Textual Amendments

F102 S. 12ZBA inserted (15.9.2016) by Finance Act 2016 \(c. 24\), s. 91

12ZC Single return in respect of two or more non-resident CGT disposals

Where—

- (a) a person is required to make and deliver an NRCGT return with respect to two or more non-resident CGT disposals,
 - (b) the date of the completion of each of the disposals is the same, and
 - (c) any gains accruing on the disposals would accrue in the same tax year,
- the person is to make and deliver a single return with respect to all those disposals.

12ZD NRCGT returns: grant and exercise of options

(1) This section applies where—

- (a) by virtue of section 144(2) of the 1992 Act, the grant of an option binding the grantor to sell an interest in UK land is, on the exercise of the option, treated as the same transaction as the sale, and
- (b) both the grant of the option and the transaction entered into by the grantor in fulfilment of the grantor's obligations under the option (“the sale”) would be non-resident CGT disposals (were they not treated as a single transaction).

(2) On completion of the sale—

- (a) the grantor is to be subject to the same obligations under sections 12ZB, 12ZE and 59AA (duties relating to returns and payments on account) in relation to the grant of the option as the grantor would be subject to were the option never to be exercised, and
- (b) the consideration for the option is to be disregarded (despite section 144(2) of the 1992 Act) in calculating under section 12ZF the amount of capital gains tax notionally chargeable at the completion date of the single transaction mentioned in subsection (1)(a).

(3) In this section “sell” is to be interpreted in accordance with section 144(6) of the 1992 Act.

12ZE NRCGT return to include advance self-assessment

(1) An NRCGT return (“the current return”) relating to a tax year (“year Y”) which a person (“P”) is required to make in respect of one or more non-resident CGT disposals (“the current disposals”) must include an assessment (an “advance self-assessment”) of—

- (a) the amount notionally chargeable at the filing date for the current return (see section 12ZF), and
- (b) if P has made (or is to make) a prior NRCGT return, the amount of any increase in the amount notionally chargeable for year Y.

But see the exceptions in section 12ZG.

(2) In a case falling within subsection (1)(b)—

Status: Point in time view as at 21/04/2017. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Taxes Management Act 1970 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) there is an “increase in the amount notionally chargeable” for year Y if the amount notionally chargeable at the filing date for the current return exceeds the corresponding amount for the prior NRCGT return (or the prior NRCGT return which has the most recent filing date, if there is more than one), and
 - (b) the amount of that increase is the amount of the excess.
- (3) “Prior NRCGT return” means an NRCGT return which—
- (a) relates to year Y, and
 - (b) is in respect of a non-resident CGT disposal (or disposals) the completion date of which is earlier than that of the current disposals.

12ZF The “amount notionally chargeable”

- (1) The “amount notionally chargeable” at the filing date for an NRCGT return (“the current return”) is the amount of capital gains tax to which the person whose return it is (“P”) would be chargeable under section 14D or 188D of the 1992 Act for the year to which the return relates (“year Y”), as determined—
- (a) on the assumption in subsection (2),
 - (b) in accordance with subsection (3), and
 - (c) if P is an individual, on the basis of a reasonable estimate of the matters set out in subsection (4).
- (2) The assumption mentioned in subsection (1)(a) is that in year Y no NRCGT gain or loss accrues to P on any disposal the completion of which occurs after the day of the completion of the disposals to which the return relates (“day X”).
- (3) In the determination of the amount notionally chargeable—
- (a) all allowable losses accruing to P in year Y on disposals of assets the completion of which occurs on or before day X which are available to be deducted under paragraph (a) or (b) of section 14D(2) or (as the case may be) section 188D(2) of the 1992 Act are to be so deducted, and
 - (b) any other relief or allowance relating to capital gains tax which is required to be given in P's case is to be taken into account, so far as the relief would be available on the assumption in subsection (2).
- (4) The matters mentioned in subsection (1)(c) are—
- (a) whether or not income tax will be chargeable at the higher rate or the dividend upper rate in respect of P's income for year Y (see section 4(4) of the 1992 Act), and
 - (b) (if P estimates that income tax will not be chargeable as mentioned in paragraph (a)) what P's Step 3 income will be for year Y.
- (5) An advance self-assessment must, in particular, give particulars of any estimate made for the purposes of subsection (1)(c).

