CHAPTER I

RIGHT TO REDUNDANCY PAYMENT

135 The right.

- (1) An employer shall pay a redundancy payment to any employee of his if the employee—
- (a) is dismissed by the employer by reason of redundancy, or
 - (b) is eligible for a redundancy payment by reason of being laid off or kept on short-time.
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect subject to the following provisions of this Part (including, in particular, sections 140 to 144, 149 to 152, 155 to 161 and 164).

CHAPTER II

RIGHT ON DISMISSAL BY REASON OF REDUNDANCY

Dismissal by reason of redundancy

136 Circumstances in which an employee is dismissed.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section and sections 137 and 138, for the purposes of this Part an employee is dismissed by his employer if (and only if)—
- (a) the contract under which he is employed by the employer is terminated by the employer (whether with or without notice),
 - (b) he is employed under a contract for a fixed term and that term expires without being renewed under the same contract, or
 - (c) the employee terminates the contract under which he is employed (with or without notice) in circumstances in which he is entitled to terminate it without notice by reason of the employer's conduct.

Status: Point in time view as at 28/07/1999.

Changes to legislation: Employment Rights Act 1996, Part XI is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Subsection (1)(c) does not apply if the employee terminates the contract without notice in circumstances in which he is entitled to do so by reason of a lock-out by the employer.
- (3) An employee shall be taken to be dismissed by his employer for the purposes of this Part if—
- (a) the employer gives notice to the employee to terminate his contract of employment, and
 - (b) at a time within the obligatory period of notice the employee gives notice in writing to the employer to terminate the contract of employment on a date earlier than the date on which the employer's notice is due to expire.
- (4) In this Part the “obligatory period of notice”, in relation to notice given by an employer to terminate an employee's contract of employment, means—
- (a) the actual period of the notice in a case where the period beginning at the time when the notice is given and ending at the time when it expires is equal to the minimum period which (by virtue of any enactment or otherwise) is required to be given by the employer to terminate the contract of employment, and
 - (b) the period which—
 - (i) is equal to the minimum period referred to in paragraph (a), and
 - (ii) ends at the time when the notice expires,in any other case.
- (5) Where in accordance with any enactment or rule of law—
- (a) an act on the part of an employer, or
 - (b) an event affecting an employer (including, in the case of an individual, his death),
- operates to terminate a contract under which an employee is employed by him, the act or event shall be taken for the purposes of this Part to be a termination of the contract by the employer.

137 Failure to permit return after childbirth treated as dismissal.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) and section 138, where an employee who—
- (a) has the right conferred by section 79, and
 - (b) has exercised it in accordance with section 82,
- is not permitted to return to work, she shall be taken for the purposes of this Part to be dismissed for the reason for which she was not permitted to return with effect from the notified day of return (being deemed to have been continuously employed until that day).
- (2) Where in proceedings arising out of a failure to permit an employee to return to work pursuant to the right conferred by section 79 the employer shows—
- (a) that the reason for the failure is that the employee is redundant, and
 - (b) that the employee was, or (had she continued to be employed by him) would have been, dismissed by reason of redundancy on a day falling after the commencement of her maternity leave period and before the notified day of return,
- for the purposes of this Part the employee shall not be taken to be dismissed with effect from the notified day of return but shall be taken to be dismissed by reason of redundancy with effect from that earlier day (being deemed to have been continuously employed until that earlier day).

138 No dismissal in cases of renewal of contract or re-engagement.

(1) Where—

- (a) an employee’s contract of employment is renewed, or he is re-engaged under a new contract of employment in pursuance of an offer (whether in writing or not) made before the end of his employment under the previous contract, and
- (b) the renewal or re-engagement takes effect either immediately on, or after an interval of not more than four weeks after, the end of that employment, the employee shall not be regarded for the purposes of this Part as dismissed by his employer by reason of the ending of his employment under the previous contract.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—

- (a) the provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, as to—
 - (i) the capacity and place in which the employee is employed, and
 - (ii) the other terms and conditions of his employment, differ (wholly or in part) from the corresponding provisions of the previous contract, and
- (b) during the period specified in subsection (3)—
 - (i) the employee (for whatever reason) terminates the renewed or new contract, or gives notice to terminate it and it is in consequence terminated, or
 - (ii) the employer, for a reason connected with or arising out of any difference between the renewed or new contract and the previous contract, terminates the renewed or new contract, or gives notice to terminate it and it is in consequence terminated.

(3) The period referred to in subsection (2)(b) is the period—

- (a) beginning at the end of the employee’s employment under the previous contract, and
- (b) ending with—
 - (i) the period of four weeks beginning with the date on which the employee starts work under the renewed or new contract, or
 - (ii) such longer period as may be agreed in accordance with subsection (6) for the purpose of retraining the employee for employment under that contract; and is in this Part referred to as the “trial period”.

(4) Where subsection (2) applies, for the purposes of this Part—

- (a) the employee shall be regarded as dismissed on the date on which his employment under the previous contract (or, if there has been more than one trial period, the original contract) ended, and
- (b) the reason for the dismissal shall be taken to be the reason for which the employee was then dismissed, or would have been dismissed had the offer (or original offer) of renewed or new employment not been made, or the reason which resulted in that offer being made.

Status: Point in time view as at 28/07/1999.

Changes to legislation: Employment Rights Act 1996, Part XI is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Subsection (2) does not apply if the employee's contract of employment is again renewed, or he is again re-engaged under a new contract of employment, in circumstances such that subsection (1) again applies.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (3)(b)(ii) a period of retraining is agreed in accordance with this subsection only if the agreement—
 - (a) is made between the employer and the employee or his representative before the employee starts work under the contract as renewed, or the new contract,
 - (b) is in writing,
 - (c) specifies the date on which the period of retraining ends, and
 - (d) specifies the terms and conditions of employment which will apply in the employee's case after the end of that period.

