1988 CHAPTER 1

PART XIV

PENSION SCHEMES, SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS, LIFE ANNUITIES ETC.

CHAPTER I

RETIREMENT BENEFIT SCHEMES

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Pt. 14 Ch. 1 (ss. 590-612) modified (31.3.1995) by Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993 \(c. 8\), ss. 18, 19(4), 31(2); S.I. 1995/631, art. 2

Approval of schemes

590 Conditions for approval of retirement benefit schemes.

- (1) <sup>M1</sup>Subject to section 591, the Board shall not approve any retirement benefits scheme for the purposes of this Chapter unless the scheme satisfies all of the conditions set out in subsection (2) below.
- (2) <sup>M2</sup>The conditions are—
  - [<sup>F1</sup>(a) that the scheme is bona fide established for the sole purpose (subject to any enactment or Northern Ireland legislation requiring or allowing provision for the value of any rights to be transferred between schemes or between members of the same scheme) of providing relevant benefits in respect of service as an employee;]
  - [<sup>F2</sup>(aa) that those benefits do not include any benefits payable to a person other than—
    - (i) the employee or a scheme member's ex-spouse,

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2003.

Changes to legislation: Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988, CHAPTER 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 14 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) a widow, widower, child, or dependant of the employee or of a scheme member's ex-spouse, or
  - (iii) the personal representatives of the employee or of a scheme member's ex-spouse;]
  - (b) that the scheme is recognised by the employer and employees to whom it relates, and that every employee who is, or has a right to be, a member of the scheme has been given written particulars of all essential features of the scheme which concern him;
  - (c) that there is a person resident in the United Kingdom who will be responsible for the discharge of all duties imposed on the administrator of the scheme under this Chapter;
  - (d) that the employer is a contributor to the scheme;
  - (e) that the scheme is established in connection with some trade or undertaking carried on in the United Kingdom by a person resident in the United Kingdom;
  - (f) that in no circumstances, whether during the subsistence of the scheme or later, can any amount be paid by way of repayment of an employee's contributions under the scheme.
- (3) <sup>M3</sup>Subject to subsection (1) above, the Board shall approve a retirement benefits scheme for the purposes of this Chapter if the scheme satisfies all the conditions of this subsection, that is to say—
- (a) that any benefit for an employee is a pension on retirement at a specified age not earlier than 60 [<sup>F3</sup>and not later than 75], which does not exceed one-sixtieth of the employee's final remuneration for each year of service up to a maximum of 40;
  - (b) that any benefit for any widow [<sup>F4</sup>or widower] of an employee is a pension payable on his death after retirement such that the amount payable to the widow [<sup>F4</sup>or widower] by way of pension does not exceed two-thirds of any pension or pensions payable to the employee;
  - [<sup>F5</sup>(ba) that any benefit for an ex-spouse, or for the widow or widower of an ex-spouse, is a benefit in relation to which the scheme satisfies the conditions set out in subsection (3A) below;
  - (bb) that the scheme does not allow any rights debited to a scheme member as a consequence of a pension sharing order or provision to be replaced with any rights which that scheme member would not have been able to acquire (in addition to the debited rights) had the order or provision not been made;
  - (c) that no benefits are payable under the scheme other than those mentioned in paragraphs (a), (b) and (ba) above;]
  - (d) that no pension is capable in whole or in part of surrender, commutation or assignment, [<sup>F6</sup> except—
    - (i) for the purpose of giving effect to a pension sharing order or provision, or
    - (ii) in so far as the commutation of a benefit for an ex-spouse is allowed by virtue of subsection (3A) below, or
    - (iii)] in so far as the scheme allows an employee on retirement to obtain, by commutation of [<sup>F7</sup>a pension provided for him], a lump sum or sums not exceeding in all three-eighths of his final remuneration (disregarding any excess of that remuneration over the permitted maximum) <sup>F8</sup> for each year of service up to a maximum of 40.
  - [<sup>F9</sup>(da) that, in a case in which—

- (i) a lump sum may be obtained by the commutation of a part of a pension provided for an employee, and
- (ii) the amount of that pension is affected by the making of a pension sharing order or provision, the lump sum does not exceed the sum produced by multiplying by 2.25 the amount which (after effect has been given to the pension sharing order or provision) is the amount of that pension for the first year in which it is payable;]

