ACCESS TO OPEN COUNTRY

10 Provision for public access to open country.

- (1) For the purpose of enabling the public to have access for open-air recreation to open country, the provisions of this Part of this Act shall apply to land which is or which gives or forms part of access to open country, being land—
  - (a) to which the provisions of the next following section are applied by an agreement under this Part of this Act (hereinafter referred to as an “access agreement”) or by an order under this Part of this Act (hereinafter referred to as an “access order”),
  - (b) acquired under this Part of this Act for the aforesaid purpose.
- (2) In this Part of this Act “open country” means any land appearing [<sup>F11</sup>to Scottish Natural Heritage or]to the authority with whom an access agreement is made or to the authority by whom an access order is made or by whom the land is acquired, as the case may be, to consist wholly or predominantly of mountain, moor, heath, hill, woodland, cliff or foreshore,<sup>F12</sup> . . . [<sup>F13</sup>and any waterway; and in this section “waterway” and “foreshore” shall include any bank, barrier, dune, beach, flat or other land adjacent to the waterway or foreshore.]

11 Rights of public where access agreement or order in force.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this Part of this Act, where an access agreement or order is in force as respects any land, a person who enters upon land comprised in the agreement or order for the purpose of open-air recreation without causing damage, or who is on such land for that purpose after having so entered thereon, shall not be treated as a trespasser on that land or incur any other liability by reason only of so entering or being on the land:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply to land which for the time being is excepted land as hereinafter defined except in so far as an access agreement provides that it shall so apply.

- (2) Nothing in the provisions of the foregoing subsection shall entitle a person to enter or be on any land, or to do anything thereon, in contravention of any prohibition contained in or having effect under any enactment.
- (3) An access agreement or order may specify or provide for imposing restrictions subject to which persons may enter or be upon land by virtue of subsection (1) above, including in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of this subsection, restrictions excluding the land or any part thereof at particular times from the operation of the said subsection (1); and that subsection shall not apply to any person entering or being on the land in contravention of any such restriction or failing to comply therewith while he is on the land.
- (4) Without prejudice to the provisions of the last foregoing subsection, subsection (1) above shall have effect subject to the provisions of Schedule 2 to this Act as to the general restrictions to be observed by persons having rights of access by virtue of the said subsection (1).
- (5) For the purpose of this Part of this Act, the expression “excepted land” means land which for the time being is of any of the following descriptions, that is to say—
- (a) land used for agricultural purposes other than livestock rearing land, being land which was so used at the date when the relevant access agreement or order was made;
  - (b) land comprised in a declaration for the time being in force under section 19 of the National Parks and Access to the <sup>M1</sup>Countryside Act 1949 (declarations that areas are nature reserves) or that section as applied by section 21 of that Act, in so far as that land is subject to byelaws made under section 20 of that Act or under that section as applied by the said section 21 prohibiting entry of persons;
  - (c) land covered by buildings or the curtilage of such land;
  - (d) land used for the purpose of a park, garden or pleasure ground, being land which was so used at the date when the relevant access agreement or order was made;
  - (e) land used for the getting of minerals by surface working (including quarrying), land used for the purposes of a railway (including a light railway) or tramway, or land used for the purposes of a golf course, sports ground, playing field, racecourse or aerodrome within the meaning of the <sup>M2</sup>Civil Aviation Act 1949 as extended by the <sup>M3</sup>Airports Authority Act 1965;

- (f) land (not falling within the foregoing paragraphs of this subsection) covered by works used for the purposes of a statutory undertaking [<sup>F15</sup>or a telecommunications system] or the curtilage of such land;
- (g) land excepted from the application of this section in accordance with the provisions of section 15 below;
- (h) land as respects which development is in course of being carried out which will result in the land becoming such land as is specified in paragraphs (c), (e) and (f) of this subsection:

Provided that land which is for the time being comprised in an access agreement or order shall not become excepted land by reason of any development carried out thereon, or any change of use made thereof, if the development or change of use is one for which under the Act of [<sup>F16</sup>1997]planning permission is required and either that permission has not been granted or any condition subject to which it was granted has been contravened or has not been complied with.

15 Provisions as to land used for agricultural purposes or as woodlands.

- (1) If, on the submission of an access order to the Secretary of State for confirmation, a representation is duly made as respects any land—
  - (a) that the land is used, or about to be brought into use, for agricultural purposes, and that the use or proposed use as aforesaid will be prejudiced by the application of the provisions of section 11 above to the land; or
  - (b) that the land is used, or about to be brought into use, for the growing of timber for commercial purposes, and that the use or proposed use as aforesaid will be prejudiced as aforesaid; or
  - (c) that the land is used for the growing of timber so as to be of value for the amenity of the neighbourhood and that the growth or regeneration of the timber will be prejudiced as aforesaid,then, subject to the provisions of this section, if the Secretary of State is satisfied that the conditions specified in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of this subsection are fulfilled and outweigh the benefit arising from the increased facilities for public access, he shall not confirm the order so as to apply the said provisions to the land.
- (2) Where, as respects land comprised in an access agreement, it is represented to the Secretary of State that the conditions specified in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of the foregoing subsection are fulfilled, and the Secretary of State is satisfied as stated in that subsection, then subject to the provisions of this section—
  - (a) the Secretary of State shall notify to the [F33]body by which] the agreement was made the fact that he is satisfied as aforesaid, and thereupon the [F33]body] shall vary the agreement so as to exclude the land;
  - (b) the fact that the agreement is expressed to be irrevocable shall not prevent its variation so as to exclude the land; and
  - (c) if the concurrence of any party to the agreement other than the [F34]body], or of the successor in title to his interest, cannot be obtained to the variation of the agreement as aforesaid, the [F34]body] may by order made with the approval of the Secretary of State vary the agreement.
- (3) Where, as respects land comprised in an access order<sup>F35</sup> . . . , it is represented to the Secretary of State that the conditions specified in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1) above are fulfilled, and the Secretary of State is satisfied as stated in that subsection, then subject to the provisions of this section the Secretary of State shall make an order varying the access order so as to exclude the land.
- (4) Before exercising any of his functions under this section the Secretary of State [F36, except as regards an access order made by Scottish Natural Heritage,] shall consult with [F37]Scottish Natural Heritage]; and before coming to a conclusion on any such representation as is mentioned in the two last foregoing subsections, the Secretary of State shall either cause a local inquiry to be held or afford to the person by whom the representation was made and to [F38]the body by which the order was made] an opportunity of being heard by a person appointed by the Secretary of State for the purpose, and shall consider the report of the person by whom the inquiry was held or the person appointed as aforesaid as the case may be.
- (5) In determining whether the conditions specified in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1) above are fulfilled in the case of any proposed access order, the Secretary of State shall have regard to the provisions of section 11(3) above; and references in this section to varying an agreement or order so as to exclude land shall include references to varying an agreement or order by the imposition of such ## 16 Effect of access agreement or order on rights and liabilities of persons interested in land.

