 - (3) In subsection (3), for the words “any such order” there shall be substituted the words “an order for the endorsement of a licence or the disqualification of a person”.
- 101 For section 48 of that Act (exemption from disqualification and endorsement for offences against construction and use regulations) there shall be substituted—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

“48 Exemption from disqualification and endorsement for certain construction and use offences

(1) Where a person is convicted of an offence under section 40A of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (using vehicle in dangerous condition etc) the court must not—

- (a) order him to be disqualified, or
- (b) order any particulars or penalty points to be endorsed on the counterpart of any licence held by him, if he proves that he did not know, and had no reasonable cause to suspect, that the use of the vehicle involved a danger of injury to any person.

(2) Where a person is convicted of an offence under section 41A of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (breach of requirement as to brakes, steering-gear or tyres) the court must not—

- (a) order him to be disqualified, or
- (b) order any particulars or penalty points to be endorsed on the counterpart of any licence held by him, if he proves that he did not know, and had no reasonable cause to suspect, that the facts of the case were such that the offence would be committed.

(3) In relation to licences which came into force before 1st June 1990, the references in subsections (1) and (2) above to the counterpart of a licence shall be construed as references to the licence itself.”

102 For section 53 of that Act there shall be substituted—

“53 Amount of fixed penalty

(1) The fixed penalty for an offence is—

- (a) such amount as the Secretary of State may by order prescribe, or
- (b) one half of the maximum amount of the fine to which a person committing that offence would be liable on summary conviction, whichever is the less.

(2) Any order made under subsection (1)(a) may make different provision for different cases or classes of case or in respect of different areas.”

103 (1) Section 54 of that Act (power to give fixed penalty notices on the spot or at a police station exercisable only if offender would not if convicted be liable to disqualification under section 35) shall be amended as follows.

(2) In subsection (1), after the word “where”, there shall be inserted the words “in England and Wales”.

(3) After subsection (9) there shall be added—

“(10) In determining for the purposes of subsections (3)(b) and (5)(a) above whether a person convicted of an offence would be liable to disqualification under section 35, it shall be assumed, in the case of an offence in relation to which a range of numbers is shown in the last column of Part I of Schedule 2 to this Act, that the number of penalty points to be attributed to the offence would be the lowest in the range.”

- 104 In section 61 of that Act (fixed penalty notice mistakenly given) after subsection (5) there shall be added—
- “(6) In determining for the purposes of subsection (1) above whether a person convicted of an offence would be liable to disqualification under section 35, it shall be assumed, in the case of an offence in relation to which a range of numbers is shown in the last column of Part I of Schedule 2 to this Act, that the number of penalty points to be attributed to the offence would be the lowest in the range.”
- 105 In section 69(4) of that Act (references to fixed penalty clerk) after the words “of this Act” there shall be inserted the words “(except in sections 75 to 77)”.
- 106 At the end of section 86(1) of that Act (functions of traffic wardens) there shall be added the words “unless that offence was committed whilst the vehicle concerned was stationary.”
- 107 (1) Section 89 of that Act (interpretation), shall be amended as follows.
- (2) After the definition of “authorised person” there shall be inserted—
- ““chief constable” means, in Scotland in relation to any conditional offer, the chief constable for the area in which the conditional offer has been issued.”
- (3) In the definition of “chief officer of police” for the words “or notice to owner” there shall be substituted the words “, notice to owner or conditional offer”.
- 108 In section 90 of that Act (index to Part III)—
- (a) in the entry relating to the expression “Conditional offer”, for the words “Section 75(4)” there shall be substituted the words “Section 75(3)”; and
- (b) at the end of the entry relating to the expression “Fixed penalty clerk” there shall be added the words “and 75(4)”.
- 109 In section 92 of that Act (persons in public service of Crown) after “16” there shall be inserted “20”.
- 110 In section 93(2) of that Act (persons subject to service discipline) for “4” there shall be substituted “3A”.
- 111 (1) In subsection (1) of section 98 of that Act (interpretation), in paragraph (b) of the definition of “road”, for the words “has the same meaning as in the Roads (Scotland) Act 1984” there shall be substituted the words “means any road within the meaning of the Roads (Scotland) Act 1984 and any other way to which the public has access, and includes bridges over which a road passes,”.
- (2) At the end of subsection (2) of that section there shall be added the word “Act”.
- 112 (1) Schedule 3 to the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (fixed penalty offences) shall be amended as follows.
- (2) After the entry relating to section 36 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 there shall be inserted—

“RTA section 40A

Using vehicle in dangerous condition etc.

