

Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984

1984 CHAPTER 27

PART I

GENERAL PROVISIONS FOR TRAFFIC REGULATION

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Pt. 1 applied (with modifications) (S.) (19.4.2007) by Edinburgh Airport Rail Link Act 2007 \(asp. 16\), s. 38 (with ss. 52, 60)

Outside Greater London

1 Traffic regulation orders outside Greater London.

- (1) An order under this section (in this Act referred to as a “traffic regulation order”) may, subject to Parts I to III of Schedule 9 to this Act and to subsection (4) below, be made as respects any road outside Greater London where it appears to the authority making the order that it is expedient to make it—
- (a) for avoiding danger to persons or other traffic using the road or any other road or for preventing the likelihood of any such danger arising, or
  - (b) for preventing damage to the road or to any building on or near the road, or
  - (c) for facilitating the passage on the road or any other road of any class of traffic (including pedestrians), or
  - (d) for preventing the use of the road by vehicular traffic of a kind which, or its use by vehicular traffic in a manner which, is unsuitable having regard to the existing character of the road or adjoining property, or
  - (e) (without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (d) above) for preserving the character of the road in a case where it is specially suitable for use by persons on horseback or on foot, or
  - (f) for preserving or improving the amenities of the area through which the road runs.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The authority having power to make traffic regulation orders, subject to subsection (3) below, <sup>F1</sup>and to section 125 of this Act,—
- (a) as respects roads other than trunk roads, shall be the local authority, that is to say, the county council <sup>F2</sup>or metropolitan district council] in England or Wales and the local highway authority in Scotland, and
  - (b) as respects trunk roads, shall be the Secretary of State.]<sup>F1</sup>shall be the roads authority.]
- (3) A traffic regulation order made by a local <sup>F3</sup>roads] authority by virtue of subsection (2)
- (a) above may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, relate to a <sup>F4</sup>trunk road]<sup>F4</sup>road for which he is the roads authority] if the order forms part of a scheme of general traffic control relating to roads of which at least one has a junction with the length of <sup>F5</sup>trunk] road in question.
- (4) Where, by a notice published in the prescribed manner by the <sup>F6</sup>highway][<sup>F6</sup>roads] authority, a date has been or is declared to be the date on which a part of a special road is open for use as a special road, this section shall not apply in relation to that part of that road or (if the date so declared is a date after the commencement of this Act) shall not apply in relation to it on or after that date.
- (5) In subsection (4) above “the prescribed manner ” means the manner prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State which were or are in force at the time of publication of the notice.

2 What a traffic regulation order may provide.

- (1) The provision that may be made by a traffic regulation order is (subject to the following subsections and to sections 3 and 4 of this Act) any provision prohibiting, restricting or regulating the use of a road, or of any part of the width of a road, by vehicular traffic, or by vehicular traffic of any class specified in the order,—
- (a) either generally or subject to such exceptions as may be specified in the order or determined in a manner provided for by it, and
  - (b) subject to such exceptions as may be so specified or determined, either at all times or at times, on days or during periods so specified.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, but subject to section 3 of this Act, the provision that may be made by a traffic regulation order as mentioned in that subsection includes any provision—
- (a) requiring vehicular traffic, or vehicular traffic of any class specified in the order, to proceed in a specified direction or prohibiting its so proceeding;
  - (b) specifying the part of the carriageway to be used by such traffic proceeding in a specified direction;
  - (c) prohibiting or restricting the waiting of vehicles or the loading and unloading of vehicles;
  - (d) prohibiting the use of roads by through traffic; or
  - (e) prohibiting or restricting overtaking.
- (3) The provision that may be made by a traffic regulation order also includes provision prohibiting, restricting or regulating the use of a road, or of any part of the width of a road, by, or by any specified class of, pedestrians—
- (a) either generally or subject to exceptions specified in the order, and
  - (b) either at all times or at times, on days or during periods so specified.
- (4) A local [<sup>F7</sup>authority (as defined in section 1(2)(a) of this Act)] [<sup>F7</sup>roads authority] may include in a traffic regulation order any such provision—
- (a) specifying through routes for heavy commercial vehicles, or
  - (b) prohibiting or restricting the use of heavy commercial vehicles (except in such cases, if any, as may be specified in the order) in such zones or on such roads as may be so specified,
- as they consider expedient for preserving or improving the amenities of their area or of some part or parts of their area.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (4) above shall be construed as limiting the scope of any power or duty to control vehicles conferred or imposed on any local authority or the Secretary of State otherwise than by virtue of that subsection.