- (1) A person interested in any land comprised in an access agreement or order, not being excepted land, shall not carry out any work thereon whereby the area to which the public are able to have access by virtue of the agreement or order is substantially reduced:
 Provided that nothing in this subsection shall affect the doing of anything whereby any land becomes excepted land.
- (2) Any restriction arising under an agreement or otherwise as to the use of any land comprised in an access agreement or order shall have effect subject to the provisions of this Part of this Act, and any liability of a person interested in such land in respect of such a restriction shall be limited accordingly.
- (3) For the purposes of any enactment or rule of law as to the circumstances in which a right of way or servitude may be constituted, use of land by the public or by any person at any time while it is comprised in an access agreement or order shall be disregarded.
- (4) Every access agreement and access order and every instrument or order varying or revoking any such agreement or order shall contain a particular description of the lands affected or a description by reference of those lands in the manner provided by section 61 of the <sup>M8</sup>Conveyancing (Scotland) Act 1874.
- [<sup>F39</sup>(5) As soon as practicable after an agreement or instrument such as is mentioned in subsection (4) above is made or an order so mentioned is confirmed, it shall be registered or, as the case may be, recorded in pursuance of subsection (6) or (7) below.
- (6) In the case of an agreement or order made by Scottish Natural Heritage or an instrument or order varying or revoking such an agreement or order—
- (a) if an interest in the land to which the agreement, instrument or order relates falls to be registered in the Land Register of Scotland, Scottish Natural

21 Compensation to be assessed with regard to effect of first five years of access.

- (1) For the purpose of enabling compensation under the last foregoing section to be assessed in the light of experience gained of the actual effect on land of the coming into operation of access orders, any such compensation shall not, save as hereinafter provided, be claimed or payable before the expiration of a period of five years from the coming into operation of the order giving rise to the compensation (in this and the next following section referred to as “the relevant order”).
- (2) Nothing in the foregoing subsection shall be construed as requiring such compensation to be assessed as at a date later than the date of the coming into operation of the relevant order; but in calculating the compensation it shall be assumed that on a sale at that date of the interest in respect of which the compensation is claimed, the purchaser would have had knowledge—
- (a) of the actual effect during the said period, on the land in which the said interest subsists and the use of that land, of the coming into operation of the relevant order;
- (b) of the fact and date of any revocation or variation during that period of the relevant order;

26 Maps of land subject to public access.

- (1) A local planning authority whose area comprises any land—
  - (a) which is subject to an access agreement or order, or
  - (b) which has been acquired under either of the two last foregoing sections and is for the time being held for the purpose for which it was acquired,shall prepare and keep up to date a map, on such scale as may be prescribed, defining in such manner as may be prescribed—
  - (i) the land subject to the agreement or order or the land acquired and held as aforesaid, as the case may be;
  - (ii) in the case of land subject to such an agreement or order, any land comprised therein which is excepted land;
  - (iii) in the case of land acquired and held as aforesaid, any land comprised therein from which, for the purpose of avoiding danger to the public or to persons employed thereon or for any other reason, the public are excluded.
- (2) An authority who are required by the foregoing subsection to prepare and keep up to date any map shall, so long as they are required so to do, have copies of the map and of the notices referred to in paragraph (b) below available for inspection by the public at such places as the authority may determine; and the authority shall display, at such places as they think fit, including places where the public obtain access to the land to which the map relates—
  - (a) reproductions of the map on an appropriate scale,
  - (b) notices specifying any restrictions on access to the land or any part thereof, whether the restrictions have effect by virtue of any of the provisions of this Part of this Act or otherwise.

27 Provisions as to danger areas.

- (1) The [<sup>F79</sup>body] making an access agreement or order shall, after consulting with the owner and occupier of any land concerned, so delimit the land to which the agreement or order applies as to exclude all land which, by reason of anything done thereon or on other land contiguous or adjacent thereto, it appears to the [<sup>F79</sup>body] expedient to exclude for the purpose of avoiding danger to the public or to persons employed on any of the said land.
- (2) Where, while an access agreement or order is in force, [<sup>F80</sup>body by which] the agreement or order was made are satisfied, as respects any land to which the agreement or order applies, that by reason of anything done or proposed to be done on that land or on other land contiguous or adjacent thereto it is expedient for the purpose aforesaid that the first-mentioned land should be excluded from the operation of the agreement or order, the [<sup>F81</sup>body] shall vary the agreement or order so as to exclude that land.
- (3) The fact that an access agreement is expressed to be irrevocable shall not prevent its variation in pursuance of the last foregoing subsection; and where the concurrence of any party to an access agreement other than the [<sup>F82</sup>body], or of the successor in title to his interest, cannot be obtained to the variation of the agreement in pursuance of that subsection, the [<sup>F82</sup>body] may by order . . . <sup>F83</sup> vary the agreement.
- (4) [<sup>F84</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage or, as the case may be,] [<sup>F85</sup>a general or district planning] authority shall have power, as respects any land which is subject to an access agreement or order, or as respects land held by [<sup>F86</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage or] the authority to which section 26(1)(b) above applies, to take such steps and carry out such work (including the erection and maintenance of fences or notices) as appear to [<sup>F87</sup>it or] them requisite for protecting the public from any source of danger on the land or on adjoining land.
- (5) The provisions of the last foregoing subsection shall apply to the Secretary of State as respects land for the time being held by him under section 25 above as they apply to [<sup>F88</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage or a general or district planning authority as respects land held by it or them].
- (6) The application of section 11 above to any land shall not, in relation to any factory, magazine, store or premises already established, constitute the land an open place of resort for the public, or a public place, for the purposes of the Explosives Acts 1875 and 1923, or any order made or licence granted thereunder.
- (7) The application of the said section 11 to any land shall, in relation to any factory, magazine, store or premises subsequently established, constitute the land such a place as aforesaid for the purposes of the said Acts or any such order or licence.