139 Redundancy.

- (1) For the purposes of this Act an employee who is dismissed shall be taken to be dismissed by reason of redundancy if the dismissal is wholly or mainly attributable to—
 - (a) the fact that his employer has ceased or intends to cease—
 - (i) to carry on the business for the purposes of which the employee was employed by him, or
 - (ii) to carry on that business in the place where the employee was so employed, or
 - (b) the fact that the requirements of that business—
 - (i) for employees to carry out work of a particular kind, or
 - (ii) for employees to carry out work of a particular kind in the place where the employee was employed by the employer,have ceased or diminished or are expected to cease or diminish.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) the business of the employer together with the business or businesses of his associated employers shall be treated as one (unless either of the conditions specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of that subsection would be satisfied without so treating them).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1) the activities carried on by a local education authority with respect to the schools maintained by it, and the activities carried on by the governors of those schools, shall be treated as one business (unless either of the conditions specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of that subsection would be satisfied without so treating them).
- (4) Where—
 - (a) the contract under which a person is employed is treated by section 136(5) as terminated by his employer by reason of an act or event, and
 - (b) the employee's contract is not renewed and he is not re-engaged under a new contract of employment,he shall be taken for the purposes of this Act to be dismissed by reason of redundancy if the circumstances in which his contract is not renewed, and he is not re-engaged, are wholly or mainly attributable to either of the facts stated in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1).

Status: Point in time view as at 28/07/1999.

Changes to legislation: Employment Rights Act 1996, Part XI is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) In its application to a case within subsection (4), paragraph (a)(i) of subsection (1) has effect as if the reference in that subsection to the employer included a reference to any person to whom, in consequence of the act or event, power to dispose of the business has passed.
- (6) In subsection (1) “cease” and “diminish” mean cease and diminish either permanently or temporarily and for whatever reason.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C8 S. 139 applied (1.4.1999) by 1998 c. 31, s. 57(6)(7); S.I. 1999/1016, art. 2(1), Sch. 1

Exclusions

140 Summary dismissal.

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an employee is not entitled to a redundancy payment by reason of dismissal where his employer, being entitled to terminate his contract of employment without notice by reason of the employee’s conduct, terminates it either—
- (a) without notice,
 - (b) by giving shorter notice than that which, in the absence of conduct entitling the employer to terminate the contract without notice, the employer would be required to give to terminate the contract, or
 - (c) by giving notice which includes, or is accompanied by, a statement in writing that the employer would, by reason of the employee’s conduct, be entitled to terminate the contract without notice.
- (2) Where an employee who—
- (a) has been given notice by his employer to terminate his contract of employment, or
 - (b) has given notice to his employer under section 148(1) indicating his intention to claim a redundancy payment in respect of lay-off or short-time,
- takes part in a strike at any relevant time in circumstances which entitle the employer to treat the contract of employment as terminable without notice, subsection (1) does not apply if the employer terminates the contract by reason of his taking part in the strike.
- (3) Where the contract of employment of an employee who—
- (a) has been given notice by his employer to terminate his contract of employment, or
 - (b) has given notice to his employer under section 148(1) indicating his intention to claim a redundancy payment in respect of lay-off or short-time,
- is terminated as mentioned in subsection (1) at any relevant time otherwise than by reason of his taking part in a strike, an [F1 employment tribunal] may determine that the employer is liable to make an appropriate payment to the employee if on a reference to the tribunal it appears to the tribunal, in the circumstances of the case, to be just and equitable that the employee should receive it.
- (4) In subsection (3) “appropriate payment” means—

- (a) the whole of the redundancy payment to which the employee would have been entitled apart from subsection (1), or
 - (b) such part of that redundancy payment as the tribunal thinks fit.
- (5) In this section “relevant time”—
- (a) in the case of an employee who has been given notice by his employer to terminate his contract of employment, means any time within the obligatory period of notice, and
 - (b) in the case of an employee who has given notice to his employer under section 148(1), means any time after the service of the notice.

Textual Amendments

- F1 Words in s. 140(3) substituted (1.8.1998) by 1998 c. 8, s. 1(2)(a) (with s. 16(2)); S.I. 1998/1658, art. 2(1), Sch. 1

141 Renewal of contract or re-engagement.

- (1) This section applies where an offer (whether in writing or not) is made to an employee before the end of his employment—
- (a) to renew his contract of employment, or
 - (b) to re-engage him under a new contract of employment,
- with renewal or re-engagement to take effect either immediately on, or after an interval of not more than four weeks after, the end of his employment.
- (2) Where subsection (3) is satisfied, the employee is not entitled to a redundancy payment if he unreasonably refuses the offer.
- (3) This subsection is satisfied where—
- (a) the provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, as to—
 - (i) the capacity and place in which the employee would be employed, and
 - (ii) the other terms and conditions of his employment,would not differ from the corresponding provisions of the previous contract, or
 - (b) those provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, would differ from the corresponding provisions of the previous contract but the offer constitutes an offer of suitable employment in relation to the employee.
- (4) The employee is not entitled to a redundancy payment if—
- (a) his contract of employment is renewed, or he is re-engaged under a new contract of employment, in pursuance of the offer,
 - (b) the provisions of the contract as renewed or new contract as to the capacity or place in which he is employed or the other terms and conditions of his employment differ (wholly or in part) from the corresponding provisions of the previous contract,
 - (c) the employment is suitable in relation to him, and
 - (d) during the trial period he unreasonably terminates the contract, or unreasonably gives notice to terminate it and it is in consequence terminated.

142 Employee anticipating expiry of employer’s notice.

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), an employee is not entitled to a redundancy payment where—
 - (a) he is taken to be dismissed by virtue of section 136(3) by reason of giving to his employer notice terminating his contract of employment on a date earlier than the date on which notice by the employer terminating the contract is due to expire,
 - (b) before the employee’s notice is due to expire, the employer gives him a notice such as is specified in subsection (2), and
 - (c) the employee does not comply with the requirements of that notice.
- (2) The employer’s notice referred to in subsection (1)(b) is a notice in writing—
 - (a) requiring the employee to withdraw his notice terminating the contract of employment and to continue in employment until the date on which the employer’s notice terminating the contract expires, and
 - (b) stating that, unless he does so, the employer will contest any liability to pay to him a redundancy payment in respect of the termination of his contract of employment.
- (3) An [^{F2}employment tribunal] may determine that the employer is liable to make an appropriate payment to the employee if on a reference to the tribunal it appears to the tribunal, having regard to—
 - (a) the reasons for which the employee seeks to leave the employment, and
 - (b) the reasons for which the employer requires him to continue in it, to be just and equitable that the employee should receive the payment.
- (4) In subsection (3) “appropriate payment” means—
 - (a) the whole of the redundancy payment to which the employee would have been entitled apart from subsection (1), or
 - (b) such part of that redundancy payment as the tribunal thinks fit.

