148 Agreement for services of unlicensed trader.

- (1) An agreement for the services of a person carrying on an ancillary credit business (the “trader”), if made when the trader was unlicensed, is enforceable against the other party (the “customer”) only where the [F⁴OFT] has made an order under subsection (2) which applies to the agreement.
- (2) The trader or his successor in title may apply to the [F⁴OFT] for an order that agreements within subsection (1) are to be treated as if made when the trader was licensed.
- (3) Unless the [F⁴OFT] determines to make an order under subsection (2) in accordance with the application, [F⁵it] shall, before determining the application, by notice—
 - (a) inform the trader, giving [F⁶its] reasons, that, as the case may be, [F⁵it] is minded to refuse the application, or to grant it in terms different from those applied for, describing them, and
 - (b) invite the trader to submit to the [F⁴OFT] representations in support of his application in accordance with section 34.
- (4) In determining whether or not to make an order under subsection (2) in respect of any period the [F⁴OFT] shall consider, in addition to any other relevant factors,—
 - (a) how far, if at all, customers, under agreements made by the trader during that period were prejudiced by the trader’s conduct,
 - (b) whether or not the [F⁴OFT] would have been likely to grant a licence covering that period on an application by the trader, and
 - (c) the degree of culpability for the failure to obtain a licence.
- (5) If the [F⁴OFT] thinks fit, [F⁷it] may in an order under subsection (2)—
 - (a) limit the order to specified agreements, or agreements of a specified description or made at a specified time;
 - (b) make the order conditional on the doing of specified acts by the trader.
- [F⁸(6) This section does not apply to an agreement made by a consumer credit EEA firm unless at the time it was made that firm was precluded from entering into it as a result of—
 - (a) a consumer credit prohibition imposed under section 203 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000; or
 - (b) a restriction imposed on the firm under section 204 of that Act.]

149 Regulated agreements made on introductions by unlicensed credit-broker.

- (1) A regulated agreement made by a debtor or hirer who, for the purpose of making that agreement, was introduced to the creditor or owner by an unlicensed credit-broker is enforceable against the debtor or hirer only where—
- on the application of the credit-broker, the [F9OFT] has made an order under section 148(2) in respect of a period including the time when the introduction was made, and the order does not (whether in general terms or specifically) exclude the application of this paragraph to the regulated agreement, or
 - the [F9OFT] has made an order under subsection (2) which applies to the agreement.
- (2) Where during any period individuals were introduced to a person carrying on a consumer credit business or consumer hire business by an unlicensed credit-broker for the purpose of making regulated agreements with the person carrying on that business, that person or his successor in title may apply to the [F9OFT] for an order that regulated agreements so made are to be treated as if the credit-broker had been licensed at the time of the introduction.
- (3) Unless the [F9OFT] determines to make an order under subsection (2) in accordance with the application, [F10it] shall, before determining the application, by notice—
- inform the applicant, giving [F11its] reasons, that, as the case may be, [F10it] is minded to refuse the application, or to grant it in terms different from those applied for, describing them, and
 - invite the applicant to submit to the [F9OFT] representations in support of his application in accordance with section 34.
- (4) In determining whether or not to make an order under subsection (2) the [F9OFT] shall consider, in addition to any other relevant factors—
- how far, if at all, debtors or hirers under regulated agreements to which the application relates were prejudiced by the credit-broker's conduct, and
 - the degree of culpability of the applicant in facilitating the carrying on by the credit-broker of his business when unlicensed.
- (5) If the [F9OFT] thinks fit, [F12it] may in an order under subsection (2)—
- limit the order to specified agreements, or agreements of a specified description or made at a specified time;
 - make the order conditional on the doing of specified acts by the applicant.

the meaning of section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, other than an exempt generic communication (as defined in section 43(3B)).]

- (3) The Secretary of State may by order provide that an advertisement published for the purposes of a business of credit brokerage, debt adjusting or debt counselling shall not fall within subsection (1) or (2) if it is of a description specified in the order.
- (4) An advertisement does not fall within subsection (2) if it indicates that the advertiser is not willing to act in relation to consumer credit agreements and consumer hire agreements.
- (5) In subsections (1) and (3) “credit brokerage” includes the effecting of introductions of individuals desiring to obtain credit to any person carrying on a business in the course of which he provides credit secured on land.