Textual Amendments

- F7 Words “roads authority ” substituted (S.) for words from “authority ” to “this Act) ” by Roads \(Scotland\) Act 1984 \(c. 54, SIF 108\), s. 128(1), Sch. 9 para. 93\(3\)

3 Restrictions on traffic regulation orders.

- (1) Except as provided by subsection (2) below or by section 37 of this Act, a traffic regulation order shall not be made with respect to any road which would have the effect—
- (a) of preventing at any time access for pedestrians, or
  - (b) of preventing for more than 8 hours in any period of 24 hours access for vehicles of any class,
- to any premises situated on or adjacent to the road, or to any other premises accessible for pedestrians, or (as the case may be) for vehicles of that class, from, and only from, the road.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Subsection (1) above, so far as it relates to vehicles, shall not have effect in so far as the authority making the order are satisfied, and it is stated in the order that they are satisfied, that—
- (a) for avoiding danger to persons or other traffic using the road to which the order relates or any other road, or
  - (b) for preventing the likelihood of any such danger arising, or
  - (c) for preventing damage to the road or buildings on or near it, or
  - (d) for facilitating the passage of vehicular traffic on the road, or
  - (e) for preserving or improving the amenities of an area by prohibiting or restricting the use on a road or roads in that area of heavy commercial vehicles,
- it is requisite that subsection (1) above should not apply to the order.
- (3) Provision for regulating the speed of vehicles on roads shall not be made by a traffic regulation order.
- (4) ..... F8

Textual Amendments

F8 S. 3(4) repealed by Transport Act 1985 \(c. 67, SIF 126\), s. 139(3), Sch. 8

4 Provisions supplementary to ss. 2 and 3.

- (1) A traffic regulation order may make provision for identifying any part of any road to which, or any time at which or period during which, any provision contained in the order is for the time being to apply by means of a traffic sign of a type or character specified in the order (being a type prescribed or character authorised under section 64 of this Act) and for the time being lawfully in place; and for the purposes of any such order so made any such traffic sign placed on and near a road shall be deemed to be lawfully in place unless the contrary is proved.
- (2) A traffic regulation order which imposes any restriction on the use by vehicles of a road, or the waiting of vehicles in a road, may include provision with respect to the issue and display of certificates or other means of identification of vehicles which are excepted from the restriction, whether generally or in particular circumstances or at particular times.
- (3) A traffic regulation order may also include provision with respect to the issue, display and operation of devices (to be approved either generally or specially by the Secretary of State) for indicating the time at which a vehicle arrived at, and the time at which it ought to leave, any place in a road in which waiting is restricted by the order, or one or other of those times, and for treating the indications given by any such device as evidence of such facts and for such purposes as may be prescribed by the order.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C4 S. 4 applied (with modifications)(6.3.1992) by Aberdeen Harbour Order Confirmation Act 1992 \(c. ii\), s. 1, Sch. s. 3\(2\).

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

5 Contravention of traffic regulation order.

- (1) A person who contravenes a traffic regulation order, or who uses a vehicle, or causes or permits a vehicle to be used in contravention of a traffic regulation order, shall be guilty of an offence.
- (2) Subsection (4) of section 1 of this Act shall have effect for the purposes of this section as it has effect for the purposes of that section.

