Intervention notices

139 Public interest intervention by Secretary of State

[^{F1}(A1) This section applies where—

- (a) the CMA has published a market study notice in relation to a matter; or
- (b) the CMA has begun the process of consultation under section 169 in respect of a decision of the kind mentioned in subsection (6)(a)(i) of that section.]

[^{F1}(1) The Secretary of State may, within the permitted period, give a notice to the CMA if the Secretary of State believes that it is or may be the case that one or more than one public interest consideration is relevant to the matter.]

[^{F1}(1A) For the purposes of subsection (1), the permitted period, in a case to which this section applies by virtue of paragraph (a) of subsection (A1), is the period beginning with the publication of the market study notice and ending with—

- (a) the acceptance by the CMA of an undertaking under section 154 instead of the making of a reference under section 131 in relation to the matter;
- (b) the publication of notice of the fact that the CMA has otherwise decided not to make such a reference in relation to the matter;
- (c) the making of such a reference in relation to the matter; or
- (d) in a case where the period permitted by section 131B for the preparation and publication by the CMA of the market study report in relation to the matter has expired and no such report has been prepared or published, the end of that period.

(1B) For the purposes of subsection (1), the permitted period, in a case to which this section applies by virtue of paragraph (b) of subsection (A1), is the period beginning with the date on which the CMA begins the process of consultation concerned and ending with—

- (a) the acceptance by the CMA of an undertaking under section 154 instead of the making of a reference under section 131 in relation to the matter concerned;
- (b) the publication of notice of the fact that the CMA has otherwise decided not to make such a reference in relation to the matter; or
- (c) the making of such a reference in relation to the matter.]

(2) The Secretary of State may [^{F2}, within the permitted period,] give a notice to the [^{F3}CMA] if—

- (a) the [^{F3}CMA] is considering whether to accept—
 - (i) an undertaking under section 154 instead of making a reference under section 131 [^{F4}in relation to the matter]; or
 - (ii) an undertaking varying or superseding any such undertaking;
- (b) the [^{F3}CMA] has published a notice under section 155(1) or (4); and
- (c) the Secretary of State believes that it is or may be the case that one or more than one public interest consideration is relevant to the [^{F5}proposal to accept the undertaking].

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Enterprise Act 2002, Chapter 2. (See end of Document for details)

- [^{F6}(2A) For the purposes of subsection (2), the permitted period is—
- (a) where the CMA publishes a notice under section 155(1), the period within which representations may be made in relation to the proposed undertaking (as to which, see section 155(2)(f));
 - (b) where the CMA publishes a notice under section 155(4), the period within which representations may be made in relation to the proposed modifications to the proposed undertaking (as to which, see section 155(5)(c)).]
- (3) In this Part “intervention notice” means a notice under subsection (1) or (2).
- [^{F7}(4) No more than one intervention notice shall be given under subsection (1) in relation to the same matter.
- (4A) An intervention notice shall not be given under subsection (2) in relation to a proposal to accept an undertaking if the proposal relates to a matter in respect of which an intervention notice under subsection (1) has already been given.
- (4B) No more than one intervention notice shall be given under subsection (2) in relation to the same proposed undertaking or in relation to proposed undertakings which do not differ from each other in any material respect.]
- [^{F8}(4C) In this section, a reference to the acceptance of an undertaking shall, in a case where the CMA has accepted a group of undertakings under section 154, be treated as a reference to the acceptance of the last undertaking in the group; but undertakings which vary, supersede or revoke earlier undertakings shall be disregarded for the purposes of this section.]
- (5) For the purposes of this Part a public interest consideration is a consideration which, at the time of the giving of the intervention notice concerned, is specified in section 153 or is not so specified but, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, ought to be so specified.
- (6) Where the Secretary of State has given an intervention notice mentioning a public interest consideration which, at that time, is not finalised, he shall, as soon as practicable, take such action as is within his power to ensure that it is finalised.
- (7) For the purposes of this Part a public interest consideration is finalised if—
- (a) it is specified in section 153 otherwise than by virtue of an order under subsection (3) of that section; or
 - (b) it is specified in that section by virtue of an order under subsection (3) of that section and the order providing for it to be so specified has been laid before, and approved by, Parliament in accordance with subsection (6) of section 181 and within the period mentioned in that subsection.

Intervention notices under section 139(1)

140 Intervention notices under section 139(1)

- (1) An intervention notice under section 139(1) shall state—
- ^{F9}(a) the matter to which the market study notice or (as the case may be) the consultation under section 169 concerned relates;
 - (b) the date of publication of that notice or (as the case may be) on which the process of consultation began;
 - (c) the public interest consideration or considerations which are, or may be, relevant to the ^{F10}matter]; and
 - (d) where any public interest consideration concerned is not finalised, the proposed timetable for finalising it.
- (2) Where the Secretary of State believes that it is or may be the case that two or more public interest considerations are relevant to the ^{F11}matter], he may decide not to mention in the intervention notice such of those considerations as he considers appropriate.
- (3) The Secretary of State may at any time revoke an intervention notice which has been given under section 139(1) and which is in force.
- (4) An intervention notice under section 139(1) shall come into force when it is given and shall cease to be in force when the matter to which it relates is finally determined under this Chapter.