PART III

PUBLIC PATHS AND LONG-DISTANCE ROUTES

Creation of public paths

30 Creation of public paths by agreement.

- (1) [<sup>F95</sup>A general or district planning] authority shall have power to enter into an agreement with any person having the necessary power in that behalf for the creation by that person of a public path over land in their area.
- (2) An agreement made under the foregoing subsection (in this Act referred to as a “public path creation agreement”) shall be on such terms as to payment or otherwise as may be specified in the agreement, and may, if it is so agreed, provide for the creation of the public path subject to limitations or conditions affecting any public right of way thereover.
- (3) In this Part of this Act “public path” means a way which is a footpath or bridleway or a combination of those.

31 Compulsory powers for creation of public paths.

- (1) Where it appears to [<sup>F96</sup>a general or district planning] authority that there is need for a public path over land in their area and they are satisfied that, having regard to—
  - (a) the extent to which the path would add to the convenience or enjoyment of a substantial section of the public, or to the convenience of persons resident in the area, and
  - (b) the effect which the creation of the path would have on the rights of persons interested in the land, account being taken of the provisions as to compensation contained in section 37 below, it is expedient that the path should be created, the authority, if it appears to them impracticable to create the path by means of a public path creation agreement, may by order (in this Act referred to as a “public path creation order”) made by them and [<sup>F97</sup>, subject to paragraph 2(1A) of Schedule 3 of this Act,] submitted to and confirmed by the Secretary of State create a public path.
- (2) A right of way created by a public path creation order may be either unconditional or subject to such limitations or conditions as may be specified in the order, and the Secretary of State may [<sup>F98</sup>, in a case where his confirmation of the order is required, confirm it] subject to such modifications or conditions as he thinks fit.
- (3) A public path creation order shall be in such form as may be prescribed and shall contain a map, on such scale as may be prescribed, defining the land over which a public path is thereby created.

34 Closure of public paths.

- (1) Where it appears to [<sup>F104</sup>a general or district planning] authority as respects a public path in their area that it is expedient that the path should be closed on the ground that the path is not needed for public use, the authority may by order (in this Act referred to as a “public path extinguishment order”) made by them and [<sup>F105</sup>, subject to paragraph 2(1A) of Schedule 3 to this Act,] submitted to and confirmed by the Secretary of State extinguish the right of way over the path.
- (2) The Secretary of State shall not confirm a public path extinguishment order unless he is satisfied that it is expedient so to do having regard to the extent to which it appears to him that the path would, apart from the order, be likely to be used by the public, and having regard to the effect which the extinguishment of the right of way would have as respects land served by the path, account being taken of the provisions as to compensation contained in section 37 below.
- (3) A public path extinguishment order shall be in such form as may be prescribed and shall contain a map, on such scale as may be prescribed, defining the land over which the right of way is thereby extinguished.
- (4) Schedule 3 to this Act shall have effect as to the making, confirmation, validity and date of operation of public path extinguishment orders.
- (5) Where in accordance with regulations made under paragraph 3 of the said Schedule proceedings preliminary to the [<sup>F106</sup>making or] confirmation of a public path extinguishment order are taken concurrently with proceedings preliminary to the [<sup>F106</sup>making or] confirmation of a public path creation order or of a public path diversion order . . . <sup>F107</sup> then, in considering—
  - (a) under subsection (1) above whether the path to which the public path extinguishment order relates is needed for public use, or
  - (b) under subsection (2) above to what extent that path would apart from the order be likely to be used by the public, the local planning authority or the Secretary of State, as the case may be, may have regard to the extent to which the public path creation order or the public path diversion order would provide an alternative path.
- (6) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) above, any temporary circumstances preventing or diminishing the use of a path by the public shall be disregarded.

35 Diversion of public paths.

- (1) Where an owner, tenant or occupier of land crossed by a public path satisfies [<sup>F108</sup> the general or district planning] authority in whose area the land is situated that for securing the efficient use of the land or of other land held therewith or providing a shorter or more convenient path across his land, it is expedient that the line of the path across his land, or part of that line, should be diverted (whether on to other land or his or on to land of another owner, tenant or occupier), the authority may by order (in this Act referred to as a “public path diversion order”) made by them and [<sup>F109</sup>, subject to paragraph 2(1A) of Schedule 3 to this Act, ]submitted to and confirmed by the Secretary of State
  - (a) create, as from such date as may be specified in the order, any such new public path as appears to the authority requisite for effecting the diversion, and
  - (b) extinguish, as from such date as may be so specified in accordance with the provisions of the next following subsection, the right of way over so much of the path as appears to the authority requisite as aforesaid.
- (2) Where it appears to the authority that work requires to be done to provide necessary facilities for the convenient use of any such new public path as is mentioned in subsection (1)(a) above, the date specified under subsection (1)(b) above shall be later than the date specified under subsection (1)(a) above by such time as appears to the authority requisite for enabling the work to be carried out.
- (3) A right of way created by a public path diversion order may either be unconditional or may (whether or not the right of way extinguished by the order was subject to limitations or conditions of any description) be subject to such limitations or conditions as may be specified in the order, and the Secretary of State may [<sup>F110</sup>, in a case where his confirmation of the order is required, confirm it ]subject to such modifications or conditions as he thinks fit.
- (4) Before determining to make a public path diversion order on the representation of an owner, tenant or occupier, the authority may require him to enter into an agreement with them to defray, or to make such contribution as may be specified in the agreement towards
  - (a) any compensation which may become payable under section 37 below;
  - (b) any expenses which [<sup>F111</sup>any general or district planning] authority may incur in bringing the new site of the path into a fit conditions for use by the public.
- (5) The Secretary of State shall not confirm a public path diversion order unless he is satisfied that the diversion to be effected thereby is expedient as mentioned in subsection (1) above, and further that the path will not be substantially less convenient to the public in consequence of the diversion and that it is expedient to confirm the order having regard to the effect which
  - (a) the diversion would have on public enjoyment of the path as a whole,
  - (b) the coming into operation of the order would have as respects other land served by the existing right of way, and
  - (c) any new right of way created by the order would have as respects the land over which the right is so created and any land held therewith,so, however, that for the purposes of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection the Secretary of State shall take into account the provisions as to compensation of section 37 below.