Textual Amendments

F14 S. 151(2A) inserted (1.9.2002) by S.I. 2001/544, arts. 2, 90(7); S.I. 2001/3538, art. 2

152 Application of sections 52 to 54 to credit brokerage etc.

- (1) Sections 52 to 54 apply to a business of credit brokerage, debt-adjusting or debt-counselling as they apply to a consumer credit business.
- (2) In their application to a business of credit brokerage, sections 52 and 53 shall apply to the giving of quotations and information about the business of any person to whom the credit-broker effects introductions as well as to the giving of quotations and information about his own business.

153 Definition of canvassing off trade premises (agreements for ancillary credit services).

- (1) An individual (the “canvasser”) canvasses off trade premises the services of a person carrying on an ancillary credit business if he solicits the entry of another individual (the “consumer”) into an agreement for the provision to the consumer of those services by making oral representations to the consumer, or any other individual, during a visit by the canvasser to any place (not excluded by subsection (2)) where the consumer, or that other individual as the case may be, is, being a visit—
 - (a) carried out for the purpose of making such oral representations to individuals who are at that place, but
 - (b) not carried out in response to a request made on a previous occasion.
- (2) A place is excluded from subsection (1) if it is a place where (whether on a permanent or temporary basis)—
 - (a) the ancillary credit business is carried on, or
 - (b) any business is carried on by the canvasser or the person whose employee or agent the canvasser is, or by the consumer.

154 Prohibition of canvassing certain ancillary credit services off trade premises.

It is an offence to canvass off trade premises the services of a person carrying on a business of credit-brokerage, debt-adjusting or debt-counselling.

155 Right to recover brokerage fees.

- (1) The excess over [^{F15}£5] of a fee or commission for his services charged by a credit-broker to an individual to whom this subsection applies shall cease to be payable or, as the case may be, shall be recoverable by the individual if the introduction does not result in his entering into a relevant agreement within the six months following the introduction (disregarding any agreement which is cancelled under section 69(1) or becomes subject to section 69(2)).
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to an individual who sought an introduction for a purpose which would have been fulfilled by his entry into—
 - (a) a regulated agreement, or
 - (b) in the case of an individual such as is referred to in section 145(2)(a)(ii), an agreement for credit secured on land, or
 - (c) an agreement such as is referred to in section 145(3)(b) or (c) or (4)(b).
- (3) An agreement is a relevant agreement for the purposes of subsection (1) in relation to an individual if it is an agreement such as is referred to in subsection (2) in relation to that individual.
- (4) In the case of an individual desiring to obtain credit under a consumer credit agreement, any sum payable or paid by him to a credit-broker otherwise than as a fee or commission for the credit-broker's services shall for the purposes of subsection (1) be treated as such a fee or commission if it enters, or would enter, into the total charge for credit.

Textual Amendments

F15 "£5" substituted (1.5.1998) in s. 155(1) by S.I. 1998/997, art. 3, Sch.

Entry into agreements

156 Entry into agreements.

Regulations may make provision, in relation to agreements entered into in the course of a business of credit brokerage, debt-adjusting or debt-counselling, corresponding, with such modifications as the Secretary of State thinks fit, to the provision which is or may be made by or under sections 55, 60, 61, 62, 63, 65, 127, 179 or 180 in relation to agreements to which those sections apply.

Credit reference agencies

157 Duty to disclose name etc. of agency.

- (1) A creditor, owner or negotiator, within the prescribed period after receiving a request in writing to that effect from the debtor or hirer, shall give him notice of the name and address of any credit reference agency from which the creditor, owner or negotiator has, during the antecedent negotiations, applied for information about his financial standing.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a request received more than 28 days after the termination of the antecedent negotiations, whether on the making of the regulated agreement or otherwise.
- (3) If the creditor, owner or negotiator fails to comply with subsection (1) he commits an offence.