RTA section 41A

Breach of requirement as to brakes, steering-gear or tyres.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

RTA section 41B	Breach of requirement as to weight: goods and passenger vehicles.”
-----------------	--

- (3) In the entry relating to section 42 of the Road Traffic Act 1988, for the words in column 2 there shall be substituted the words “Breach of other construction and use requirements”.
- (4) In the entry relating to section 87(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1988, in column 2 for the word “without” there shall be substituted the words “otherwise than in accordance with”.
- 113 In Schedule 5 to the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (conditional offer of fixed penalty in relation to certain offences in Scotland), in the entry relating to section 87(2) of the Road Traffic Act 1988, in column (2) for the word “without” there shall be substituted the words “otherwise than in accordance with”.

The Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 (c. 54)

- 114 In section 8(3) of the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 (commencement) for the words from the beginning to the end of paragraph (c) there shall be substituted the words “Paragraphs 15 to 20 of Schedule 2 to this Act”.

SCHEDULE 5

Section 52.

THE TRAFFIC DIRECTOR FOR LONDON

Status

- 1 The Traffic Director for London shall be a corporation sole.
- 2 The Director shall not be regarded as the servant or agent of the Crown or as enjoying any status, immunity or privilege of the Crown; and the Director’s property shall not be regarded as property of, or held on behalf of, the Crown.

Tenure of office

- 3 (1) Subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, the Director shall hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of his appointment.
- (2) The Director shall be appointed for a term not exceeding five years.
- (3) At the end of a term of appointment the Director shall be eligible for re-appointment.
- (4) The Director may at any time resign his office by notice in writing addressed to the Secretary of State.
- (5) The Secretary of State may remove the Director from office—
- (a) if a bankruptcy order has been made against him, or his estate has been sequestrated or he has made a composition or arrangement with, or granted a trust deed for, his creditors; or
 - (b) if satisfied that he is otherwise unable or unfit to discharge his functions.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (6) The Director's terms of appointment may provide for his removal from office (without assigning cause) on notice from the Secretary of State of such length as may be specified in those terms, subject, if those terms so provide, to compensation of such amount as the Secretary of State may, with the approval of the Treasury, determine.

Remuneration etc

- 4 (1) There shall be paid to the Director such remuneration and such travelling and other allowances as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (2) In the case of any such holder of the office of Director as may be determined by the Secretary of State, there shall be paid such pension, allowances or gratuities to or in respect of him, or such payments towards the provision of a pension, allowances or gratuities to or in respect of him, as may be so determined.
- (3) If the Secretary of State determines that there are special circumstances which make it right that a person ceasing to hold office as Director should receive compensation, there may be paid to him a sum by way of compensation of such amount as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (4) Sub-paragraph (3) above does not apply in the case of a person who receives compensation by virtue of paragraph 3(6) above.
- (5) The approval of the Treasury shall be required for the making of a determination under this paragraph.

Staff

- 5 (1) The Director shall act only with the approval of the Secretary of State, given with the approval of the Treasury, in determining—
- (a) the number of persons to be employed by him;
 - (b) the remuneration, allowances and gratuities to be paid to or in respect of such persons; and
 - (c) any other terms and conditions of their service.
- (2) Anything authorised or required by or under any enactment to be done by the Director may be done by any person employed by him who has been authorised by the Director, whether generally or specially, for that purpose.
- (3) Employment by the Director shall be included among the kinds of employment to which a scheme under section 1 of the Superannuation Act 1972 may apply; and, accordingly, in Schedule 1 to that Act (in which those kinds of employment are listed) at the end of the list of "Other Bodies" there shall be inserted—
- "Employment by the Traffic Director for London."
- (4) The Director shall pay to the Treasury, at such times as the Treasury may direct, such sums as the Treasury may determine in respect of the increase in the sums payable out of money provided by Parliament under that Act attributable to sub-paragraph (3) above.
- (5) Where an employee of the Director who is (by reference to that employment) a participant in a scheme under section 1 of that Act, becomes a holder of the office of

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

Director, the Treasury may determine that his term of office shall be treated for the purposes of the scheme as employment by the Director (whether or not any benefits are payable to or in respect of him by virtue of paragraph 4(2) above).

Financial provisions

- 6 The remuneration of the Director and any other payments made under paragraphs 3(6) or 4 above to or in respect of him shall be paid out of grants made by the Secretary of State under section 80(2) of this Act.

