Textual Amendments

F3 Words inserted by S.I. 1988/496, art. 2

Futures

- 8 Rights under a contract for the sale of a commodity or property of any other description under which delivery is to be made at a future date and at a price agreed upon when the contract is made.

Notes

- (1) This paragraph does not apply if the contract is made for commercial and not investment purposes.
- (2) A contract shall be regarded as made for investment purposes if it is made or traded on a recognised investment exchange or made otherwise than on a recognised investment exchange but expressed to be as traded on such an exchange or on the same terms as those on which an equivalent contract would be made on such an exchange.
- (3) A contract not falling within Note (2) above shall be regarded as made for commercial purposes if under the terms of the contract delivery is to be made within seven days.
- (4) The following are indications that any other contract is made for a commercial purpose and the absence of any of them is an indication that it is made for investment purposes—
 - (a) either or each of the parties is a producer of the commodity or other property or uses it in his business;
 - (b) the seller delivers or intends to deliver the property or the purchaser takes or intends to take delivery of it.
- (5) It is an indication that a contract is made for commercial purposes that the price, the lot, the delivery date or the other terms are determined by the parties for the purposes of the particular contract and not by reference to regularly published prices, to standard lots or delivery dates or to standard terms.
- (6) The following are also indications that a contract is made for investment purposes—
 - (a) it is expressed to be as traded on a market or on an exchange;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/1991. This version of this schedule contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services Act 1986 (Repealed), SCHEDULE 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) performance of the contract is ensured by an investment exchange or a clearing house;
 - (c) there are arrangements for the payment or provision of margin.
- (7) A price shall be taken to have been agreed upon when a contract is made—
- (a) notwithstanding that it is left to be determined by reference to the price at which a contract is to be entered into on a market or exchange or could be entered into at a time and place specified in the contract; or
 - (b) in a case where the contract is expressed to be by reference to a standard lot and quality, notwithstanding that provision is made for a variation in the price to take account of any variation in quantity or quality on delivery.

Contracts for differences etc.

- 9 Rights under a contract for differences or under any other contract the purpose or pretended purpose of which is to secure a profit or avoid a loss by reference to fluctuations in the value or price of property of any description or in an index or other factor designated for that purpose in the contract.

[^{F4}Notes] .

[^{F5}(1)] This paragraph does not apply where the parties intend that the profit is to be obtained or the loss avoided by taking delivery of any property to which the contract relates.

[^{F6}(2)] This paragraph does not apply to rights under any contract under which money is received by the Director of Savings as deposits or otherwise in connection with the business of the National Savings Bank or raised under the National Loans Act 1968 under the auspices of the Director of Savings or under which money raised is treated as having been so raised by virtue of section 11(3) of the National Debt Act 1972.]

Long term insurance contracts

- 10 Rights under a contract the effecting and carrying out of which constitutes long term business within the meaning of the ^{M1}Insurance Companies Act 1982.

Notes

- (1) This paragraph does not apply to rights under a contract of insurance if—
- (a) the benefits under the contract are payable only on death or in respect of incapacity due to injury, sickness or infirmity;
 - (b) no benefits are payable under the contract on a death (other than a death due to accident) unless it occurs within ten years of the date on which the life of the person in question was first insured under the contract or before that person attains a specified age not exceeding seventy years;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/1991. This version of this schedule contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services Act 1986 (Repealed), SCHEDULE 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the contract has no surrender value or the consideration consists of a single premium and the surrender value does not exceed that premium; and
 - (d) the contract does not make provision for its conversion or extension in a manner that would result in its ceasing to comply with paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) above.
- (2) Where the provisions of a contract of insurance are such that the effecting and carrying out of the contract—
- (a) constitutes both long term business within the meaning of the ^{M2}Insurance Companies Act 1982 and general business within the meaning of that Act; or
 - (b) by virtue of section 1(3) of that Act constitutes long term business notwithstanding the inclusion of subsidiary general business provisions,
- references in this paragraph to rights and benefits under the contract are references only to such rights and benefits as are attributable to the provisions of the contract relating to long term business.
- (3) This paragraph does not apply to rights under a reinsurance contract.
- (4) Rights falling within this paragraph shall not be regarded as falling within paragraph 9 above.

Marginal Citations

- M1 1982 c. 50.
M2 1982 c. 50.

Rights and interests in investments

- 11 Rights to and interests in anything which is an investment falling within any other paragraph of this Part of this Schedule.

Notes

- (1) This paragraph does not apply to interests under the trusts of an occupational pension scheme.
- (2) This paragraph does not apply to rights or interests which are investments by virtue of any other paragraph of this Part of this Schedule.

PART II

- (b) the arrangements for their safeguarding and administration are such that those assets may consist of or include investments and the arrangements have at any time been held out as being arrangements under which investments would be safeguarded and administered.
- (2) Offering or agreeing to safeguard and administer, or to arrange for the safeguarding and administration of, assets belonging to another where the circumstances fall within sub-paragraph (1)(a) or (b) above.

