656 Purchased life annuities other than retirement annuities.

- (1) ^{M19}Subject to section 657, a purchased life annuity shall, for the purposes of the provisions of the [^{F158}Corporation Tax Acts] relating to tax on annuities and other annual payments, be treated as containing a capital element and, to the extent of the capital element, as not being an annual payment or in the nature of an annual payment; but the capital element in such an annuity shall be taken into account in computing profits or gains or losses for [^{F159}other corporation tax purposes] in any circumstances in which a lump sum payment would be taken into account.
- (2) ^{M20}Where, in the case of any purchased life annuity to which this section applies, the amount of any annuity payment (but not the term of the annuity) depends on any contingency other than the duration of a human life or lives—
 - (a) the capital element shall be determined by reference—

- (i) to the amount or value of the payments made or other consideration given for the grant of the annuity (“the purchase price”); and
- (ii) to the expected term of the annuity, as at the date when the first annuity payment began to accrue, expressed in years (and any odd fraction of a year), and determined by reference to the prescribed tables of mortality; and in head (ii) above “term” means the period from the date when the first annuity payment begins to accrue to the date when the last payment becomes payable;

- (b) the capital element in any annuity payment made in respect of a period of 12 months shall be a fraction—of the purchase price, where E is the expected term referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) above;

- (c) the capital element in any annuity payment made in respect of a period of less than, or more than, 12 months shall be the amount at (b) above reduced or, as the case may be, increased, in the same proportion as the length of that period bears to a period of 12 months;
 - (d) subsection (3) below shall not apply but paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (4) below shall apply as they apply to that subsection.
- (3) Subject to subsection (2) above, in the case of any purchased life annuity to which this section applies—
- (a) ^{M21}the capital element shall be determined by reference to the amount or value of the payments made or other consideration given for the grant of the annuity; and
 - (b) the proportion which the capital element in any annuity payment bears to the total amount of that payment shall be constant for all payments on account of the annuity; and
 - (c) where neither the term of the annuity nor the amount of any annuity payment depends on any contingency other than the duration of a human life or lives, that proportion shall be the same proportion which the total amount or value of the consideration for the grant of the annuity bears to the actuarial value of the annuity payments as determined in accordance with subsection (4) below; and
 - (d) ^{M22}where either the term of the annuity or the amount of any annuity payment (but not both) depends on any contingency other than the duration of a human life or lives, that proportion shall be such as may be just, having regard to paragraph (c) above and to the contingencies affecting the annuity; and
 - (e) where both the term of the annuity and the amount of any annuity payment depend on any contingency other than the duration of a human life or lives, that proportion shall be such as may be just, having regard to subsection (2) above and to the contingencies affecting the annuity.
- (4) ^{M23}For the purposes of subsection (3) above—