143 Strike during currency of employer’s notice.

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) an employer has given notice to an employee to terminate his contract of employment (“notice of termination”),
 - (b) after the notice is given the employee begins to take part in a strike of employees of the employer, and
 - (c) the employer serves on the employee a notice of extension.
- (2) A notice of extension is a notice in writing which—
 - (a) requests the employee to agree to extend the contract of employment beyond the time of expiry by a period comprising as many available days as the number of working days lost by striking (“the proposed period of extension”),
 - (b) indicates the reasons for which the employer makes that request, and

- (c) states that the employer will contest any liability to pay the employee a redundancy payment in respect of the dismissal effected by the notice of termination unless either—
- (i) the employee complies with the request, or
 - (ii) the employer is satisfied that, in consequence of sickness or injury or otherwise, the employee is unable to comply with it or that (even though he is able to comply with it) it is reasonable in the circumstances for him not to do so.
- (3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), if the employee does not comply with the request contained in the notice of extension, he is not entitled to a redundancy payment by reason of the dismissal effected by the notice of termination.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if the employer agrees to pay a redundancy payment to the employee in respect of the dismissal effected by the notice of termination even though he has not complied with the request contained in the notice of extension.
- (5) An [^{F3}employment tribunal] may determine that the employer is liable to make an appropriate payment to the employee if on a reference to the tribunal it appears to the tribunal that—
- (a) the employee has not complied with the request contained in the notice of extension and the employer has not agreed to pay a redundancy payment in respect of the dismissal effected by the notice of termination, but
 - (b) either the employee was unable to comply with the request or it was reasonable in the circumstances for him not to comply with it.
- (6) In subsection (5) “appropriate payment” means—
- (a) the whole of the redundancy payment to which the employee would have been entitled apart from subsection (3), or
 - (b) such part of that redundancy payment as the tribunal thinks fit.
- (7) If the employee—
- (a) complies with the request contained in the notice of extension, or
 - (b) does not comply with it but attends at his proper or usual place of work and is ready and willing to work on one or more (but not all) of the available days within the proposed period of extension,
- the notice of termination has effect, and shall be deemed at all material times to have had effect, as if the period specified in it had been appropriately extended; and sections 87 to 91 accordingly apply as if the period of notice required by section 86 were extended to a corresponding extent.
- (8) In subsection (7) “appropriately extended” means—
- (a) in a case within paragraph (a) of that subsection, extended beyond the time of expiry by an additional period equal to the proposed period of extension, and
 - (b) in a case within paragraph (b) of that subsection, extended beyond the time of expiry up to the end of the day (or last of the days) on which he attends at his proper or usual place of work and is ready and willing to work.

144 Provisions supplementary to section 143.

- (1) For the purposes of section 143 an employee complies with the request contained in a notice of extension if, but only if, on each available day within the proposed period of extension, he—
- (a) attends at his proper or usual place of work, and
 - (b) is ready and willing to work,
- whether or not he has signified his agreement to the request in any other way.
- (2) The reference in section 143(2) to the number of working days lost by striking is a reference to the number of working days in the period—
- (a) beginning with the date of service of the notice of termination, and
 - (b) ending with the time of expiry,
- which are days on which the employee in question takes part in a strike of employees of his employer.
- (3) In section 143 and this section—
- “available day”, in relation to an employee, means a working day beginning at or after the time of expiry which is a day on which he is not taking part in a strike of employees of the employer,
- “available day within the proposed period of extension” means an available day which begins before the end of the proposed period of extension,
- “time of expiry”, in relation to a notice of termination, means the time at which the notice would expire apart from section 143, and
- “working day”, in relation to an employee, means a day on which, in accordance with his contract of employment, he is normally required to work.
- (4) Neither the service of a notice of extension nor any extension by virtue of section 143(7) of the period specified in a notice of termination affects—
- (a) any right either of the employer or of the employee to terminate the contract of employment (whether before, at or after the time of expiry) by a further notice or without notice, or
 - (b) the operation of this Part in relation to any such termination of the contract of employment.

Supplementary

145 The relevant date.

- (1) For the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to redundancy payments “the relevant date” in relation to the dismissal of an employee has the meaning given by this section.
- (2) Subject to the following provisions of this section, “the relevant date”—
- (a) in relation to an employee whose contract of employment is terminated by notice, whether given by his employer or by the employee, means the date on which the notice expires,
 - (b) in relation to an employee whose contract of employment is terminated without notice, means the date on which the termination takes effect, and

- (c) in relation to an employee who is employed under a contract for a fixed term which expires without being renewed under the same contract, means the date on which the term expires.
- (3) Where the employee is taken to be dismissed by virtue of section 136(3) the “relevant date” means the date on which the employee’s notice to terminate his contract of employment expires.
- (4) Where the employee is regarded by virtue of section 138(4) as having been dismissed on the date on which his employment under an earlier contract ended, “the relevant date” means—
 - (a) for the purposes of section 164(1), the date which is the relevant date as defined by subsection (2) in relation to the renewed or new contract or, where there has been more than one trial period, the last such contract, and
 - (b) for the purposes of any other provision, the date which is the relevant date as defined by subsection (2) in relation to the previous contract or, where there has been more than one such trial period, the original contract.
- (5) Where—
 - (a) the contract of employment is terminated by the employer, and
 - (b) the notice required by section 86 to be given by an employer would, if duly given on the material date, expire on a date later than the relevant date (as defined by the previous provisions of this section),for the purposes of sections 155, 162(1) and 227(3) the later date is the relevant date.
- (6) In subsection (5)(b) “the material date” means—
 - (a) the date when notice of termination was given by the employer, or
 - (b) where no notice was given, the date when the contract of employment was terminated by the employer.
- (7) Where an employee is taken to be dismissed for the purposes of this Part by virtue of section 137(1), references in this Part to the relevant date are (unless the context otherwise requires) to the notified date of return.