Notes

- (1) This paragraph does not apply to a person by reason of his safeguarding and administering assets, or offering or agreeing to do so, under arrangements—
- (a) under which another person (“the primary custodian”), who is permitted to provide a service falling within this paragraph, undertakes to the person to whom the assets belong a responsibility in respect of the assets which is no less onerous than the responsibility which the primary custodian would undertake to that person if the primary custodian were safeguarding and administering the assets himself, and
 - (b) which are operated by the primary custodian in the course of carrying on in the United Kingdom investment business falling within this paragraph.
- (2) None of the following activities constitutes the administration of assets—
- (a) providing information as to the number of units or the value of any assets safeguarded;
 - (b) converting currency; and
 - (c) receiving documents relating to an investment solely for the purpose of onward transmission to, from or at the direction of the person to whom the investment belongs.
- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph it is immaterial that the assets safeguarded and administered—
- (a) constitute units of a security, title to which is recorded on the relevant register of securities as being held in uncertificated form; or
 - (b) may be transferred to another person, subject to a commitment by the person safeguarding and administering them, or arranging for their safeguarding and administration, that they will be replaced by equivalent assets at some future date or when so requested by the person to whom they belong.
- (4) This paragraph does not apply to arrangements for the introduction of persons to another person if—
- (a) the person to whom the introduction is made is permitted to provide a service falling within this paragraph; and
 - (b) the introduction is made with a view to the provision in the United Kingdom of a service falling within this paragraph or the making of arrangements operated in the United Kingdom for the provision of a service falling within this paragraph by a person who is not connected with the person by whom the introduction is made.

For the purposes of this Note, the person making the introduction shall be regarded as connected with the other person if he is either a body corporate in the same group as that other person or remunerated by that other person.

PART III

EXCLUDED ACTIVITIES

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C10 Sch. 1 Pt. III modified (1.1.1996) by S.,I. 1995/3271, arts. 5

Dealings as principal

- 17 (1) Paragraph 12 above applies to a transaction which is or is to be entered into by a person as principal only if—
- (a) he holds himself out as willing to enter into transactions of that kind at prices determined by him generally and continuously rather than in respect of each particular transaction; or
 - (b) he holds himself out as engaging in the business of buying investments with a view to selling them and those investments are or include investments of the kind to which the transaction relates; or
 - (c) he regularly solicits members of the public for the purpose of inducing them to enter as principals or agents into transactions to which that paragraph applies and the transaction is or is to be entered into as a result of his having solicited members of the public in that manner.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (1) above “buying” and “selling” means buying and selling by transactions to which paragraph 12 above applies and “members of the public”, in relation to the person soliciting them (“the relevant person”), means any other persons except—
- (a) authorised persons, exempted persons, or persons holding a permission under paragraph 23 below;
 - (b) members of the same group as the relevant person;
 - (c) persons who are, or propose to become, participators with the relevant person in a joint enterprise;
 - (d) any person who is solicited by the relevant person with a view to—
 - (i) the acquisition by the relevant person of 20 per cent. or more of the voting shares in a body corporate (that is to say, shares carrying not less than that percentage of the voting rights attributable to share capital which are exercisable in all circumstances at any general meeting of the body); or
 - (ii) if the relevant person (either alone or with other members of the same group as himself) holds 20 per cent. or more of the voting shares in a body corporate, the acquisition by him of further shares in the body or the disposal by him of shares in that body to the person solicited or to a member of the same group as that person; or

Sale of goods and supply of services

- 19 (1) [^{F20}Subject to sub-paragraph (9) below] this paragraph has effect where a person (“the supplier”) sells or offers or agrees to sell goods to another person (“the customer”) or supplies or offers or agrees to supply him with services and the supplier’s main business is to supply goods or services and not to engage in activities falling within Part II of this Schedule.
- (2) Paragraph 12 above does not apply to any transaction which is or is to be entered into by the supplier as principal if it is or is to be entered into by him with the customer for the purposes of or in connection with the sale or supply or a related sale or supply (that is to say, a sale or supply to the customer otherwise than by the supplier but for or in connection with the same purpose as the first-mentioned sale or supply).
- (3) Paragraph 12 above does not apply to any transaction which is or is to be entered into by the supplier as agent for the customer if it is or is to be entered into for the purposes of or in connection with the sale or supply or a related sale or supply and—
- (a) where the investment falls within any of paragraphs 1 to [^{F215}] above or, so far as relevant to any of those paragraphs, paragraph 11 above, the supplier does not—
- (i) hold himself out (otherwise than to the customer) as engaging in the business of buying investments with a view to selling them and those investments are or include investments of the kind to which the transaction relates; or
- (ii) regularly solicit members of the public for the purpose of inducing them to enter as principals or agents into transactions to which paragraph 12 above applies;
- and the transaction is not or is not to be entered into as a result of his having solicited members of the public in that manner;
- (b) where the investment is not as mentioned in paragraph (a) above, the supplier enters into the transaction—
- (i) with or through an authorised person, an exempted person or a person holding a permission under paragraph 23 below; or
- (ii) through an office outside the United Kingdom, maintained by a party to the transaction, and with or through a person whose head office is situated outside the United Kingdom and whose ordinary business involves him in engaging in activities which fall within Part II of this Schedule or would do so apart from this Part or Part IV.

