2 General functions and powers.

- (1) It shall be the function of the British Tourist Authority—
- (a) to encourage people to visit Great Britain and people living in Great Britain to take their holidays there; and
 - (b) to encourage the provision and improvement of tourist amenities and facilities in Great Britain.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Development of Tourism Act 1969, Part I. (See end of Document for details) and the English Tourist Board, [^{F4}VisitScotland] and the [^{F13}Wales Tourist Board][^{F13}National Assembly for Wales]] shall have the like functions as respects England, Scotland and Wales respectively.

- (2) In addition to the specific powers conferred on it by or under the subsequent provisions of this Act but subject to subsections (3) [^{F14}and (4)][^{F14}, (4) and (4A)] of this section, each Tourist Board [^{F15}and the National Assembly for Wales] shall have power to do anything for the purpose of discharging the functions conferred on it by this section or which is incidental or conducive to the discharge of those functions and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions) for that purpose—
 - (a) to promote or undertake publicity in any form;
 - (b) to provide advisory and information services;
 - (c) to promote or undertake research;
 - (d) to establish committees to advise them in the performance of their functions;
 - (e) to contribute to or reimburse expenditure incurred by any other person or organisation in carrying on any activity which the Board [^{F16}or the National Assembly for Wales] has power to carry on under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of this subsection.
- (3) Only the British Tourist Authority shall have power by virtue of subsection (2) of this section to carry on any activities outside the United Kingdom for the purpose of encouraging people to visit Great Britain or any part of it but this subsection shall not prevent the other Tourist Boards [^{F17}or the National Assembly for Wales] engaging in such activities on behalf of the Authority.
- (4) None of the Tourist Boards shall have power, except as provided by sections 3 and 4 of this Act, to give financial assistance for the carrying out of, or itself to carry out, any project for providing or improving tourist amenities and facilities in Great Britain.
- [^{F18}(4A) The National Assembly for Wales shall also have no such power under this Act, except as provided by sections 3 and 4A.]
- (5) In discharging their functions under this section the English Tourist Board, [^{F4}VisitScotland] and the [^{F19}Wales Tourist Board][^{F19}National Assembly for Wales]] shall have regard to the desirability of fostering and, in appropriate cases, co-operating with organisations discharging functions corresponding to those of [^{F20}the Boards][^{F20}those bodies][^{F21}or the National Assembly for Wales] in relation to particular areas within the countries for which the [^{F20}the Boards][^{F20}those bodies][^{F21}or the National Assembly for Wales] are respectively responsible; and, without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this section, each of those [^{F22}Boards][^{F22}bodies][^{F21}and the National Assembly for Wales] shall have power to provide such organisations with financial or other assistance.
- (6) In discharging its functions under this section each Tourist Board [^{F23}and the National Assembly for Wales] shall have regard to the desirability of undertaking appropriate consultation with the other Tourist Boards [^{F24}and, as appropriate, the National Assembly for Wales] and with persons and organisations, including those mentioned in the last foregoing subsection, who have knowledge of, or are interested in, any matters affecting the discharge of those functions.
- (7) A Tourist Board may charge for its services and receive contributions towards its expenses in carrying out any of its functions.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Development of Tourism Act 1969, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F25}(7A) The National Assembly for Wales may charge for its services and receive contributions towards its expenses in carrying out any of its functions under this Act as read with the Tourism (Overseas Promotion) (Wales) Act 1992]

(8) A Tourist Board shall not borrow money except with the consent of the relevant Minister and the Treasury.

[^{F26}(8A) The National Assembly for Wales may borrow money for the purposes of exercising its functions under this Act as read with the Tourism (Overseas Promotion)(Wales) Act 1992.]

(9) In this Part of this Act “tourist amenities and facilities” means, in relation to any country, amenities and facilities for visitors to that country and for other people travelling within it on business or pleasure.

3 General schemes of assistance for tourist projects.

- (1) The British Tourist Authority may, after consultation with the English Tourist Board, [^{F4}VisitScotland] and the [^{F27}Wales Tourist Board][^{F27}National Assembly for Wales]] prepare schemes providing for the giving of financial assistance by those Boards[^{F28}and the National Assembly for Wales] for the carrying out of projects of such classes as may be specified in the schemes, being projects which in the opinion of the Authority will provide or improve tourist amenities and facilities in Great Britain.
- (2) Any scheme prepared under subsection (1) of this section shall be submitted to the [^{F29}Secretary of State for Trade] who may, subject to subsection (6) of this section, by order confirm it with or without modification; and if a scheme is so confirmed it shall thereupon have effect.
- (3) A scheme under this section may provide for financial assistance to be given by way of grant or loan or by any combination of those methods.
- (4) In making a grant or loan under any scheme made by virtue of this section a Tourist Board[^{F30}and the National Assembly for Wales] may, subject to the provisions of the scheme and to any directions under section 19 of this Act, impose such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, including conditions for the repayment of a grant in specified circumstances; and Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect for securing compliance with conditions subject to which any such grant is made.
- (5) A scheme which has effect under this section may be varied or revoked by a subsequent scheme prepared, submitted and confirmed in like manner or, subject to subsection (6) of this section, by an order made by the [^{F29}Secretary of State for Trade] after consultation with the British Tourist Authority, the English Tourist Board, [^{F4}VisitScotland] and the [^{F31}Wales Tourist Board][^{F31}National Assembly for Wales]].
- (6) Any power of the [^{F29}Secretary of State for Trade] to make orders under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument and any order under subsection (2) of this section shall set out the scheme which the order confirms; and no order shall be made under this section except with the consent of the Treasury and unless a draft of it has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House.