In Greater London

6 Orders similar to traffic regulation orders.

- (1) Subject to Parts I to III of Schedule 9 to this Act and to subsections (4) and (5) below, an order under this section may be made for controlling or regulating vehicular and other traffic (including pedestrians) on roads in Greater London and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing words)—
  - (a) for any of the purposes, or with respect to any of the matters, mentioned in Schedule 1 to this Act, and
  - (b) for any other purpose which is a purpose mentioned in any of paragraphs (a) to (f) of section 1(1) of this Act.
- (2) The authority having power to make an order under this section—
  - (a) as respects any road other than a trunk road, shall be [<sup>F9</sup>the local authority, that is to say, the London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London], and
  - (b) as respects a trunk road, shall be the Secretary of State or, with the consent of the Secretary of State, that [<sup>F10</sup>local authority].
- (3) Any order under this section may be made so as to apply—
  - [<sup>F11</sup>(a) to the whole area of a local authority, or to particular parts of that area, or to particular places or streets or parts of streets in that area;]
  - (b) throughout the day, or during particular periods;
  - (c) on special occasions only, or at special times only;
  - (d) to traffic of any class;
  - (e) subject to such exceptions as may be specified in the order or determined in a manner provided for by it.
- (4) Where, by a notice published in the prescribed manner by the highway authority, a date has been or is declared to be the date on which a part of a special road is open for use as a special road, this section shall not apply in relation to that part of that road or (if the date so declared is a date after the commencement of this Act) shall not apply in relation to it on or after that date.
- (5) No order under this section shall contain any provision for regulating the speed of vehicles on roads.
- (6) In this section, in section 7 of this Act and in Schedule 1 to this Act “street” includes any highway, any bridge carrying a highway and any lane, mews, footway, square, court, alley or passage whether a thoroughfare or not; and in subsection (4) above “the prescribed manner” means the manner prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State which were or are in force at the time of publication of the notice.

7 Supplementary provisions as to orders under s. 6.

- (1) Any order under section 6 of this Act may make provision for identifying any part of any road to which, or any time at which or period during which, any provision contained in the order is for the time being to apply by means of a traffic sign of a type or character specified in the order (being a type prescribed or character authorised under section 64 of this Act) and for the time being lawfully in place; and, for the purposes of any order so made, any such traffic sign placed on or near a street shall be deemed to be lawfully in place unless the contrary is proved.
- (2) Any such order which imposes any restriction on the use by vehicles of streets in Greater London, or the waiting of vehicles in such streets, may include provision with respect to the issue and display of certificates or other means of identification of vehicles which are excepted from the restriction, whether generally or in particular circumstances or at particular times.
- (3) Any such order may also include provision with respect to the issue, display and operation of devices (to be approved either generally or specially by the Secretary of State) for indicating the time at which a vehicle arrived at, and the time at which it ought to leave, any place in a street in which waiting is restricted by the order, or one or other of those times, and for treating the indications given by any such device as evidence of such facts and for such purposes as may be prescribed by the order.
- (4) Any such order may provide for the suspension or modification, so long as the order remains in force, of any provisions of any Acts (whether public general or local or private, and including provisions contained in this Act), byelaws or regulations dealing with the same subject matter as the order, or of any Acts conferring power to make byelaws or regulations dealing with the same subject matter, so far as such provisions apply to any place or street to which the order applies.
- (5) No appeal shall lie to the Secretary of State from the [<sup>F12</sup>traffic commissioner for the Metropolitan Traffic Area under section 42 of the Transport Act 1985 in the case of a decision of his with respect to a London local service licence if and so far as he certifies] that the decision was necessary to secure conformity with any order in force under section 6 of this Act which prescribes—
  - (a) the routes to be followed, or streets which are not to be used, by vehicles affected by the decision, or
  - (b) the places in streets where such vehicles may or may not wait, or
  - (c) the stopping places for such vehicles.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) Before the Secretary of State for Transport makes any order under section 6 of this Act which will impose new or additional duties on the police, he shall consult the Secretary of State for the Home Department.
- (7) The reference in subsection (5) above to the Metropolitan Traffic Area shall be construed as if it were contained in the <sup>M1</sup>Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981.

