2 New functions of the Commission.

- (1) The Commission [^{F8}shall][^{F8}and the Council shall each] have the general duties imposed by this section, but nothing in this section shall be construed as modifying the effect of any provision of this Act or of the Act of 1949 whereby any general or specific power or duty is conferred or imposed on the Commission [^{F9}or Council], or whereby an obligation is imposed on any other person to consult with the Commission [^{F9}or Council].
- (2) The Commission [^{F10}and the Council] shall keep under review all matters relating to—
 - (a) the provision and improvement of facilities for the enjoyment of the countryside,
 - (b) the conservation and enhancement of the natural beauty and amenity of the countryside, and
 - (c) the need to secure public access to the countryside for the purposes of open-air recreation,and shall consult with such local planning authorities and other bodies as appear to the Commission [^{F10}or Council] to have an interest in those matters.
- (3) The Commission [^{F10}and the Council] shall encourage, assist, concert or promote the implementation of any proposals with respect to those matters made by any person or body, being proposals which the Commission [^{F10}or Council] consider to be suitable.
- (4) The Commission [^{F11}and the Council] shall advise any Minister having functions under this Act, or any other Minister or any public body, on such matters relating to the countryside as he or they may refer to the Commission [^{F11}or Council], or as the Commission [^{F11}or Council] may think fit.
- (5) Where it appears to the Commission [^{F12}or to the Council] that the provision and improvement of facilities for enjoyment of the countryside or the conservation and enhancement of the natural beauty and amenity of the countryside presents special problems or requires special professional or technical skill, the Commission [^{F12}or, as the case may be, the Council]—
 - (a) shall notify their opinion to the appropriate local planning authority or other public body, and
 - (b) on the application of any such authority or other body in any case where it appears to the Commission [^{F13}or Council] expedient having regard to the provisions of section 1(2) of this Act, and to the provisions of section 5(1) of the Act of 1949 (general provisions as respects National Parks), shall place the services of officers or servants of the Commission [^{F13}or Council], or the services of consultants engaged by the Commission [^{F13}or Council], at the disposal of the authority or other body for such period as may be agreed between them, and on such terms as to payment or otherwise, as may be so agreed with the approval of the Minister.
- (6) The Commission [^{F14}and the Council] shall make to local planning authorities and other public bodies, as respects the exercise of the powers of making byelaws conferred by this Act and the Act of 1949, recommendations as to the matters in respect of which byelaws should be made.
- (7) The Commission [^{F15}and the Council] shall carry out, or commission the carrying out of, such inquiries, investigations or researches, either on their own account or jointly with other persons, as the Commission [^{F15}or Council] may deem necessary or expedient for the purposes of any of their functions.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Countryside Act 1968. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) The Commission [^{F15}and the Council] shall provide, or assist in the provision of, publicity and information services relating to the countryside, to places of beauty or interest therein, or to the functions of the Commission [^{F15}or Council], and shall take such steps as appear to them expedient for securing that suitable methods of publicity are used for the prevention of damage in the countryside and for [^{F16}informing persons resorting to the countryside of their rights and obligations].
- (9) The Commission [^{F15}and the Council] shall make to the Minister such recommendations as the Commission [^{F15}or Council] think proper in respect of applications by local authorities for Exchequer grants under . . . ^{F17} the Act of 1949.

7 Power to provide country parks.

- (1) Subject to section 6 above, a local authority shall have power, on any site in the countryside appearing to them suitable or adaptable for the purpose set out in section 6(1) above, to provide a country park, that is to say a park or pleasure ground to be used for that purpose.
- (2) A local authority shall have power to extend, maintain and manage the country park and to do all other things appearing to them desirable for the said purpose in connection with the provision of a country park and in particular—
 - (a) to lay out, plant and improve the site, and to erect buildings and carry out works,
 - (b) to provide facilities and services for the enjoyment or convenience of the public, including meals and refreshments, parking places for vehicles, shelters and lavatory accommodation,
 - (c) to provide facilities and services for open-air recreation:

Provided that a local authority shall not under this section provide accommodation, meals or refreshments except in so far as it appears to them that the facilities therefor within the country park are inadequate or unsatisfactory, either generally or as respects any description of accommodation, meals or refreshments, as the case may be.

