Registration as a credit union

1 Registration under the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965.

- (1) Subject to [<sup>F1</sup>section 6(4)]below and to sections 2(1) and 7(1) of the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965 (in this Act referred to as “the 1965 Act”), a society may be registered under that Act if—
- it is shown to the satisfaction of the [<sup>F2</sup>FCA] that the conditions specified in subsection (2) below are fulfilled;
  - the rules of the society comply with section 4(1) below; <sup>F3</sup> . . .
  - the place which under those rules is to be the society’s registered office is situated in Great Britain;

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Credit Unions Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- [<sup>F4</sup>(d) the society has made an application [<sup>F5</sup> for permission under Part 4A ] of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (in this Act referred to as “the 2000 Act”) to accept deposits; <sup>F6</sup> ... ]
- [<sup>F7</sup>(e) the FCA is satisfied that, once registered under the 1965 Act, the society will satisfy, and continue to satisfy, the threshold conditions (within the meaning of section 55B(1) of the 2000 Act) for which the FCA is responsible in relation to the regulated activity of accepting deposits; and
  - (f) the PRA is satisfied that, once registered under the 1965 Act, the society will satisfy, and continue to satisfy, the threshold conditions (within the meaning of section 55B(1) of the 2000 Act) for which the PRA is responsible in relation to the regulated activity of accepting deposits. ] and a society which is so registered by virtue of this section shall be registered as, and is in this Act referred to as, a “credit union”.

[<sup>F8</sup>(1A) The PRA must notify the FCA if it is satisfied as mentioned in paragraph (f) of subsection (1).

(1B) The FCA must not issue an acknowledgement of registration under section 2(3) of the 1965 Act to a credit union unless—

- (a) if the FCA is the appropriate regulator (within the meaning of section 55A of the 2000 Act), it proposes to give that society permission under Part 4A of the 2000 Act to accept deposits;
- (b) if the PRA is the appropriate regulator (within the meaning of section 55A of the 2000 Act), the PRA proposes to give that society permission under Part 4A of the 2000 Act to accept deposits.

(1C) The PRA must notify the FCA if it proposes to give that society permission under Part 4A of the 2000 Act to accept deposits.

(1D) If the FCA issues an acknowledgement of registration to a credit union under that section, the appropriate regulator (within the meaning of section 55A of the 2000 Act) must determine any outstanding application of that credit union for permission under Part 4A of the 2000 Act to accept deposits as soon as reasonably possible thereafter. ]

(2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1)(a) above are—

- (a) that the objects of the society are those, and only those, of a credit union; and
- [<sup>F9</sup>(b) that the requirements of section 1A (common bonds appropriate to a credit union) and, where applicable, section 1B (further requirements where common bond relates to locality) are met.]

(3) The objects of a credit union are—

- (a) the promotion of thrift among the members of the society by the accumulation of their savings;
- (b) the creation of sources of credit for the benefit of the members of the society at a fair and reasonable rate of interest;
- (c) the use and control of the members’ savings for their mutual benefit; and
- (d) the training and education of the members in the wise use of money and in the management of their financial affairs.

[<sup>F12</sup>1A. Common bonds appropriate to a credit union

- (1) Under the rules of the society admission to membership must be restricted to persons who fall within one or more common bonds appropriate to a credit union (whether or not any other qualifications for admission to membership are required under the rules).
- (2) The common bonds appropriate to a credit union are—
  - (a) following a particular occupation;
  - (b) being employed by a particular employer;
  - (c) residing or being employed in a particular locality;
  - (d) being a member of a bona fide organisation or being otherwise associated with other members of the society for a purpose other than that of forming a society to be registered as a credit union;
  - (e) any other common bond for the time being approved by the [<sup>F13</sup>FCA].
- (3) If the rules of a credit union so provide, a person who is a member of the same household as, and is a relative of, another person who is a member of the credit union and falls directly within a common bond is treated as also falling within that common bond.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, a body corporate or a person applying for membership in his capacity as a partner in a partnership or an officer or member of the governing body of an unincorporated association—

- (a) falls within the common bond specified in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) if the principal business of the body corporate, partnership or unincorporated association—
    - (i) requires it to employ or otherwise engage persons who follow that occupation, or
    - (ii) relates to that occupation in some other way;
  - (b) falls within the common bond specified in paragraph (b) of that subsection if the body corporate, partnership or unincorporated association—
    - (i) employs the persons who qualify for membership under that common bond, or
    - (ii) provides services, or is otherwise related, to that employer;
  - (c) falls within the common bond specified in paragraph (c) of that subsection if the body corporate, partnership or unincorporated association has a place of business in, or other significant connection with, that locality; and
  - (d) falls within the common bond specified in paragraph (d) of that subsection if the body corporate, partnership or unincorporated association is a member of a bona fide organisation or otherwise associated with other members of the society for the purpose specified in that paragraph.
- (5) The [F14FCA] may accept as sufficient evidence that the requirement of this section is met a statutory declaration to that effect given by three members and the secretary of the society.