146 Provisions supplementing sections 138 and 141.

- (1) In sections 138 and 141—
 - (a) references to re-engagement are to re-engagement by the employer or an associated employer, and
 - (b) references to an offer are to an offer made by the employer or an associated employer.
- (2) For the purposes of the application of section 138(1) or 141(1) to a contract under which the employment ends on a Friday, Saturday or Sunday—
 - (a) the renewal or re-engagement shall be treated as taking effect immediately on the ending of the employment under the previous contract if it takes effect on or before the next Monday after that Friday, Saturday or Sunday, and
 - (b) the interval of four weeks to which those provisions refer shall be calculated as if the employment had ended on that next Monday.
- (3) Where section 138 or 141 applies in a case within section 137(1)—
 - (a) references to a renewal or re-engagement taking effect immediately on, or after an interval of not more than four weeks after, the end of the employment

CHAPTER III

RIGHT BY REASON OF LAY-OFF OR SHORT-TIME

Lay-off and short-time

147 Meaning of “lay-off” and “short-time”.

- (1) For the purposes of this Part an employee shall be taken to be laid off for a week if—
- (a) he is employed under a contract on terms and conditions such that his remuneration under the contract depends on his being provided by the employer with work of the kind which he is employed to do, but
 - (b) he is not entitled to any remuneration under the contract in respect of the week because the employer does not provide such work for him.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part an employee shall be taken to be kept on short-time for a week if by reason of a diminution in the work provided for the employee by his employer (being work of a kind which under his contract the employee is employed to do) the employee’s remuneration for the week is less than half a week’s pay.

148 Eligibility by reason of lay-off or short-time.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this Part, for the purposes of this Part an employee is eligible for a redundancy payment by reason of being laid off or kept on short-time if—
- (a) he gives notice in writing to his employer indicating (in whatever terms) his intention to claim a redundancy payment in respect of lay-off or short-time (referred to in this Part as “notice of intention to claim”), and
 - (b) before the service of the notice he has been laid off or kept on short-time in circumstances in which subsection (2) applies.
- (2) This subsection applies if the employee has been laid off or kept on short-time—
- (a) for four or more consecutive weeks of which the last before the service of the notice ended on, or not more than four weeks before, the date of service of the notice, or
 - (b) for a series of six or more weeks (of which not more than three were consecutive) within a period of thirteen weeks, where the last week of the series before the service of the notice ended on, or not more than four weeks before, the date of service of the notice.

Status: Point in time view as at 28/07/1999.

Changes to legislation: Employment Rights Act 1996, Part XI is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 June 2024. Exclusions

149 Counter-notices.

Where an employee gives to his employer notice of intention to claim but—

- (a) the employer gives to the employee, within seven days after the service of that notice, notice in writing (referred to in this Part as a “counter-notice”) that he will contest any liability to pay to the employee a redundancy payment in pursuance of the employee’s notice, and
- (b) the employer does not withdraw the counter-notice by a subsequent notice in writing, the employee is not entitled to a redundancy payment in pursuance of his notice of intention to claim except in accordance with a decision of an [^{F4}employment tribunal].

150 Resignation.

- (1) An employee is not entitled to a redundancy payment by reason of being laid off or kept on short-time unless he terminates his contract of employment by giving such period of notice as is required for the purposes of this section before the end of the relevant period.
- (2) The period of notice required for the purposes of this section—
 - (a) where the employee is required by his contract of employment to give more than one week’s notice to terminate the contract, is the minimum period which he is required to give, and
 - (b) otherwise, is one week.
- (3) In subsection (1) “the relevant period”—
 - (a) if the employer does not give a counter-notice within seven days after the service of the notice of intention to claim, is three weeks after the end of those seven days,
 - (b) if the employer gives a counter-notice within that period of seven days but withdraws it by a subsequent notice in writing, is three weeks after the service of the notice of withdrawal, and
 - (c) if—
 - (i) the employer gives a counter-notice within that period of seven days, and does not so withdraw it, and
 - (ii) a question as to the right of the employee to a redundancy payment in pursuance of the notice of intention to claim is referred to an [^{F5}employment tribunal],is three weeks after the tribunal has notified to the employee its decision on that reference.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(c) no account shall be taken of—
 - (a) any appeal against the decision of the tribunal, or

Status: Point in time view as at 28/07/1999.

Changes to legislation: Employment Rights Act 1996, Part XI is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 June 2024. - (b) any proceedings or decision in consequence of any such appeal.

Textual Amendments

- F5 Words in s. 150(c)(ii) substituted (1.8.1998) by 1998 c. 8, s. 1(2)(a) (with s. 16(2)); S.I. 1998/1658, art. 2(1), Sch. 1

151 Dismissal.

- (1) An employee is not entitled to a redundancy payment by reason of being laid off or kept on short-time if he is dismissed by his employer.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prejudice any right of the employee to a redundancy payment in respect of the dismissal.

152 Likelihood of full employment.

- (1) An employee is not entitled to a redundancy payment in pursuance of a notice of intention to claim if—
 - (a) on the date of service of the notice it was reasonably to be expected that the employee (if he continued to be employed by the same employer) would, not later than four weeks after that date, enter on a period of employment of not less than thirteen weeks during which he would not be laid off or kept on short-time for any week, and
 - (b) the employer gives a counter-notice to the employee within seven days after the service of the notice of intention to claim.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the employee—
 - (a) continues or has continued, during the next four weeks after the date of service of the notice of intention to claim, to be employed by the same employer, and
 - (b) is or has been laid off or kept on short-time for each of those weeks.