Accounts

- 7 (1) The Director shall keep accounts and shall prepare a statement of accounts in respect of each financial year.
- (2) The accounts shall be kept, and the statement shall be prepared, in such form as the Secretary of State may, with the approval of the Treasury, direct.
- (3) The accounts shall be audited by persons appointed in respect of each financial year by the Secretary of State.
- (4) No person shall be qualified to be appointed as auditor under this paragraph unless he is—
- (a) a member of a body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised for the purposes of Part II of the Companies Act 1989; or
 - (b) a member of the Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy;
- but a firm may be appointed as auditor under this paragraph if each of its members is qualified to be so appointed.
- (5) In this paragraph, and in paragraph 8 below, “financial year” means—
- (a) the period beginning with the day on which the first person to hold the office of Director takes office and ending with the following 31st March; and
 - (b) each subsequent period of twelve months ending with 31st March.

Annual report etc

- 8 (1) As soon as possible after the end of each financial year, the Director shall submit to the Secretary of State an annual report on the discharge in that year of his functions.
- (2) Each report shall contain a copy of the statement of accounts prepared and audited under paragraph 7 above in respect of that financial year.
- (3) The Secretary of State shall lay a copy of the Director’s annual report before each House of Parliament.
- (4) The Director shall provide the Secretary of State with such information relating to his property and the discharge and proposed discharge of his functions as the Secretary of State may require; and for that purpose shall—
- (a) permit any person authorised in that behalf by the Secretary of State to make copies of any accounts or other documents; and
 - (b) give such explanation as may be required of any such accounts or documents.

Evidence

- 9 A document purporting to be duly executed under the seal of the Director or to be signed on the Director’s behalf shall be received in evidence and, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be so executed or signed.

Public records

- 10 In Schedule 1 to the Public Records Act 1958, in Part II of the Table in paragraph 3 the following entry shall be inserted at the appropriate place—

“Traffic Director for London”.

The Parliamentary Commissioner

- 11 In the Parliamentary Commissioner Act 1967, in Schedule 2 (departments and authorities subject to investigation), the following entry shall be inserted at the appropriate place—

“Traffic Director for London.”

Parliamentary disqualification

- 12 (1) In the House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975, in Part III of Schedule 1 (other disqualifying offices), the following entry shall be inserted at the appropriate place—

“Traffic Director for London.”

- (2) The same entry shall be inserted at the appropriate place in Part III of Schedule 1 to the Northern Ireland Assembly Disqualification Act 1975.

SCHEDULE 6

Section 66(7).

PARKING PENALTIES

The notice to owner

- 1 (1) Where—
- (a) a penalty charge notice has been issued with respect to a vehicle under section 66 of this Act; and
 - (b) the period of 28 days for payment of the penalty charge has expired without that charge being paid,
- the London authority concerned may serve a notice (“a notice to owner”) on the person who appears to them to have been the owner of the vehicle when the alleged contravention occurred.
- (2) A notice to owner must state—
- (a) the amount of the penalty charge payable;
 - (b) the grounds on which the parking attendant who issued the penalty charge notice believed that a penalty charge was payable with respect to the vehicle;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (c) that the penalty charge must be paid before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the notice to owner is served;
 - (d) that failure to pay the penalty charge may lead to an increased charge being payable;
 - (e) the amount of that increased charge;
 - (f) that the person on whom the notice is served (“the recipient”) may be entitled to make representations under paragraph 2 below; and
 - (g) the effect of paragraph 5 below.
- (3) The Secretary of State may prescribe additional matters which must be dealt with in any notice to owner.

