SCHEDULES

^{F1}SCHEDULE 1

Section 1(9).

GENERAL TEACHING COUNCIL FOR ENGLAND

Textual Amendments

- F1 Sch. 1 applied (with modifications) (30.12.1998) by S.I. 1998/2911, art.3 (as amended (31.3.2003) by 2002/2940, art. 2)

Status of Council

- 1 The Council shall not be regarded as the servant or agent of the Crown or as enjoying any status, immunity or privilege of the Crown; and the property of the Council shall not be regarded as property of, or property held on behalf of, the Crown.

Powers

- 2 (1) The Council may, subject to sub-paragraph (3), do anything which is calculated to facilitate, or is incidental or conducive to, the carrying out of any of their functions.
- (2) In particular, the Council may—
- (a) acquire and dispose of land or other property;
 - (b) enter into contracts;
 - (c) invest sums not immediately required for the purpose of carrying out their functions;
 - (d) accept gifts of money, land or other property;
 - (e) form bodies corporate or associated or other bodies which are not bodies corporate;
 - (f) enter into joint ventures with other persons;
 - (g) subscribe for shares and stock; and
 - (h) borrow money.
- (3) The consent of the Secretary of State is required for the exercise of any power conferred by sub-paragraph (2)(e), (f), (g) or (h).

Chairman and members of Council

- 3 (1) Regulations may make provision with respect to—
- (a) the appointment or election of one of the members of the Council to be chairman of the Council,
 - (b) the period for which the chairman is to hold office, and
 - (c) the appointment or election and tenure of office of, and the vacation of office by, members of the Council.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/11/2006.

Changes to legislation: Teaching and Higher Education Act 1998 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Regulations made under this paragraph before the establishment of the Council may enable the Secretary of State to make provision with respect to any of the matters referred to in sub-paragraph (1); but regulations made under this paragraph after the Council have been established may authorise the Council to make rules with respect to any such matters.

Salaries, allowances, pensions and other payments

- 4 (1) The Council—
- (a) shall pay to their members such salaries or fees, and such travelling, subsistence or other allowances, as the Secretary of State may determine, and
 - (b) shall, as regards any member in whose case the Secretary of State may so determine, pay or make provision for the payment of such sums by way of pension, allowances and gratuities to or in respect of him as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (2) If a person ceases to be a member of the Council and it appears to the Secretary of State that there are special circumstances which make it right that he should receive compensation, the Secretary of State may direct the Council to make to that person a payment of such amount as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (3) The Council shall pay to the members of any of their committees who are not members of the Council such travelling, subsistence and other allowances as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (4) The Council may pay to the employer of a person who is a member of the Council (or a member of any of their committees but not a member of the Council) such compensation in respect of the loss of that person's services as the Secretary of State may determine.

Staff

- 5 (1) The Council may (subject to sub-paragraph (5)) appoint a chief officer and such other employees as they think fit.
- (2) The Council shall pay to their employees such remuneration and allowances as the Council may determine.
- (3) The employees shall be appointed on such other terms and conditions as the Council may determine.
- (4) A determination under sub-paragraph (2) or (3) requires the approval of the Secretary of State.
- (5) The Secretary of State shall appoint the first chief officer who shall be employed on such terms and conditions as the Secretary of State may determine.
- 6 (1) The Council, with the consent of the Secretary of State, may—
- (a) pay, or make payments in respect of, pensions or gratuities to or in respect of employees or former employees;
 - (b) provide and maintain such schemes (whether contributory or not) for the payment of pensions and gratuities to or in respect of employees or former employees.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/11/2006.

Changes to legislation: Teaching and Higher Education Act 1998 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) References in this paragraph to pensions and gratuities include references to pensions or gratuities by way of compensation to or in respect of employees who suffer loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments.
- (3) If any person—
- (a) on ceasing to be employed by the Council, becomes or continues to be one of their members, and
 - (b) was, by reference to his employment, a participant in a pension scheme maintained by the Council,
- the Council may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, make provision for that person to continue to participate in that scheme, on such terms and conditions as they may with the consent of the Secretary of State determine, as if his service as a member were service as an employee; and any such provision shall be without prejudice to paragraph 4.
- 7 (1) Employment with the Council shall be included among the kinds of employment to which a scheme under section 1 of the ^{M1}Superannuation Act 1972 can apply.
- (2) The Council shall pay to the Minister for the Civil Service, at such times as he may direct, such sums as he may determine in respect of the increase attributable to sub-paragraph (1) in the sums payable out of money provided by Parliament under that Act.
- (3) Where an employee of the Council is, by reference to that employment, a participant in a scheme under section 1 of that Act and is also a member of the Council, the Secretary of State may determine that his service as a member shall be treated for the purposes of the scheme as service as an employee (whether or not any benefits are payable to or in respect of him by virtue of paragraph 4).

