- (1) If the Chief Inspector [^{F15}for Wales] is satisfied that any of the conditions mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) is satisfied with respect to a nursery education inspector registered in his register, he may remove the name of that inspector from that register.
 - (2) The conditions are that—
 - (a) he is no longer a fit and proper person for discharging the functions of a registered [^{F16}Welsh] nursery education inspector under paragraph [^{F17}6][^{F17}6B],
 - (b) he is no longer capable of conducting inspections under that paragraph competently and effectively,
 - (c) there has been a significant failure on his part to comply with any condition imposed under [^{F18}paragraph 8(5B)] subject to which his registration has effect,
 - (d) he has, without reasonable explanation, produced a report of an inspection under paragraph [^{F19}6][^{F19}6B] which is, in whole or in part, seriously misleading.
 - (3) The Chief Inspector [^{F20}for Wales] may vary any condition subject to which the registration of an inspector has effect, or vary the registration of an inspector by imposing a condition subject to which it will have effect, if he is satisfied—
 - (a) that he is authorised by sub-paragraph (1) to remove the name of the inspector from his register, or
 - (b) that it would otherwise be in the public interest for him to do so.
 - (4) References in this Schedule to a condition imposed under [^{F21}paragraph 8(5B)] include a condition imposed under sub-paragraph (3).
 - (5) [^{F22}Either Chief Inspector may, in exercising his functions under this paragraph with respect to a registered nursery education inspector, have regard to any action taken by the other Chief Inspector with respect to that inspector.]