Long-Distance Routes

39 General provisions as to long-distance routes.

- (1) Where it appears to [<sup>F122</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] that the public should be enabled to make extensive journeys on foot, on pedal cycles or on horseback along a particular route, being a route which for the whole or the greater part of its length does not pass along roads mainly used by vehicles, [<sup>F122</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] may prepare and submit to the Secretary of State a report under this section.
- (2) A report under this section shall contain a map showing the route, defining those parts thereof over which there exists a public right of way, and indicating in each case the nature of that right; and the report shall set out such proposals as [<sup>F122</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] may think fit for the provision, maintenance and enjoyment of the route, and without prejudice to that generality—
  - (a) for the maintenance or improvement of any public path or road along which the route passes;
  - (b) for the provision and maintenance of such new public paths as may be required for enabling the public to journey along the route;
  - (c) for the provision and operation of ferries where they are needed for completing the route; and
  - (d) for the provision of accommodation, toilet facilities, meals and refreshments along the route.
- (3) A report under this section may also include such recommendations as [<sup>F122</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] may think fit for the restriction of traffic on existing roads along which the route passes.
- (4) Before submitting a report under this section [<sup>F122</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] shall consult with every local planning authority through whose area the route passes; and it shall be the duty of every such authority to furnish to [<sup>F122</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] such information as [<sup>F122</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] may reasonably require for the purposes of the report.
- (5) A report under this section shall contain an estimate, in such form as the Secretary of State may require, of the capital outlay and annual expenditure likely to be incurred by any authority in carrying out any such proposals contained therein as are mentioned in subsection (2) above; the report shall also contain any representations made by any authority consulted under subsection (4) above.

Provided that where the Secretary of State does not propose to approve the proposals as set out in the report he shall, before coming to a determination as to what action to take under this subsection, consult with [<sup>F123</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] and such other authorities and persons as he may think fit.

- (2) As soon as may be after the Secretary of State determines under the last foregoing subsection either to approve any proposals, with or without modifications or conditions, or to reject them, he shall notify his determination to [<sup>F123</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] and to every local planning authority whose area is traversed by the route to which the report relates.
- (3) Proposals approved by the Secretary of State under subsection (1) above, either as originally set out in the report or as modified by the Secretary of State, are hereinafter referred to as “approved proposals relating to a long-distance route”, and such proposals shall be implemented by the local planning and other authorities concerned as soon as may be after their approval as aforesaid.

41 Ferries for purposes of long-distance routes.

- (1) Where approved proposals relating to a long-distance route include proposals for the provision and operation of a ferry, the authority who are responsible for the maintenance of the roads or public paths to be connected by the ferry or, where there is more than one such authority, those authorities acting jointly or any such authority as may mutually be agreed—
  - (a) shall have power to provide and operate the ferry and to carry out such work and do all such things as appear to them expedient for the purpose of operating the ferry;
  - (b) may . . . <sup>F124</sup> agree with any person or body of persons for the provision and operation of the ferry by him or them and for the making by the authority of such contributions as may be specified in the agreement:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall—

- (i) be construed as conferring on such an authority any exclusive right to operate a ferry;
- (ii) authorise the doing of anything which apart from this subsection would be actionable by any person by virtue of his having an exclusive right to operate a ferry, unless he consents to the doing thereof;
- (iii) authorise the doing of anything in relation to land in which any other person has an interest, if apart from this subsection the doing thereof would be actionable at his instance by virtue of that interest and he does not consent to the doing thereof;

- (1) Where proposals relating to a long-distance route have been approved by the Secretary of State under section 40 above, [<sup>F125</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] may from time to time prepare and submit to the Secretary of State a report proposing any such variation of the approved proposals as [<sup>F125</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] may think fit.
- (2) Where, as respects any proposals approved as aforesaid, it appears to the Secretary of State, after consultation with [<sup>F125</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage], expedient that the proposals should be varied in any respect and [<sup>F125</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] have not submitted to the Secretary of State a report proposing that variation, the Secretary of State may direct that the proposals shall be so varied.
- (3) Where an authority have found it impracticable to implement any part of any proposals approved as aforesaid, they shall so inform [<sup>F125</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] and shall submit to [<sup>F125</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] a report proposing such variations of the approved proposals as they may think fit.
- (4) Section 39(4) and 40 above shall with the necessary modifications apply to a report or direction under this section; and section 39(5) above shall with the necessary modifications apply to any such report.
- (5) Where the Secretary of State approves, with or without modifications, any proposals contained in a report under subsection (1) above, or gives a direction under subsection (2) above, the proposals for the variation of which the report was made or direction given shall thereafter have effect subject to the provisions of the report or direction; and references in this Act to approved proposals relating to a long-distance route shall be construed accordingly.

- (b) it is convenient, in so ploughing the land, to plough the way together with the rest of the land,
- the right of way shall be subject to the condition that the occupier shall have the right, subject to the following provisions of this section, to plough the way as well as the rest of the land:
- Provided that, where the way is subject to a public path creation agreement, a public path creation order, or a public path diversion order, the agreement or order may exclude the right to plough the way or any part of it and may impose restrictions or conditions on the exercise of that right.
- (2) Within seven days after ploughing a public right of way in the exercise of the right conferred by the foregoing subsection the occupier shall give to the authority responsible under section 46(1) below for the protection of the right of way notice of that fact.
- (3) Where a public right of way is ploughed in the exercise of the said right the occupier of the land shall as soon as may be after the ploughing is completed reinstate the surface of the way.
- (4) A person who fails to comply with the foregoing provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction—
- (a) in the case of a failure to comply with the provisions of an agreement or order as mentioned in the proviso to subsection (1) above, to a fine not exceeding [F126]level 3 on the standard scale];
  - (b) in the case of a failure to comply with the provisions of subsection (2) above to a fine not exceeding [F127]level 2 on the standard scale];
  - (c) in the case of a failure to comply with the provisions of subsection (3) above, to a fine not exceeding [F128]level 3 on the standard scale];
- (5) If an occupier ploughs a public right of way and fails to reinstate the surface of the way, the local planning authority [F130]on whom a duty is imposed in relation to that way by section 46(1) of this Act may, after giving to the occupier not less than 14 days' notice of their intention,] take all necessary steps for carrying out the work, and may recover from the occupier the amount of any expenses reasonably incurred by them in relation thereto.
- (6) Nothing in the provisions of this section shall prejudice any limitation or condition having effect apart from those provisions.