- [<sup>F10</sup>(e) that, in the case of any employee who is a member of the scheme by virtue of two or more relevant associated employments, the amount payable by way of pension in respect of service in any one of them may not, when aggregated with any amount payable by way of pension in respect of service in the other or others, exceed the relevant amount;
- (f) that, in the case of any employee who is a member of the scheme by virtue of two or more relevant associated employments, the amount payable by way of commuted pension in respect of service in any one of them may not, when aggregated with any amount payable by way of commuted pension in respect of service in the other or others, exceed the relevant amount;
- (g) that, in the case of any employee in relation to whom the scheme is connected with another scheme which is (or other schemes each of which is) an approved scheme, the amount payable by way of pension under the scheme may not, when aggregated with any amount payable by way of pension under the other scheme or schemes, exceed the relevant amount;
- (h) that, in the case of any employee in relation to whom the scheme is connected with another scheme which is (or other schemes each of which is) an approved scheme, the amount payable by way of commuted pension may not, when aggregated with any amount payable by way of commuted pension under the other scheme or schemes, exceed the relevant amount.]

- (a) that any benefit for an ex-spouse takes the form of a pension (with or without an entitlement to commute a part of that pension);
- (b) that any benefit for an ex-spouse is a pension payable only on the attainment by the ex-spouse of a specified age of not less than 60 and not more than 75;
- (c) that any entitlement to commute a part of the pension is exercisable only on its becoming payable;
- (d) that any benefit for the widow or widower of an ex-spouse is confined to a non-commutable pension payable on the death of the ex-spouse at a time when the ex-spouse is already entitled to receive a pension under the scheme;
- (e) that any pension provided for the widow or widower of an ex-spouse is of an amount not exceeding two-thirds of the pension payable to the ex-spouse;
- (f) that, in a case in which a lump sum may be obtained by the commutation of a part of a pension provided for an ex-spouse, the lump sum does not exceed the sum produced by multiplying the amount of the pension for the first year in which it is payable by 2.25.]

(4) The conditions set out in [<sup>F12</sup>subsections (2) to (3A)] above are in this Chapter referred to as “the prescribed conditions”.

[<sup>F13</sup>(4A) In subsection (3)(c) above “benefits” does not include any benefits for whose payment the scheme makes provision in pursuance of any obligation imposed by legislation relating to social security.]

Changes to legislation: Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988, CHAPTER 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 14 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

[<sup>F14</sup>(4B) For the purposes of this section a benefit provided under any scheme is provided for an ex-spouse or the widow or widower of an ex-spouse, and shall be treated as not provided for an employee or the widow or widower of an employee, to the extent (and to the extent only) that—

- (a) it is provided for a person who is, or is the widow or widower of, either—
  - (i) an employee who is an ex-spouse; or
  - (ii) a scheme member’s ex-spouse;
 and

(b) it is as an ex-spouse, or as the widow or widower of an ex-spouse, that that person is the person for whom the benefit is provided.

(4C) For the purposes of this section a benefit provided for any person under any scheme is provided for that person as an ex-spouse, or as the widow or widower of an ex-spouse, to the extent (and to the extent only) that—

- (a) the benefit is provided in respect of rights of an ex-spouse that are or represent rights conferred on the ex-spouse as a consequence of a pension sharing order or provision; and
- (b) the scheme makes provision for the benefit to be treated as provided separately from any benefits which are provided under the scheme for the same person as an employee or as the widow or widower of an employee.

(4D) In this section “scheme member”, in relation to a scheme, means—

- (a) an employee; or
- (b) a person entitled to any relevant benefits under the scheme as a consequence of a pension sharing order or provision.

(4E) The following rules shall apply in calculating for the purposes of subsection (3)(da) or (3A)(f) above the amount of a person’s pension for the first year in which it is payable—

- (a) if the pension payable for the year changes, the initial pension payable shall be taken;
- (b) it shall be assumed that that person will survive for the year; and
- (c) the effect of commutation shall be ignored.

(4F) A pension provided for an ex-spouse who is an employee, or for the widow or widower of such an ex-spouse, shall be disregarded in any determination of whether the conditions set out in subsection (3)(e) to (h) above are satisfied or continue to be satisfied in the case of that employee.]

[<sup>F16</sup>(7) Subsections (8) to (10) below apply where the Board are considering whether a retirement benefits scheme satisfies or continues to satisfy the prescribed conditions.

