"the Act of 1972") (buildings, that is to say, excepted from the power of local planning authorities to serve building preservation notices in respect of non-listed buildings).

- (2) If it appears to a local planning authority that, in the interests of preserving the character or appearance of any part of their district which is for the time being a conservation area, there should be power to control the demolition of the buildings therein to which this section applies, or any one or more of those buildings, they may direct that the buildings or building in question be subject to control under this section; and while such a direction is in force as respects any building, the provisions of the Act of 1972 specified in Part I of Schedule 3 to this Act shall have effect in relation to the building subject to and in accordance with the provisions of that Part.
- (3) A local planning authority making a direction under subsection (2) above shall forthwith submit it to the Secretary of State for confirmation, and the Secretary of State may confirm the direction in the form in which it is submitted to him, confirm it subject to the exclusion of any building or buildings specified in the confirmation, or refuse to confirm it.
- (4) A direction under subsection (2) above shall come into force on the day on which it is confirmed by the Secretary of State or, if it contains a declaration by the local planning authority that it is expedient that it should have immediate effect, on the day on which it is made.
- (5) A local planning authority may by a direction made under this subsection, which shall not require confirmation by the Secretary of State but shall take effect on the day on which it is made, revoke any direction under subsection (2) above, or vary any such direction so as to exclude any building or buildings therefrom.
- (6) Where a building to which a direction under subsection (2) above relates becomes a listed building or ceases to be in a conservation area, the direction shall cease to be in force as respects that building ; and, in the case of a direction containing such a declaration as is mentioned in subsection (4) above—
 - (a) if during the period of six months beginning with the date on which the direction is made the Secretary of State notifies the local planning authority that he does not propose to confirm it, the direction shall cease to be in force as from the day on which the notification is received by them,
 - (b) if during that period the Secretary of State confirms the direction subject to the exclusion of a specified building or buildings, the direction shall thereupon cease to be in force as respects that building or those buildings,
 - (c) if neither of the above paragraphs applies, the direction shall cease to be in force at the end of that period unless the Secretary of State has by then confirmed it in the form in which it was submitted to him.
- (7) The provisions of Part II of Schedule 3 to this Act shall have effect for the purpose of supplementing the preceding provisions of this section.
- (8) The preceding provisions of this section and the said Schedule 3 shall be construed as one with the Act of 1972.”

In section 10(1), for the words "or, in Scotland, section 1 of the Civic Amenities Act 1967" there shall be substituted the words " or section 262 of the Act of 1972 ".

For Schedule 3 there shall be substituted the following Schedule :—

“SCHEDULE 3

PROVISIONS AS TO CONTROL OF DEMOLITION IN CONSERVATION AREAS

PART I

APPLICATION OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (SCOTLAND) ACT 1972

- 1 Section 53 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1972 (hereinafter referred to as " the Act of 1972 ") (requirement of consent of local planning authority or Secretary of State to works affecting listed buildings) shall apply in relation to any works for the demolition of the building as if it were a listed building, but with the omission of subsections (2)(b) and (3); and subsections (3), (5) and (6) of section 54 of that Act and Parts I and II of Schedule 10 thereto (supplementary) shall apply accordingly in relation to listed building consent for any such works, but—
 - (a) with the said subsection (3) modified by the substitution, for the reference to the desirability of preserving the building or any features of special architectural or historic interest which it possesses, of a reference to the desirability of preserving the character or appearance of the conservation area, and
 - (b) with the omission from the said Parts I and II of paragraph 5, paragraph 6, sub-paragraphs (2) and (3)(6) of paragraph 7 and paragraph 10.
- 2 Sections 92 to 95 of the Act of 1972 (listed building enforcement notices) shall apply in relation to the building as if it were a listed building, but—
 - (a) with section 92(1) modified by the substitution, for the words " the character of the building as one of special architectural or historic interest " , of the words " the character or appearance of the conservation area in which the building is situated " ,
 - (b) with section 93(1) modified by the substitution of the following for paragraph (a)—
 - “(a) that power to control the demolition of the building is not necessary in the interests of preserving the character or appearance of the conservation area in which it is situated”, and