158 Duty of agency to disclose filed information.

- (1) A credit reference agency, within the prescribed period after receiving,—
 - (a) a request in writing to that effect from any [^{F16}partnership or other unincorporated body of persons not consisting entirely of bodies corporate] (the “consumer ”), and
 - (b) such particulars as the agency may reasonably require to enable them to identify the file, and
 - (c) a fee of [^{F17}£2],shall give the consumer a copy of the file relating to [^{F18}it] kept by the agency.
- (2) When giving a copy of the file under subsection (1), the agency shall also give the consumer a statement in the prescribed form of [^{F19}the consumer’s] rights under section 159.
- (3) If the agency does not keep a file relating to the consumer it shall give [^{F19}the consumer] notice of that fact, but need not return any money paid.
- (4) If the agency contravenes any provision of this section it commits an offence.
- (5) In this Act “file ”, in relation to an individual, means all the information about him kept by a credit reference agency, regardless of how the information is stored, and “copy of the file ”, as respects information not in plain English, means a transcript reduced into plain English.

 - (c) taken no action,
- and if the notice states that the agency has amended the entry it shall include a copy of the file so far as it comprises the amended entry.
- (3) Within 28 days after receiving a notice under subsection (2), or where no such notice was given, within 28 days after the expiry of the period mentioned in subsection (2), the [F21objector] may, unless he has been informed by the agency that it has removed the entry from his file, serve a further notice on the agency requiring it to add to the file an accompanying notice of correction (not exceeding 200 words) drawn up by the [F21objector], and include a copy of it when furnishing information included in or based on that entry.
- (4) Within 28 days after receiving a notice under subsection (3), the agency, unless it intends to apply to the [F21the relevant authority] under subsection (5), shall by notice inform the [F21objector] that it has received the notice under subsection (3) and intends to comply with it.
- (5) If—
- (a) the [F21objector] has not received a notice under subsection (4) within the time required, or
 - (b) it appears to the agency that it would be improper for it to publish a notice of correction because it is incorrect, or unjustly defames any person, or is frivolous or scandalous, or is for any other reason unsuitable,
- the [F21objector] or, as the case may be, the agency may, in the prescribed manner and on payment of the specified fee, apply to [F21the relevant authority], who may make such order on the application as he thinks fit.
- (6) If a person to whom an order under this section is directed fails to comply with it within the period specified in the order he commits an offence.
- [F22(7) The [F23Information Commissioner] may vary or revoke any order made by him under this section.
- (8) In this section “the relevant authority ” means—
- (a) where the objector is a partnership or other unincorporated body of persons, the [F24OFT] , and
 - (b) in any other case, the [F23Information Commissioner].]

160 Alternative procedure for business consumers.

- (1) The [F25OFT], on an application made by a credit reference agency, may direct that this section shall apply to the agency if [F26it] is satisfied—
 - (a) that compliance with section 158 in the case of consumers who carry on a business would adversely affect the service provided to its customers by the agency, and
 - (b) that, having regard to the methods employed by the agency and to any other relevant factors, it is probable that consumers carrying on a business would not be prejudiced by the making of the direction.
- (2) Where an agency to which this section applies receives a request, particulars and a fee under section 158(1) from a consumer who carries on a business, and section 158(3) does not apply, the agency, instead of complying with section 158, may elect to deal with the matter under the following subsections.
- (3) Instead of giving the consumer a copy of the file, the agency shall within the prescribed period give notice to the consumer that it is proceeding under this section, and by notice give the consumer such information included in or based on entries in the file as the [F25OFT] may direct, together with a statement in the prescribed form of the consumer's rights under subsections (4) and (5).
- (4) If within 28 days after receiving the information given [F27to the consumer] under subsection (3), or such longer period as the [F25OFT] may allow, the consumer—
 - (a) gives notice to the [F25OFT] that [F28the consumer] is dissatisfied with the information, and
 - (b) satisfies the [F25OFT] that [F28the consumer] has taken such steps in relation to the agency as may be reasonable with a view to removing the cause of [F28the consumer's] dissatisfaction, and
 - (c) pays the [F25OFT] the specified fee,the [F25OFT] may direct the agency to give the [F25OFT] a copy of the file, and the [F25OFT] may disclose to the consumer such of the information on the file as the [F25OFT] thinks fit.
- (5) Section 159 applies with any necessary modifications to information given to the consumer under this section as it applies to information given under section 158.
- (6) If an agency making an election under subsection (2) fails to comply with subsection (3) or (4) it commits an offence.

[F29(7) In this section “consumer ” has the same meaning as in section 158.]