8 Contravention of order under s. 6.

- (1) Any person who acts in contravention of, or fails to comply with, an order under section 6 of this Act shall be guilty of an offence.
- (2) Subsection (4) of that section shall apply for the purposes of this section as it applies for the purposes of that section.

Experimental traffic schemes

9 Experimental traffic orders.

- (1) Subject to Parts I to III of Schedule 9 to this Act, for the purpose of carrying out an experimental scheme of traffic control, an order under this subsection (in this Act referred to as an “experimental traffic order”) may make the like provision—
- (a) as respects any road outside Greater London, as may be made by a traffic regulation order, or
  - (b) as respects traffic on roads in Greater London, as may be made by an order under any of the following provisions of this Act, namely sections 6, 45, 46, 49, 83(2) and 84 and, accordingly, subject to the following provisions of this section and section 10 of this Act—
    - (i) the provisions of sections 1 to 4 of this Act (except section 1(2)) shall apply in relation to an experimental traffic order making provision as respects any road outside Greater London as they apply in relation to an order under that section; and
    - (ii) the provisions of sections 6 and 7 of this Act (except sections 6(2), 7(4), 7(5) and 7(6)) shall apply in relation to an experimental traffic order making provision as respects traffic on roads in Greater London as they apply in relation to an order under that section.
- [<sup>F13X1</sup>(2) Subject to section 125 of this Act, the authority having power to make an experimental traffic order—
- (a) as respects any roads outside Greater London, shall be the authority who would have power to make a traffic regulation order in relation to them under subsection (2) of section 1 of this Act or (where the experimental traffic order is made with the consent of the Secretary of State in relation to a length

- (b) as respects any roads in Greater London, shall be the authority who would have power to make an order in relation to them under subsection (2) of section 6 of this Act.]
- [<sup>F13</sup>(2) The authority having power to make an experimental traffic order shall be the roads authority or (where the experimental traffic order is made with the consent of the Secretary of State in relation to a length of road for which he is the roads authority) the local roads authority which would, with his consent, have power to make a traffic regulation order under section 1(2) and (3) of this Act in relation to the length of road.]
- (3) An experimental traffic order shall not continue in force for longer than 18 months.
- (4) Subject to Parts I to III of Schedule 9 of this Act, where—
- (a) an experimental traffic order has been made for a period of less than 18 months, and
- (b) the order has not ceased to be in force,
- the authority by whom the order was made may from time to time by order direct that it shall continue in force for a further period ending not later than 18 months after it first came into force.
- (5) Where an experimental traffic order made by [<sup>F14</sup>a London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London] has not ceased to be in force, and the Secretary of State is satisfied that—
- (a) an order which [<sup>F14</sup>the council] propose to make under any of the provisions of this Act specified in subsection (1)(b) above has the sole effect of reproducing and continuing in force indefinitely the provisions of the experimental traffic order (whether or not that order has been varied, or has been modified or suspended under section 10(2) of this Act), and
- (b) in consequence of [<sup>F14</sup>the council] causing a public inquiry to be held into the order so proposed to be made, they would be unable to make it so that it would come into operation before the experimental traffic order ceases to be in force,
- the Secretary of State may, at the request of [<sup>F14</sup>the council], from time to time direct that the experimental traffic order shall continue in force for a further period not exceeding 6 months from the date when it would otherwise cease to be in force.
- (6) In this section and section 10 of this Act “road ”, in relation to Greater London, includes any street as defined by section 6(6) of this Act.

