95 Taxation of dealer's receipts on purchase by company of own shares.

- (1) ^{M13}Where a company purchases its own shares from a dealer, the purchase price shall be taken into account in computing the profits of the dealer chargeable to tax under Case I or II of Schedule D; and accordingly—
- (a) tax shall not be chargeable under Schedule F in respect of any distribution represented by any part of the price, and
 - (b) the dealer shall not be entitled in respect of the distribution to a tax credit under section 231, and
 - (c) sections 208 and 234(1) shall not apply to the distribution.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) above a person is a dealer in relation to shares of a company if the price received on their sale by him otherwise than to the company would be taken into account in computing his profits chargeable to tax under Case I or II of Schedule D.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below, in subsection (1) above—
- (a) the reference to the purchase of shares includes a reference to the redemption or repayment of shares and to the purchase of rights to acquire shares, and
 - (b) the reference to the purchase price includes a reference to any sum payable on redemption or repayment.
- (4) Subsection (1) above shall not apply in relation to—
- (a) the redemption of fixed-rate preference shares, or
 - (b) the redemption, on terms settled or substantially settled before 6th April 1982, of other preference shares issued before that date,
- if in either case the shares were issued to and continuously held by the person from whom they are redeemed.
- (5) In this section—
- “fixed-rate preference shares” means shares which—
 - (a) were issued wholly for new consideration, and
 - (b) do not carry any right either to conversion into shares or securities of any other description or to the acquisition of any additional shares or securities, and
 - (c) do not carry any right to dividends other than dividends which—
 - (i) are of a fixed amount or at a fixed rate per cent. of the nominal value of the shares, and
 - (ii) together with any sum paid on redemption, represent no more than a reasonable commercial return on the consideration for which the shares were issued;
 - “new consideration” has the meaning given by section 254; and
 - “shares” includes stock.

VALID FROM 21/07/2008

[^{F1}95ZA Taxation of UK distributions received by insurance companies

- (1) If the total amount of relevant distributions received by a company in an accounting period exceeds £50,000, those distributions are to be taken into account in calculating for corporation tax purposes the profits of the company in that period (and accordingly section 208 does not apply in relation to those distributions).
- (2) A company (“company A”) receives a “relevant distribution” if—
 - (a) it receives a distribution made by a company resident in the United Kingdom (“company B”),
 - (b) the value of the shares or stock in respect of which the distribution is made (“the holding”) is materially reduced by reason of the distribution,
 - (c) a profit on the sale of the holding (to anyone other than company B) would be taken into account in calculating company A's profits in respect of relevant insurance business, and
 - (d) either—
 - (i) the holding amounts to, or is an ingredient in a holding amounting to, 10% of all holdings of the same class in company B, or
 - (ii) the period between the acquisition by company A of the holding and that company first taking steps to dispose of the holding does not exceed 30 days.
- (3) In this section “relevant insurance business” means any kind of insurance business other than life assurance business.
- (4) Section 177(7) of TCGA 1992 (provision supplementing provision corresponding to subsection (2)(d)(i) above) applies for the purposes of subsection (2)(d)(i).
- (5) Section 731(4) below (interpretation of “taking steps to dispose of securities”) applies for the purposes of subsection (2)(d)(ii) as if the reference to the securities were to the holding.]