- (3) The powers conferred by the foregoing provisions of this section and by the next following section may be exercised by the local authority—
 - (a) on land belonging to them, or
 - (b) on such terms as may be agreed with the owners and any other persons whose authority is required for the purpose, on other land, and an agreement under paragraph (b) above may provide for the making by the local authority of payments in consideration of the making of the agreement and payments by way of contribution towards expenditure incurred by the persons making the agreement in consequence thereof.

- (4) A local authority shall have power to acquire compulsorily any land required by them for the purpose of their functions under this and the next following section.
- (5) If it appears to a local authority that a park or pleasure ground provided or acquired by the local authority before the coming into force of this section, or otherwise than under or for the purposes of this section, can suitably be used as a country park, that park or pleasure ground shall, from such date as the local authority may determine, be treated for all the purposes of this Act as a country park provided under this section, but—

- (a) this subsection shall not affect any trust, covenant or other restriction to which the park or pleasure ground is subject, and
 - (b) no grant shall be payable under this Act in respect of expenditure incurred before the date so determined.
- (6) If it appears to a local authority that land provided or acquired by them before the coming into force of this section, as open country to be used for the purposes of Part V of the Act of 1949, can suitably be used as a country park, that land, or any part of it, shall, from such date as the local authority may determine, be treated for all the purposes of this Act as a country park provided under this section; and, if the land was acquired under section 76 of the Act of 1949 (compulsory acquisition for public access), the land so treated shall cease to be subject to that section, but—
- (a) this subsection shall not affect any trust, covenant or other restriction to which the land is subject; and
 - (b) no grant shall be payable under this Act in respect of expenditure incurred before the date so determined.
- (7) A country park provided under this section shall not be subject to any of the following enactments (which relate to parks and pleasure grounds):
- Section 164 of the ^{M3}Public Health Act 1875.
 - Section 44 of the ^{M4}Public Health Acts Amendment Act 1890.
 - Sections 76 and 77 of the ^{M5}Public Health Acts Amendment Act 1907.

- (a) to provide facilities and services for the enjoyment or convenience of the public, including meals and refreshments, parking places for vehicles, shelters and lavatory accommodation,
 - (b) to erect buildings and carry out works:

Provided that a local authority shall not under this section provide accommodation, meals or refreshments except in so far as it appears to them that the facilities therefor in the neighbourhood of the common land are inadequate or unsatisfactory, either generally or as respects any description of accommodation, meals or refreshments, as the case may be.

- (4) Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect for the purposes of this section, and in that Schedule “the principal section” means this section.
- (5) A local authority shall have power to acquire compulsorily any land in the neighbourhood of the common land which is required by them for the purposes of their functions under this section and which is not common land.

- (6) In this section—

“common land” has the meaning given by section 22(1) of the ^{M10}Commons Registration Act 1965;

“common land to which the public have rights of access” means—

- (a) land to which section 193 of the ^{M11}Law of Property Act 1925 for the time being applies, other than land to which that section applies by virtue of a revocable instrument, or
- (b) common land comprised in an access agreement or access order under Part V of the Act of 1949, other than a revocable access agreement or an access agreement expressed to have effect only for a period specified in the agreement, or
- (c) any other common land to which the public have rights of access permanently or for an indefinite period.

12 Facilities in or near National Parks.

- (1) A local planning authority whose area consists of or includes the whole or any part of a National Park may, at the request of, and in accordance with terms laid down by, the Commission [^{F33}or, as the case may be, the Council], make arrangements for securing the provision in the area of the local planning authority (whether by the authority or by other persons) of study centres and other facilities for learning about the history, natural features, flora and fauna of the National Park and the objects of architectural, archaeological or historical interest therein; and section 12 of the Act of 1949 (provision of facilities in National Parks) shall have effect as if the functions of local planning authorities under this subsection were functions conferred by subsection (1) of that section.

Expenses incurred by a local planning authority under this subsection shall be expenses towards which the Commission [^{F33}or the Council] may make contributions under section 86 of the Act of 1949 (information services) and no grant shall be payable under paragraph (a) or paragraph (e) of section 97(1) of the Act of 1949 in respect of expenses incurred by the local planning authority under this subsection, or expenses in or in connection with the acquisition of land for the purposes of this subsection.

