

Housing Associations Act 1985

1985 CHAPTER 69

PART I

REGULATION OF HOUSING ASSOCIATIONS

Introductory

1 Meaning of “housing association” and related expressions.

- (1) In this Act “housing association” means a society, body of trustees or company—
- which is established for the purpose of, or amongst whose objects or powers are included those of, providing, constructing, improving or managing, or facilitating or encouraging the construction or improvement of, housing accommodation, and
 - which does not trade for profit or whose constitution or rules prohibit the issue of capital with interest or dividend exceeding such rate as may be prescribed by the Treasury, whether with or without differentiation as between share and loan capital [^{F1};

[^{F1}but does not include Scottish Homes.]

- (2) In this Act “fully mutual”, in relation to a housing association, means that the rules of the association—
- restrict membership to persons who are tenants or prospective tenants of the association, and
 - preclude the granting or assignment of tenancies to persons other than members; and “co-operative housing association” means a fully mutual housing association which is a society registered under the ^{M1}Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965 (in this part referred to as “the 1965 Act”).

- (3) In this Act “self-build society” means a housing association whose object is to provide, for sale to, or occupation by, its members, dwellings built or improved principally with the use of its members’ own labour.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1993. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Housing Associations Act 1985, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

2 Meaning of “housing trust”.

In this Act “housing trust” means a corporation or body of persons which—

- (a) is required by the terms of its constituent instrument to use the whole of its funds, including any surplus which may arise from its operations, for the purpose of providing housing accommodation, or
- (b) is required by the terms of its constituent instrument to devote the whole, or substantially the whole, of its funds to charitable purposes and in fact uses the whole, or substantially the whole, of its funds for the purpose of providing housing accommodation.

[^{F2}2A The Corporation.

- (1) In relation to a housing association which has its registered office for the purposes of the 1965 Act in Scotland, “the Corporation” means Scottish Homes.
- (2) In relation to a housing association—
 - (a) which is a society registered under the 1965 Act and has its registered office for the purposes of that Act in Wales, or
 - (b) which is a registered charity and has its address for the purposes of registration by the Charity Commissioners in Wales,
 “the Corporation” means Housing for Wales.
- (3) In relation to any other housing association which is a society registered under the 1965 Act or a registered charity, “the Corporation” means the Housing Corporation.
- (4) Subject to subsections (1) to (3), in this Act, except where the context otherwise requires, “the Corporation” means the Housing Corporation, Scottish Homes or Housing for Wales and “the Corporations” means those three bodies.]

4 Eligibility for registration.

(1) A housing association is eligible for registration if it is—

- (a) a registered charity, or
- (b) a society registered under the 1965 Act which fulfils the following conditions.

(2) The conditions are that the association does not trade for profit and is established for the purpose of, or has among its objects or powers, the provision, construction, improvement or management of—

- (a) houses to be kept available for letting, or
- (b) houses for occupation by members of the association, where the rules of the association restrict membership to persons entitled or prospectively entitled (as tenants or otherwise) to occupy a house provided or managed by the association, or
- (c) hostels,

and that any additional purposes or objects are among the following.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1993. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Housing Associations Act 1985, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

- [^{F8}(3) The permissible additional purposes or objects are—
- (a) providing land, amenities or services, or providing, constructing, repairing or improving buildings, for the benefit of the association’s residents, either exclusively or together with other persons;
 - (b) acquiring, or repairing and improving, or creating by the conversion of houses or other property, houses to be disposed of on sale, on lease or on shared ownership terms;
 - (c) constructing houses to be disposed of on shared ownership terms;
 - (d) managing houses which are held on leases or other lettings (not being houses falling within subsection (2)(a) or (b)) or blocks of flats;
 - (e) providing services of any description for owners or occupiers of houses in arranging or carrying out works of maintenance, repair or improvement, or encouraging or facilitating the carrying out of such works;
 - (f) encouraging and giving advice on the formation of other housing associations or providing services for, and giving advice on the running of, such associations and other voluntary organisations concerned with housing, or matters connected with housing.
- (4) A housing association shall not be ineligible for registration by reason only that its powers include power—
- (a) to acquire commercial premises or businesses as an incidental part of a project or series of projects undertaken for purposes or objects falling within subsection (2) or (3);
 - (b) to repair, improve or convert any commercial premises acquired as mentioned in paragraph (a) or to carry on, for a limited period, any business so acquired;
 - (c) to repair or improve houses, or buildings in which houses are situated, after the tenants have exercised, or claimed to exercise, acquisition rights;
 - (d) to acquire houses to be disposed of at a discount to tenants to whom section 58 of the Housing Act 1988 applies (tenants of charitable housing associations etc.).
- (5) In this section—
- “acquisition right” means—
- (a) in England and Wales, the right to buy or the right to be granted a shared ownership lease under Part V of the Housing Act 1985;
 - (b) in Scotland, a right to purchase under section 61 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1987;
- “block of flats” means a building—
- (a) containing two or more flats which are held on leases or other lettings; and
 - (b) occupied or intended to be occupied wholly or mainly for residential purposes;
- “disposed of on shared ownership terms” means—
- (a) in England and Wales, disposed of on a shared ownership lease;
 - (b) in Scotland, disposed of under a shared ownership agreement;
- “letting” includes the grant—
- (a) in England and Wales, of a licence to occupy;
 - (b) in Scotland, of a right or permission to occupy;
- “residents”, in relation to a housing association, means the persons occupying the houses or hostels provided or managed by the association;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1993. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Housing Associations Act 1985, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

“voluntary organisation” means an organisation whose activities are not carried on for profit.]

