- (a) from a resolution of the society in general meeting or a meeting of any class of members; or
 - (b) from any agreement between the members of the society or of any class of members.
- (4) Subsection (1) of this section does not affect any right of a member of the society to bring proceedings to restrain the doing of an act which is beyond the powers of the committee; but no such proceedings shall lie in respect of an act to be done in fulfilment of a legal obligation arising from a previous act of the society.
- (5) Nor does subsection (1) affect any liability incurred by a member of the committee, or any other person, by reason of the committee's exceeding its powers.
- (6) The operation of this section is restricted by section 7D of this Act (application to charitable societies); and section 7E of this Act (transactions with members of the committee and connected persons in excess of powers) has effect notwithstanding this section.

7C No duty to enquire as to capacity of society or authority of committee.

A party to a transaction with a registered society is not bound to enquire as to whether it is permitted by the society's registered rules or as to any limitation on the powers of the committee to bind the society or authorise others to do so.

7D Application of sections 7A and 7B to charitable societies .

- (1) Sections 7A and 7B of this Act (capacity of society not limited by its rules and power of committee to bind society) do not apply to the acts of a registered society which is a charity except in favour of a person who—
 - (a) gives full consideration in money or money's worth in relation to the act in question; and
 - (b) does not know that the act is not permitted by the society's registered rules or, as the case may be, is beyond the powers of the committee,or who does not know at the time the act is done that the society is a charity.
- (2) However, where such a society purports to transfer or grant an interest in property, the fact that the act was not permitted by the society's registered rules or, as the case may be, that the committee in connection with the act exceeded any limitation on its powers under those rules, does not affect the title of a person who subsequently acquires the property or any interest in it for full consideration without actual notice of any such circumstances affecting the validity of the society's act.
- (3) In any proceedings arising out of subsection (1) of this section the burden of proving—
 - (a) that a person knew that an act was not permitted by the society's registered rules or was beyond the powers of the committee, or
 - (b) that a person knew that the society was a charity, lies on the person making that allegation.
- (4) Where a registered society is a charity with its registered office situated in England or Wales, the ratification of an act under section 7A(3) of this Act, or the ratification of a transaction to which section 7E of this Act applies, is ineffective without the prior written consent of the [^{F28}Charity Commission] for England and Wales.
- (5) In this section "charity"—
 - (a) in relation to a society whose registered office is situated in England or Wales, has the same meaning as in the Charities Act 1993;
 - (b) in relation to a society whose registered office is situated in Scotland, means a body established for charitable purposes only (that expression having the same meaning as in the Income Tax Acts);
 - (c) in relation to a society whose registered office is situated in one of the Channel Islands, means a society established for charitable purposes only ("charitable purposes" having the meaning given by the law of the Island in question).

 - (a) restitution of any money or other asset which was the subjectmatter of the transaction is no longer possible; or
 - (b) the society is indemnified for any loss or damage resulting from the transaction; or
 - (c) rights acquired bona fide for value and without actual notice of the committee's exceeding its powers by a person who is not party to the transaction would be affected by the avoidance; or
 - (d) the transaction is ratified by the society in general meeting in such a way as the case may require.
