

Solicitors (Scotland) Act 1980

1980 CHAPTER 46

PART VI

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Miscellaneous

[^{F1}60A Multi-national practices.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, solicitors and incorporated practices may enter into multi-national practices with registered foreign lawyers.
- (2) The Council shall maintain a register of foreign lawyers, and may make rules with regard to registration; and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, such rules may include provision as to—
 - (a) the manner in which applications for registration are to be made;
 - (b) the fees payable in respect of such applications;
 - (c) conditions which may be imposed in respect of registration; and
 - (d) the period for which any such registration is to run.
- (3) Section 34(2) and (3) apply to rules made under subsection (2) as they apply to rules made under that section.
- (4) Any foreign lawyer may apply to the Council to be registered as such for the purposes of this section and the Council shall, if they are satisfied that the legal profession of which the applicant is a member is so regulated as to make it appropriate for him to be allowed to enter into a multi-national practice with solicitors or incorporated practices, enter his name on the register.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), the Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument provide that any enactment or instrument—
 - (a) passed or made before the commencement of this section;
 - (b) having effect in relation to solicitors; and
 - (c) specified in the order, shall have effect with respect to registered foreign lawyers as it has effect with respect to solicitors.

- (6) Before making any order under subsection (5), the Secretary of State shall consult the Council.
- (7) An order under subsection (5) may provide for an enactment or instrument to have effect with respect to registered foreign lawyers subject to such additions, omissions or other modifications as the Secretary of State specifies in the order.
- (8) No order shall be made under subsection (5) unless a draft of the order has been approved by both Houses of Parliament.]

61 Protection of banks.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, no bank [^{F2}or building society] shall, in connection with any transaction on any account of a solicitor [^{F3}or an incorporated practice] kept with it or with any other bank [^{F2}or building society]—
 - (a) incur any liability, or
 - (b) be under any obligation to make any enquiry, or
 - (c) be deemed to have any knowledge of any right of any person to any money paid or credited to the account, which it would not incur, or be under, or be deemed to have (as the case may be) in the case of an account kept by a person entitled absolutely to all money paid or credited to it; but nothing in this subsection shall relieve a bank [^{F2}or building society] from any liability or obligation under which it would be apart from this Act.
- (2) In subsection (1) “account” does not include an account kept by a solicitor [^{F3}or an incorporated practice] as trustee for a specified beneficiary.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything in the preceding provisions of this section a bank [^{F2}or building society] at which a solicitor [^{F4}or an incorporated practice] keeps a special account for clients’ money shall not, in respect of any liability of the solicitor [^{F4}or, as the case may be, the incorporated practice] to the bank [^{F2}or building society] (not being a liability in connection with that account) have or obtain any recourse or right, whether by way of set-off, counter-claim, charge or otherwise, against money standing to the credit of that account.