(b) the terms on which such a committee's members are to hold and vacate office; and

(c) the procedure of any such committee;

and such regulations may authorise the Council to make provision with respect to any matter as to which provision may be made by those regulations.

(4) Subject to such conditions as may be imposed by such regulations, the Council may include on a committee persons who are not members of the Council.

Delegation of functions

10 (1) The Council may authorise the chairman, the chief officer or any committee established under paragraph 9 to exercise such of their functions as they may determine.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) has effect without prejudice to any power to authorise an employee of the Council to carry out any of the Council's activities on behalf of the Council.

Proceedings

11 (1) The following persons, namely—

(a) two representatives of the Secretary of State, and

(b) one representative of such body as the Secretary of State may designate, shall be entitled to attend and take part in deliberations (but not in decisions) at meetings of the Council or of any committee of the Council.

(2) The Council shall provide the Secretary of State with such copies of any documents distributed to members of the Council or of any such committee as he may require.

12 The validity of the Council's proceedings shall not be affected by a vacancy among the members or any defect in the appointment of a member.

13 Subject to the preceding provisions of this Schedule, the Council may regulate their own procedure and that of any of their committees.

Accounts

14 (1) It shall be the duty of the Council—

(a) to keep proper accounts and proper records in relation to the accounts,

(b) to prepare in respect of each financial year of the Council a statement of accounts, and

(c) to send copies of the statement to the Secretary of State and to the Comptroller and Auditor General before the end of the month of August next following the financial year to which the statement relates.

(2) The statement of accounts shall comply with any directions given by the Secretary of State as to—

(a) the information to be contained in it,

(b) the manner in which the information contained in it is to be presented, or

(c) the methods and principles according to which the statement is to be prepared, and shall contain such additional information as the Secretary of State may require to be provided for the information of Parliament.

SCHEDULE 2

Section 6.

DISCIPLINARY POWERS OF COUNCIL

Investigation, hearing and determination of disciplinary cases

- 1 (1) Regulations may make provision for and in connection with the investigation by the Council of cases where—
- (a) it is alleged that a registered teacher—
 - (i) is guilty of unacceptable professional conduct or serious professional incompetence, or
 - (ii) has been convicted (at any time) of a relevant offence, or
 - (b) it appears to the Council that a registered teacher may be so guilty or have been so convicted,
- and the hearing and determination by the Council of such cases where it is found on investigation that a registered teacher has a case to answer.
- (2) The regulations may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) requiring the Council, where any proceedings are being taken against any person under this Schedule—
 - (i) to serve a notice on him outlining the case against him, and
 - (ii) to give him the opportunity of appearing and making oral representations;
 - (b) entitling such a person to be represented, by any person whom he desires to represent him, at any hearing of the Council at which his case is considered;
 - (c) requiring the Council, where they do not find the case against such a person proved, to publish at his request a statement to that effect;
 - (d) empowering the Council to require persons to attend and give evidence or to produce documents or other material evidence;
 - (e) about the admissibility of evidence;
 - (f) enabling the Council to administer oaths;
 - (g) for the procedure to be followed by the Council in connection with proceedings under this Schedule to be such as may be specified in or determined under the regulations.
- (3) No person shall be required by virtue of the regulations to give any evidence or produce any document or other material evidence which he could not be compelled to give or produce in civil proceedings in any court in England and Wales.
- (4) The regulations may make provision for any functions conferred on the Council by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) to be excluded or restricted in such manner as may be specified in or determined under the regulations, including such provision for excluding or restricting any such functions as the Secretary of State considers

