81 Duty of Secretary of State to keep list.

- (1) The Secretary of State shall keep a list of individuals who are considered unsuitable to work with vulnerable adults.
- (2) An individual shall not be included in the list except in accordance with this Part.
- (3) The Secretary of State may at any time remove an individual from the list if he is satisfied that the individual should not have been included in it.

82 Persons who provide care for vulnerable adults: duty to refer.

- (1) A person who provides care for vulnerable adults (“the provider”) shall refer a care worker to the Secretary of State if there is fulfilled—
 - (a) any of the conditions mentioned in subsection (2); or
 - (b) the condition mentioned in subsection (3).
- (2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1)(a) are—
 - (a) that the provider has dismissed the worker on the grounds of misconduct (whether or not in the course of his employment) which harmed or placed at risk of harm a vulnerable adult;
 - (b) that the worker has resigned, retired or been made redundant in circumstances such that the provider would have dismissed him, or would have considered

- dismissing him, on such grounds if he had not resigned, retired or been made redundant;
- (c) that the provider has, on such grounds, transferred the worker to a position which is not a care position;
- (d) that the provider has, on such grounds, suspended the worker or provisionally transferred him to a position which is not a care position but has not yet decided whether to dismiss him or to confirm the transfer.
- (3) The condition referred to in subsection (1)(b) is that—
- (a) in circumstances not falling within subsection (2), the provider has dismissed the worker, he has resigned or retired or the provider has transferred him to a position which is not a care position;
- (b) information not available to the provider at the time of the dismissal, resignation, retirement or transfer has since become available; and
- (c) the provider has formed the opinion that, if that information had been available at that time and if (where applicable) the worker had not resigned or retired, the provider would have dismissed him, or would have considered dismissing him, on such grounds as are mentioned in subsection (2)(a).
- (4) If it appears from the information submitted with a reference under subsection (1) that it may be appropriate for the worker to be included in the list kept under section 81, the Secretary of State shall—
- (a) determine the reference in accordance with subsections (5) to (7); and
- (b) pending that determination, provisionally include the worker in the list.
- (5) The Secretary of State shall—
- (a) invite observations from the worker on the information submitted with the reference and, if he thinks fit, on any observations submitted under paragraph (b); and
- (b) invite observations from the provider on any observations on the information submitted with the reference and, if he thinks fit, on any other observations under paragraph (a).
- (6) Where—
- (a) the Secretary of State has considered the information submitted with the reference, any observations submitted to him and any other information which he considers relevant; and
- (b) in the case of a reference under subsection (2)(d), the provider has dismissed the worker or, as the case may be, has confirmed his transfer on such grounds as are there mentioned,
- the Secretary of State shall confirm the worker's inclusion in the list if subsection (7) applies; otherwise he shall remove him from the list.
- (7) This subsection applies if the Secretary of State is of the opinion—
- (a) that the provider reasonably considered the worker to be guilty of misconduct (whether or not in the course of his employment) which harmed or placed at risk of harm a vulnerable adult; and
- (b) that the worker is unsuitable to work with vulnerable adults.
- (8) The reference in subsection (6)(b) to the provider dismissing the worker on such grounds as are mentioned in subsection (2)(d) includes—

- (a) a reference to his resigning, retiring or being made redundant in circumstances such that the provider would have dismissed him, or would have considered dismissing him, on such grounds if he had not resigned, retired or been made redundant; and
 - (b) a reference to the provider transferring him, on such grounds, to a position which is not a care position.
- (9) This section does not apply where—
- (a) the provider carries on a domiciliary care agency, or an independent medical agency, which is or includes an employment agency or an employment business; and
 - (b) the worker in question is a supply worker in relation to him.
- (10) Nothing in this section shall require a person who provides care for vulnerable adults to refer a worker to the Secretary of State in any case where the dismissal, resignation, retirement, transfer or suspension took place or, as the case may be, the opinion was formed before the commencement of this section.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 S. 82(4)-(7) applied (with modifications) (26.7.2004) by 1999 c. 14, ss. 2C(1)(4)(5) (as inserted by 2000 c. 14, ss. 97(1), 122; S.I. 2004/1757, art. 2(b))