1B. Further requirements where common bond relates to locality

- (1) The requirements of this section must be met where—
  - (a) the rules of a society provide for one or more common bonds involving a connection with a locality, or
  - (b) the rules of a society provide for one or more common bonds of such other description as may be specified.
- (2) The requirements are—
  - (a) that the conditions in subsection (3) are met, or
  - (b) that extraordinary circumstances exist justifying registration of the society as a credit union.
- (3) The conditions are—
  - (a) that the number of potential members of the society does not exceed two million or such higher figure as may be specified; and

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Credit Unions Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) that it is reasonably practicable for every potential member to participate in votes of the society, serve on the society's committee and have access to all the services offered by the society.
- (4) The [<sup>F15</sup>FCA] may accept as sufficient evidence that the conditions in subsection (3) are met a statutory declaration to that effect given by three members and the secretary of the society.
- (5) In this section "specified" means specified by order made by the Treasury.]

- (2) In section 2(3) of the 1965 Act (acknowledgement of registration) as it applies to registration as a credit union the reference to compliance with the provisions of the 1965 Act shall be construed, subject to subsection (1) above, as a reference to compliance with the provisions as to registration of both that Act and this Act.
- (3) A society whose objects are wholly or substantially those of a credit union within the meaning of section 1(3) above shall not be registered under the 1965 Act otherwise than as a credit union and, except in the case of a registration made before the commencement of this Act, any such registration shall be void.
- (4) A society which at the commencement of this Act is registered under the 1965 Act but whose objects are wholly or substantially those of a credit union within the meaning of section 1(3) above shall take all reasonable steps to have its existing registration cancelled and become registered as a credit union.
- (5) Where in accordance with subsection (4) above a society's existing registration is cancelled on its registration as a credit union, the society shall, notwithstanding anything in section 16(7) or section 3 of the 1965 Act, be taken for all purposes to be the same body corporate before and after the change of registration.

3 Use of name “credit union”, etc.

(1) The name of every society registered as a credit union shall contain the words “credit union”<sup>[F18]</sup> or, if the rules of the society state that its registered office is to be in Wales, either those words or the words “undeb credyd”].

(2) Subject to subsection (3) below, a person shall not, unless registered as a credit union,

- (a) use in reference to himself a name, title or descriptive expression containing the words “credit union” or <sup>[F19]</sup>undeb credyd or] any cognate term or any derivative of those words; or
- (b) represent himself as being a credit union;

and any person who contravenes this subsection shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding <sup>[F20]</sup>level 4 on the standard scale].

- (a) the use, in reference to itself, of a name, title or descriptive expression by any body corporate which falls within subsection (3A) below;
- (b) the use by any person or unincorporated association with reference to himself (or itself) of a name which has been approved in writing by the <sup>[F22]</sup>FCA]; or
- (c) the use by any officer or employee of—
  - (i) a credit union,
  - (ii) a body corporate which falls within subsection (3A) below, or
  - (iii) a person or association which has obtained approval under paragraph (b) above, of a title or descriptive expression indicating his office or post with that credit union, body, person or association.]

<sup>[F23]</sup>(3A) A body corporate falls within this subsection if its head office is not in England, Wales or Scotland and it—

- (a) has <sup>[F24]</sup>permission under Part 4A of the 2000 Act] to accept deposits;
- (b) is exempt from the prohibition imposed by section 19 of that Act in respect of accepting deposits;
- (c) has permission under that Act to accept deposits by virtue of qualifying for authorisation under Schedule 3 or 4 to that Act; or
- (d) is subject to legal provisions that are similar to the relevant provisions.

(3B) For the purposes of subsection (3A)(d) above, a body corporate is to be treated as being subject to legal provisions that are similar to the relevant provisions if it is subject to legal provisions which—

- (a) provide that the main activities carried on by the body are accepting deposits from, and lending money to, persons who are members or shareholders of the body;
- (b) require the body to obtain authorisation or approval before it commences business;
- (c) require the members and shareholders of the body to be linked by reference to some common characteristic or circumstance; and
- (d) provide that those from whom the body accepts deposits must be shareholders or members of the body (although the legal provisions may allow for some exceptions to this proposition).