Dealings in course of non-investment business

- 23 (1) Paragraph 12 above does not apply to anything done by a person—
- (a) as principal;
 - (b) if that person is a body corporate in a group, as agent for another member of the group; or
 - (c) as agent for a person who is or proposes to become a participator with him in a joint enterprise and for the purposes of or in connection with that enterprise, if it is done in accordance with the terms and conditions of a permission granted to him by the Secretary of State under this paragraph.
- (2) Any application for permission under this paragraph shall be accompanied or supported by such information as the Secretary of State may require and shall not be regarded as duly made unless accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (3) The Secretary of State may grant a permission under this paragraph if it appears to him—
- (a) that the applicant's main business, or if he is a member of a group the main business of the group, does not consist of activities for which a person is required to be authorised under this Act;
 - (b) that the applicant's business is likely to involve such activities which fall within paragraph 12 above; and
 - (c) that, having regard to the nature of the applicant's main business and, if he is a member of a group, the main business of the group taken as a whole, the manner in which, the persons with whom and the purposes for which the applicant proposes to engage in activities that would require him to be an authorised person and to any other relevant matters, it is inappropriate to require him to be subject to regulation as an authorised person.
- (4) Any permission under this paragraph shall be granted by a notice in writing; and the Secretary of State may by a further notice in writing withdraw any such permission if for any reason it appears to him that it is not appropriate for it to continue in force.
- (5) The Secretary of State may make regulations requiring persons holding permissions under this paragraph to furnish him with information for the purpose of enabling him to determine whether those permissions should continue in force; and such regulations may, in particular, require such persons—
- (a) to give him notice forthwith of the occurrence of such events as are specified in the regulations and such information in respect of those events as is so specified;
 - (b) to furnish him at such times or in respect of such periods as are specified in the regulations with such information as is so specified.
- (6) Section 61 of this Act shall have effect in relation to a contravention of any condition imposed by a permission under this paragraph as it has effect in relation to any such contravention as is mentioned in subsection (1)(a) of that section.

International Securities Self-regulating organisations

[^{F34}25B] (1) An activity within paragraph 13 above engaged in for the purposes of carrying out the functions of a body or association which is approved under this paragraph as an international securities self-regulating organisation, whether by the organisation or by any person acting on its behalf, shall not constitute the carrying on of investment business in the United Kingdom for the purposes of Chapter II of Part I of this Act.

(2) In this paragraph—

“International securities business” means the business of buying, selling, subscribing for or underwriting investments (or offering or agreeing to do so, either as principal or agent) which fall within any of the paragraphs in Part I above other than paragraph 10 and, so far as relevant to paragraph 10, paragraph 11 and which, by their nature, and the manner in which the business is conducted, may be expected normally to be bought or dealt in by persons sufficiently expert to understand any risks involved, where either the transaction is international or each of the parties may be expected to be indifferent to the location of the other, and, for the purposes of this definition, the fact that the investments may ultimately be bought otherwise than in the course of international securities business by persons not so expert shall be disregarded; and

“international securities self-regulating organisation” means a body corporate or unincorporated association which

- (a) does not have its head office in the United Kingdom;
- (b) is not eligible for recognition under section 37 or section 39 of this Act on the ground that (whether or not it has applied, and whether or not it would be eligible on other grounds) it is unable to satisfy the requirements of section 40(2)(a) or (c) of this Act;
- (c) has a membership composed of persons falling within any of the following categories, that is to say, authorised persons, exempted persons, persons holding a permission under paragraph 23 above and persons whose head offices are outside the United Kingdom and whose ordinary business is such as is mentioned in paragraph 17(2)(e) above; and
- (d) which facilitates and regulates the activity of its members in the conduct of international securities business.

(3) The Secretary of State may approve as an international securities self-regulating organisation any body or association appearing to him to fall within subparagraph (2) above if, having regard to such matters affecting international trade, overseas earnings and the balance of payments or otherwise as he considers relevant, it appears to him that to do so would be desirable and not result in any undue risk to investors.

(4) Any approval under this paragraph shall be given by notice in writing; and the Secretary of State may by a further notice in writing withdraw any such approval if for any reason it appears to him that it is not appropriate for it to continue in force.]
