

Pensions (Increase) Act 1971

1971 CHAPTER 56

PART I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

8 Meaning of “pension”, and other supplementary provisions.

- (1) For purposes of this Act “pension” includes (subject to section 9 below)—
- (a) any allowance or other benefit payable (either in respect of the services of the pensioner or in respect of the services of any other person) by virtue of any superannuation scheme, whether contained in an enactment or otherwise, including a superannuation scheme providing benefits in the case of injury or death; and
 - (b) any compensation payable in respect of retirement from an office or employment in pursuance of the provisions of an enactment, any compensation payable in respect of the loss, abolition or relinquishment of an office or employment occasioned by an alteration in the organisation of a department or service or by a transfer or other reorganisation of the functions of local authorities, and any compensation payable in respect of a diminution in the emoluments of an office or employment which has been occasioned as aforesaid [^{F1}and
 - (c) without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (b) above, any compensation payable in pursuance of the provisions of a scheme under section 1 of the ^{M1}Superannuation Act 1972 made by virtue of section 2(2) of that Act or of regulations made under section 24 thereof]
- [^{F2}but does not include any money purchase benefits.]
- (2) A pension shall be deemed for purposes of this Act to begin on the day following the last day of the service in respect of which the pension is payable (whenever the pension accrues or becomes payable), except that—
- (a) an earnings-related pension based, directly or indirectly, on emoluments received for a period not ending with the last day of that service, other than