Supplementary

153 The relevant date.

For the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to redundancy payments “the relevant date” in relation to a notice of intention to claim or a right to a redundancy payment in pursuance of such a notice—

- (a) in a case falling within paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 148, means the date on which the last of the four or more consecutive weeks before the service of the notice came to an end, and
- (b) in a case falling within paragraph (b) of that subsection, means the date on which the last of the series of six or more weeks before the service of the notice came to an end.

154 Provisions supplementing sections 148 and 152.

For the purposes of sections 148(2) and 152(2)—

Status: Point in time view as at 28/07/1999.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) it is immaterial whether a series of weeks consists wholly of weeks for which the employee is laid off or wholly of weeks for which he is kept on short-time or partly of the one and partly of the other, and
- (b) no account shall be taken of any week for which an employee is laid off or kept on short-time where the lay-off or short-time is wholly or mainly attributable to a strike or a lock-out (whether or not in the trade or industry in which the employee is employed and whether in Great Britain or elsewhere).

CHAPTER IV

155 Qualifying period of employment.

An employee does not have any right to a redundancy payment unless he has been continuously employed for a period of not less than two years ending with the relevant date.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C11 S. 155 modified (1.9.1999) by S.I. 1999/2277, art. 3, Sch. 2 Pt. 1 para. 2

156 Upper age limit.

- (1) An employee does not have any right to a redundancy payment if before the relevant date he has attained—
 - (a) in a case where—
 - (i) in the business for the purposes of which the employee was employed there was a normal retiring age of less than sixty-five for an employee holding the position held by the employee, and
 - (ii) the age was the same whether the employee holding that position was a man or woman, that normal retiring age, and
 - (b) in any other case, the age of sixty-five.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a case within section 137(1).

157 Exemption orders.

- (1) Where an order under this section is in force in respect of an agreement covered by this section, an employee who, immediately before the relevant date, is an employee to whom the agreement applies does not have any right to a redundancy payment.
- (2) An agreement is covered by this section if it is an agreement between—
 - (a) one or more employers or organisations of employers, and
 - (b) one or more trade unions representing employees,under which employees to whom the agreement applies have a right in certain circumstances to payments on the termination of their contracts of employment.

Status: Point in time view as at 28/07/1999.

Changes to legislation: Employment Rights Act 1996, Part XI is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Where, on the application of all the parties to an agreement covered by this section, the Secretary of State is satisfied, having regard to the provisions of the agreement, that the employees to whom the agreement applies should not have any right to a redundancy payment, he may make an order under this section in respect of the agreement.
- (4) The Secretary of State shall not make an order under this section in respect of an agreement unless the agreement indicates (in whatever terms) the willingness of the parties to it to submit to an [^{F6}employment tribunal] any question arising under the agreement as to—
 - (a) the right of an employee to a payment on the termination of his employment, or
 - (b) the amount of such a payment.
- (5) An order revoking an earlier order under this section may be made in pursuance of an application by all or any of the parties to the agreement in question or in the absence of such an application.
- (6) Subsection (1) does not apply to a case within section 137(1).

158 Pension rights.

- (1) The Secretary of State shall by regulations make provision for excluding the right to a redundancy payment, or reducing the amount of any redundancy payment, in such cases to which subsection (2) applies as are prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) This subsection applies to cases in which an employee has (whether by virtue of any statutory provision or otherwise) a right or claim (whether or not legally enforceable) to a periodical payment or lump sum by way of pension, gratuity or superannuation allowance which—
 - (a) is to be paid by reference to his employment by a particular employer, and
 - (b) is to be paid, or to begin to be paid, at the time when he leaves the employment or within such period after he leaves the employment as may be prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) The regulations shall secure that the right to a redundancy payment shall not be excluded, and that the amount of a redundancy payment shall not be reduced, by reason of any right or claim to a periodical payment or lump sum, in so far as the payment or lump sum—
 - (a) represents compensation for loss of employment or for loss or diminution of emoluments or of pension rights, and
 - (b) is payable under a statutory provision (whether passed or made before or after the passing of this Act).
- (4) In relation to any case where (in accordance with any provision of this Part) an [^{F7}employment tribunal] determines that an employer is liable to pay part (but not the whole) of a redundancy payment the references in this section to a redundancy

160 Overseas government employment.

- (1) A person does not have any right to a redundancy payment in respect of employment in any capacity under the Government of an overseas territory.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to the Government of an overseas territory includes a reference to—
 - (a) a Government constituted for two or more overseas territories, and
 - (b) any authority established for the purpose of providing or administering services which are common to, or relate to matters of common interest to, two or more overseas territories.
- (3) In this section references to an overseas territory are to any territory or country outside the United Kingdom.

161 Domestic servants.

- (1) A person does not have any right to a redundancy payment in respect of employment as a domestic servant in a private household where the employer is the parent (or step-parent), grandparent, child (or step-child), grandchild or brother or sister (or half-brother or half-sister) of the employee.
- (2) Subject to that, the provisions of this Part apply to an employee who is employed as a domestic servant in a private household as if—
 - (a) the household were a business, and
 - (b) the maintenance of the household were the carrying on of that business by the employer.