Representations against notice to owner

- 2 (1) Where it appears to the recipient that one or other of the grounds mentioned in sub-paragraph (4) below are satisfied, he may make representations to that effect to the London authority who served the notice on him.
- (2) Any representations under this paragraph must be made in such form as may be specified by the London authorities, acting through the Joint Committee.
- (3) The authority may disregard any such representations which are received by them after the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the notice to owner was served.
- (4) The grounds are—
- (a) that the recipient—
 - (i) never was the owner of the vehicle in question;
 - (ii) had ceased to be its owner before the date on which the alleged contravention occurred; or
 - (iii) became its owner after that date;
 - (b) that the alleged contravention did not occur;
 - (c) that the vehicle had been permitted to remain at rest in the parking place by a person who was in control of the vehicle without the consent of the owner;
 - (d) that the relevant designation order is invalid;
 - (e) that the recipient is a vehicle-hire firm and—
 - (i) the vehicle in question was at the material time hired from that firm under a vehicle hiring agreement; and
 - (ii) the person hiring it had signed a statement of liability acknowledging his liability in respect of any penalty charge notice fixed to the vehicle during the currency of the hiring agreement;
 - (f) that the penalty charge exceeded the amount applicable in the circumstances of the case.
- (5) Where the ground mentioned in sub-paragraph (4)(a)(ii) above is relied on in any representations made under this paragraph, those representations must include a statement of the name and address of the person to whom the vehicle was disposed of by the person making the representations (if that information is in his possession).
- (6) Where the ground mentioned in sub-paragraph (4)(a)(iii) above is relied on in any representations made under this paragraph, those representations must include a statement of the name and address of the person from whom the vehicle was acquired by the person making the representations (if that information is in his possession).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (7) It shall be the duty of an authority to whom representations are duly made under this paragraph—
- (a) to consider them and any supporting evidence which the person making them provides; and
 - (b) to serve on that person notice of their decision as to whether they accept that the ground in question has been established.

Cancellation of notice to owner

- 3 (1) Where representations are made under paragraph 2 above and the London authority concerned accept that the ground in question has been established they shall—
- (a) cancel the notice to owner; and
 - (b) state in the notice served under paragraph 2(7) above that the notice to owner has been cancelled.
- (2) The cancellation of a notice to owner under this paragraph shall not be taken to prevent the London authority concerned serving a fresh notice to owner on another person.
- (3) Where the ground that is accepted is that mentioned in paragraph 2(4)(e) above, the person hiring the vehicle shall be deemed to be its owner for the purposes of this Schedule.

Rejection of representations against notice to owner

- 4 Where any representations are made under paragraph 2 above but the London authority concerned do not accept that a ground has been established, the notice served under paragraph 2(7) above (“the notice of rejection”) must—
- (a) state that a charge certificate may be served under paragraph 6 below unless before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date of service of the notice of rejection—
 - (i) the penalty charge is paid; or
 - (ii) the person on whom the notice is served appeals to a parking adjudicator against the penalty charge;
 - (b) indicate the nature of a parking adjudicator’s power to award costs against any person appealing to him; and
 - (c) describe in general terms the form and manner in which an appeal to a parking adjudicator must be made,
- and may contain such other information as the authority consider appropriate.

Adjudication by parking adjudicator

- 5 (1) Where an authority serve notice under sub-paragraph (7) of paragraph 2 above, that they do not accept that a ground on which representations were made under that paragraph has been established, the person making those representations may, before—
- (a) the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date of service of that notice; or
 - (b) such longer period as a parking adjudicator may allow, appeal to a parking adjudicator against the authority's decision.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) On an appeal under this paragraph, the parking adjudicator shall consider the representations in question and any additional representations which are made by the appellant on any of the grounds mentioned in paragraph 2(4) above and may give the London authority concerned such directions as he considers appropriate.
- (3) It shall be the duty of any authority to whom a direction is given under sub-paragraph (2) above to comply with it forthwith.

Charge certificates

- 6 (1) Where a notice to owner is served on any person and the penalty charge to which it relates is not paid before the end of the relevant period, the authority serving the notice may serve on that person a statement (a "charge certificate") to the effect that the penalty charge in question is increased by 50 per cent.
- (2) The relevant period, in relation to a notice to owner, is the period of 28 days beginning—
 - (a) where no representations are made under paragraph 2 above, with the date on which the notice to owner is served;
 - (b) where—
 - (i) such representations are made;
 - (ii) a notice of rejection is served by the authority concerned; and
 - (iii) no appeal against the notice of rejection is made, with the date on which the notice of rejection is served; or
 - (c) where there has been an unsuccessful appeal against a notice of rejection, with the date on which notice of the adjudicator's decision is served on the appellant.
- (3) Where an appeal against a notice of rejection is made but is withdrawn before the adjudicator gives notice of his decision, the relevant period in relation to a notice to owner is the period of 14 days beginning with the date on which the appeal is withdrawn.

Enforcement of charge certificate

- 7 Where a charge certificate has been served on any person and the increased penalty charge provided for in the certificate is not paid before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the date on which the certificate is served, the authority concerned may, if a county court so orders, recover the increased charge as if it were payable under a county court order.