PART IV

FURTHER POWERS OF CERTAIN AUTHORITIES

48 Country Parks.

- (1) A country park is a park or pleasure ground in the countryside which by reason of its position in relation to major concentrations of population affords convenient opportunities to the public for enjoyment of the countryside or open-air recreation.
- (2) Each local planning authority shall assess the need for a country park whether within or outwith their area or partly within and partly outwith their area and shall from time to time review that need; for the purposes of this subsection each local planning authority, or where a joint advisory committee has been established under subsection (8) below, that committee, shall from time to time consult with <sup>F140</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] and with such other local planning authorities as appear to them to be concerned.
- (3) In assessing and reviewing the need for a country park under subsection (2) above, the local planning authority shall have regard to the existing availability and adequacy of such opportunities as are described in subsection (1) above.
- (4) Any local planning authority may, whether within or outwith their area or partly within and partly outwith their area, provide, lay out, improve, maintain and manage a country park including any buildings, equipment, facilities, services or works ancillary thereto or which appear to them to be requisite for the enjoyment or convenience of the public, and the authority shall have power to make such charges as they think fit in connection with the use of the park by the public.
- (5) Any two or more local planning authorities may combine together for the purpose of exercising the powers conferred by subsection (4) above and the expenditure incurred in the exercise of those powers shall be shared between the authorities on terms agreed by them having regard to the prospective use of the country park by the inhabitants of the areas of the respective authorities concerned or failing such agreement on terms determined by the Secretary of State having regard to the aforesaid consideration.
- (6) Any local planning authority or authorities shall have power to act as agent for any other local planning authority or authorities in the exercise of their powers under subsection (4) above and may receive from the authority or authorities on whose behalf they act contributions towards the expenditure incurred in the exercise of those powers on terms agreed or determined as mentioned in subsection (5) above.

Changes to legislation: Countryside (Scotland) Act 1967 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 14 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) The powers conferred by subsection (4) above may be exercised by a local planning authority either on land belonging to them, or, with the consent of all persons having an interest therein, on other land and they shall include power to make arrangements by agreement for the exercise of any of those powers on behalf of the authority by some other person on such terms as may be specified in the agreement.
- (8) Any two or more local planning authorities may, . . . <sup>F141</sup> concur in establishing a joint advisory committee for the purpose of making recommendations to those authorities as to the need mentioned in subsection (2) above, as to the provision of the country parks by those authorities, and for the purpose of consulting with [<sup>F140</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] as to those matters; and any such committee shall be constituted in such manner as may be determined by the authorities by whom it is established:
 Provided that a majority of the members of any such committee shall be members of those authorities.
- (9) . . . . . <sup>F142</sup>
- (10) For the purpose of any of their functions under this section a local planning authority may acquire land compulsorily,

53 Contributions by or to local authorities.

- (1) A local authority may defray or contribute towards, or undertake to defray or contribute towards, expenditure incurred or to be incurred for the purposes of this Act by any other local authority, or by any other public body or person, and may receive from such a body or person contributions in respect of any expenditure so incurred or to be incurred.

In this subsection “expenditure for the purposes of this Act”, in relation to a local authority, includes expenditure in respect of which grant may be paid by virtue of section 67 of this Act.

- (2) In this section “local authority” includes a local planning authority.

54 Byelaws.

- [<sup>F159</sup>(1) A local authority may, as respects land in their area belonging to them and situated in the countryside, and [<sup>F160</sup>a general or district planning] authority may, as respects—

- (a) a public path created—
  - (i) in accordance with a public path creation agreement to which they are party;
  - (ii) by a public path creation order made by them and confirmed where necessary by the Secretary of State; or
  - (iii) by a public path diversion order made by them and confirmed where necessary by the Secretary of State;
- (b) a long-distance route which passes through their area;
- (c) a public right of way in relation to which a duty is imposed on them by section 46(1) of this Act;
- (d) a country park provided by them under section 48 of this Act; . . . <sup>F161</sup>
- (e) land or a waterway—
  - (i) in relation to which an agreement or order has been made by them for the purpose of giving access to the public;
  - or
  - (ii) to which the public are given access in consequence of acquisition by the authority [<sup>F162</sup>; or
- (f) a picnic site managed by them by virtue of section 4 of the Roads (Scotland) Act 1984.]

make byelaws for the preservation of order, for the prevention of damage to the land, path, route, right of way, park [<sup>F163</sup>, waterway or picnic site] or anything thereon, therein, or adjacent thereto, and for securing that persons resorting thereto will so behave themselves as to avoid undue interference with the enjoyment of the land, path, route, right of way, park [<sup>F163</sup>, waterway or picnic site] by other persons.

- (1A) In subsection (1) above—

“long-distance” means a route in relation to which there are approved proposals under section 40 of this Act (or approved proposals having effect subject to the provisions of a report or direction under section 42 of this Act) and includes any road forming part of the route and any ferry, proposals for the provision and operation of which are included in the approved proposals; and “public path” has the meaning assigned to it in section 30 of this Act.]

Status: Point in time view as at 27/05/1997.