83 Employment agencies and businesses: duty to refer.

- (1) A person who carries on an employment agency or an employment business (“the provider”) shall refer a supply worker to the Secretary of State if there is fulfilled—
- (a) in the case of an employment agency, any of the conditions mentioned in subsection (2); or
 - (b) in the case of an employment business, any of the conditions mentioned in subsection (3).
- (2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1)(a) are—
- (a) that the provider has decided not to do any further business with the worker on grounds of misconduct (whether or not in the course of his employment) which harmed or placed at risk of harm a vulnerable adult;
 - (b) that the provider has decided on such grounds not to find the worker further employment, or supply him for further employment, in a care position.
- (3) The conditions mentioned in subsection (1)(b) are—
- (a) that the provider has dismissed the worker on the grounds of misconduct (whether or not in the course of his employment) which harmed or placed at risk of harm a vulnerable adult;
 - (b) that the worker has resigned or retired in circumstances such that the provider would have dismissed him, or would have considered dismissing him, on such grounds if he had not resigned or retired;
 - (c) that the provider has, on such grounds, decided not to supply the worker for further employment in a care position.
- (4) If it appears from the information submitted with a reference under subsection (1) that it may be appropriate for the worker to be included in the list kept under section 81, the Secretary of State shall—

- (a) determine the reference in accordance with subsections (5) to (7); and
 - (b) pending that determination, provisionally include the worker in the list.
- (5) The Secretary of State shall—
- (a) invite observations from the worker on the information submitted with the reference and, if he thinks fit, on any observations submitted under paragraph (b); and
 - (b) invite observations from the provider on any observations on the information submitted with the reference and, if he thinks fit, on any other observations under paragraph (a).
- (6) Where the Secretary of State has considered the information submitted with the reference, any observations submitted to him and any other information which he considers relevant, the Secretary of State shall confirm the worker's inclusion in the list if subsection (7) applies; otherwise he shall remove him from the list.
- (7) This subsection applies if the Secretary of State is of the opinion—
- (a) that the provider reasonably considered the worker to be guilty of misconduct (whether or not in the course of his employment) which harmed or placed at risk of harm a vulnerable adult; and
 - (b) that the worker is unsuitable to work with vulnerable adults.
- (8) Nothing in this section shall require a person who provides care for vulnerable adults to refer a worker to the Secretary of State in any case where the dismissal, resignation or retirement took place or, as the case may be, the decision was made before the commencement of this section.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C2 S. 83(4)-(7) applied (with modifications) (26.7.2004) by 1999 c. 14, s. 2C(2)(4)(5) (as inserted by 2000 c. 14, ss. 97(1), 122; S.I. 2004/1757, art. 2(b))

84 Power of registration authority to refer.

- (1) The registration authority may refer a care worker to the Secretary of State if—
- (a) on the basis of evidence obtained by it in the exercise of its functions under Part II of this Act, the authority considers that the worker has been guilty of misconduct (whether or not in the course of his employment) which harmed or placed at risk of harm a vulnerable adult; and
 - (b) the worker has not been referred to the Secretary of State under section 82 or 83 in respect of the misconduct.
- (2) Section 82(4) to (7) shall apply in relation to a reference made by the registration authority under subsection (1) as it applies in relation to a reference made by a person under section 82(1).
- (3) The reference in subsection (1) to misconduct is to misconduct which occurred after the commencement of this section.

85 Individuals named in the findings of certain inquiries.

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—

- (a) a relevant inquiry has been held;
 - (b) the report of the person who held the inquiry names an individual who is or has been employed in a care position; and
 - (c) it appears to the Secretary of State from the report—
 - (i) that the person who held the inquiry found that the individual was guilty of relevant misconduct; and
 - (ii) that the individual is unsuitable to work with vulnerable adults.
- (2) The Secretary of State—
- (a) may provisionally include the individual in the list kept under section 81; and
 - (b) if he does so, shall determine in accordance with subsections (3) to (5) whether the individual's inclusion in the list should be confirmed.
- (3) The Secretary of State shall—
- (a) invite observations from the individual on the report, so far as relating to him, and, if the Secretary of State thinks fit, on any observations submitted under paragraph (b); and
 - (b) invite observations from the relevant employer on any observations on the report and, if the Secretary of State thinks fit, on any other observations under paragraph (a).
- (4) Where the Secretary of State has considered the report, any observations submitted to him and any other information which he considers relevant, he shall confirm that individual's inclusion in the list if subsection (5) applies; otherwise he shall remove him from the list.
- (5) This subsection applies if the Secretary of State is of the opinion—
- (a) that the person who held the inquiry reasonably considered the individual to be guilty of relevant misconduct; and
 - (b) that the individual is unsuitable to work with vulnerable adults.
- (6) In this section—
- “relevant employer” means the person who, at the time mentioned in the definition of “relevant misconduct” below, employed the individual in a care position;
- “relevant misconduct” means misconduct which harmed or placed at risk of harm a vulnerable adult and was committed (whether or not in the course of his employment) at a time when the individual was employed in a care position.
- (7) In this section “relevant inquiry” means any of the following—
- (a) an inquiry held [^{F11}under the Inquiries Act 2005 or] under—
 - (i) section 10;
 - (ii) section 35 of the ^{M2}Government of Wales Act 1998;
 - (iii) section 81 of the 1989 Act;
 - (iv) section 84 of the ^{M3}National Health Service Act 1977;
 - (v) section 7C of the ^{M4}Local Authority Social Services Act 1970;
 - (b) an inquiry to which the ^{M5}Tribunals of Inquiry (Evidence) Act 1921 applies;
 - (c) any other inquiry or hearing designated for the purposes of this section by an order made by the Secretary of State.

