

Town and Country Planning Act 1990

1990 CHAPTER 8

PART XIV

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

[^{F1}303 Fees for planning applications etc.

- (1) The appropriate authority may by regulations make provision for the payment of a fee or charge to a local planning authority in respect of—
 - (a) the performance by the local planning authority of any function they have;
 - (b) anything done by them which is calculated to facilitate or is conducive or incidental to the performance of any such function.
- (2) The appropriate authority may by regulations make provision for the payment of a fee to the appropriate authority or the local planning authority (or of fees to both the appropriate authority and the local planning authority) in respect of any application for planning permission deemed to be made under section 177(5).
- (3) The appropriate authority may by regulations make provision for the payment of a fee to the appropriate authority in respect of any application for planning permission which is deemed to be made to the appropriate authority under—
 - (a) any provision of this Act other than section 177(5), or
 - (b) any order or regulations made under this Act.
- (4) The appropriate authority may by regulations make provision for the payment of a fee to the appropriate authority in respect of an application for planning permission made under section 293A (urgent Crown development).
- (5) Regulations under this section may in particular—
 - (a) make provision as to when a fee or charge payable under the regulations is to be paid;
 - (b) make provision as to who is to pay a fee or charge payable under the regulations;

Status: Point in time view as at 30/04/2012.

Changes to legislation: Town and Country Planning Act 1990, Part XIV is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) make provision as to how a fee or charge payable under the regulations is to be calculated (including who is to make the calculation);
 - (d) prescribe circumstances in which a fee or charge payable under the regulations is to be remitted or refunded (wholly or in part);
 - (e) prescribe circumstances in which no fee or charge is to be paid;
 - (f) make provision as to the effect of paying or failing to pay a fee or charge in accordance with the regulations;
 - (g) prescribe circumstances in which a fee or charge payable under the regulations to one local planning authority is to be transferred to another local planning authority.
- (6) Regulations under this section may—
- (a) contain incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitional and transitory provision and savings;
 - (b) in the case of regulations made by virtue of subsection (5)(f) or paragraph (a) of this subsection, amend, repeal or revoke any provision made by or under this Act or by or under any other Act.
- (7) In this section “the appropriate authority” means—
- (a) the Secretary of State in relation to England;
 - (b) the Welsh Ministers in relation to Wales.
- (8) No regulations shall be made under this section unless a draft of the regulations has been laid before and approved by resolution of—
- (a) each House of Parliament, in the case of regulations made by the Secretary of State;
 - (b) the National Assembly for Wales, in the case of regulations made by the Welsh Ministers.
- (9) Section 333(3) does not apply in relation to regulations made under this section by the Welsh Ministers.
- (10) If a local planning authority calculate the amount of fees or charges in pursuance of provision made by regulations under subsection (1) the authority must secure that, taking one financial year with another, the income from the fees or charges does not exceed the cost of performing the function or doing the thing (as the case may be).
- (11) A financial year is the period of 12 months beginning with 1 April.]

[^{F3}303A Responsibility of local planning authorities for costs of holding certain inquiries etc.

[^{F4}(1) This section applies if the appropriate authority appoints a person to carry out or hold a qualifying procedure.

(1A) A qualifying procedure is—

- (a) an independent examination under section 20 or 64 of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004;
- (b) a local inquiry or other hearing under paragraph 8(1)(a) of Schedule 7;
- (c) the consideration of objections under paragraph 8(1)(b) of that Schedule.

(1B) The appropriate authority is—

- (a) the Secretary of State if the local planning authority causing the procedure to be carried out or held is in England;
- (b) the National Assembly for Wales if the local planning authority causing the procedure to be carried out or held is in Wales.]

(2) The [^{F5}appropriate authority] may require the whole or any part of the costs borne by [^{F6}it] in relation to the qualifying [^{F7}procedure] to be paid by the local planning authority causing the qualifying [^{F7}procedure] to be held.

(3) The [^{F5}appropriate authority] may cause the amount of any such costs to be certified; and any amount so certified and required by [^{F6}it] to be paid by a local planning authority shall be recoverable from that authority as a civil debt.

(4) What may be recovered under this section by the [^{F5}appropriate authority] is the entire administrative cost of, or incidental to, the qualifying [^{F7}procedure] , so far as borne by [^{F6}it] , including, in particular, such reasonable amount or element as [^{F8}it] may determine in respect of the general staff costs and overheads of his department.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), the [^{F5}appropriate authority] may by regulations prescribe a standard daily amount in relation to any description of qualifying [^{F7}procedure] and any description of person appointed to hold it, ^{F9} . . . and where, in relation to a qualifying [^{F7}procedure] of that description, a person of that description is or has been so appointed, what may be recovered in respect of that qualifying [^{F7}procedure] by virtue of the appointment of that person ^{F9} . . . is—

- (a) the prescribed standard amount from time to time applicable in the case of that qualifying [^{F7}procedure] and that person in respect of each day, or an appropriate proportion of that amount in respect of a part of a day, on which that person is engaged in the holding of, or is otherwise engaged on work connected with, the qualifying [^{F7}procedure] ;
- (b) any costs actually incurred on travelling or subsistence allowances payable to that person in connection with the qualifying [^{F7}procedure] ;
- (c) any costs attributable to the appointment of an assessor to assist that person ^{F10} . . . and
- (d) any other costs attributable to the appointment of that person.

(6) The cost of, or incidental to, a qualifying [^{F7}procedure] which does not take place may be recovered by the [^{F5}appropriate authority] from the local planning authority from which it would have been recoverable, had the qualifying [^{F7}procedure] taken place, to the same extent, and in the same way, as the cost of, or incidental to, a qualifying [^{F7}procedure] which does take place.

Status: Point in time view as at 30/04/2012.

Changes to legislation: Town and Country Planning Act 1990, Part XIV is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) ^{F11}
- (8) ^{F11}
- (9) ^{F11}

[References to a local planning authority causing a qualifying inquiry to be held ^{F12}(9A) include references to a requirement under the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004 on the authority to submit a plan to the appropriate authority for independent examination.]

(10) In this section—

- (a) any reference to costs borne by the [^{F13}appropriate authority] includes a reference to costs which, apart from this section, would fall, or would have fallen, to be borne by [^{F14}it] ; and
- (b) any reference to any remuneration or allowance being paid or payable to a person includes a reference to its being paid or payable for him.

(11) This section applies in relation to costs arising before, as well as costs arising after, its coming into force.]