 - (c) with the omission from section 93(5) of paragraphs (b) and (c).
- 3 Section 161 of the Act of 1972 (compensation) shall have effect on the revocation or modification as mentioned in subsection (1) of that section of any listed building consent granted in respect of the building ; and section 179 of that Act and Schedule 17 thereto (listed building purchase notices) shall have effect where listed building consent in respect of the building is refused, granted subject to conditions, revoked or modified as mentioned in subsection (1) of the said section 179.
- 4 If the building is Crown land, section 253(1)(6) of the Act of 1972 shall have effect with respect to the application of any provision thereto by virtue of this Part of this Schedule.

PART II

SUPPLEMENTARY

- 5 On the confirmation by the Secretary of State of any direction made under subsection (2) of section 9 of this Act by a local planning authority, or the making by any local planning authority of a direction under subsection (5) of that section, a copy of the direction and confirmation or of the direction, as the case may be, certified by the clerk of the authority to be a true copy, shall be deposited by that authority with the clerk of any local authority in whose district any building to which the direction relates is situated.

In this paragraph "local authority" means a county council or the town council of a burgh.

- 6 Every local authority with whom a copy of any direction is deposited under paragraph 5 above shall compile and keep available for public inspection free of charge at reasonable hours and at a convenient place a list containing particulars of any building in their district to which the direction relates.

- 7 A local planning authority making a direction under subsection (2) of the said section 9 containing such a declaration as is mentioned in subsection (4) of that section shall forthwith serve on every person who is an owner, lessee or occupier of any building to which the direction relates a notice stating that the direction has been made and explaining its effect, and, on being notified by the Secretary of State of his decision with respect to confirmation of the direction, shall forthwith notify every such person of the decision and where any direction under the said subsection (2) not containing such a declaration is confirmed by the Secretary of State, or a direction is made under subsection (5) of the said section 9, the local planning authority making the direction shall forthwith serve on every person who is an owner, lessee or occupier of any building affected by the direction a notice stating that the direction has been made and confirmed or, as the case may be, made, and (unless it is a direction under the said subsection (5)) explaining its effect.

- 8 (1) If a direction under subsection (2) of the said section 9 containing such a declaration as is mentioned in subsection (4) of that section ceases to be in force as respects any building by virtue of paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (6) of that section, then, subject to a claim in that behalf being made to the local planning authority within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner, any person who at the time when the direction was made had an interest in the building shall be entitled to be paid compensation by the authority in respect of any loss or damage directly attributable to the effect of the direction.

- (2) The loss or damage in respect of which compensation is payable under sub-paragraph (1) above shall include a sum payable in respect of a breach of contract caused by the necessity of countermanding any works to the building on account of the direction being in force with respect thereto.

- 9 (1) The following provisions of this paragraph shall have effect where any direction under sub-paragraph (2) of the said section 9 ceases to be in force as respects any building, but, in the case of sub-paragraph (4), not where the direction ceases to be in force by reason of the building becoming a listed building.

- (2) The fact that the direction has ceased to be in force shall not affect the liability of any person to be prosecuted and punished for an offence under section 53 or 94 of the Act of 1972 committed by him with respect to the building while the direction was in force.

- (3) Any proceedings on or arising out of an application for listed building consent made while the direction was in force shall lapse, and any listed building consent granted with respect to the building while the notice was in force shall also lapse.
- (4) Any listed building enforcement notice served by the local planning authority while the direction was in force shall cease to have effect, and any proceedings thereon under sections 92 and 93 of the Act of 1972 shall lapse, but section 95(1) and (2) of that Act shall continue to have effect as respects any expenses incurred by the local authority, owner, lessee or occupier as therein mentioned and with respect to any sums paid on account of such expenses.”