CHAPTER V

OTHER PROVISIONS ABOUT REDUNDANCY PAYMENTS

162 Amount of a redundancy payment.

- (1) The amount of a redundancy payment shall be calculated by—
 - (a) determining the period, ending with the relevant date, during which the employee has been continuously employed,
 - (b) reckoning backwards from the end of that period the number of years of employment falling within that period, and
 - (c) allowing the appropriate amount for each of those years of employment.
- (2) In subsection (1)(c) “the appropriate amount” means—
 - (a) one and a half weeks’ pay for a year of employment in which the employee was not below the age of forty-one,
 - (b) one week’s pay for a year of employment (not within paragraph (a)) in which he was not below the age of twenty-two, and
 - (c) half a week’s pay for each year of employment not within paragraph (a) or (b).
- (3) Where twenty years of employment have been reckoned under subsection (1), no account shall be taken under that subsection of any year of employment earlier than those twenty years.
- (4) Where the relevant date is after the sixty-fourth anniversary of the day of the employee’s birth, the amount arrived at under subsections (1) to (3) shall be reduced by the appropriate fraction.
- (5) In subsection (4) “the appropriate fraction” means the fraction of which—
 - (a) the numerator is the number of whole months reckoned from the sixty-fourth anniversary of the day of the employee’s birth in the period beginning with that anniversary and ending with the relevant date, and
 - (b) the denominator is twelve.
- (6) Subsections (1) to (5) apply for the purposes of any provision of this Part by virtue of which an [F8 employment tribunal] may determine that an employer is liable to pay to an employee—
 - (a) the whole of the redundancy payment to which the employee would have had a right apart from some other provision, or
 - (b) such part of the redundancy payment to which the employee would have had a right apart from some other provision as the tribunal thinks fit, as if any reference to the amount of a redundancy payment were to the amount of the redundancy payment to which the employee would have been entitled apart from that other provision.
- (7) Subsections (4) and (5) do not apply to a case within section 137(1).
- (8) This section has effect subject to any regulations under section 158 by virtue of which the amount of a redundancy payment, or part of a redundancy payment, may be reduced.

166 Applications for payments.

- (1) Where an employee claims that his employer is liable to pay to him an employer's payment and either—
 - (a) that the employee has taken all reasonable steps, other than legal proceedings, to recover the payment from the employer and the employer has refused or failed to pay it, or has paid part of it and has refused or failed to pay the balance, or
 - (b) that the employer is insolvent and the whole or part of the payment remains unpaid,the employee may apply to the Secretary of State for a payment under this section.
- (2) In this Part “employer's payment”, in relation to an employee, means—
 - (a) a redundancy payment which his employer is liable to pay to him under this Part,^{F11} . . .
 - ^{F12}(aa) a payment which his employer is liable to make to him under an agreement to refrain from instituting or continuing proceedings for a contravention or alleged contravention of section 135 which has effect by virtue of section 203(2)(e) or (f), or]
 - (b) a payment which his employer is, under an agreement in respect of which an order is in force under section 157, liable to make to him on the termination of his contract of employment.
- (3) In relation to any case where (in accordance with any provision of this Part) an [^{F13}employment tribunal] determines that an employer is liable to pay part (but not the whole) of a redundancy payment the reference in subsection (2)(a) to a redundancy payment is to the part of the redundancy payment.
- (4) In subsection (1)(a) “legal proceedings”—
 - (a) does not include any proceedings before an [^{F13}employment tribunal], but
 - (b) includes any proceedings to enforce a decision or award of an [^{F13}employment tribunal].
- (5) An employer is insolvent for the purposes of subsection (1)(b)—
 - (a) where the employer is an individual, if (but only if) subsection (6) is satisfied, and
 - (b) where the employer is a company, if (but only if) subsection (7) is satisfied.
- (6) This subsection is satisfied in the case of an employer who is an individual—
 - (a) in England and Wales if—
 - (i) he has been adjudged bankrupt or has made a composition or arrangement with his creditors, or
 - (ii) he has died and his estate falls to be administered in accordance with an order under section 421 of the ^{M2}Insolvency Act 1986, and
 - (b) in Scotland if—
 - (i) sequestration of his estate has been awarded or he has executed a trust deed for his creditors or has entered into a composition contract, or
 - (ii) he has died and a judicial factor appointed under section 11A of the ^{M3}Judicial Factors (Scotland) Act 1889 is required by that section to divide his insolvent estate among his creditors.
- (7) This subsection is satisfied in the case of an employer which is a company—

167 Making of payments.

- (1) Where, on an application under section 166 by an employee in relation to an employer's payment, the Secretary of State is satisfied that the requirements specified in subsection (2) are met, he shall pay to the employee out of the National Insurance Fund a sum calculated in accordance with section 168 but reduced by so much (if any) of the employer's payment as has already been paid.
- (2) The requirements referred to in subsection (1) are—
 - (a) that the employee is entitled to the employer's payment, and
 - (b) that one of the conditions specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of section 166 is fulfilled, and, in a case where the employer's payment is a payment such as is mentioned in subsection (2)(b) of that section, that the employee's right to the payment arises by virtue of a period of continuous employment (computed in accordance with the provisions of the agreement in question) which is not less than two years.
- (3) Where under this section the Secretary of State pays a sum to an employee in respect of an employer's payment—
 - (a) all rights and remedies of the employee with respect to the employer's payment, or (if the Secretary of State has paid only part of it) all the rights and remedies of the employee with respect to that part of the employer's payment, are transferred to and vest in the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) any decision of an [^{F14}employment tribunal] requiring the employer's payment to be paid to the employee has effect as if it required that payment, or that part of it which the Secretary of State has paid, to be paid to the Secretary of State.

168 Amount of payments.

- (1) The sum payable to an employee by the Secretary of State under section 167—
- (a) where the employer's payment to which the employee's application under section 166 relates is a redundancy payment or a part of a redundancy payment, is a sum equal to the amount of the redundancy payment or part,^{F15}
 - [^{F16}(aa) where the employer's payment to which the employee's application under section 166 relates is a payment which his employer is liable to make to him under an agreement having effect by virtue of section 203(2)(e) or (f), is a sum equal to the amount of the employer's payment or of any redundancy payment which the employer would have been liable to pay to the employee but for the agreement, whichever is less, and]
 - (b) where the employer's payment to which the employee's application under section 166 relates is a payment which the employer is liable to make under an agreement in respect of which an order is in force under section 157, is a sum equal to the amount of the employer's payment or of the relevant redundancy payment, whichever is less [^{F17}, or
 - (c) receipt of information from the employer and consultation by the employer under section 188 (redundancies) or under the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 1981.]
- (2) The reference in subsection (1)(b) to the amount of the relevant redundancy payment is to the amount of the redundancy payment which the employer would have been liable to pay to the employee on the assumptions specified in subsection (3).
- (3) The assumptions referred to in subsection (2) are that—
- (a) the order in force in respect of the agreement had not been made,
 - (b) the circumstances in which the employer's payment is payable had been such that the employer was liable to pay a redundancy payment to the employee in those circumstances,
 - (c) the relevant date, in relation to any such redundancy payment, had been the date on which the termination of the employee's contract of employment is treated as having taken effect for the purposes of the agreement, and
 - (d) in so far as the provisions of the agreement relating to the circumstances in which the continuity of an employee's period of employment is to be treated as broken, and the weeks which are to count in computing a period of employment, are inconsistent with the provisions of Chapter I of Part XIV, the provisions of the agreement were substituted for those provisions.