Invalid notices

- 8 (1) This paragraph applies where—
 - (a) a county court makes an order under paragraph 7 above;
 - (b) the person against whom it is made makes a statutory declaration complying with sub-paragraph (2) below; and
 - (c) that declaration is, before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the date on which notice of the county court's order is served on him, served on the county court which made the order.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) The statutory declaration must state that the person making it—
 - (a) did not receive the notice to owner in question;
 - (b) made representations to the London authority concerned under paragraph 2 above but did not receive a rejection notice from that authority; or
 - (c) appealed to a parking adjudicator under paragraph 5 above against the rejection by that authority of representations made by him under paragraph 2 above but had no response to the appeal.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (4) below applies where it appears to a district judge, on the application of a person on whom a charge certificate has been served, that it would be unreasonable in the circumstances of his case to insist on him serving his statutory declaration within the period of 21 days allowed for by sub-paragraph (1) above.
- (4) Where this sub-paragraph applies, the district judge may allow such longer period for service of the statutory declaration as he considers appropriate.
- (5) Where a statutory declaration is served under sub-paragraph (1)(c) above—
 - (a) the order of the court shall be deemed to have been revoked;
 - (b) the charge certificate shall be deemed to have been cancelled;
 - (c) in the case of a declaration under sub-paragraph (2)(a) above, the notice to owner to which the charge certificate relates shall be deemed to have been cancelled; and
 - (d) the district judge shall serve written notice of the effect of service of the declaration on the person making it and on the London authority concerned.
- (6) Service of a declaration under sub-paragraph (2)(a) above shall not prevent the London authority serving a fresh notice to owner.
- (7) Where a declaration has been served under sub-paragraph (2)(b) or (c) above, the London authority shall refer the case to the parking adjudicator who may give such direction as he considers appropriate.

Offence of giving false information

- 9 (1) A person who, in response to a notice to owner served under this Schedule, makes any representation under paragraph 2 or 5(2) above which is false in a material particular and does so recklessly or knowing it to be false in that particular is guilty of an offence.
- (2) Any person guilty of such an offence shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

Service by post

- 10 Any charge certificate, or notice under this Schedule—
 - (a) may be served by post; and
 - (b) where the person on whom it is to be served is a body corporate, is duly served if it is sent by post to the secretary or clerk of that body.

SCHEDULE 7

Section 81.

MINOR AND CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENTS IN RELATION TO LONDON

The Tribunals and Inquiries Act 1971 (c. 62)

- 1 In paragraph 30 of the Tribunals and Inquiries Act 1971, in Part I of Schedule 1 (tribunals under direct supervision of the Council on Tribunals) after “30” there shall be inserted “(a)”, and at the end of that paragraph there shall be inserted the words “and
- (b) a parking adjudicator appointed under section 73(3)(a) of the Road Traffic Act 1991.”

The Greater London Council (General Powers) Act 1974 (c. xxiv)

- 2 In section 15 of the Greater London Council (General Powers) Act 1974 (parking on footways etc.) in subsection (12)(b) for the words “under section 84” there shall be substituted the words “made by virtue of section 84(1)(a)”.

The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (c. 27)

- 3 In section 7 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (provisions supplementary to section 6), in subsection (6) for the words “Secretary of State for the Home Department” there shall be substituted the words “the Commissioner of Police for any police area in which is situated any road or part of a road to which the order is to relate”.
- 4 In that Act, after section 13 there shall be inserted—

“Temporary suspension

13A Temporary suspension of provisions under s. 6 or 9 orders

- (1) The Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis or the Commissioner of Police for the City of London may temporarily suspend the operation of any provision of an order made under section 6 or 9 of this Act so far as that provision relates to any road or part of a road in Greater London which is within his area, in order to prevent or mitigate congestion or obstruction of traffic, or danger to or from traffic in consequence of extraordinary circumstances.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, the period of suspension under subsection (1) above shall not continue for more than 7 days.
- (3) If the Secretary of State gives his consent to the period of suspension being continued for more than 7 days, the suspension shall continue until the end of such period as may be specified by the Secretary of State in giving his consent.”
- 5 (1) Section 55 of that Act (financial provisions relating to designation orders) shall be amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1), for the words from “designated” to the end there shall be substituted the words “for which they are the local authority and which are—

