civil debt;
  - (h) requiring vessels navigating the waterways at night or in restricted visibility to show lights;
  - (i) regulating the loading or unloading of vessels on the waterways;
  - (j) prohibiting or regulating the discharge from vessels into the waterways of any poisonous, noxious or polluting substances;
  - (k) prescribing the person to be deemed to be in charge of a vessel on a waterway, and providing for that person to be responsible for ensuring that the conduct of all other persons on board the vessel complies with the byelaws;
  - (l) regulating the erection of structures or the installation of works, apparatus, plant or equipment in, on, over, through, under or across a waterway or its banks;
  - (m) preventing obstructions to navigation in a waterway, requiring the cutting, pruning, lopping or topping of any tree, bush, shrub or other projection that obstructs navigation in a waterway, and providing for the Commissioners to cut, prune, lop or top any such tree, bush, shrub or other projection and recover the costs of doing so from the owner of the tree, bush, shrub or projection concerned; and
  - (n) preventing unauthorised entry onto water control structures.
- (3) Different byelaws may be made under this section in relation to different waterways and to different classes of vessels using any such waterway and any byelaws made under this section may come into force on such different dates as the Commissioners may determine.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (4) A byelaw made by the Commissioners in exercise of the power conferred upon them by this section shall be made under the common seal of the Commissioners and may revoke or vary a byelaw made by them either pursuant to section 51 of the Middle Level Act 1874 or in the exercise of that power.
- (5) No byelaw made under the provisions of this section shall render unlawful the doing on private land outside a waterway or its banks of any act by, or with the lawful authority of, the owner or occupier of that land which does not obstruct the use of a waterway, or injure or endanger any person lawfully using a waterway or its banks or enjoying its amenities.
- (6) Byelaws made under this section may make it an offence for any person to contravene, or fail to comply with, the provisions of the byelaws, and for such person to be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.
- (7) In any proceedings for such an offence it shall be a defence for the person charged to prove—
  - (a) that the person took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of the offence; or
  - (b) that the person had a reasonable excuse for the action or failure to act.
- (8) In this section “private land” means any land other than land to which the public has access (whether as of right or by express or implied permission).
- (9) Byelaws made by the Commissioners under this section, section 12, or under section 51 of the Middle Level Act 1874, do not have effect until they are confirmed by the Secretary of State, and section 236 of the Local Government Act 1972 (procedure for byelaws) applies to their confirmation, as if the Commissioners were a local authority.

PART 3

REGISTRATION

12 Requirement for registration

- (1) Without prejudice to section 11, byelaws under that section may also make provision for the purpose of providing for the registration of vessels on the waterways.
- (2) Where such byelaws are in force, the Commissioners must set up and maintain the register of vessels.
- (3) The byelaws may in particular—
  - (a) provide for the registration of vessels under different categories;
  - (b) authorise the Commissioners to impose a charge for registration of the vessel, and different charges may be imposed for different categories of vessel;
  - (c) make provision as to the display on registered vessels of registration plates, documents or numbers;
  - (d) provide for the exemption of prescribed vessels or categories of small unpowered pleasure vessels or other vessels from the requirement to register;
  - (e) prescribe the period for which any registration is to be effective;
  - (f) determine the procedure to be followed in registering;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