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Credit Unions Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

(3C) In determining, for the purposes of subsection (3A)(d) above, whether a body corporate is subject to legal provisions that are similar to the relevant provisions, regard must be had as to whether the legal provisions to which it is subject require the body to obtain authorisation or approval before it commences business and whether those provisions—

- (a) impose limits on the objects which the body may or must have,
- (b) impose limits on the membership of the body,
- (c) impose restrictions on the kind of activities which the body may carry on,
- (d) impose limits or conditions on the body's ability to accept deposits,
- (e) impose limits on the value of the shares which any one shareholder may have in the body,
- (f) impose limits on the body's ability to lend money, which are similar to those imposed by the relevant provisions.

(3D) In this section—

- (a) “legal provisions” includes laws, regulations and administrative provisions;
- (b) “relevant provisions” means—
  - (i) the provisions of this Act; and
  - (ii) any provision of or made under the 1965 Act or the 2000 Act so far as it relates to credit unions.]

(4) For the purposes of section 5(5) of the 1965 Act (societies which may be permitted to have a name which does not contain the word “limited”) the objects of a credit union shall not be regarded as wholly charitable or benevolent.

7 Shares.

- (1) All shares in a credit union shall be of £1 denomination and may, subject to the rules of the credit union, be subscribed for either in full or by periodical or other subscriptions but no share shall be allotted to a member until it has been fully paid in cash.
- (2) Shares in a credit union [<sup>F44</sup>, other than deferred shares,] shall not be transferable and a credit union shall not issue to a member a certificate denoting ownership of a share.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) above shall affect the operation of section 24(1) of the 1965 Act (transfer in pursuance of nomination on death of nominator).
- (4) Subject to subsection (5) [<sup>F45</sup>and section 11(1C)] below, shares in a credit union [<sup>F46</sup>, other than deferred shares,] shall be withdrawable but a credit union shall not issue shares except on terms enabling it to require not less than sixty days' notice of withdrawal.
- [<sup>F47</sup>(5) Where a credit union has made a loan to a member which is treated by virtue of section 11A(2) below as a secured loan, the member shall not be permitted to withdraw shares where his paid-up shareholding, excluding any deferred shares, in the credit union is, or following the withdrawal would be, less than his total liability (including contingent liability) to the credit union whether as borrower, guarantor or otherwise.]
- [<sup>F48</sup>(6) If deferred shares are subscribed for in full, the credit union shall transfer a sum equal to the amount paid on those shares to its reserves.]

[<sup>F49</sup>7A. Power to issue interest-bearing shares

- (1) A credit union may issue interest-bearing shares if—
  - (a) its rules so provide;
  - (b) its most recent year end balance sheet shows that it holds reserves of at least £50,000 or five per cent of its total assets, whichever is greater;
  - (c) its auditors have made a report under section 9 of the Friendly and Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1968 on that balance sheet;
  - (d) it has submitted that balance sheet to the [<sup>F50</sup>appropriate authority]; and
  - (e) it has submitted to the [<sup>F50</sup>appropriate authority] a report by its auditors (post-dating the balance sheet referred to in paragraph (b) above), stating that in their opinion the credit union satisfies such conditions as are specified by the [F50 appropriate authority] for the purpose.

- (2) A credit union which issues interest-bearing shares must submit to the [F50 appropriate authority] an annual report by the auditors appointed to audit its accounts and balance sheet fulfilling the requirements of paragraph (e) of subsection (1) above by the date specified by the [F50 appropriate authority] for the purpose.
- (3) A credit union shall convert any interest-bearing shares in issue into shares which are not interest-bearing if—
  - (a) its rules no longer provide for the issue of interest-bearing shares;
  - (b) neither its most recent year end balance sheet nor the balance sheet immediately preceding it—
    - (i) shows that the credit union holds reserves of at least £50,000 or five per cent of its total assets, whichever is greater; or
    - (ii) has been submitted to the [F50 appropriate authority] by the date specified; or
  - (c) for two consecutive years it has not complied with subsection (2) above.
- (4) The Treasury may by order provide for subsections (1)(b) and (3)(b)(i) above to have effect as if the references to £50,000 and five per cent were references to such other sum or percentage as they think appropriate.
- (5) In this section “year end balance sheet” has the same meaning as in section 3A of the Friendly and Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1968.
- (6) In this Act “interest-bearing share” means a share issued on terms which entitle the holder to interest but not to a dividend.]

20 Cancellation or suspension of registration and petition for winding up.

(1) In subsection (1) of section 16 of the 1965 Act (grounds for cancellation of registration) as it applies to credit unions—

- (a) in paragraph (c)(i) the reference to violation of any of the provisions of the 1965 Act shall be construed as including a reference to violation of any of the provisions of this Act; and
- (b) in paragraph (c)(ii) the reference to the fact that neither of the conditions in section 1(2) of that Act is fulfilled shall be construed as a reference to the fact that <sup>F88</sup>the rules of a credit union provide for one or more common bonds involving a connection with a locality and the requirements of section 1B are no longer met];

and section 17(1) of that Act (suspension of registration on grounds which would justify cancellation) and section 18 of that Act (appeals) shall apply accordingly.