(8) For the purpose of determining whether the scheme, so far as it relates to a particular class or description of employees, satisfies or continues to satisfy the prescribed conditions, that scheme shall be considered in conjunction with—

- (a) any other retirement benefits scheme (or schemes) which relates (or relate) to employees of that class or description and which is (or are) approved for the purposes of this Chapter,

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2003.

- (b) any other retirement benefits scheme (or schemes) which relates (or relate) to employees of that class or description and which is (or are) at the same time before the Board in order for them to decide whether to give approval for the purposes of this Chapter,
  - (c) any section 608 scheme or schemes relating to employees of that class or description, and
  - (d) any relevant statutory scheme or schemes relating to employees of that class or description.
- (9) If those conditions are satisfied in the case of both or all of those schemes taken together, they shall be taken to be satisfied in the case of the scheme mentioned in subsection (7) above (as well as the other or others).
- (10) If those conditions are not satisfied in the case of both or all of those schemes taken together, they shall not be taken to be satisfied in the case of the scheme mentioned in subsection (7) above.
- (11) The reference in subsection (8)(c) above to a section 608 scheme is a reference to a fund to which section 608 applies.]

- (1) For the purposes of section 590(3)(e) and (f) two or more employments are relevant associated employments if they are employments in the case of which—
  - (a) there is a period during which the employee has held both or all of them,
  - (b) the period counts under the scheme in the case of both or all of them as a period in respect of which benefits are payable, and
  - (c) the period is one during which both or all of the employers in question are associated.
- (2) For the purposes of section 590(3)(g) and (h) the scheme is connected with another scheme in relation to an employee if—
  - (a) there is a period during which he has been the employee of two persons who are associated employers,
  - (b) the period counts under both schemes as a period in respect of which benefits are payable, and
  - (c) the period counts under one scheme by virtue of service with one employer and under the other scheme by virtue of service with the other employer.
- (3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) above, employers are associated if (directly or indirectly) one is controlled by the other or if both are controlled by a third person.
- (4) In subsection (3) above the reference to control, in relation to a body corporate, shall be construed—
  - (a) where the body corporate is a close company, in accordance with section 416, and
  - (b) where it is not, in accordance with section 840.]

591 Discretionary approval.

- (1)<sup>M4</sup>The Board may, if they think fit having regard to the facts of a particular case, and subject to such conditions, if any, as they think proper to attach to the approval, approve a retirement benefits scheme for the purposes of this Chapter notwithstanding that it does not satisfy one or more of the prescribed conditions; but this subsection has effect subject to subsection (5) below.
- (2)<sup>M5</sup>The Board may in particular approve by virtue of this section a scheme—
- which exceeds the limits imposed by the prescribed conditions as respects benefits for less than 40 years; or
  - which provides pensions for the widows [<sup>F22</sup>and widowers] of employees on death in service, or for the children or dependants of employees; or
  - <sup>F23</sup>(ba) which provides pensions for the widows and widowers of ex-spouses dying before the age at which their pensions become payable and for the children or dependants of ex-spouses; or]
  - which provides on death in service a lump sum of up to four times the employee's final remuneration (exclusive of any refunds of contributions); or
  - which allows benefits to be payable on retirement within ten years of the specified age, or on earlier incapacity; or
  - which provides for the return in certain contingencies of employees' contributions; or

- (f) which relates to a trade or undertaking carried on only partly in the United Kingdom and by a person not resident in the United Kingdom; or
  - (g) which provides in certain contingencies for securing relevant benefits [<sup>F24</sup> falling within subsection (2A) below] (but no other benefits) by means of an annuity contract <sup>F25</sup>. . . made with an insurance company of the employee's choice; or
  - (h) to which the employer is not a contributor and which provides benefits additional to those provided by a scheme to which he is a contributor.
- [<sup>F26</sup>(2A) Relevant benefits fall within this subsection if they correspond with benefits that could be provided by an approved scheme, and for this purpose—
- (a) a hypothetical scheme (rather than any particular scheme) is to be taken, and
  - (b) benefits provided by a scheme directly (rather than by means of an annuity contract) are to be taken.]
- [<sup>F27</sup>(3) In subsection (2)(g) above “insurance company” has the meaning given by section 659B.]
- (4) <sup>M6</sup>In applying this section to a scheme which was in existence on 6th April 1980, the Board shall exercise their discretion, in such cases as appear to them to be appropriate, so as to preserve—
    - (a) benefits earned or rights arising out of service before 6th April 1980; and
    - (b) any rights to death-in-service benefits conferred by rules of the scheme in force on 26th February 1970.
  - (5) <sup>M7</sup>The Board shall not approve a scheme by virtue of this section if to do so would be inconsistent with regulations made [<sup>F28</sup>by the Board] for the purposes of this section.
  - (6) Regulations made [<sup>F28</sup>by the Board] for the purposes of this section may restrict the Board's discretion to approve a scheme by reference to the benefits provided by the scheme, the investments held for the purposes of the scheme, the manner in which the scheme is administered or any other circumstances whatever.

