

Local Government (Wales) Act 1994

1994 CHAPTER 19

PART VII

MISCELLANEOUS AND SUPPLEMENTAL

VALID FROM 01/04/1996

61 Lieutenancies.

(1) In section 130 of the ^{M1}Reserve Forces Act 1980 (lieutenancies in England and Wales), at the end add—

“(4) In this section and in sections 133 to 137 below “county” means, in relation to Wales, a preserved county (as defined by section 64 of the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994).”

(2) Her Majesty may by Order in Council make such amendments in section 130 of the Act of 1980, with respect to the area for which any lord-lieutenant or lieutenant may be appointed, as Her Majesty considers appropriate in the light of the changes made by or under this Act with respect to the areas of local authorities in Wales.

(3) Any such Order may make such incidental, consequential, transitional or supplemental provision (including provision amending the Act of 1980 or any other enactment) as appears to Her Majesty to be necessary or expedient.

(4) In section 94 of the Act of 1980 (procedure for enlistment), at the end add—

“(4) In subsection (2) above “county” means, in relation to Wales, a preserved county (as defined by section 64 of the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994).”

(5) In section 133 of the Act of 1980 (deputy lieutenants), at the end add—

“(6) In relation to Wales, subsection (5) above shall have effect as if the words from “(at” to “rate)” were omitted.”

Status: Point in time view as at 03/04/1995. This version of this provision is not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994, Section 61. (See end of Document for details)

(6) In Schedule 7 to the Act of 1980 (provision of schemes for the constitution of associations), in paragraph 8(5), after the definition of “air force member” insert—
““county” means, in relation to Wales, a preserved county (as defined by section 64 of the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994);”.