- (a) in the case of the council of a London borough and the Common Council of the City of London, parking places on the highway; and
 - (b) in the case of any other authority, designated parking places.”
- (3) After subsection (3) there shall be inserted—
 - “(3A) The council of each London borough and the Common Council of the City of London shall, after each financial year, report to the Secretary of State on any action taken by them, pursuant to subsection (2) or (3) above, in respect of any deficit or surplus in their account for the year.
 - (3B) The report under subsection (3A) above shall be made as soon after the end of the financial year to which it relates as is reasonably possible.”
- (4) In subsection (4)(c), the words from “to the council” to “City of London” shall be omitted.
- 6 (1) Section 105 of that Act (exemptions from provisions relating to immobilisation of vehicles) shall be amended as follows.
 - (2) In subsection (2) after the words “of any vehicle” there shall be inserted the words “found otherwise than in Greater London”.
 - (3) After subsection (2) there shall be inserted—
 - “(2A) The exemption under subsection (1)(b) above shall not apply in the case of any vehicle found in Greater London if the meter bay in which it was found was not authorised for use as such at the time when it was left there.”
 - (4) In subsection (3) for the words “subsection (2)(a)” there shall be substituted the words “subsections (2)(a) and (2A)”.
- 7 In section 122 of that Act (exercise of functions by local authorities) there shall be added at the end—
 - “(3) The duty imposed by subsection (1) above is subject to the provisions of Part II of the Road Traffic Act 1991.”

The Local Government Act 1985 (c. 51)

- 8 (1) For paragraph 5 of Schedule 5 to the Local Government Act 1985 (designation of routes in London) there shall be substituted—
 - “5 (1) For the purpose of facilitating the movement of traffic in Greater London, the Secretary of State may by order designate a road in that area.
 - (2) Before doing so, he shall consult—
 - (a) the council of the London borough in which the road is;
 - (b) the council of any other London borough or of any county where there is a road which he considers is likely to be affected by the designation; and
 - (c) such other persons (if any) as he considers it appropriate to consult.
 - (3) No council of a London borough shall exercise any power under the Highways Act 1980 or the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 in a way which will affect, or be likely to affect, a designated road unless the requirements of sub-paragraph (4) below have been satisfied.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) The requirements are that—
- (a) the council concerned has given notice to the Director, in such manner as he may require, of its proposal to exercise the power in the way in question; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) the Director has approved the proposal; or
 - (ii) the period of one month beginning with the date on which he received notice of the proposal has expired without his having objected to it.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by an instrument in writing exclude any power from the application of this paragraph to the extent specified in the instrument.
- (6) Any such instrument may, in particular, exclude a power as respects—
- (a) all or any of the London boroughs;
 - (b) all or any of the designated roads; or
 - (c) the exercise of the power in such manner or circumstances as may be specified in the instrument.
- (7) This paragraph does not apply to the exercise of a power under section 14 or sections 32 to 38 of the 1984 Act in relation to a road which is not a designated road.
- (8) If the council of a London borough exercises any power in contravention of this paragraph, the Director may take such steps as he considers appropriate to reverse or modify the effect of the exercise of that power.
- (9) Any reasonable expenses incurred by the Director in taking any steps under sub-paragraph (8) shall be recoverable by him from the council as a civil debt.
- (10) In this paragraph—
- “designated road” means a road designated under this paragraph; and
- “Director” means the Traffic Director for London.”

9 (1) Paragraph 6 of that Schedule (guidance as to exercise of traffic powers) shall be amended as follows.

(2) In sub-paragraph (5) for the words “summarily as a civil debt” there shall be substituted the words “as a debt due to the Crown”.

(3) After sub-paragraph (6), there shall be inserted—

“(7) Sub-paragraphs (3) to (6) above shall not apply in relation to the exercise of any power, by the council of a London borough, in complying with the duty imposed on them by section 57(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1991 (implementation of local plans).”

10 In paragraph 10(6) of that Schedule (recovery of sums expended by the Secretary of State in connection with traffic control systems) for the words “summarily as a civil debt” there shall be substituted the words “as a debt due to the Crown”.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- 11 In paragraph 11 of that Schedule (recovery of sums expended by the Secretary of State to obtain information) for the words “summarily as a civil debt” there shall be substituted the words “as a debt due to the Crown”.

The New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 (c. 22)

- 12 In section 64 of the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 (traffic-sensitive streets), after subsection (3) there shall be added—

“(4) Where any council of a London borough or the Common Council of the City of London are asked by the Traffic Director for London to designate a street as a traffic-sensitive street and they decline to do so, the Director may appeal to the Secretary of State who may direct that the street be designated.”