[591A <sup>F29</sup>Effect on approved schemes of regulations under section 591.

- (1) Subsection (2) below applies where on or after 17th April 1991 regulations are made for the purposes of section 591 (“section 591 regulations”) which contain provisions restricting the Board’s discretion to approve a retirement benefits scheme by reference to any circumstances other than the benefits provided by the scheme (“relevant provisions”).
- (2) Any retirement benefits scheme approved by the Board by virtue of section 591 before the day on which the section 591 regulations come into force shall cease to be approved by virtue of that section at the end of the period of 36 months beginning with that day if at the end of that period the scheme—
  - (a) contains a provision of a prohibited description, or
  - (b) does not contain a provision of a required description,unless the description of provision is specified in regulations made by the Board for the purposes of this subsection.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, a provision contained in a scheme shall not be treated as being of a prohibited description by reason only of the fact that it authorises the retention of an investment held immediately before the day on which the section 591 regulations are made.
- (4) In determining for the purposes of this section whether any provision contained in a scheme is of a required description, the fact that it is framed so as not to require the disposal of an investment held immediately before the day on which the section 591 regulations are made shall be disregarded.
- (5) In this section—
  - (a) references to a provision of a prohibited description are to a provision of a description specified in the relevant provisions of the section 591 regulations as a description of provision which, if contained in a retirement benefits scheme, would prevent the Board from approving the scheme by virtue of section 591;
  - (b) references to a provision of a required description are to a provision of a description specified in the relevant provisions of the section 591 regulations as a description of provision which must be contained in a retirement benefits scheme before the Board may approve the scheme by virtue of section 591.]

592 Exempt approved schemes.

- <sup>M8</sup>(1) This section has effect as respects—
- (a) any approved scheme which is shown to the satisfaction of the Board to be established under irrevocable trusts; or
  - (b) any other approved scheme as respects which the Board, having regard to any special circumstances, direct that this section shall apply;
- and any scheme which is for the time being within paragraph (a) or (b) above is in this Chapter referred to as an “exempt approved scheme”.
- (2) Exemption from income tax shall, on a claim being made in that behalf, be allowed in respect of income derived from investments or deposits if, or to such extent as the Board are satisfied that, it is income from investments or deposits held for the purposes of the scheme.
- (3) Exemption from income tax shall, on a claim being made in that behalf, be allowed in respect of underwriting commissions if, or to such extent as the Board are satisfied that, the underwriting commissions are applied for the purposes of the schemes and would, but for this subsection, be chargeable to tax under Case VI of Schedule D.
- (4) Any sum paid by an employer by way of contribution under the scheme shall, for the purposes of Case I or II of Schedule D and of sections 75 and 76, be allowed to be deducted as an expense, or expense of management, incurred in the chargeable period in which the sum is paid [<sup>F40</sup>] but no other sum shall for those purposes be allowed to

- [<sup>F42</sup>(7) Any contribution paid under the scheme shall be allowed to be deducted from employment income for the year of assessment in which the contribution is paid.
- A deduction under this subsection may only be made once in respect of the same contribution.]
- (8) [<sup>F43</sup>Subject to subsection (8A) below,] the amount allowed to be deducted by virtue of subsection (7) above in respect of contributions paid by an employee in a year of assessment (whether under a single scheme or under two or more schemes) shall not exceed 15 per cent., or such higher percentage as the Board may in a particular case prescribe, of his remuneration for that year.
- [<sup>F44</sup>(8A) Where an employee’s remuneration for a year of assessment includes remuneration in respect of more than one employment, the amount allowed to be deducted by virtue of subsection (7) above in respect of contributions paid by the employee in that year by virtue of any employment (whether under a single scheme or under two or more schemes) shall not exceed 15 per cent, or such higher percentage as the Board may in a particular case prescribe, of his remuneration for the year in respect of that employment.
- (8B) In arriving at an employee’s remuneration for a year of assessment for the purposes of subsection (8) or (8A) above, any excess of what would be his remuneration (apart from this subsection) over the permitted maximum for that year shall be disregarded.
- (8C) In subsection (8B) above “permitted maximum”, in relation to a year of assessment, means the figure found for that year by virtue of subsections (8D) and (8E) below.