CHAPTER VII

SUPPLEMENTARY

Application of Part to particular cases

171 Employment not under contract of employment.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that, subject to such exceptions and modifications as may be prescribed by the regulations, this Part and the provisions of this Act supplementary to this Part have effect in relation to any employment of a description to which this section applies as may be so prescribed as if—
- (a) it were employment under a contract of employment,
 - (b) any person engaged in employment of that description were an employee, and
 - (c) such person as may be determined by or under the regulations were his employer.
- (2) This section applies to employment of any description which—
- (a) is employment in the case of which secondary Class 1 contributions are payable under Part I of the ^{M4}Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 in respect of persons engaged in it, but
 - (b) is not employment under a contract of service or of apprenticeship or employment of any description falling within subsection (3).
- (3) The following descriptions of employment fall within this subsection—
- (a) any employment such as is mentioned in section 159 (whether as originally enacted or as modified by an order under section 209(1)),
 - (b) any employment remunerated out of the revenue of the Duchy of Lancaster or the Duchy of Cornwall,
 - (c) any employment remunerated out of the Queen’s Civil List, and
 - (d) any employment remunerated out of Her Majesty’s Privy Purse.

172 Termination of employment by statute.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that, subject to such exceptions and modifications as may be prescribed by the regulations, this Part has effect in relation to any person who by virtue of any statutory provisions—
- (a) is transferred to, and becomes a member of, a body specified in those provisions, but

- (b) at a time so specified ceases to be a member of that body unless before that time certain conditions so specified have been fulfilled, as if the cessation of his membership of that body by virtue of those provisions were dismissal by his employer by reason of redundancy.
- (2) The power conferred by subsection (1) is exercisable whether or not membership of the body in question constitutes employment within the meaning of section 230(5); and, where that membership does not constitute such employment, that power may be exercised in addition to any power exercisable under section 171.

173 Employees paid by person other than employer.

- (1) For the purposes of the operation of the provisions of this Part (and Chapter I of Part XIV) in relation to any employee whose remuneration is, by virtue of any statutory provision, payable to him by a person other than his employer, each of the references to the employer specified in subsection (2) shall be construed as a reference to the person by whom the remuneration is payable.
- (2) The references referred to in subsection (1) are the first reference in section 135(1), the third reference in section 140(3), the first reference in section 142(3) and the first reference in section 143(2)(c) and the references in sections 142(2)(b), 143(4) and (5), 149(a) and (b), 150(3), 152(1)(b), 158(4), 162(6), 164 to 169, 170(1) and 214(5).

Death of employer or employee

174 Death of employer: dismissal.

- (1) Where the contract of employment of an employee is taken for the purposes of this Part to be terminated by his employer by reason of the employer's death, this Part has effect in accordance with the following provisions of this section.
- (2) Section 138 applies as if—
- in subsection (1)(a), for the words “in pursuance” onwards there were substituted “by a personal representative of the deceased employer”,
 - in subsection (1)(b), for the words “either immediately” onwards there were substituted “not later than eight weeks after the death of the deceased employer”, and
 - in subsections (2)(b) and (6)(a), for the word “employer” there were substituted “personal representative of the deceased employer”.
- (3) Section 141(1) applies as if—
- for the words “before the end of his employment” there were substituted “by a personal representative of the deceased employer”, and
 - for the words “either immediately” onwards there were substituted “not later than eight weeks after the death of the deceased employer.”
- (4) For the purposes of section 141—
- provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, do not differ from the corresponding provisions of the contract in force immediately before the death of the deceased employer by reason only that the personal representative would be substituted for the deceased employer as the employer, and

- (b) no account shall be taken of that substitution in determining whether refusal of the offer was unreasonable or whether the employee acted reasonably in terminating or giving notice to terminate the new or renewed employment.
- (5) Section 146 has effect as if—
- (a) subsection (1) were omitted, and
 - (b) in subsection (2), paragraph (a) were omitted and, in paragraph (b), for the word “four” there were substituted “eight”.
- (6) For the purposes of the application of this Part (in accordance with section 161(2)) in relation to an employee who was employed as a domestic servant in a private household, references in this section and sections 175 and 218(4) and (5) to a personal representative include a person to whom the management of the household has passed, otherwise than in pursuance of a sale or other disposition for valuable consideration, in consequence of the death of the employer.

175 Death of employer: lay-off and short-time.

- (1) Where an employee is laid off or kept on short-time and his employer dies, this Part has effect in accordance with the following provisions of this section.
- (2) Where the employee—
- (a) has been laid off or kept on short-time for one or more weeks before the death of the employer,
 - (b) has not given the deceased employer notice of intention to claim before the employer’s death,
 - (c) after the employer’s death has his contract of employment renewed, or is re-engaged under a new contract, by a personal representative of the deceased employer, and
 - (d) after renewal or re-engagement is laid off or kept on short-time for one or more weeks by the personal representative,
- the week in which the employer died and the first week of the employee’s employment by the personal representative shall be treated for the purposes of Chapter III as consecutive weeks (and references to four weeks or thirteen weeks shall be construed accordingly).
- (3) The following provisions of this section apply where—
- (a) the employee has given the deceased employer notice of intention to claim before the employer’s death,
 - (b) the employer’s death occurred before the end of the period of four weeks after the service of the notice, and
 - (c) the employee has not terminated his contract of employment by notice expiring before the employer’s death.
- (4) If the contract of employment is not renewed, and the employee is not re-engaged under a new contract, by a personal representative of the deceased employer before the end of the period of four weeks after the service of the notice of intention to claim—
- (a) sections 149 and 152 do not apply, but
 - (b) (subject to that) Chapter III applies as if the employer had not died and the employee had terminated the contract of employment by a week’s notice, or by the minimum notice which he is required to give to terminate the contract (if longer than a week), expiring at the end of that period.