- (2) The functions conferred by subsection (1) of the said section 12 of the Act of 1949 shall include the making of arrangements for securing the provision in their area (whether by the authority or by other persons)—
 - (a) of public sanitary conveniences in proper and convenient situations, and

- (b) of receptacles for refuse or litter, and services for the regular emptying and cleansing of those receptacles.
- (3) A local planning authority whose area consists of or includes any part of a National Park which is bounded by the sea, or by any waterway which is not part of the sea, may, on land which is in or in the neighbourhood of the National Park, carry out such work and do such other things as may appear to them necessary or expedient for facilitating the use of the waters so adjoining the National Park by the public for sailing, boating, bathing and fishing and other forms of recreation:

Provided that a local planning authority shall not under this subsection provide facilities of any description except in cases where it appears to them that the facilities of that description are inadequate or unsatisfactory.

- (4) The works which a local planning authority may carry out under subsection (3) above include the construction of jetties and other works wholly or partly in the sea or in other waters.

The local planning authority, before acting under this subsection, shall consult with and seek the consent [^{F34}of the National Rivers Authority and such] authorities, being authorities which under any enactment have functions relating to the part of the sea or other waters in question, as the Minister may either generally or in any particular case direct, and Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect where any authority so consulted withhold their consent.

- (5) A local planning authority may make byelaws regulating the use of works carried out by them under subsection (3) above in the waters bounding a National Park and of any facilities or services provided in connection with the works, but before making any such byelaws the local planning authority shall consult the Commission [^{F35}(if the National Park is in England) or the Council (if the National Park is in Wales)]:

Provided that byelaws made under this subsection shall not interfere with the exercise of any functions relating to the waters or land to which the byelaws apply which are exercisable by any authority under any enactment.

Section 106 of the Act of 1949 (supplementary provisions as to byelaws) shall have effect as if byelaws under this subsection were byelaws under that Act.

- (6) The Act of 1949 shall have effect as if subsections (3) and (4) above formed part of section 13(1) of that Act, and section 75 of that Act (which relates to the exercise of powers under the said section 13 as respects land comprised in access orders) shall have effect accordingly, and . . . ^{F36}
- (7) Subsections (2), (3) and (4) of section 13 of the Act of 1949 (carrying out of work on behalf of local planning authority by some other authority) shall apply to any part of the sea bounding a National Park as they apply to a waterway.
- (8) Nothing in the said section 13 as extended by this section shall authorise the carrying out of any operation in contravention of section 34 of the ^{M12}Coast Protection Act 1949 or section 9 of the ^{M13}Harbours Act 1964.

13 Lakes in National Parks: control of boats etc.

- (1) A local planning authority whose area consists of or includes the whole or any part of a National Park shall have power to make byelaws for the prohibition or restriction of traffic of any description on any lake in the National Park.
- (2) The power shall be exercisable for the purpose of—
 - (a) ensuring the safety of persons resorting to any such lake,
 - (b) regulating all forms of sport or recreation involving the use of boats or vessels,
 - (c) conserving the amenity and natural beauty of any such lake and the surrounding area, and
 - (d) preventing nuisance or damage, and in particular nuisance from excessive noise.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this section, byelaws under this section may—
 - (a) prescribe rules of navigation and impose speed limits,
 - (b) require the use of effectual silencers on boats or vessels propelled by internal combustion engines, and prescribe rules with a view to imposing limits on the noise or vibration which may be caused by any such boat or vessel,
 - (c) prohibit the use of boats or vessels which are not for the time being registered with the local planning authority in such manner as the byelaws may provide,
 - (d) authorise the making of reasonable charges in respect of the registration of boats or vessels in pursuance of the byelaws,
 - (e) make different provision for different circumstances, and in particular may impose different restrictions in different parts of the lake and at different times or seasons.
- (4) In acting under this section the local planning authority shall have regard to the fulfilment of the objects set out as respects National Parks in sections 1 and 5 of the Act of 1949, and, before making any byelaws, shall consult the Commission [^{F37}(if the National Park is in England) or the Council (if the National Park is in Wales)].
- (5) Byelaws under this section shall not be made so as to extinguish any public right of way over any waters, but, except as otherwise expressly provided, any byelaws under this section shall apply to persons exercising any such public right of way as they apply to other persons.
- (6) Byelaws under this section—
 - (a) shall be of no effect if and in so far as inconsistent with any rules under the ^{M14}Merchant Shipping Act 1894 which are in force as respects the water to which the byelaws apply,