- (8D) For the year 1989-90 the figure is £60,000.
- (8E) For any subsequent year of assessment the figure is the figure found for that year, for the purposes of section 590C, by virtue of section 590C(4) [<sup>F45</sup>to (5A)].]
- (9) Relief shall not be given under section 266 or 273 in respect of any payment in respect of which an allowance can be made under subsection (7) above.
- (10) Subsection (2) of section 468 and subsection (3) of section 469 shall not apply to any authorised unit trust which is also an exempt approved scheme if the employer is not a contributor to the exempt approved scheme and that scheme provides benefits additional to those provided by another exempt approved scheme to which he is a contributor.
- (11) Nothing in this section shall be construed as affording relief in respect of any sums to be brought into account under section 438.
- (12) This section has effect only as respects income arising or contributions paid at a time when the scheme is an exempt approved scheme.

- (b) which provide benefits additional to benefits provided by schemes to which their employers are contributors.
- (2) An employee who is entitled to relief under section 592(7) in respect of a contribution may deduct from the contribution when he pays it, and may retain, an amount equal to income tax at the basic rate on the contribution.
- (3) The administrator of the scheme—
  - (a) shall accept the amount paid after the deduction in discharge of the employee’s liability to the same extent as if the deduction had not been made; and
  - (b) may recover an amount equal to the deduction from the Board.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (3) of section 612 may, without prejudice to the generality of that subsection—
  - (a) provide for the manner in which claims for the recovery of a sum under subsection (3)(b) above may be made;
  - (b) provide for the giving of such information, in such form, as may be prescribed by or under the regulations;
  - (c) provide for the inspection by persons authorised by the Board of books, documents and other records.

598 Charge to tax: repayment of employee's contributions.

- <sup>M13</sup>(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, tax shall be charged under this section on any repayment to an employee during his lifetime of any contributions (including interest on contributions, if any) if the payment is made under—
- (a) a scheme which is or has at any time been an exempt approved scheme, or
  - (b) a [<sup>F61</sup>relevant] statutory scheme established under a public general Act.
- (2) Where any payment is chargeable to tax under this section, the administrator of the scheme shall be charged to income tax under Case VI of Schedule D and, subject to subsection (3) below, the rate of tax shall be 10 per cent.
- (3) The Treasury may by order from time to time increase or decrease the rate of tax under subsection (2) above.
- (4) The tax shall be charged on the amount paid or, if the rules permit the administrator to deduct the tax before payment, on the amount before deduction of tax, and the amount so charged to tax shall not be treated as income for any other purpose of the Tax Acts.
- (5) Subsection (1)(a) above shall not apply in relation to a contribution made after the scheme ceases to be an exempt approved scheme (unless it again becomes an exempt approved scheme).
- (6) This section shall not apply where the employee's employment was carried on outside the United Kingdom.

of part (but not the whole) of the pension, or which would have been so receivable but for those special circumstances; whichever gives the lesser amount chargeable to tax.

[<sup>F63</sup>(1A) Subsection (1) above shall have effect in relation to the commutation of the whole or any part of a pension the amount of which has been affected by the making of any pension sharing order or provision as if paragraph (a) and the words after paragraph (b) were omitted.

(1B) Where—

(a) a scheme to which this section applies contains a rule allowing, in special circumstances, a payment in commutation of the entire pension provided under the scheme for an ex-spouse, and

(b) any pension is commuted, whether wholly or not, under the rule, tax shall be charged on the amount by which the sum receivable exceeds the largest sum which would have been receivable in commutation of any part of the pension under any rule of the scheme authorising the commutation of a part (but not the whole) of the pension.

(1C) A pension provided for an ex-spouse shall be disregarded when applying subsection (1) above in relation to the commutation of any pension provided for an employee.

(1D) A pension provided for an employee shall be disregarded when applying subsection (1B) above in relation to the commutation of any pension provided for an ex-spouse.

(1E) Subsections (4B) and (4C) of section 590 apply for the purposes of subsections (1C) and (1D) above as they apply for the purposes of that section.]