[^{F118}12AA] Withdrawal by HMRC of notice under section 12AA

- (1) This section applies to a partner who is required by a notice under section 12AA to deliver a return.
- (2) Before the end of the withdrawal period, the partner may request HMRC to withdraw the notice.
- (3) But no request may be made if the partner has delivered a return under section 12AA in pursuance of the notice.
- (4) If, on receiving a request, HMRC decide to withdraw the notice under section 12AA they must do so by giving the partner a notice under this section.
- (5) A notice under this section must specify the date on which the notice under section 12AA is withdrawn.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (2) “the withdrawal period” means—
 - (a) in the case of a partnership which includes one or more companies, the period of 2 years beginning with the end of the period in respect of which the return under section 12AA was required by the notice under that section,
 - (b) in the case of any other partnership, the period of 2 years beginning with the end of the year of assessment to which the notice under section 12AA relates, or
 - (c) in the case of any partnership, such extended period as HMRC may agree with the partner in exceptional circumstances.
- (7) Withdrawal of a notice under section 12AA in relation to the period in respect of which the return under that section was required or year of assessment (as the case may be) does not prevent HMRC from serving a further notice under section 12AA requiring a partner to deliver a return in relation to that period or year.
- (8) References in subsections (2) to (6) to the partner include references to a successor of the partner (see section 12AA(11)).

[^{F255}28H Simple assessments by HMRC: personal assessments

- (1) HMRC may make a simple assessment for a year of assessment in respect of a person (other than a person to whom section 28I applies) if, when the assessment is made, the person is not excluded by subsection (2) in relation to that year.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person at any time in relation to that year of assessment if—
 - (a) the person has delivered a return under section 8 for that year, or
 - (b) the person is at that time subject to a requirement to make and deliver such a return by virtue of a notice under section 8.

but nothing in this subsection prevents HMRC from giving the person notice of a simple assessment at the same time as a notice withdrawing a notice under section 8.
- (3) A simple assessment is—
 - (a) an assessment of the amounts in which the person is chargeable to income tax and capital gains tax for the year of assessment to which it relates, and
 - (b) an assessment of the amount payable by the person by way of income tax for that year, that is to say, the difference between the amount in which the person is assessed to income tax under paragraph (a) and the aggregate amount of any income tax deducted at source;

but nothing in this subsection enables an assessment to show as repayable any income tax which any provision of the Income Tax Acts provides is not repayable.
- (4) The amounts in which a person is chargeable to income tax and capital gains are net amounts, taking into account any relief or allowance that is applicable.
- (5) A simple assessment must be based on information relating to the person that is held by HMRC (whether or not supplied by the person to whom the assessment relates).
- (6) The notice of a simple assessment required to be sent to the person by section 30A(3) must (among other things)—
 - (a) include particulars of the income and gains, and any relief or allowance, taken into account in the assessment, and

- (5) A simple assessment must be based only on information relating to the settlement that is held by HMRC (whether or not supplied by the relevant trustees).
- (6) The notice of a simple assessment required by section 30A(3) may be given to any one or more of the relevant trustees.

(2ZB) The amount of a penalty under subsection (1)(a)(i) is to be arrived at after taking account of all relevant considerations, including the desirability of its being set at a level which appears appropriate for deterring the person, or other persons, from similar failures to comply on future occasions having regard (in particular)—

- (a) in the case of a penalty for a [^{F984}promoter's] failure to comply with section 308(1) or (3) [^{F985}or section 310A], to the amount of any fees received, or likely to have been received, by the [^{F986}promoter] in connection with the notifiable proposal (or arrangements implementing the notifiable proposal), or with the notifiable arrangements, and
- (b) in the case of a penalty for a [^{F987}relevant] person's failure to comply with section 309(1)[^{F988}, 310 or 310A], to the amount of any advantage gained, or sought to be gained, by the [^{F989}relevant] person in relation to any tax prescribed under section 306(1)(b) in relation to the notifiable arrangements.

[In subsection (2ZB)—

- ^{F990}(2ZBA) (a) “promoter” has the same meaning as in Part 7 of the Finance Act 2004, and
 (b) “relevant person” means a person who enters into any transaction forming part of notifiable arrangements within the meaning of that Part.]

(2ZC) If the maximum penalty under subsection (1)(a)(i) above appears inappropriately low after taking account of those considerations, the penalty is to be of such amount not exceeding £1 million as appears appropriate having regard to those considerations.

(2ZD) Where it appears to an officer of Revenue and Customs that a penalty under subsection (1)(a)(i) above has been determined on the basis that the initial period begins with a day later than that which the officer considers to be the relevant day, an officer of Revenue and Customs may commence proceedings for a re-determination of the penalty.

