

Roads (Scotland) Act 1984

1984 CHAPTER 54

PART XII

STATUTORY UNDERTAKERS

132 Saving for operators of telecommunications code systems.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, nothing in this Act or in any scheme or enactment under or by virtue of this Act—
 - (a) shall affect any rights conferred by or in accordance with [^{F1}the electronic communications code] on the operator of [^{F2}an electronic communications code network] or any duty of any such operator under that code; or
 - (b) applies to any [^{F3}electronic communications apparatus] kept installed for the purposes of any such [^{F4}network].
- (2) Where in pursuance of an order under this Act (or under an Act repealed by this Act) a road is (or was) stopped up or diverted and, immediately before that order comes (or came) into force, there is (or was) under, in, upon, over, along or across the road any [^{F3}electronic communications apparatus] kept installed for the purposes of [^{F2}an electronic communications code network], the operator of that [^{F4}network] shall have the same powers in respect of that apparatus as if the order had not come into force; but any person entitled to land over which the road subsisted may require the alteration of the apparatus.
- (3) Where an order under this Act (or under an Act repealed by this Act) provides for the alteration of a road and, immediately before the date on which the order comes (or came) into force, there is (or was) under, in, upon, over, along, or across the road any [^{F3}electronic communications apparatus] kept installed for the purposes of [^{F2}an electronic communications code network], the roads authority shall be entitled to require the alteration of the apparatus. This subsection does not have effect so far as it relates to the alteration of any [^{F3}electronic communications apparatus] for the purpose of authority's works as defined in [^{F5}Part IV of the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991].

Status: Point in time view as at 18/03/2011.

Changes to legislation: Roads (Scotland) Act 1984, Part XII is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Paragraph 1(2) of [^{F1}the electronic communications code] (alteration of apparatus to include moving, removal or replacement of apparatus) shall apply for the purposes of subsections (1) to (3) above as it applies for the purposes of that code.
- (5) Paragraph 21 of [^{F1}the electronic communications code] (restriction on removal of [^{F3}electronic communications apparatus]) shall apply in relation to any right conferred by this section to require the alteration, moving or replacement of any [^{F3}electronic communications apparatus] as it applies in relation to a right to require the removal of such apparatus.