---

- (g) require a vessel to be constructed and equipped in accordance with specified standards;
  - (h) require the applicant to submit with an application, evidence of—
    - (i) the particulars set out in Schedule 3; and
    - (ii) such other information as the Commissioners may require; and
  - (i) authorise the Commissioners to impose conditions on the registration, including conditions—
    - (i) requiring a policy of insurance that complies with Schedule 2 to be in force;
    - (ii) limiting the use of the vessel on the waterways to specified categories;
    - (iii) requiring any change in ownership of the vessel to be notified to the Commissioners;
    - (iv) providing for the owner of the vessel to be deemed to remain the owner of the vessel for the purposes of enforcing any obligations that apply by virtue of the registration until that notification has been received; and
    - (v) requiring any registration certificate or plate issued by the Commissioners to be surrendered at the end of the registration period.
- (4) The Commissioners may require the applicant to pay a reasonable application fee for the processing of an application, and different fees may be prescribed for different cases or classes of case.
- (5) Where any person tenders the appropriate fee for registering a vessel under the byelaws, the Commissioners must register the vessel in accordance with the byelaws, unless—
- (a) they are not satisfied at the time when they determine the application that any requirement imposed by or under the byelaws has been met; or
  - (b) the Commissioners have previously revoked the registration of the vessel under subsection (6) or (7).
- (6) Following receipt of any representation concerning a vessel (including any representation from an officer of the Commissioners), the Commissioners may refuse to register the vessel and they may revoke an existing registration of a vessel if, in their reasonable opinion and having regard to the representation, it is in the interest of safety.
- (7) The Commissioners may revoke the registration of a vessel if it appears to them that—
- (a) the basis upon which the vessel was registered was or has become incorrect in any material respect; or
  - (b) any requirements imposed in respect of the vessel under the byelaws have not been complied with.
- (8) The Commissioners must give notice to the owner, and, if different, the person who applied for registration, of a vessel of any refusal or revocation of registration in relation to it and in doing so must give their reasons.
- (9) Before refusing or revoking a registration under subsection (5), (6) or (7) the Commissioners must provide the owner of the vessel with an opportunity to make oral or written representations.
- (10) Subject to subsection (11), an owner or another person with the owner's consent may complain to a magistrates' court under Part 2 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(civil jurisdiction and procedure) against the refusal or revocation of a registration under subsection (5), (6) or (7) and, if the court decides that such refusal or revocation is unreasonable, the Commissioners must register the vessel without delay.

- (11) The imposition of any requirement for insurance under the byelaws, or any question concerning the imposition of a standard or specification for a vessel under the byelaws, may not be the subject of complaint under subsection (10).

13 Provision of information

- (1) This section applies to information which is held by or on behalf of the Commissioners for the purposes of this Act (including information obtained by or on behalf of the Commissioners before the coming into force of this Act).
- (2) Information may be supplied to a responsible authority for the purposes of facilitating the exercise of the Commissioners' functions under the navigation Acts or any functions of that authority.
- (3) Information may be supplied to any person who can show to the satisfaction of the Commissioners reasonable cause for wanting the particulars to be made available to that person.
- (4) Information obtained by virtue of this section must not be further disclosed except to a responsible authority for the purposes mentioned in subsections (2) and (3).
- (5) In this section, "responsible authority" means any of the following—
- (a) the chief officer of police for any police area in which the waterways are situated;
  - (b) the fire authority for any area in which the waterways are situated;
  - (c) the enforcing authority within the meaning given by section 18 of the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 (authorities responsible for the enforcement of the relevant statutory provisions) for any area in which the waterways are situated;
  - (d) the local planning authority within the meaning given by the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 for any area in which the waterways are situated;
  - (e) the local authority by which statutory functions are exercisable in any area in which the waterways are situated in relation to minimising or preventing the risk of pollution of the environment or of harm to human health;
  - (f) the Environment Agency; and
  - (g) in relation to a vessel—
    - (i) a navigation authority within the meaning of section 221(1) of the Water Resources Act 1991 (general interpretation); or
    - (ii) the Secretary of State.
- (6) In this section, "statutory function" means a function conferred by or under any enactment.

PART 4

MISCELLANEOUS

14 Commissioners' duties in relation to boat-dwellers

- (1) In the exercise of their functions under and by virtue of this Act (including the provision of facilities) the Commissioners must have regard to—
  - (a) the interests of individuals who use vessels as their sole residence (including individuals who do not own or have access to a permanent mooring); and
  - (b) the desirability of safeguarding and facilitating public rights of navigation.
- (2) In each calendar year the Commissioners must publish a report setting out what they have done in the previous calendar year to satisfy the duty under subsection (1).

15 Residential and recreational use of the waterways

- (1) In the exercise of their functions as navigation authority under the navigation Acts, the Commissioners may develop, improve, preserve and manage the waterways and their banks as places for the use of vessels as dwellings, recreation and leisure pursuits.
- (2) Subsection (1) includes, but is not limited to, the power to maintain and improve existing works, buildings and other facilities and construct, lay out, equip and maintain all such further works, buildings and facilities, provide all such facilities, equipment and services and provide or do all such other acts or things as the Commissioners may think necessary or expedient for that purpose.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsections (1) and (2) the Commissioners may place, lay down, maintain and use moorings in the waterways or on their banks, on land owned by or leased to the Commissioners or in which they have a sufficient interest and on any other land with the consent of the owner or lessee of such land.
- (4) The powers conferred upon the Commissioners by subsection (3) may be exercised notwithstanding interference with public rights of navigation.