- (7) This section shall not apply to any lake owned or [^{F38}managed by any statutory undertakers].
- (8) Section 106 of the Act of 1949 (supplementary provisions as to byelaws) shall have effect as if byelaws under this section were byelaws under that Act.
- (9) Subsections (1) and (2), and subject to the next following subsection, subsection (4), of section 92 of the Act of 1949 (appointment of wardens of land for which byelaws may be made under section 90 of that Act) shall have effect as if the power of making byelaws conferred by this section was contained in the said section 90.
- (10) For the purpose of securing compliance with any byelaws made under this section, a warden appointed under the said section 92 as applied by this section may enter upon any land, or go on any water, whether or not within the area where the byelaws are in force.
- (11) Where two or more local planning authorities' areas consist of or include part of a National Park, the powers conferred by this section may be exercised by them, or any of them, jointly, or may by agreement between them be exercised by one local planning authority in the part of the National Park in the area of another.
- (12) Byelaws made by a local planning authority under this section may be enforced by any local authority in the area of that other local authority.
- (13) In this section "lake" includes any expanse of water other than a river or canal.

15 Areas of special scientific interest.

- (1) This section has effect as respects land . . . ^{F40} which is or forms part of an area which in the opinion of the [^{F41}Nature Conservancy Council] (in this section referred to as “the Council”) is of special interest by reason of its flora, fauna, or geological or physiographical features.
- (2) Where, for the purpose of conserving those flora, fauna or geological or physiographical features, it appears to the Council expedient [^{F42}in the national interest] to do so, the Council may enter into an agreement with the owners, lessees and occupiers of any such land [^{F43}(or of any adjacent land)] which imposes restrictions on the exercise of rights over land by the persons who can be bound by the agreement.
- (3) Any such agreement—
 - (a) may provide for the carrying out on the land of such work and the doing thereon of such other things as may be expedient for the purposes of the agreement,
 - (b) may provide for any of the matters mentioned in paragraph (a) above being carried out, or for the cost thereof being defrayed, either by the owners or other persons, or by the Council, or partly in one way and partly in another, and
 - (c) may contain such other provisions as to the making of payments by the Council as may be specified in the agreement.
- (4) Where section 79 of the ^{M15}Law of Property Act 1925 (burden of covenant running with the land) applies to any such restrictions as are mentioned in subsection (2) of this section, the Council shall have the like rights as respects the enforcement of the restrictions as if the Council had at all material times been the absolute owner in possession of ascertained land adjacent to the land in respect of which the restriction is sought to be enforced, and capable of being benefited by the restriction, and the restriction had been expressed to be for the benefit of that adjacent land.

Section 84 of the Law of Property Act 1925 (discharge or modification of restrictive covenants) shall not apply to such a restriction.

- (5) Schedule 2 to the ^{M16}Forestry Act 1967 (powers of tenants for life and other limited owners to enter into forestry dedication covenants or agreements) shall apply to any agreement made in pursuance of this section as it applies to such a covenant or agreement.
- (6) This section shall apply to Scotland but there shall be substituted for subsection (4) the following subsection—
 - “(4) An agreement under this section may be recorded in the Register of Sasines, and if so recorded shall be enforceable at the instance of the Council against any person having an interest in the land and against any person deriving title from him:

Provided that such an agreement shall not be enforceable against any third party who shall have in good faith and for value acquired right (whether completed by infetment or not) to his interest in the land prior to the agreement being recorded as aforesaid, or against any person deriving title from such third party.”

16 Access to open country: rivers, canals and woodlands.

- (1) The definition of “open country” in section 59(2) of the Act of 1949 shall include, if in the countryside, any woodlands.
- (2) Subject to subsection (6) below, the said definition shall include, if in the countryside—
 - (a) any river or canal, and
 - (b) any expanse of water through which a river, or some part of the flow of a river, runs, and
 - (c) a strip of the adjacent land on both sides of any river or canal, or of any such expanse of water, of reasonable width, and where a highway crosses or comes close to the river, canal or other water, so much of any land connecting the highway with the strip of land as would, if included together with the strip in an access agreement or order, afford access from the highway to some convenient launching place for small boats.
- (3) The strip of adjacent land comprised in any access order shall be wide enough to allow passage on foot along the water and wide enough to allow the public to picnic at convenient places and, where practicable, to embark or disembark, and shall include—
 - (a) the banks, walls or embankments along the water, and
 - (b) any towpath or other way or track beside the water.
- (4) Local planning authorities shall exercise their powers under Part V of the Act of 1949 over any such strip of land with special regard to the interests of persons using small boats who must circumvent obstacles or obstructions on the water by passing round on foot with their boats, and in the interests of persons who wish to obtain access from a highway to convenient launching places for small boats.
- (5) In section 60 of the Act of 1949 (rights of public over land subject to an access agreement or order, other than excepted land) subsection (5)(a) (certain agricultural land to be excepted land) shall not apply to any land within subsection (2)(c) above.