- (5) If—
- (a) the contract of employment is renewed, or the employee is re-engaged under a new contract, by a personal representative of the deceased employer before the end of the period of four weeks after the service of the notice of intention to claim, and
 - (b) the employee was laid off or kept on short-time by the deceased employer for one or more of those weeks and is laid off or kept on short-time by the personal representative for the week, or for the next two or more weeks, following the renewal or re-engagement,
- subsection (6) has effect.
- (6) Where this subsection has effect Chapter III applies as if—
- (a) all the weeks mentioned in subsection (5) were consecutive weeks during which the employee was employed (but laid off or kept on short-time) by the same employer, and
 - (b) the periods specified by section 150(3)(a) and (b) as the relevant period were extended by any week or weeks any part of which was after the death of the employer and before the date on which the renewal or re-engagement took effect.

176 Death of employee.

- (1) Where an employee whose employer has given him notice to terminate his contract of employment dies before the notice expires, this Part applies as if the contract had been duly terminated by the employer by notice expiring on the date of the employee's death.
- (2) Where—
- (a) an employee's contract of employment has been terminated by the employer,
 - (b) (by virtue of subsection (5) of section 145) a date later than the relevant date as defined by the previous provisions of that section is the relevant date for the purposes of certain provisions of this Act, and
 - (c) the employee dies before that date,
- that subsection applies as if the notice to which it refers would have expired on the employee's death.
- (3) Where—
- (a) an employer has given notice to an employee to terminate his contract of employment and has offered to renew his contract of employment or to re-engage him under a new contract, and
 - (b) the employee dies without having accepted or refused the offer and without the offer having been withdrawn,
- section 141(2) applies as if for the words "he unreasonably refuses" there were substituted "it would have been unreasonable on his part to refuse".
- (4) Where an employee's contract of employment has been renewed or he has been re-engaged under a new contract—
- (a) if he dies during the trial period without having terminated, or given notice to terminate, the contract, section 141(4) applies as if for paragraph (d) there were substituted—

- “(d) it would have been unreasonable for the employee during the trial period to terminate or give notice to terminate the contract.”, and
- (b) if during that trial period he gives notice to terminate the contract but dies before the notice expires, sections 138(2) and 141(4) apply as if the notice had expired (and the contract had been terminated by its expiry) on the date of the employee’s death.
- (5) Where in the circumstances specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (3) of section 136 the employee dies before the notice given by him under paragraph (b) of that subsection expires—
- (a) if he dies before his employer has given him a notice such as is specified in subsection (2) of section 142, subsections (3) and (4) of that section apply as if the employer had given him such a notice and he had not complied with it, and
- (b) if he dies after his employer has given him such a notice, that section applies as if the employee had not died but did not comply with the notice.
- (6) Where an employee has given notice of intention to claim—
- (a) if he dies before he has given notice to terminate his contract of employment and before the relevant period (as defined in subsection (3) of section 150) has expired, that section does not apply, and
- (b) if he dies within the period of seven days after the service of the notice of intention to claim, and before the employer has given a counter-notice, Chapter III applies as if the employer had given a counter-notice within that period of seven days.
- (7) Where a claim for a redundancy payment is made by a personal representative of a deceased employee—
- (a) if the employee died before the end of the period of six months beginning with the relevant date, subsection (1) of section 164, and
- (b) if the employee died after the end of the period of six months beginning with the relevant date but before the end of the following period of six months, subsection (2) of that section,
- applies as if for the words “six months” there were substituted “one year”.

Equivalent payments

177 References to [F19 employment tribunals].

- (1) Where the terms and conditions (whether or not they constitute a contract of employment) on which a person is employed in employment of any description mentioned in section 171(3) include provision—
- (a) for the making of a payment to which this section applies, and
- (b) for referring to an [F19 employment tribunal] any question as to the right of any person to such a payment in respect of that employment or as to the amount of such a payment,
- the question shall be referred to and determined by an [F19 employment tribunal].
- (2) This section applies to any payment by way of compensation for loss of employment of any description mentioned in section 171(3) which is payable in accordance with arrangements falling within subsection (3).

- (3) The arrangements which fall within this subsection are arrangements made with the approval of the Treasury (or, in the case of persons whose service is for the purposes of pensions and other superannuation benefits treated as service in the civil service of the State, of the Minister for the Civil Service) for securing that a payment will be made—
- (a) in circumstances which in the opinion of the Treasury (or Minister) correspond (subject to the appropriate modifications) to those in which a right to a redundancy payment would have accrued if the provisions of this Part (apart from section 159 and this section) applied, and
 - (b) on a scale which in the opinion of the Treasury (or Minister), taking into account any sums payable in accordance with—
 - (i) a scheme made under section 1 of the ^{M5}Superannuation Act 1972, or
 - (ii) the ^{M6}Superannuation Act 1965 as it continues to have effect by virtue of section 23(1) of the ^{M7}Superannuation Act 1972, to or in respect of the person losing the employment in question, corresponds (subject to the appropriate modifications) to that on which a redundancy payment would have been payable if those provisions applied.

Other supplementary provisions

178 Old statutory compensation schemes.

- (1) The Secretary of State may make provision by regulations for securing that where—
- (a) (apart from this section) a person is entitled to compensation under a statutory provision to which this section applies, and
 - (b) the circumstances are such that he is also entitled to a redundancy payment, the amount of the redundancy payment shall be set off against the compensation to which he would be entitled apart from this section; and any statutory provision to which any such regulations apply shall have effect subject to the regulations.
- (2) This section applies to any statutory provision—
- (a) which was in force immediately before 6th December 1965, and
 - (b) under which the holders of such situations, places or employments as are specified in that provision are, or may become, entitled to compensation for loss of employment, or for loss or diminution of emoluments or of pension rights, in consequence of the operation of any other statutory provision referred to in that provision.