(2ZE) The Treasury may by regulations vary—

- (a) any of the sums for the time being specified in subsection (1) above, and
- (b) the sum specified in subsection (2ZC) above.]

[Where a failure to comply with a provision mentioned in subsection (2) concerns
F991(2A) a proposal or arrangements in respect of which an order has been made under section 306A of the Finance Act 2004 (doubt as to notifiability), the [F992] amounts specified in subsection (1)(a)(i) and (b) above shall be increased to the prescribed sum in relation to days falling after the prescribed period].

(2B) Where a failure to comply with a provision mentioned in subsection (2) concerns a proposal or arrangements in respect of which an order has been made under section 314A of the Finance Act 2004 (order to disclose), the [F993] amounts specified in subsection (1)(a)(i) and (b)] above shall be increased to the prescribed sum in relation to days falling after the prescribed period.

(2C) In subsection (2A) and (2B)—

- (a) “the prescribed sum” means a sum prescribed by the Treasury by regulations, and
- (b) “the prescribed period” means a period beginning with the date of the order under section [F994]306A or] 314A and prescribed by the Commissioners by regulations.

(2D) The making of an order under section [F995]306A or] 314A of that Act does not of itself mean that, for the purposes of section 118(2) of this Act, a person either did or did not have a reasonable excuse for non-compliance before the order was made.

(2E) Where an order is made under section [F996]306A or] 314A of that Act then for the purposes of section 118(2) of this Act—

- (a) the person identified in the order as the promoter of the proposal or arrangements cannot, in respect of any time after the end of the period mentioned in subsection (2B), rely on doubt as to notifiability as an excuse for failure to comply with section 308 of that Act, and
- (b) any delay in compliance with that section after the end of that period is unreasonable unless attributable to something other than doubt as to notifiability.

[Where a person fails to comply with—

F997(2EA) (a) section 309 of that Act and the promoter for the purposes of that section is a monitored promoter for the purposes of Part 5 of the Finance Act 2014, or
(b) section 310 of that Act and the arrangements for the purposes of that section are arrangements of such a monitored promoter, then for the purposes of section 118(2) of this Act legal advice which the person took into account is to be disregarded in determining whether the person had a reasonable excuse, if the advice was given or procured by that monitored promoter.

(2EB) In determining for the purpose of section 118(2) of this Act whether or not a person who is a monitored promoter within the meaning of Part 5 of the Finance Act 2014 had a reasonable excuse for a failure to do anything required to be done under a provision mentioned in subsection (2), reliance on legal advice is to be taken automatically not to constitute a reasonable excuse if either—

- (a) the advice was not based on a full and accurate description of the facts, or
- (b) the conclusions in the advice that the person relied on were unreasonable.]

(2F) Regulations under [F998this section]—

- (a) may include incidental or transitional provision,
- (b) shall be made by statutory instrument,
- (c) in the case of regulations under subsection [F999(2ZE) or] (2C)(a), shall not be made unless a draft has been laid before and approved by resolution of the House of Commons, and
- (d) in the case of regulations under subsection (2C)(b), shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the House of Commons.]

(3) A person who fails to comply with [F1000subsection (1) of section 313] of the Finance Act 2004 (duties of parties to notifiable arrangements to notify Board of reference number, etc.) [F1001or regulations under subsection (3) of that section] shall be liable to a [F1002penalty not exceeding the relevant sum].

(4) In subsection (3) above “the relevant sum” means—

- (a) in relation to a person not falling within paragraph (b) or (c) below, [F1003£5,000] in respect of each scheme to which the failure relates,
- (b) in relation to a person who has previously failed to comply with section [F1004subsection (1) of section 313 or regulations under subsection (3) of that section] on one (and only one) occasion during the period of 36 months ending with the date on which the current failure to comply with that provision began, [F1005£7,500] in respect of each scheme to which the current failure relates (whether or not the same as the scheme to which the previous failure relates), or
- (c) in relation to a person who has previously failed to comply with section [F1004subsection (1) of section 313 or regulations under subsection (3) of that section] on two or more occasions during the period of 36 months ending with the date on which the current failure to comply with that provision began, [F1006£10,000] in respect of each scheme to which the current failure relates (whether or not the same as the schemes to which any of the previous failures relates).

(5) In subsection (4) above “scheme” means any notifiable arrangements within the meaning of Part 7 of the Finance Act 2004.]