(2) This section applies to—

(a) a scheme which is or has at any time been an approved scheme, or

(b) a [<sup>F64</sup>relevant] statutory scheme established under a public general Act.

(3) Where any amount is chargeable to tax under this section the administrator of the scheme shall be charged to income tax under Case VI of Schedule D on that amount, and section 598(2), (3) and (4) shall apply as they apply to tax chargeable under that section.

(4) This section shall not apply where the employee's employment was carried on outside the United Kingdom.

(5) In relation to a statutory scheme, "employee" in this section includes any officer.

(6) In applying paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) above [<sup>F65</sup>, or in applying subsection (1B) above]—

(a) the same considerations shall be taken into account, including the provisions of any other relevant scheme, as would have been taken into account by the Board in applying section 590; and

(b) where the scheme has ceased to be an approved scheme, account shall only be taken of the rules in force when the scheme was last an approved scheme.

(7) Where the pension has been secured by means of an annuity contract with an insurance company and the sum receivable is payable under that contract by the insurance company, the references to the administrator of the scheme in subsection (3) above

602 Regulations relating to pension fund surpluses.

- <sup>M16</sup>(1) In relation to an amount recoverable as mentioned in section 601(2), the Treasury may by regulations make any of the provisions mentioned in subsection (2) below; and for this purpose the amount shall be treated as if it were—
- (a) an amount of income tax chargeable on the employer under Case VI of Schedule D for the year of assessment in which the payment is made; or
  - (b) where the employer is a company, an amount of corporation tax chargeable on the company for the accounting period in which the payment is made.
- (2) The provisions are—
- (a) provision requiring the administrator of the scheme or the employer (or both) to furnish to the Board, in respect of the amount recoverable and of the payment concerned, information of a prescribed kind;
  - (b) provision enabling the Board to serve a notice or notices requiring the administrator or employer (or both) to furnish to the Board, in respect of the amount and payment, particulars of a prescribed kind;
  - (c) provision requiring the administrator to deduct out of the payment the amount recoverable and to account to the Board for it;
  - (d) provision as to circumstances in which the employer may be assessed in respect of the amount recoverable;
  - (e) provision that, in a case where the employer has been assessed in respect of an amount recoverable but has not paid it (or part of it) within a prescribed period, the administrator may be assessed and charged (in the employer's name) in respect of the amount (or part unpaid);
  - (f) provision that, in a case where the amount recoverable (or part of it) has been recovered from the administrator by virtue of an assessment in the employer's name, the administrator is entitled to recover from the employer a sum equal to the amount (or part);
  - (g) provision enabling the employer or administrator (as the case may be) to appeal against an assessment made on him in respect of the amount recoverable;

[<sup>F88</sup> 606A] Recourse to scheme members.

- (1) This section applies where—
  - (a) an approval of a retirement benefits scheme has ceased to have effect;
  - (b) a person (“the employer”) has become liable by virtue of section 606 to any tax chargeable on the administrator of the scheme under section 591C;
  - (c) the employer has failed, either in whole or in part, to pay that tax; and
  - (d) a person falling within subsection (2) below (“the relevant member”) was a member of the scheme at the time (“the relevant time”) immediately before the date of the cessation of its approval.
- (2) A person falls within this subsection in relation to any tax chargeable under section 591C if—
  - (a) at the relevant time or at any time before that time he was a controlling director of the employer; or
  - (b) he is a person by or in respect of whom any contributions were made by reference to which the condition in subsection (6A) of that section has been satisfied for the purpose of the charge to that tax.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below, if in a case where this section applies—
  - (a) the employer has ceased to exist, or
  - (b) the Board notify the relevant member that they consider the failure of the employer to pay the unpaid tax to be of a serious nature, the relevant member shall be treated as included in the persons on whom the unpaid tax was charged and shall be assessable accordingly.
- (4) The amount of tax for which the relevant member shall be taken to be assessable by virtue of this section shall not exceed the amount determined by—
  - (a) taking the amount equal to 40 per cent. of his share of the scheme; and
  - (b) subtracting from that amount his share of any tax charged under section 591C that has already been paid otherwise than by another person on whom it is treated as charged in accordance with this section.
- (5) For the purposes of this section the relevant member’s share of the scheme is the amount equal to so much of the value of the assets held for the purposes of the scheme at the relevant time (taking the value at that time) as, on a just and reasonable apportionment, would have fallen to be treated as the value at that time of the assets then held for the purposes of the provision under the scheme of benefits to or in respect of the relevant member.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