Changes to legislation: Countryside (Scotland) Act 1967 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 14 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing subsection, byelaws under that subsection may prohibit, restrict or regulate—

- (a) the use of the land, [<sup>F164</sup>path, route, right of way,] park [<sup>F165</sup>, waterway or picnic site], either generally or in any manner specified in the byelaws, by traffic of any description, or for any recreational purpose, so specified;
- (b) the use of the waterway by boats which are not for the time being registered with the authority in such manner as the byelaws may provide, and may authorise the authority to make reasonable charges in respect of the registration of boats in pursuance of the byelaws;
- (c) the depositing of rubbish and the leaving of litter;
- (d) the lighting of fires;

and may be made so as to relate either to the whole or to any part of the land, [<sup>F164</sup>path, route, right of way] park [<sup>F165</sup>, waterway of picnic site], and may make different provisions for different parts thereof.

- (a) owned or managed by it; or
- (b) to which an access agreement or order made by it applies, make byelaws with respect to any of the matters mentioned in the foregoing provisions of this section.]

[<sup>F171</sup>(5A) Byelaws made under this section in relation to long-distance routes shall not come into operation in relation to any part of the route until—

- (a) the Secretary of State’s approval of the route under section 40 of this Act has been notified to the local authority or planning authority as the case may be; and
- (b) access over that part of the route is available to the public.]

(6) Byelaws made under this or the next succeeding section shall not interfere with the exercise of any public right of way or navigation or of any functions of statutory undertakers or any port authority [<sup>F172</sup>or with the running of a telecommunications code system or the exercise of any right conferred by or in accordance with the telecommunications code on the operator of any such system.]

- (2) A local planning authority may, as respects any waterway in their area, enter into an agreement, on such terms as to payment or otherwise as may be specified in the agreement, with any public body on whom powers are conferred in relation to the waterway by or under any enactment, for the exercise by that body of any power conferred on the local planning authority by the last foregoing subsection.
- (3) Where an agreement is made under the last foregoing subsection for the exercise of any power by any such body as is therein mentioned, no limitation imposed by law on the capacity of that body by virtue of the constitution thereof shall operate so as to prevent the body from exercising that power.
- (4) Where it appears to the Secretary of State, as respects a waterway in the area of a local planning authority, that any power conferred on the authority by subsection (1) above should be exercised by any such body as is mentioned in subsection (2) above, and the local planning authority have not entered into an agreement with the said body under the said subsection (2), the Secretary of State may direct that the said power shall be exercisable by the said body:
 Provided that no direction shall be given under this subsection except after consultation with the local planning authority and the said body.
- (5) Subject to the following provisions of this section, no body shall exercise any power conferred by this section without the consent of every <sup>F190</sup> . . . water authority having functions relating to the waterway in question; and before exercising any such power the body shall consult with every other body which under any enactment has functions relating to that waterway.
- (6) Where any <sup>F190</sup> . . . water authority referred to in the last foregoing subsection has refused its consent to a proposed exercise of powers under this section, the body proposing to exercise the power may apply to the Secretary of State who, if he is satisfied that the consent of the authority was unreasonably withheld, may authorise the proposed exercise of powers subject to such conditions or modifications as he may think fit.
- (7) Where any body consulted under subsection (5) above objects to a proposed exercise of powers under this section, and the objection is not withdrawn, the proposal shall not be proceeded with unless the body proposing to exercise the power applies to the Secretary of State who, if he is satisfied that it is expedient so to do, may authorise the proposed exercise of powers subject to such conditions or modifications as he may think fit, and if not so satisfied may refuse to authorise the proposed exercise of powers.
- (8) Before deciding whether to authorise any proposal on an application to him under either of the last two foregoing subsections, the Secretary of State shall consult with [<sup>F191</sup>Scottish Natural Heritage] and shall afford to the body proposing to exercise the power and to every <sup>F190</sup> . . . water authority which has refused its consent and to every other body which has objected to the proposed exercise of powers an opportunity of being heard by a person appointed by him for the purpose, and shall consider that person's report.
- (9) Any local planning authority may acquire land compulsorily for the purpose of enabling any power conferred by this section to be exercised.

62 Exercise of powers under section 61.

- (1) The provisions of the last foregoing section shall not authorise a body to do anything in relation to land in which any other person has an interest, if apart from that section the doing thereof would be actionable at his instance by virtue of that interest and he does not consent to the doing thereof:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply in the case of land to or over which the public have access by virtue of an access order, but the exercise of any power under the last foregoing section as respects such land shall be subject to the provisions of Part II of this Act and of this section relating to such orders.

- (2) Any body proposing, in the exercise of the powers conferred by the last foregoing section, to carry out any work on land comprised in an access order, whether the work is specified in the order or not, shall give to the owner and occupier of the land not less than twenty-eight days' notice of their intention so to do, specifying the work to be carried out.
- (3) Where the work specified in a notice given under the foregoing subsection has not been specified in an access order as mentioned in section 14(8) above, then if before the expiration of the said notice the owner or occupier of the land serves notice of objection on the body they shall not carry out the work except in accordance with the provisions of the next following subsections.
- (4) A body on whom notice of objection has been served under the last foregoing subsection shall afford to the objector an opportunity of being heard by a person appointed by them for the purpose and shall then determine either—
- not to carry out the work to which the objection relates, or
  - to carry out the work, either as originally proposed or with such modifications as the body may determine, and shall serve notice of their determination on the objector; and where the body determine as mentioned in paragraph (b) above, they may proceed with the work in accordance with the determination at any time after the expiration of fourteen days from the date on which notice of the determination is served on the objector:

Provided that if the objector serves notice of appeal under the next following subsection the body shall not proceed with the work except in accordance with the provisions of that subsection.

- (5) Any person aggrieved by a determination of any body under the last foregoing subsection may within the period of fourteen days therein mentioned serve notice of appeal against the determination on the Secretary of State and on that body; and where notice of appeal is served under this subsection the Secretary of State, after affording to the appellant and to the body an opportunity of being heard by a person appointed by him for the purpose, and after considering that person's report, shall either direct that the body may carry out the work (whether as specified in the notice given under subsection (2) above or subject to such modifications or conditions as the Secretary of State may think fit) or shall direct the body not to carry out the work.