86 Appeals against inclusion in list.

- (1) An individual who is included (otherwise than provisionally) in the list kept by the Secretary of State under section 81 may appeal to the Tribunal against—
- (a) the decision to include him in the list; or
 - (b) with the leave of the Tribunal, any decision of the Secretary of State not to remove him from the list under section 81(3).
- (2) Subject to subsection (5), an individual who has been provisionally included for a period of more than nine months in the list kept by the Secretary of State under section 81 may, with the leave of the Tribunal, have the issue of his inclusion in the list determined by the Tribunal instead of by the Secretary of State.
- (3) If on an appeal or determination under this section the Tribunal is not satisfied of either of the following, namely—
- (a) that the individual was guilty of misconduct (whether or not in the course of his duties) which harmed or placed at risk of harm a vulnerable adult; and
 - (b) that the individual is unsuitable to work with vulnerable adults,
- the Tribunal shall allow the appeal or determine the issue in the individual's favour and (in either case) direct his removal from the list; otherwise it shall dismiss the appeal or direct the individual's inclusion in the list.
- (4) Where an individual has been convicted of an offence involving misconduct (whether or not in the course of his employment) which harmed or placed at risk of harm a vulnerable adult, no finding of fact on which the conviction must be taken to have been based shall be challenged on an appeal or determination under this section.
- (5) Where the misconduct of which the individual is alleged to have been guilty is the subject of any civil or criminal proceedings, an application for leave under subsection (2) may not be made before the end of the period of six months immediately following the final determination of the proceedings.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), proceedings are finally determined when—
- (a) the proceedings are terminated without a decision being made;

Status: Point in time view as at 14/10/2006.

Changes to legislation: Care Standards Act 2000, Part VII is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) a decision is made against which no appeal lies;
- (c) in a case where an appeal lies with leave against a decision, the time limited for applications for leave expires without leave being granted; or
- (d) in a case where leave to appeal against a decision is granted or is not required, the time limited for appeal expires without an appeal being brought.

87 Applications for removal from list.

- (1) Subject to section 88, an individual who is included in the list kept by the Secretary of State under section 81 may make an application to the Tribunal under this section.
- (2) On an application under this section the Tribunal shall determine whether or not the individual should continue to be included in the list.
- (3) If the Tribunal is satisfied that the individual is no longer unsuitable to work with vulnerable adults it shall direct his removal from the list; otherwise it shall dismiss the application.

88 Conditions for application under section 87.

- (1) An individual may only make an application under section 87 with the leave of the Tribunal.
- (2) An application for leave under this section may not be made unless the appropriate conditions are satisfied in the individual's case.
- (3) In the case of an individual who was a child when he was included (otherwise than provisionally) in the list, the appropriate conditions are satisfied if—
 - (a) he has been so included for a continuous period of at least five years; and
 - (b) in the period of five years ending with the time when he makes the application under this section, he has made no other such application.
- (4) In the case of any other individual, the appropriate conditions are satisfied if—
 - (a) he has been included (otherwise than provisionally) in the list for a continuous period of at least ten years; and
 - (b) in the period of ten years ending with the time when he makes the application under this section, he has made no other such application.
- (5) The Tribunal shall not grant an application under this section unless it considers—
 - (a) that the individual's circumstances have changed since he was included (otherwise than provisionally) in the list, or, as the case may be, since he last made an application under this section; and
 - (b) that the change is such that leave should be granted.