27 Signposting of footpaths and bridleways.

- (1) A highway authority, after consultation with the owner or occupier of the land concerned, shall have power to erect and maintain signposts along any footpath [F58]bridleway or byway] for which they are the highway authority.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, at every point where a footpath [F58]bridleway or byway] leaves a metalled road the highway authority shall in exercise of their power under subsection (1) above erect and maintain a signpost—
 - (a) indicating that the footpath [F58]bridleway or byway] is a public footpath [F58]bridleway or byway], and
 - (b) showing, so far as the highway authority consider convenient and appropriate, where the footpath [F58]bridleway or byway] leads, and the distance to any place or places named on the signpost.
- (3) A highway authority need not erect a signpost in accordance with subsection (2) above at a particular site if the highway authority, after consulting the council of the parish in which the site is situated, or as the case may be the chairman of the parish meeting for the parish, not having a parish council, in which the site is situated, are satisfied that it is not necessary, and if the parish council, or as the case may be the chairman of the parish meeting, agree.
- (4) It shall also be the duty of a highway authority in exercise of their powers under subsection (1) above to erect such signposts as may in the opinion of the highway authority be required to assist persons unfamiliar with the locality to follow the course of a footpath [F58]bridleway or byway].
- (5) With the consent of the highway authority, any other person may erect and maintain signposts along a footpath [F59]bridleway or byway].
- (6) [F60]Section 131(2) of the M19 Highways Act 1980 (destruction or defacement of a traffic sign)] shall apply to a signpost erected or placed along a footpath [F59]bridleway or byway] in pursuance of this section as it applies to a traffic sign placed on or near a highway . . . F61
- (7) In this section (and in the amendments made by this section in other enactments) references to signposts shall include references to other signs or notices serving the same purpose and references to the erection of a signpost shall include references to positioning any such other sign or notice.
- F62 In this section “byway” means a byway open to all traffic, that is to say, a highway over which the public have a right of way for vehicular and all other kinds of traffic, but which is used by the public mainly for the purposes for which footpaths and bridleways are so used.]

- (3) The foregoing subsections shall be construed as one with section 92 of the Act of 1949 and shall be subject to subsection (4) of that section (saving for interests of landowners).
- (4) The purposes for which wardens may be appointed by an authority under the said section 92 (as amended by this Act) as respects any land or waters are—
 - (a) to secure compliance with any byelaws, with [^{F85F86}section 1 of the ^{M23}Litter Act 1983][^{F86}section 87 of the Environmental Protection Act 1990] and with any requirements imposed by or under section 193 of the Law of Property Act 1925,
 - (b) to advise and assist the public, and
 - (c) to perform such other duties (if any) in relation to the land or waters as the authority may determine.

This subsection shall have effect in substitution for subsection (2) of the said section 92.

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

Sections 7, 12 and 16.

PROPOSALS SUBMITTED TO STATUTORY UNDERTAKERS AND OTHER AUTHORITIES

- 1 This Schedule has effect where any authority are consulted in accordance with section 8, section 12(4) or section 16(7) of this Act.
- 2 (1) If the authority withhold their consent to the proposals about which they are consulted, the proposals shall not be proceeded with unless, on an application in that behalf specifying the proposals and the grounds for withholding consent, the Minister so directs, and subject to any conditions or modifications specified in the direction.
 - (2) Before giving a direction under this paragraph the Minister shall afford to the objecting authority, and the authority by whom the proposals are made, an opportunity of being heard by a person appointed by him for the purpose, and shall consider that person's report.
 - (3) This Schedule shall apply with the necessary modifications where the Minister in accordance with section 16(8) of this Act consults any authority as respects an access order to be made by him.

SCHEDULE 2

Section 9.