16 Protocol on removal of vessels

- (1) The Commissioners must prepare, publish and maintain a protocol on the use of powers under or by virtue of this Act to remove vessels.
- (2) The protocol must, in particular—
  - (a) specify factors to be taken into account by the Commissioners when deciding how soon to take action after a minimum interval specified by or under this Act;
  - (b) specify action to be taken by the Commissioners to ensure that removal powers are exercised only as a last resort;
  - (c) include any other measures the Commissioners think appropriate to ensure that their removal powers are exercised with sensitivity;
  - (d) specify action to be taken to ensure that persons acting under section 17 are aware of, and comply with, the provisions of the protocol.

17 Authorised officers

The Commissioners may appoint persons (whether employees of the Commissioners or not) to act as authorised officers for the purpose of enforcing or securing compliance with the provisions of the navigation Acts and of any navigation byelaws.

18 Accounts and audit

- (1) The Commissioners must keep accounting records, to be known as the navigation account, that are sufficient to show and explain—
  - (a) income received from charges recovered under section 5 or otherwise relating to the Commissioners’ functions in respect of navigation under the navigation Acts; and
  - (b) costs incurred by the Commissioners in exercising their functions in respect of navigation under the navigation Acts.
- (2) Nothing contained in, or done under or by virtue of, the Middle Level Acts or the Local Audit and Accountability Act 2014 is to be taken to prevent the same person from being appointed—
  - (a) by the Commissioners to audit the navigation account for any financial year; and
  - (b) by the specified person to audit the general account for that financial year.
- (3) For the purposes of the application of Part 5 of the Local Audit and Accountability Act 2014 (conduct of local audit) to the navigation account, the definition of “local government elector” in section 44(1) of that Act has effect as if it included any person who is registered as the owner of a vessel that is registered for use in the waterways under the provision of any navigation byelaws.
- (4) In this section—

“general account” means the accounts the Commissioners are required by section 30 of the Middle Level Act 1844 to produce; and “specified person” means any person specified under regulations made under section 17 of the Local Audit and Accountability 2014 (appointment of auditor by specified person) to appoint a local auditor to audit the general account of the Commissioners.

19 Notices

- (1) A notice or other document required or authorised to be served for the purposes of the navigation Acts or of any navigation byelaws may be served by post.
- (2) A notice or other document to be served by the Commissioners may be served by the chief executive or any other duly authorised employee of the Commissioners.
- (3) Where the person on whom a notice or other document to be served is a body corporate, the notice or document is duly served if it is served on the secretary or clerk of that body.
- (4) For the purposes of section 7 of the Interpretation Act 1978 (references to service by post) as it applies for the purposes of this section, the proper address of any person in relation to the service on the person of a notice or document under subsection (1) is, if the person has given an address for service, that address, or otherwise—

- (a) in the case of service on a body corporate or its secretary or clerk, the registered or principal office of the body; and
  - (b) in any other case, that person's last known address at the time of service.
- (5) Where for the purposes of the navigation Acts or the navigation byelaws, any notice or document is required to be served on a person having any interest in, or the occupier of, any premises, or the owner of any vessel, and that person's name or address cannot after reasonable inquiry be ascertained, the notice or document may be served by—
- (a) addressing it to the person by name or by the description of "owner" or "occupier", as the case may be, of the land or vessel (describing it); and
  - (b) either leaving it in the hands of a person who is or appears to be resident or employed on that land or vessel or by leaving it conspicuously affixed to the vessel or some building or object on or near the land.
- (6) When serving a notice or other document on an individual whom the Commissioners have reason to believe lives on a vessel, the Commissioners must serve by delivery to the vessel, unless—
- (a) the individual has specified some other means of service; or
  - (b) the Commissioners are satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to serve by delivery to the vessel.
- (7) This section is not to be taken to exclude the employment of any method of service not expressly provided for by it.

20 Amendments of the Middle Level Acts

- (1) The Middle Level Act 1867 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 46, substitute the words "section 18 of the Middle Level Act 2018" for the words "section 37 of the "Middle Level Act, 1862,"".
- (3) The Middle Level Act 1874 is amended as follows.
- (4) In section 67, substitute the words "a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale" for the words "five pounds".
- (5) In section 68, substitute the words "a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale" for the words "five pounds".

21 Repeals

The enactments mentioned in the first and second columns of the table in Schedule 4 are repealed to the extent specified in the third column of that table.
