

Criminal Justice Act 1967

1967 CHAPTER 80

PART III

TREATMENT OF OFFENDERS

Miscellaneous

71 Exercise of powers of release.

Any power conferred by or under any enactment to release a person from a prison or other institution to which the Prison Act 1952 applies or from an approved school may be exercised notwithstanding that he is not for the time being detained in that institution or school and a person released by virtue of this section shall, after his release, be treated in all respects as if he had been released from that institution or school.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Criminal Justice Act 1967, Section 71.