10 Supplementary provisions as to experimental traffic orders.

- (1) An experimental traffic order—
  - (a) may provide for the suspension or modification, while the order is in force, of any provision previously made by or under any enactment, if it is a provision that could have been made by the order; and
  - (b) shall, to the extent that it is inconsistent with any provision subsequently made by or under any enactment, cease to have effect.
- (2) An experimental traffic order may include provision whereby a specified officer, or some person authorised in that behalf by a specified officer, of the authority who made the order may, if it appears to that officer or person essential in the interests of the expeditious, convenient and safe movement of traffic, or of the provision of suitable and adequate parking facilities on [<sup>F15</sup>the highway][<sup>F15</sup>roads], or for preserving or improving the amenities of the area through which any road affected by the order runs, and after—
  - (a) consulting with the appropriate chief officer of police, and
  - (b) giving such public notice as the Secretary of State may direct,make (subject to subsection (3) below) modifications of any description (other than additions) to the order or suspend the order or any provision of the order.
- (3) The power to make modifications under subsection (2) above shall not include power to designate additional parking places on [<sup>F16</sup>a highway][<sup>F16</sup>roads] for which charges are made.
- (4) No appeal shall lie to the Secretary of State from the [<sup>F17</sup>commissioner for the Metropolitan Traffic Area under section 42 of the Transport Act 1985 in the case of a decision of the commissioner with respect to a London local service licence if and so far as he certifies] that the decision was necessary to secure conformity with an experimental traffic order prescribing—
  - (a) the routes to be followed, or roads which are not to be used, by vehicles affected by the decision, or
  - (b) the places in roads where such vehicles may or may not wait, or
  - (c) the stopping places for such vehicles.
- (5) The Secretary of State may repay to [<sup>F18</sup>a London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London] any expenses incurred by [<sup>F18</sup>that council] in connection with any experimental traffic order made by them.
- [<sup>F19</sup>(6) The reference in subsection (4) above to the Metropolitan Traffic Area shall be construed as if it were contained in the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981.]

11 Contravention of experimental traffic order.

Any person who acts in contravention of, or fails to comply with, an experimental traffic order shall be guilty of an offence.

12 Experimental traffic schemes in Greater London.

- (1) Where it appears to the commissioner of police expedient to do so for the purpose of carrying out within his area an experimental scheme of traffic control, he may, with the consent of [<sup>F20</sup>the local authority], and after giving such notice as [<sup>F20</sup>that authority] may direct, make regulations for regulating vehicular traffic in any manner specified in Schedule 2 to this Act.
- (2) [<sup>F21</sup>The local authority] shall not give their consent to any such scheme affecting a trunk road except with the agreement of the Secretary of State; and in the case of any particular scheme the Secretary of State, after consultation with [<sup>F21</sup>that authority], may (subject to subsection (3) below) direct [<sup>F21</sup>the authority] to consent to the scheme within a specified period or direct them to withhold their consent from it.
- (3) The Secretary of State shall not give a direction under subsection (2) above unless he is satisfied, having regard to any matters appearing to him to be relevant, that [<sup>F22</sup>the local authority's] duty under section 122(1) of this Act is not being satisfactorily discharged by [<sup>F22</sup>the authority] and that the giving of the direction is necessary to secure compliance with that duty.
- (4) Any provision contained in regulations under this section may be made so as to apply—
  - (a) at all times or on specified days or during specified periods;
  - (b) either throughout the day or during any specified part of the day; and
  - (c) to vehicular traffic generally or to vehicular traffic of any class specified in the regulations; and regulations under this section may make different provision for different classes of traffic.
- (5) Regulations under this section may suspend or modify any order for the time being in force under section 6 of this Act.
- (6) Regulations under this section shall not continue in force for a period longer than 6 months after they are made, together with such further period or periods (if any) not exceeding 12 months in all as, at any time before the regulations expire, [<sup>F23</sup>the local authority] may direct.
- (7) Without prejudice to the power of the commissioner of police to revoke any regulations under this section, any such regulations may be revoked by an order under section 6 of this Act.
- (8) A document purporting to be a copy, certified by a person authorised by the commissioner of police, of regulations under this section shall be evidence of the contents of such regulations.
- (9) This section shall apply within Greater London but not elsewhere.