5 Registration.

(1) The [^{F9}Corporation] register any housing association which is eligible for registration but—

- (a) the Corporation shall establish criteria which should be satisfied by a housing association seeking registration, and
- (b) in deciding whether to register an association the Corporation shall have regard to whether it satisfies those criteria.

[^{F10}(2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall require the Corporations to establish the same criteria; and each of them may vary any criteria established by it under that subsection.]

(3) As soon as may be after registering a housing association the Corporation shall give notice of the registration—

- (a) if the association is a registered charity, to the Charity Commissioners, or
- (b) if the association is a society registered under the 1965 Act, to the appropriate registrar, who shall record the registration.

[^{F11}(4) Where at any time a body is, or was, on a register maintained under section 3, then, for all purposes other than rectification of that register, the body shall be conclusively presumed to be, or to have been, at that time a housing association eligible for registration in that register.]

6 Removal from the register.

(1) A body which has been registered shall not be removed from the register except in accordance with this section.

(2) If it appears to the [^{F12}Corporation] that a body which is on the register—

- (a) is no longer a housing association eligible for registration, or
- (b) has ceased to exist or does not operate,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1993. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Housing Associations Act 1985, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

the Corporation shall, after giving the body at least 14 days' notice, remove it from the register.

- (3) In the case of a body which appears to the Corporation to have ceased to exist or not to operate, notice under subsection (2) shall be deemed to be given to the body if it is served at the address last known to the Corporation to be the principal place of business of the body.
- (4) A body which is registered may request the Corporation to remove it from the register if it has not at any time received—
- [^{F13}(a) a grant under section 41 (housing association grants),
 - (b) a grant under section 54 (revenue deficit grants),
 - (c) any such payment or loan as is mentioned in paragraph 2 or paragraph 3 of Schedule 1 (grant-aided land),
 - (d) a grant or a loan under section 2(2) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988,
 - (e) a grant under section 50 of the Housing Act 1988 (housing association grants), or
 - (f) a grant under section 51 of that Act (revenue deficit grants)] and the Corporation may, if it thinks fit, do so.

- (5) As soon as may be after removing a body from the register the Corporation shall give notice of the removal—
- (a) if the body is a registered charity, to the Charity Commissioners,
 - (b) if the body is a society registered under the 1965 Act, to the appropriate registrar,
- who shall record the removal.

7 Appeal against removal.

- (1) A body which is aggrieved by a decision of the [^{F14}Corporation] to remove it from the register may appeal against the decision
- [^{F15}(a) where it is a decision of Scottish Homes, to the Court of Session; and
 - (b) in any other case, to the High Court].
- (2) If an appeal is brought the Corporation shall not remove the body concerned from the register until the appeal has been finally determined or is withdrawn.
- (3) As soon as may be after an appeal is brought the Corporation shall give notice of the appeal—
- (a) if the body concerned is a registered charity, to the Charity Commissioners, or
 - (b) if the body concerned is a society registered under the 1965 Act, to the appropriate registrar.

Disposal of land

8 Power of registered housing associations to dispose of land.

- (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of Part V of the ^{M2}Housing Act 1985 (the right to buy [^{F16}and [^{F17}Part III of the ^{M3}Housing (Scotland) Act 1987] (analogous Scottish provisions)]), every registered housing association has power, subject to section 9 (control by [^{F18}Corporation] of land transactions), by virtue of this section but not otherwise, to dispose, in such manner as it thinks fit, of land held by it.
- (2) Section 39 of the ^{M4}Settled Land Act 1925 (disposal of land by trustees) does not apply to the disposal of land by a registered housing association; and accordingly the disposal need not be for the best consideration in money that can reasonably be obtained.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) shall be taken to authorise any action on the part of a charity which would conflict with the trusts of the charity.

9 Control by [^{F19}Corporation] of dispositions of land by housing associations.

- [^{F20}(1) Subject to section 10 and sections 81(7), 105(6), and 133(7) of the Housing Act 1988, the consent of the Corporation is required for any disposition of land by a registered housing association.
- (1A) Subject to section 10, the consent of the relevant Corporation is required for any disposition of grant-aided land (as defined in Schedule 1) by an unregistered housing association; and for this purpose “the relevant Corporation” means,—
- (a) if the land is in England, the Housing Corporation;
 - (b) if the land is in Scotland, Scottish Homes; and
 - (c) if the land is in Wales, Housing for Wales.]
- (2) The consent of the Corporation may be so given—

- (a) generally to all housing associations or to a particular housing association or description of association;
 - (b) in relation to particular land or in relation to a particular description of land; and may be given subject to conditions.
- (3) A disposition by a housing association which requires [^{F21}consent] under this section is valid in favour of a person claiming under the association notwithstanding that [^{F21}that consent] has not been given; and a person dealing with the association, or with a person claiming under the association, shall not be concerned to see or inquire whether any such consent has been given.

This subsection has effect subject to section 12 (avoidance of certain dispositions of houses without consent).

- (4) Where at the time of its removal from the register under section 6(2) (removal of bodies no longer eligible for registration or defunct) a body owns land, this section continues to apply to that land after the removal as if the body concerned continued to be a registered housing association.
- (5) For the purposes of this section “disposition” means sale, lease, mortgage, charge or any other disposal.

[^{F22}(6) References in this section to consent are references,—

- (a) in the case of the Housing Corporation or Housing for Wales, to consent given by order under the seal of the Corporation; and
- (b) in the case of Scottish Homes, to consent in writing.]