- (6) For the purposes of this section the relevant member's share of an amount of tax already paid is such sum as bears the same proportion to the amount paid as is borne by his share of the scheme to the total value at the relevant time of the assets then held for the purposes of the scheme.
- (7) The reference in subsection (5) above to the provision of benefits to or in respect of the relevant member includes a reference to the provision of a benefit to or in respect of a person connected with the relevant member.
- (8) For the purposes of this section a person is a controlling director of a company if he is a director of the company and is within section 417(5)(b) in relation to the company.
- (9) A notification given to any person for the purposes of subsection (3)(b) above may be included in any assessment on that person of the tax to which he becomes liable by virtue of the notification.
- (10) An assessment to tax made by virtue of this section shall not be out of time if it is made within three years after the date on which the tax which the employer has failed to pay first became due from him.
- (11) Subsections (1) to (3) of section 591D shall apply to the determination of the value at any time of an asset held for the purposes of a scheme as they apply for the purposes of section 591C(2).
- (12) Subsections (7) and (8) of section 591D shall apply for the purposes of this section as they apply for the purposes of subsection (1) of section 591C and section 591C, respectively.
- (13) Section 839 (connected persons) shall apply for the purposes of this section.]

609 Schemes approved before 23rd July 1987.

Schedule 23 to this Act, which makes provision with respect to retirement benefit schemes approved before 23rd July 1987, shall have effect.

610 Amendments of schemes.

- <sup>M22</sup>(1) This section applies to any amendment of a retirement benefits scheme proposed in connection with an application for the Board's approval for the purposes of this Chapter which is needed in order to ensure that approval is so given, or designed to enhance the benefits under the scheme up to the limits suitable in a scheme for which approval is sought.
- (2) A provision, however expressed, designed to preclude any amendment of a scheme which would have prejudiced its approval under section 208 or 222 of the 1970 Act shall not prevent any amendment to which this section applies.
- (3) In the case of a scheme which contains no powers of amendment, the administrator of the scheme may, with the consent of all the members of the scheme, and of the employer (or of each of the employers), make any amendment to which this section applies.

611 Definition of “retirement benefits scheme”.

- (1) <sup>M23</sup>In this Chapter “retirement benefits scheme” means, subject to the provisions of this section, a scheme for the provision of benefits consisting of or including relevant benefits, but does not include—
- [<sup>F96</sup>(a)] any national scheme providing such benefits[<sup>F97</sup>; or
  - (b) any scheme providing such benefits which is an approved personal pension scheme under Chapter IV of this Part].
- (2) References in this Chapter to a scheme include references to a deed, agreement, series of agreements, or other arrangements providing for relevant benefits notwithstanding that it relates or they relate only to—
- (a) a small number of employees, or to a single employee, or
  - (b) the payment of a pension starting immediately on the making of the arrangements.
- (3) The Board may, if they think fit, treat a <sup>F98</sup> . . . scheme relating to [<sup>F99</sup>scheme members] of two or more different classes or descriptions as being for the purposes of this Chapter [<sup>F100</sup>and Chapter IV of this Part] two or more <sup>F98</sup> . . . benefits schemes relating respectively to such one or more of those classes or descriptions of those [<sup>F99</sup>scheme members] as the Board think fit.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, and of any other provision of this Chapter—
- (a) [<sup>F101</sup>scheme members] may be regarded as belonging to different classes or descriptions if they are employed by different employers; and
  - (b) a particular class or description of [<sup>F102</sup>scheme member] may consist of a single [<sup>F102</sup>scheme member], or any number of [<sup>F102</sup>scheme members], however small.
- (5) <sup>M24</sup>Without prejudice to subsections (3) and (4) above, the Board may continue to treat as two different schemes, for the purposes of this Chapter, any retirement benefits scheme which, in pursuance of paragraph 5 of Schedule 3 to the Finance Act 1971 (schemes in existence before 5th April 1973), they treated, immediately before the coming into force of this Chapter, as two separate schemes for the purposes of Chapter II of Part II of the Finance Act 1970.
- [<sup>F103</sup>(6) In this section “scheme member”, in relation to a scheme means—
- (a) an employee; or
  - (b) a person whose rights under the scheme derive from a pension sharing order or provision[<sup>F104</sup>; or
  - (c) if the scheme is an approved personal pension scheme under Chapter IV of this Part, any other person who is a member of the scheme.]]
