- (2) There shall be made to or on the successor in accordance with those Acts all such allowances and charges as would, if the bank had continued to carry on the trade, have fallen to be made to or on it, and the amount of any such allowance or charge shall be computed as if the successor had been carrying on the trade since the bank began to do so and as if everything done to or by the bank had been done to or by the successor.
- (3) No transfer of assets from the bank to its successor effected by section 3 above shall be treated as giving rise to any such allowance or charge.

- (a) the shares in the successor to Trustee Savings Bank of the Channel Islands acquired by the new holding company on or before the vesting day shall be taken to have been so acquired for a consideration equal to the value of the assets transferred to the successor by section 3 above (as shown by the statutory accounts for the final financial year of Trustee Savings Bank of the Channel Islands) less the amount of any liabilities so transferred (as so shown); and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

(b) the shares in the other successors to the existing banks acquired by the new holding company on or before the vesting day shall be deemed to have been acquired by the new holding company before 6th April 1945 and for no consideration or incidental cost.

$$\pounds X = \pounds Y \times \frac{A}{B}$$

Where—

B is the period beginning with 6th April 1945 and ending with the vesting day.

- 4 (1) Where the liability in respect of any debt owed to an existing bank, the existing holding company or the Central Board, is transferred by section 3 above, the transferee shall be treated as the original creditor for the purposes of section 134 of the Act of 1979 (debts).
- (2) On a 75 per cent, subsidiary (" the existing subsidiary ") of an existing bank becoming a 75 per cent subsidiary of the bank's successor, section 278 of the Taxes Act (company ceasing to be a member of a group) shall not have effect as respects any assets transferred (at any time) by the bank to the subsidiary ; but on the subsidiary ceasing to be a member of the group of companies (" the group") of which the successor and the new holding company are both members, section 278 of the Taxes Act shall apply as if the assets acquired by the subsidiary from the bank had been acquired by it from the bank's successor.
- (3) No provision made by this Act shall be treated, for the purposes of section 26 of the Act of 1979 (value-shifting), as a scheme or arrangement.
- (4) For the purposes of the Act of 1979, any allowable losses accruing in any accounting period to the Central Board or to an existing bank shall, so far as they have not been allowed as a deduction from chargeable gains, be treated as allowable losses which accrued in that accounting period to the new holding company or, as the case may be, successor.
- 5 For the purposes of the Act of 1979, gains arising on the disposal by the Central Board of any shares or rights to shares in the new holding company shall not be chargeable gains.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) The transfer of any trading stock investment from an existing bank to its successor effected by section 3 above shall be treated, for the purposes of corporation tax, as not constituting a disposal of that investment by the bank; but on the disposal of any such investment by the successor, the gain or, as the case may be, loss accruing to the successor shall be calculated (for the purposes of corporation tax) as if the investment had been acquired by the successor for the same consideration as that for which it was acquired by the bank.
- (3) Where a gain or loss accrues to the successor to an existing trustee savings bank on the disposal of an exempt investment held by the bank on 21st November 1979, the provisions of subparagraphs (2) to (6) of paragraph 2, and (2) to (4) of paragraph 6, of Schedule 11 to the Finance Act 1980 shall apply in relation to the successor as they would apply to the bank if the investment had continued to be held until disposal by the bank and this Act had not been passed.
- (4) Subject to any claim made by an existing bank under subsection (2) of section 177 of the Taxes Act (set off of losses against total profits), its successor shall be entitled to relief under subsection (1) of that section (carry forward of losses), as for a loss sustained by the successor in carrying on the trade, for any amount for which the bank would have been entitled to claim relief if it had continued to carry on the trade.
- (5) Section 339(1) of the Taxes Act (exemption from corporation tax of income from certain investments of existing banks) shall apply in relation to the successor to an existing bank as it applied in relation to the bank.
- (6) Sections 339(2) and 304(5) of the Taxes Act (which deny to trustee savings banks certain benefits accorded to other savings banks) shall apply in relation to the successor to an existing bank and to any further successor as they applied in relation to the bank.