<sup>F89</sup><sup>F90</sup>(1A) The FCA may also exercise the power to cancel the registration of a credit union under section 16 of the 1965 Act if the credit union's permission under Part 4A of the 2000 Act has been cancelled or if the credit union has received a warning notice under section 55Z of the 2000 Act.

(1B) The FCA must not cancel the registration of a credit union under section 16 of the 1965 Act by virtue of subsection (1A) unless the appropriate regulator (within the meaning of section 55A of the 2000 Act) has cancelled the credit union's permission under Part 4A of the 2000 Act and there is no possibility (or no further possibility) of that determination of the appropriate regulator being reversed or varied. ]

(1C) In its application to credit unions, in subsection (4) of section 16 of the 1965 Act, the reference to the ground referred to in subsection (1)(c)(ii) shall include a reference to the ground mentioned in subsection (1A) of this section.

(1D) Section 18 of the 1965 Act does not apply in relation to a decision of the <sup>F91</sup>FCA] to cancel the registration of a credit union by virtue of subsection (1A) of this section (and so a society may not appeal from a decision of the <sup>F91</sup>FCA] to cancel its registration by virtue of subsection (1A)). ]

<sup>F92</sup>(1E) If the credit union is a PRA -authorised person, the FCA must consult the PRA before cancelling the registration of the credit union by virtue of subsection (1A). ]

(2) A petition for the winding up of a credit union may be presented to the court by the <sup>F93</sup>FCA or the PRA] if it appears to <sup>F94</sup>the <sup>F93</sup>FCA or the PRA]] that—

- (a) the credit union is unable to pay sums due and payable to its members, or is able to pay such sums only by obtaining further subscriptions for shares or by defaulting in its obligations to creditors; or
- (b) there has been, in relation to that credit union, a failure to comply with any provision of, or of any direction given under, this Act or the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts 1965 to 1978; or
- <sup>F95</sup>(c) the rules of a credit union provide for one or more common bonds involving a connection with a locality and the requirements of section 1B are no longer met;]

or in any other case where it appears to <sup>F94</sup>the <sup>F93</sup>FCA or the PRA]] that the winding up of the credit union is in the public interest or is just and equitable having regard to the interests of all the members of the credit union.

- [<sup>F140</sup>31(A)] In this Act, references to deferred shares are to a class of shares where—
- (a) the rights and obligations of the credit union and the member in respect of those shares are set out in a single document, or in a series of documents (“the issue documents”);
  - (b) each of the issue documents is provided to every applicant for the shares;
  - (c) one of the issue documents contains a prominent statement to the effect that the shares are deferred shares for the purposes of this Act;
  - (d) each of the issue documents contains a prominent statement stating whether the shares are, or are not, an investment covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (see section 213 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000);
  - (e) any document evidencing title to the shares contains the statements required by paragraphs (c) and (d) above;
  - (f) one of the issue documents contains a term which prohibits the repayment of any principal to the shareholder except in Case A or Case B.
- (2) Case A is the winding up or dissolution of the credit union in circumstances where all sums due from the credit union to creditors claiming in the winding up or dissolution are paid in full.
- (3) Case B is where—
- (a) the credit union applies to the [<sup>F141</sup>appropriate authority] for consent to repay principal to the shareholder,
  - (b) the credit union so applies otherwise than in consequence of a provision in any of the issue documents which requires it to apply, grants it any benefit for applying or imposes a sanction against failure to apply, and

Textual Amendments

F166 Sch. 3 repealed by Banking Act 1987 (c. 22, SIF 10), s. 108(2), Sch. 7 Pt. I

Powers of chief registrar

- 1 (1) The chief registrar may, by order made with the consent of the Treasury, designate as an authorised bank for the purposes of this Act any body corporate or partnership carrying on the business of banking.
- (2) An order under sub-paragraph (1) above may be varied or revoked by a subsequent order made by the chief registrar with the consent of the Treasury.
- (3) Any order made under this paragraph shall be published in the Gazette.

Duration of powers

- 2 (1) When it appears to the Treasury that, the relevant provisions of the <sup>M5</sup>Banking Act 1979 having come into operation, there are in existence such number of recognised banks (within the meaning of that Act) as to render no longer necessary the powers conferred by paragraph 1 above, the Treasury shall by order made by statutory instrument provide that those powers may no longer be exercised.
- (2) An institution which, immediately before the date on which the Treasury order referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above comes into effect, was an authorised bank for the purposes of this Act solely by virtue of an order of the chief registrar under this Schedule shall cease to be an authorised bank for those purposes on that date.
