

Attachment of Earnings Act 1971

1971 CHAPTER 32

Subsequent proceedings

9 Variation, lapse and discharge of orders. E+W

- (1) The court [^{F1}, or where an attachment of earnings order is made under Schedule 5 to the Courts Act 2003, the court or the fines officer as the case may be,] may make an order discharging or varying an attachment of earnings order.
- (2) Where an order is varied, the employer shall, if he has been served with notice of the variation, comply with the order as varied; but he shall be under no liability for non-compliance before seven days have elapsed since the service.
- (3) Rules of court may make provision—
 - (a) as to the circumstances in which an attachment of earnings order [^{F2}made under this Act] may be varied or discharged by the court of its own motion;
 - [^{F3}(aa) as to the circumstances in which an attachment of earnings order made under Schedule 5 to the Courts Act 2003 may be varied or discharged by the court or the fines officer of its or his own motion;]
 - (b) in the case of an attachment of earnings order made by a magistrates' court, for enabling a single justice, on an application made by the debtor on the ground of a material change in his resources and needs since the order was made or last varied, to vary the order for a period of not more than four weeks by an increase of the protected earnings rate.
- (4) Where an attachment of earnings order has been made and the person to whom it is directed ceases to have the debtor in his employment, the order shall lapse (except as respects deduction from earnings paid after the cesser and payment to the collecting officer of amounts deducted at any time) and be of no effect unless and until the court [^{F4}, or where the order was made under Schedule 5 to the Courts Act 2003, unless and until the court or the fines officer as the case may be,] again directs it to a person (whether the same as before or another) who appears to the court [^{F5}or the fines officer (as the case may be)] to have the debtor in his employment.

10 Normal deduction rate to be reduced in certain cases. E+W

- (1) The following provisions shall have effect, in the case of an attachment of earnings order made to secure maintenance payments, where it appears to the collecting officer of the court that—
 - (a) the aggregate of the payments made for the purposes of the related maintenance order by the debtor (whether under the attachment of earnings order or otherwise) exceeds the aggregate of the payments required up to that time by the maintenance order; and
 - (b) the normal deduction rate specified by the attachment of earnings order (or, where two or more such orders are in force in relation to the maintenance order, the aggregate of the normal deduction rates specified by those orders) exceeds the rate of payments required by the maintenance order; and
 - (c) no proceedings for the variation or discharge of the attachment of earnings order are pending.
- (2) In the case of an order made by the High Court or [^{F6}the family] court, the collecting officer shall give the prescribed notice to the person to whom he is required to pay sums received under the attachment of earnings order, and to the debtor; and the court shall make the appropriate variation order, unless the debtor requests it to discharge the attachment of earnings order, or to vary it in some other way, and the court thinks fit to comply with the request.

^{F7}(3)

- (4) In this section, “the appropriate variation order” means an order varying the attachment of earnings order in question by reducing the normal deduction rate specified thereby so as to secure that that rate (or, in the case mentioned in subsection (1)(b) above, the aggregate of the rates therein mentioned)—
 - (a) is the same as the rate of payments required by the maintenance order; or
 - (b) is such lower rate as the court thinks fit having regard to the amount of the excess mentioned in subsection (1)(a).