- (6) Any power conferred by subsection (4)(b) above or by the last foregoing subsection to modify the work specified in a notice given under subsection (2) above shall not be exercised so as to affect land not affected by the notice.
- (7) Where the value of the interest of any person in land is depreciated, or any person has suffered damage by being disturbed in his enjoyment of land, in consequence of any work done under the powers conferred by the last foregoing section, on land comprised in an access order, the body who carried out the work shall pay to that person compensation equal to the amount of the depreciation or damage:
- Provided that nothing in this subsection shall confer on a person a right to compensation for depreciation of the value of an interest in land, or for disturbance in his enjoyment of land, of which account has already been taken or will be taken in fixing compensation under section 20 above:
- Provided also that nothing in this subsection shall confer on a person a right to such compensation in respect of land or the enjoyment thereof, not being in either case land on which the work was carried out or land held therewith, unless the carrying out of the work would have been actionable at his instance if it had been carried out otherwise than in the exercise of statutory powers.
- (8) A claim for compensation under the last foregoing subsection shall be made within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed and shall be made to the body by whom the work was carried out.
- (9) In this section “work” includes such other things as are referred to in section 61(1) above.

63 Provision of recreational facilities by local water authorities.

- (1) Subject to subsection (5) of this section a [<sup>F192</sup>water authority] may, if it appears to them reasonable to do so—
- (a) permit the use by members of the public, for the purposes of any form of recreation, of any waterway or land in which the authority have an interest;
  - (b) provide, or otherwise make available, facilities for use by person resorting to any such waterway or land for the purposes of any such form of recreation.
- (2) The powers of a [<sup>F193</sup> . . . water authority under subsection (1) above shall, in the case of a waterway or land in which the authority have an interest but which they do not own, be exercisable only with the consent of the owners thereof:
- Provided that where those powers are to be exercised in relation to a particular part of a waterway the consent of the owners of that part only need be obtained if the authority are satisfied that the exercise of those powers will not prejudice the rights or interests of other owners.

- (3) The provisions of this section shall not authorise any authority, body or person to do or permit anything in relation to a waterway or land in which any other person has an interest if apart from this section the doing or permitting thereof would be actionable at his instance by virtue of that interest and he does not consent to the doing or permitting thereof.
- (4) A . . . water authority may make such reasonable charges as they may determine in respect of the use for the purposes of recreation of any such waterway or land as is described in subsection (1) above, and of any facilities made available by the authority under that subsection.
- (5) A . . . water authority may let to any person, for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as they think fit, any works constructed by them for the purpose of providing facilities under subsection (1) above, and may authorise that person to make such reasonable charges as the authority may determine in respect of the use thereof as mentioned in that subsection.
- (6) A . . . water authority may receive contributions from any authority, body or person in respect of the cost of the provision of the facilities mentioned in subsection (1) above, and those facilities may be provided by a . . . water authority jointly with any other authority, body or person.
- (7) A . . . water authority may make byelaws prohibiting such a waterway or land as is described in subsection (1) above and as may be specified in the byelaws from being used for boating (whether with mechanically propelled boats or otherwise), swimming or other recreational purposes, or regulating the way in which any such waterway or land so specified may be used for any of those purposes, and when making byelaws under this subsection the authority shall have regard to the need to protect water from pollution and to the need to avoid conflict which might arise from the use of the water or land for various recreational purposes.
- (8) Byelaws made in respect of any waterway by virtue of subsection (7) above may include provision prohibiting the use thereof by boats which are not for the time being registered with the . . . water authority in such manner as the byelaws may provide; and the byelaws may authorise the authority to make reasonable charges in respect of the registration of boats in pursuance of the byelaws.
- (9) A . . . water authority may take such action as they consider necessary to remedy the effect of any contravention of, or failure to comply with, byelaws made under subsection (7) above, and may recover the expenses reasonably incurred by them in doing so from the person in default.
- (10) Sections [F19471(6)] and [F19472] of the Water (Scotland) Act [F1941980] shall have effect in relation to byelaws made under subsection (7) above as they have effect in relation to byelaws made under the said section [F19471].
- (11) For the purposes of this section a <sup>F195</sup> . . . water authority shall be deemed to have an interest in a waterway or land if they have power to make byelaws under the said Act of [F1941980] in relation to the waterway or land, <sup>F196</sup> . . .

- (3) Subject to the provisions of this section the said Act of 1963, so far as appropriate, shall apply in relation to any question of disputed compensation referred to in subsection (1) above as it applies to any such question referred to in section 2(1) of that Act, with the substitution for references to the acquiring authority of references to the [F216]body] from whom the compensation in question is claimed.
- (4) Rules 2 to 4 of the rules contained in section 12 of the said Act of 1963 (rules for assessing compensation) shall apply to the calculation of any compensation referred to in subsection (1) above, in so far as it is calculated by reference to the depreciation of the value of an interest in land.
- (5) In the case of an interest in land subject to a heritable security—
- (a) compensation referred to in subsection (1) above in respect of the depreciation of that interest shall be calculated as if the interest were not subject to the heritable security;
  - (b) a claim or application for the payment of any such compensation, or an application for the recording of a claim in respect of the interest under section 22(1) of this Act, may be made by any person who when the order giving rise to the compensation was made was the heritable creditor, or by any person claiming under such a person, but without prejudice to the making of a claim or application by any other person;
  - (c) a heritable creditor shall not be entitled to any such compensation in respect of his interest as such; and
  - (d) any compensation payable in respect of the interest subject to the heritable security shall be paid to the heritable creditor or, where there is more than one heritable creditor, to the creditor whose heritable security has priority over any other heritable securities secured on the land, and shall in either case be applied by him as if it were proceeds of sale.
- (6) In this section “heritable security” has the same meaning as in the Conveyancing (Scotland) Act 1924 except that it includes a security constituted by ex facie absolute disposition or assignation, and “heritable creditor” shall be construed accordingly.

77 Orders.

Any order under this Act may be varied or revoked by a subsequent order made in the like manner and subject to the like provisions:
Provided that, without prejudice to the making of a new access order under Part II of this Act, an access order under the said Part II shall not be varied so as to comprise land not comprised in the original order.