Disciplinary orders: general

- 2 (1) Regulations may make provision for and in connection with authorising the Council to make disciplinary orders in relation to persons who in proceedings under this Schedule are found by the Council—
 - (a) to have been guilty of unacceptable professional conduct or serious professional incompetence; or
 - (b) to have been convicted (at any time) of a relevant offence.
- (2) The regulations may, in particular, make provision—
 - (a) for the Council to serve on any such person notice of the disciplinary order which has been made in relation to him, and of his right to appeal against the order under paragraph 6;
 - (b) as to the time when any such order takes effect, whether in a case where any such person exercises that right of appeal or otherwise;
 - (c) for the Council to publish, in such manner as may be prescribed, such information relating to the case of any such person and any disciplinary order made by the Council as may be prescribed.
- (3) In this Schedule a “disciplinary order” means—
 - (a) a reprimand,
 - (b) a conditional registration order,
 - (c) a suspension order, or
 - (d) a prohibition order.

Conditional registration orders

- 3 (1) Where a conditional registration order is made in relation to a person, he shall continue to be eligible for registration under section 3, but he shall comply with such conditions relevant to his employment as a teacher as may be specified in the order.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-paragraph (1)—
 - (a) the conditions which may be specified in a conditional registration order include conditions for requiring the person in question to take any specified

- steps that will, in the opinion of the Council, be conducive to his becoming a competent teacher; and
- (b) conditions may be so specified (whether for the purpose mentioned in paragraph (a) or otherwise) that will involve expenditure on the part of that person.
- (3) Subject to sub-paragraph (4), any condition specified in a conditional registration order shall have effect either—
- (a) for such period as may be so specified, or
- (b) without limit of time.
- (4) A person in relation to whom a conditional registration order has been made may, in accordance with regulations, apply to the Council for them to vary or revoke any condition specified in the order.
- (5) Regulations may make provision authorising the Council, if satisfied that such a person has failed to comply with any such condition, to make a suspension or prohibition order in relation to him.

Commencement Information

Suspension orders

- [^{F54} (1) Where a suspension order is made in relation to a person—
- (a) he shall cease to be eligible for registration under section 3, and
- (b) if he is a registered person at the time when the order is made, his name shall be removed from the register accordingly,
- but, subject to sub-paragraph (2), he shall become so eligible again at the end of such period not exceeding two years as may be specified in the order.
- (2) A suspension order may specify conditions to be complied with by the person to whom the order relates and where it does so—
- (a) that person shall become eligible again for registration under section 3 at the end of the period specified under sub-paragraph (1) only if he has then complied with the conditions; and
- (b) if he has not then complied with the conditions, he shall not become so eligible again until he has complied with the conditions.
- (3) Sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph 3(2) apply in relation to a suspension order as they apply in relation to a conditional registration order.
- (4) A person in relation to whom conditions have been specified in a suspension order may, in accordance with regulations, apply to the Council for them to vary or revoke any of the conditions.]

- (b) requiring the employer of any such person to take in relation to that person such steps in consequence of the order (which may include his dismissal) as may be prescribed;
 - (c) authorising the delegation of functions conferred by virtue of this Schedule and the determination of matters by any person or persons specified in the regulations.
- (2) Regulations may also, in relation to any time after the date specified in an order under section 8(1), make provision for securing that any disciplinary order made under this Schedule as it applies in relation to England or (as the case may be) Wales has the corresponding effect in relation to Wales or (as the case may be) England.
- (3) Regulations under sub-paragraph (2) may modify any provision of this Act.

Interpretation

- 8 (1) In this Schedule—
- “disciplinary order” has the meaning given by paragraph 2(3);
 - “registered teacher” includes—
 - (a) a person who was a registered teacher at the time of any alleged conduct or offence on his part, and
 - (b) a person who has made an application to be registered under section 3;
 - “relevant offence”, in relation to a registered teacher, means—
 - (a) in the case of a conviction in the United Kingdom, a criminal offence other than one having no material relevance to his fitness to be a registered teacher, and
 - (b) in the case of a conviction elsewhere, an offence which, if committed in England and Wales, would constitute such an offence as is mentioned in paragraph (a);
 - “unacceptable professional conduct” means conduct which falls short of the standard expected of a registered teacher.

[^{F6}(1A) References in this Schedule to registration under section 3 are references to registration under that section with full or provisional registration.]

- (2) Where regulations under paragraph 9(1)(b) of Schedule 1 require the Council to establish a committee for the purpose of discharging any of the functions conferred on them by virtue of this Schedule, references in this Schedule to the Council shall be construed, in relation to those functions, as references to that committee.
