

Trade Descriptions Act 1968

1968 CHAPTER 29

Miscellaneous and supplemental.

32 Power to exempt goods sold for export, etc.

In relation to goods which are intended—

- (a) for despatch to a destination outside the United Kingdom and any designated country within the meaning of [^{F1}section 21(5)(b) of the ^{M1}Weights and Measures Act 1963][^{F1}section 24(2)(b) of the Weights and Measures Act 1985] or section 15(5)(b) of the ^{M2}Weights and Measures Act (Northern Ireland) 1967; or
- (b) for use as stores within the meaning of the [^{F2}Customs and Excise Management Act 1979] in a ship or aircraft on a voyage or flight to an eventual destination outside the United Kingdom; or
- (c) for use by Her Majesty's forces or by a visiting force within the meaning of any of the provisions of Part I of the ^{M3}Visiting Forces Act 1952; or
- [^{F3}(d) for industrial or constructional use within the meaning of the ^{M4}Weights and Measures Act 1963 or the ^{M5}Weights and Measures Act (Northern Ireland) 1967;]
- [^{F3}(d) for industrial use within the meaning of the Weights and Measures Act 1985 or for constructional use;]

section 1 of this Act shall apply as if there were omitted from the matters included in section 2(1) of this Act those specified in paragraph (a) thereof; and, if the Board of Trade by order specify any other of those matters for the purposes of this section with respect to any description of goods, the said section 1 shall apply, in relation to goods of that description which are intended for despatch to a destination outside the United Kingdom and such country (if any) as may be specified in the order, as if the matters so specified were also omitted from those included in the said section 2(1).

- [^{F4}(2) In this section “constructional use”, in relation to any goods, means the use of those goods in constructional work (or, if the goods are explosives within the meaning of the Explosives Acts 1875 and 1923, in mining, quarrying or demolition work) in the course of the carrying on of a business;]

34 Trade marks containing trade descriptions.

The fact that a trade description is a trade mark, or part of a trade mark, ^{F5} . . . does not prevent it from being a false trade description when applied to any goods, except where the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say—

- (a) that it could have been lawfully applied to the goods if this Act had not been passed; and
- (b) that on the day this Act is passed the trade mark either is registered under the Trade Marks Act 1938 or is in use to indicate a connection in the course of trade between such goods and the proprietor of the trade mark; and
- (c) that the trade mark as applied is used to indicate such a connection between the goods and the proprietor of the trade mark or [^{F6}, in the case of a registered trade mark, a person licensed to use it]; and
- (d) that the person who is the proprietor of the trade mark is the same person as, or a successor in title of, the proprietor on the day this Act is passed.

35 Saving for civil rights.

A contract for the supply of any goods shall not be void or unenforceable by reason only of a contravention of any provision of this Act.

36 Country of origin.

- (1) For the purposes of this Act goods shall be deemed to have been manufactured or produced in the country in which they last underwent a treatment or process resulting in a substantial change.
- (2) The Board of Trade may by order specify—
 - (a) in relation to any description of goods, what treatment or process is to be regarded for the purposes of this section as resulting or not resulting in a substantial change;
 - (b) in relation to any description of goods different parts of which were manufactured or produced in different countries, or of goods assembled in a country different from that in which their parts were manufactured or produced, in which of those countries the goods are to be regarded for the purposes of this Act as having been manufactured or produced.

37 Market research experiments.

- (1) In this section “market research experiment” means any activities conducted for the purpose of ascertaining the opinion of persons (in this section referred to as “participants”) of—
 - (a) any goods; or
 - (b) anything in, on or with which the goods are supplied; or
 - (c) the appearance or any other characteristic of the goods or of any such thing; or
 - (d) the name or description under which the goods are supplied.
- (2) This section applies to any market research experiment with respect to which the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say,—
 - (a) that any participant to whom any goods are supplied in the course of the experiment is informed, at or before the time at which they are supplied to him, that they are supplied for such a purpose as is mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, and
 - (b) that no consideration in money or money’s worth is given by a participant for the goods or any goods supplied to him for comparison.
- (3) Neither section 1 nor section 8 of this Act shall apply in relation to goods supplied or offered to be supplied, whether to a participant or any other person, in the course of a market research experiment to which this section applies.

38 Orders.

- (1) Any power to make an order under the preceding provisions of this Act shall be exercisable by statutory instrument, which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament, and includes power to vary or revoke such an order by a subsequent order.
- (2) Any order under the preceding provisions of this Act which relates to any [^{F7}. . .]fertilisers or any goods used as pesticides or for similar purposes shall be made by the Board of Trade acting jointly with the following Ministers, that is to say, if the order extends to England and Wales, the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, and if it extends to Scotland or Northern Ireland, the Secretary of State concerned.
- [^{F8}(2A) Any order under the preceding provisions of this Act which relates to any agricultural, horticultural or fishery produce, whether processed or not, food, feeding stuffs or the ingredients of food or feeding stuffs shall be made by the Board of Trade acting jointly with the following Ministers, that is to say, if the order extends to England and Wales, the Secretary of State concerned with health and if it extends to Scotland or Northern Ireland, the Secretary of State concerned.
- (2B) Before making an order to which subsection (2) or (2A) of this section applies the Board of Trade shall consult the Food Standards Agency.]
- (3) The following provisions shall apply to the making of an order under section 7, 8, 9, 15 or 36 of this Act, except in the case mentioned in section 10(2) thereof, that is to say—
 - (a) before making the order the Board of Trade shall consult with such organisations as appear to them to be representative of interests substantially affected by it and shall publish, in such manner as the Board think appropriate, notice of their intention to make the order and of the place where copies of the proposed order may be obtained; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2000.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, Cross Heading: Miscellaneous and supplemental.. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the order shall not be made until the expiration of a period of twenty-eight days from the publication of the notice and may then be made with such modifications (if any) as the Board of Trade think appropriate having regard to any representations received by them.