78 Interpretation

(1) In this Act unless the context otherwise requires—

[<sup>F228</sup>“the Act of 1997” means the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997;]

“agricultural land” means land used for the purposes of agriculture within the meaning of section 86(3) of the <sup>M33</sup>Agriculture (Scotland) Act 1948 and “agricultural purposes” shall be construed accordingly;

“boat” includes any hover vehicle or craft being a vehicle or craft designed to be supported on a cushion of air and which is used on or over water;

“enactment” has the same meaning as in [<sup>F232</sup>the Act of 1997];

[<sup>F233</sup>“footway” has the same meaning as in the Roads (Scotland) Act 1984;]

“function” includes power and duty;

“interest”, in relation to land, includes any right over land, whether the right is exercisable by virtue of the ownership of an interest in land or by virtue of a licence or agreement, and in particular includes sporting and fishing rights;

“land” includes land covered by water and, in relation to the acquisition or disposal of land by virtue of this Act, any right or interest in or over land;

“livestock rearing land” has the meaning assigned to it by section 1(3) of the <sup>M34</sup>Livestock Rearing Act 1951;

“local authority” [<sup>F234</sup>means a [<sup>F235</sup>council constituted under section 2 of the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994];]

“local planning authority” [<sup>F236</sup>means a general, regional or district planning authority within the meaning of Part IX of the <sup>M35</sup>Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973.]

“open country” has the meaning assigned to it by section 10(2) of this Act;

“owner”, in relation to land, means the person who, for the time being, receives, or, if the land were let, would be entitled to receive the rent of the land, or who, in the case of land which is unlet, is entitled to occupy the land, and includes any trustee, tutor, curator, factor, agent or other person receiving the rent on behalf of any other person, and also a joint owner;

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by statutory instrument by the Secretary of State subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament;

“public body” includes any local authority, local planning authority or statutory undertaker, and any trustees, commissioners, board or other persons who as a public body and not for their own profit act under any enactment for the improvement of any place or the production or supply of any commodity or service;

Status: Point in time view as at 27/05/1997.

(3) The notices to be given under [<sup>F260</sup>sub-paragraph (1) above] shall be given—

- (a) in the case of an access order or a public path creation order, by publication in at least one local newspaper circulating in the area in which the land to which the order relates is situated, and by serving a like notice on every owner, occupier and tenant (except tenants for a month or any period less than a month and statutory tenants within the meaning of [<sup>F261</sup>the <sup>M37</sup>Rent (Scotland) Act 1971] of any of that land, so however that—
  - (i) except in the case of an owner, occupier or tenant being a local authority, local planning authority or statutory undertaker, the Secretary of State may in any particular case direct that it shall not be necessary to serve notice as aforesaid if in his opinion it is not reasonably practicable to do so, but
  - (ii) if the Secretary of State so directs in the case of any land, then in addition to publication the notice shall be addressed to “the owners and any occupiers” of the land (describing it) and a copy or copies of it shall be affixed to some conspicuous object or objects on the land;
- (b) in the case of a public path extinguishment order or a public path diversion order, by publication and the service of notices as mentioned in head (a) of this sub-paragraph and also—
  - (i) by serving such a notice as is therein mentioned on every local authority and local planning authority whose area includes any of the land to which the order relates, and
  - (ii) by causing a copy of the notice to be displayed in a prominent position at the ends of so much of any public path as is to be closed or diverted by virtue of the order.

Provided that [<sup>F266</sup>, where objection is made by statutory undertakers to a public path creation order or a public path diversion order,] on the ground that the order provides for the creation of a right of way over land covered by works used for the purposes of their undertaking or the curtilage of such land, and the objection is not withdrawn, the order shall be subject to special parliamentary procedure.

- (3) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the Secretary of State shall not confirm . . . <sup>F265</sup> an order so as to affect land not affected by the order as submitted to him . . . <sup>F265</sup> except after—
- (a) giving such notice as appears to him requisite of his proposal so to modify the order, specifying the time (not being less than twenty-eight days from the date of the first publication of the notice) within which, and the manner in which, representations or objections with respect to the proposal may be made,
  - (b) holding a local inquiry or affording to any person by whom any representation or objection has been duly made and not withdrawn an opportunity of being heard by a person appointed by him for the purpose, and
  - (c) considering the report of the person appointed to hold the inquiry or to hear representations or objections, as the case may be,

and [<sup>F267</sup>, where objection is made by statutory undertakers to a public path creation order or a public path diversion order,] on the ground that the order as modified would provide for the creation of a right of way over land covered by works used for the purposes of their undertaking or the curtilage of such land, and the objection is not withdrawn, the order shall be subject to special parliamentary procedure.

- 5 If a person aggrieved by an order to which this Schedule applies desires to question the validity thereof, or of any provision contained therein, on the ground that it is not within the powers of this Act or on the ground that any requirement of this Act or of regulations made thereunder has not been complied with in relation thereto, he may, within six weeks from the date on which the notice required by the last foregoing paragraph is first published, make an application for the purpose to the Court of Session.
- 6 On any such application as aforesaid, the Court—
- (a) may by interim order suspend the operation of the order, or of any provision contained therein, either generally or in so far as it affects any property of the applicant, until the final determination of the proceedings; and
  - (b) if satisfied that the order, or any provision contained therein, is not within the powers of this Act or that the interests of the applicant have been substantially prejudiced by failure to comply with any such requirement as aforesaid, may quash the order or any provision contained therein, either generally or in so far as it affects any property of the applicant.
- 7 Subject to the provisions of the last foregoing paragraph, an order to which this Schedule applies shall not, either before or after it has been made or confirmed, be questioned in any legal proceedings whatever, and shall become operative on the date on which the notice required by paragraph 4 above is first published, or on such later date as may be specified in the order.
- 8 In relation to any order to which this Schedule applies, being an order which is subject to special parliamentary procedure, the foregoing provisions of this Schedule shall have effect subject to the following modifications—
- (a) if the order is confirmed by Act of Parliament under section six of the <sup>M38</sup>Statutory Orders (Special Procedure) Act 1945, paragraphs 5 to 7 shall not apply; and
  - (b) in any other case, paragraph 5 shall have effect as if, for the reference therein to the date on which the notice required by paragraph 4 is first published, there were substituted a reference to the date on which the order becomes operative under the said Act of 1945, and paragraph 7 shall have effect as if the words from “and shall become operative” to the end of the paragraph were omitted.