89 Effect of inclusion in list.

- (1) Where a person who provides care to vulnerable adults proposes to offer an individual employment in a care position that person—
 - (a) shall ascertain whether the individual is included in the list kept under section 81; and
 - (b) if he is included in that list, shall not offer him employment in such a position.

Status: Point in time view as at 14/10/2006.

Changes to legislation: Care Standards Act 2000, Part VII is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Where a person who provides care to vulnerable adults discovers that an individual employed by him in a care position is included in that list, he shall cease to employ him in a care position.

For the purposes of this subsection an individual is not employed in a care position if he has been suspended or provisionally transferred to a position which is not a care position.

- (3) Where a person who provides care to vulnerable adults (“the provider”) proposes to offer employment in a care position to an individual who has been supplied by a person who carries on an employment agency or employment business, there is a sufficient compliance with subsection (1) if the provider—
 - (a) satisfies himself that, on a date within the last 12 months, the other person ascertained whether the individual was included in the list kept under section 81;
 - (b) obtains written confirmation of the facts as ascertained by that person; and
 - (c) if the individual was included in the list on that date, does not offer him employment in a care position.
- (4) It is immaterial for the purposes of subsection (1) or (3) whether the individual is already employed by the provider.
- (5) An individual who is included (otherwise than provisionally) in the list kept by the Secretary of State under section 81 shall be guilty of an offence if he knowingly applies for, offers to do, accepts or does any work in a care position.
- (6) It shall be a defence for an individual charged with an offence under subsection (5) to prove that he did not know, and could not reasonably be expected to know, that he was so included in that list.
- (7) An individual who is guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or to both;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to a fine, or to both.

90 Searches of list under Part V of Police Act 1997.

91 Access to list before commencement of section 90.

- (1) In relation to any time before the commencement of section 90, any person seeking to ascertain whether a relevant individual is included in the list kept under section 81 shall be entitled to that information on making application for the purpose to the Secretary of State.

Status: Point in time view as at 14/10/2006.

Changes to legislation: Care Standards Act 2000, Part VII is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) a relevant individual is—
- (a) an individual to whom the person proposes to offer employment in a care position;
 - (b) an individual for whom the person proposes to find employment, or whom he proposes to supply for employment, in a care position; or
 - (c) an individual of a prescribed description who does not fall within paragraph (a) or (b).

92 Persons referred for inclusion in list under Protection of Children Act 1999.

- (1) Section 2(4) to (7) of the 1999 Act (referrals for inclusion in list of individuals who are considered unsuitable to work with children) shall, in the case of any reference under section 2, 2A or 2D of that Act, apply in relation to the list kept under section 81 as they apply in relation to the list kept under section 1 of that Act, but as if the reference in subsection (7)(b) to children were a reference to vulnerable adults.
- (2) Section 2B of the 1999 Act shall apply in relation to the list kept under section 81 as it applies in relation to the list kept under section 1 of that Act, but as if the references in subsections (1)(c)(ii) and (5)(b) to children were references to vulnerable adults.
- (3) But the Secretary of State may not by virtue of subsection (1) or (2) provisionally include an individual in the list kept under section 81, or confirm his inclusion in that list, unless he provisionally includes him in the list kept under section 1 of the 1999 Act or, as the case requires, confirms his inclusion in that list.
- (4) Where an individual has by virtue of subsection (1) or (2) been included in the list kept under section 81, section 86 shall apply to him as if the references in subsections (3)(a) and (4) to a vulnerable adult were references to a child.

93 Power to extend Part VII.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
 - (a) add to the list in section 80(7) any prescribed persons to whom subsection (2) applies;
 - (b) amend the definitions of “care worker”, “care position” and “vulnerable adult” accordingly.
- (2) This subsection applies to—
 - (a) local authorities providing services to adults in the exercise of their social services functions;
 - (b) persons who provide to adults services which are similar to services which—
 - (i) may or must be so provided by local authorities; or
 - (ii) may or must be provided by National Health Service bodies.
- (3) In its application by virtue of subsection (1), this Part shall have effect—
 - (a) if the regulations so provide, as if “may” were substituted for “ shall ” in sections 82(1) and 83(1), and section 89 were omitted;
 - (b) with such other modifications as may be specified in the regulations.