PROCEDURE FOR TAKING COMMON LAND

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C23 Sch. 2 extended by Water Act 1989 (c. 15, SIF 130), ss. 58(7), 101(1), 141(6), 160(1)(2)(4), 163, 189(4)—(10), 190(3), 193(1), Sch. 25 para. 1(2)(xiv), Sch. 26 paras. 3(1)(2), 17, 40(4), 57(6), 58

- 1 (1) For the purpose of enabling a local authority to exercise their powers under the principal section on land taken out of the common land the Minister may in accordance with this Schedule authorise a local authority to acquire any part of the common land, including all commonable and other rights in or over the land, and, where the local authority already hold the land, to appropriate that land for the purposes of the principal section.
 - (2) Where the local authority already hold the land, but subject to any commonable or other rights in or over the land, they shall not appropriate the land until they have, under sub-paragraph (1) above, acquired all those rights.
 - (3) Land acquired or appropriated as authorised under this paragraph shall be held by the local authority free from the public right of access, but shall be used for the benefit of the public resorting to the common land.
 - (4) The Minister shall not give his authority under this paragraph unless he is satisfied—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Countryside Act 1968. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) that there has been or will be given in exchange for the land other land, not being less in area and being equally advantageous to the persons, if any, entitled to commonable and other rights, and to the public, and that the land given in exchange has been or will be vested in the persons in whom the land taken was vested, and subject to the like rights, trusts and incidents as attached to the land taken, or
- (b) that the giving in exchange of such other land is unnecessary, whether in the interests of the persons, if any, entitled to commonable or other rights or in the interests of the public.

Preliminary notices

- 2 (1) Before the local authority apply to the Minister for authority under paragraph 1 above as respects any part of the common land, they shall in two successive weeks publish in one or more newspapers circulating in the locality of the land a notice—
 - (a) stating that the local authority propose to make the application;
 - (b) giving particulars of the land which it is proposed to take out of the common land;
 - (c) stating whether land has been or is to be given in exchange, and, if so, giving particulars of that land, and stating the respective areas of the land to be taken and of the land given or to be given in exchange.
- (2) If all or any part of the land to be taken is in a parish, the local authority shall, not later than the time of first publication of the notice, serve a copy of the notice on the parish council or, in the case of a parish not having a parish council, on the chairman of the parish meeting.
- (3) The notice shall name a place within the locality where a map showing the said land, and any land given or to be given in exchange, may be inspected, and shall specify the time (not being less than twenty-eight days from first publication of the notice) within which and the manner in which representations with respect to the proposals in the notice may be made to the Minister.
- (4) The Minister shall before giving his decision on the application take into consideration every representation which has been duly made and which has not been withdrawn, and may if he thinks fit either afford to each person making such a representation an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by a person appointed by the Minister for the purpose, or cause a public inquiry to be held.

Compulsory purchase

- 3 (1) A local authority shall have power to acquire compulsorily any land which is required by them for the purposes of their functions under the principal section, and which is part of the common land (or any commonable or other rights in or over that land), but the Minister shall not confirm a compulsory purchase order made in pursuance of this section except after giving his authority under paragraph 1 above as respects the land.
- (2) Any notice which relates to a compulsory purchase order made in pursuance of this paragraph and which is published or served under [F102]section 11 or 12 of the M27 Acquisition of Land Act 1981] shall refer to the provisions of this Schedule and shall state whether land has been, or is to be, given in exchange.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Countryside Act 1968. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The notice to be published under paragraph 2 of this Schedule may be combined with a notice to be published under the said [F103 section 11 of the said Act of 1981] in the same newspaper and relating to the same land.
- (4) If land has been, or is to be, given in exchange—
- (a) the notice to be published and served under [F104 section 11 or 12 of the said Act of 1981] shall give particulars of that land and state the respective areas of the land to be taken and of the land given or to be given in exchange,
 - (b) the map in the compulsory purchase order shall show that land,
 - (c) the compulsory purchase order may provide for vesting any land to be given in exchange in the persons, and subject to the rights, trusts and incidents, mentioned in paragraph 1(4) above.
- (5) A compulsory purchase order made in pursuance of this paragraph may provide for discharging the land purchased from all rights, trusts and incidents to which it was previously subject.
- (6) [F105 Section 19 of the Acquisition of Land Act 1981] (special provisions for acquisition of common land) shall not apply to a compulsory purchase order made in pursuance of this paragraph, and section 22 of the M28 Commons Act 1899 (consent of Minister required for purchase of common land) shall not apply to the acquisition of land in pursuance of such a compulsory purchase order.