- ^{F12}(4A) An intervention notice under section 139(1) shall also cease to be in force if—
- (a) it mentions a public interest consideration which was not finalised on the giving of the notice or public interest considerations which, at that time, were not finalised;
 - (b) no other public interest consideration is mentioned in the notice;
 - (c) at least 24 weeks has elapsed since the giving of the notice;
 - (d) the public interest consideration mentioned in the notice has not been finalised within that period of 24 weeks or (as the case may be) none of the public interest considerations mentioned in the notice has been finalised within that period of 24 weeks; and
 - (e) the Secretary of State has not, by the end of that period of 24 weeks, made a reference under section 140A in relation to the matter.

- (4B) Subsection (4D) applies in a case where—

- (a) an intervention notice ceases to be in force in accordance with subsection (4A);

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Enterprise Act 2002, Chapter 2. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the CMA has, before the time at which the notice ceases to be in force, prepared a market study report in relation to the matter within the period permitted by section 131B(4) and given it to the Secretary of State in accordance with section 140A(3)(b); and
 - (c) the report contains the decision of the CMA that it should make a reference in relation to the matter concerned under section 131.
- (4C) Subsection (4D) also applies in a case where—
- (a) an intervention notice ceases to be in force in accordance with subsection (4A); and
 - (b) the CMA has, before the time at which the notice ceases to be in force—
 - (i) decided that it should make an ordinary reference or a cross-market reference under section 131 in relation to the matter concerned; and
 - (ii) given a document containing its decision, the reasons for it and such information as the CMA considers appropriate for facilitating a proper understanding of the reasons for its decision to the Secretary of State in accordance with section 140A(3)(c).
- (4D) In a case to which this subsection applies—
- (a) the CMA shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, make a reference in relation to the matter under section 131; and
 - (b) the reference is to be treated for the purposes of this Part as having been made in accordance with the requirements imposed by this Part.]
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4) a matter to which an intervention notice under section 139(1) relates is finally determined under this Chapter if—
- [^{F13}(za) the CMA accepts an undertaking under section 154 instead of making a reference under section 131 in relation to the matter;
 - (zb) the CMA publishes notice that it has otherwise decided not to make a reference under section 131 in relation to the matter;
 - (zc) the period permitted for the preparation by the CMA of the market study report in relation to the matter and for the report to be published under section 131B(4) or (as the case may be) given to the Secretary of State under section 140A(3) has expired and no such report has been so prepared or no such action has been taken;
 - (zd) the Secretary of State makes a reference under section 140A(5) in relation to the matter;]
 - (a) the period permitted by section 144 for the preparation of the report of the [^{F14}CMA] under section 142 and for action to be taken in relation to it under section 143(1) or (3) [^{F15}or (as the case may be) 143A(2) or (3)] has expired and no such report has been so prepared or no such action has been taken;
 - (b) the [^{F14}CMA] decides under section 145(1) to terminate its investigation;
 - (c) the report of the [^{F14}CMA] has been prepared under section 142 and published under section 143(1) [^{F16}or (as the case may be) 143A(2)] within the period permitted by section 144;
 - (d) the Secretary of State fails to make and publish a decision under subsection (2) of section 146 within the period required by subsection (3) of that section [^{F17}or (as the case may be) fails to make and publish a decision under subsection (2) of section 146A within the period required by subsection (6) of that section];

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Enterprise Act 2002, Chapter 2. (See end of Document for details)

- (e) the Secretary of State decides under section 146(2) that no eligible public interest consideration is relevant [^{F18}or (as the case may be) decides under section 146A(2) to make no finding at all in relation to the matter];
 - (f) the Secretary of State decides under section 147(2) [^{F19}or (as the case may be) 147A(2)] neither to accept an undertaking under section 159 nor to make an order under section 161;
 - (g) the Secretary of State accepts an undertaking under section 159 or makes an order under section 161; or
 - (h) the Secretary of State decides to revoke the intervention notice concerned.
- (6) For the purposes of subsections (4) and (5) the time when a matter to which an intervention notice under section 139(1) relates is finally determined under this Chapter is—
- [^{F20}(za) in a case falling within subsection (5)(za), the acceptance of the undertaking concerned;
 - (zb) in a case falling within subsection (5)(zb), the publication of the notice concerned;]
 - (a) in a case falling within subsection (5)[^{F21}(zc),] (a) or (d), the expiry of the period concerned;
 - [^{F22}(aa) in a case falling within subsection (5)(zd), the making of the reference concerned;]
 - (b) in a case falling within subsection (5)(b), (e), (f) or (h), the making of the decision concerned;
 - (c) in a case falling within subsection (5)(c), the publication of the report concerned; and
 - (d) in a case falling within subsection (5)(g), the acceptance of the undertaking concerned or (as the case may be) the making of the order concerned.
- [^{F23}(6A) In subsection (6)(za) the reference to the acceptance of the undertaking concerned shall, in a case where the CMA has accepted a group of undertakings under section 154, be treated as a reference to the acceptance of the last undertaking in the group; but undertakings which vary, supersede or revoke earlier undertakings shall be disregarded for the purposes of subsections (5)(za) and (6)(za).]
- (7) In subsection (6)(d) the reference to the acceptance of the undertaking concerned or the making of the order concerned shall, in a case where the enforcement action under section 147(2) [^{F24}or (as the case may be) 147A(2)] involves the acceptance of a group of undertakings, the making of a group of orders or the acceptance and making of a group of undertakings and orders, be treated as a reference to the acceptance or making of the last undertaking or order in the group; but undertakings or orders which vary, supersede or revoke earlier undertakings or orders shall be disregarded for the purposes of subsections (5)(g) and (6)(d).

^{F25}140A Section 139(1) intervention notices: Secretary of State's duty to refer

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) the CMA has prepared a market study report in relation to a matter within the period permitted by section 131B(4);
 - (b) an intervention notice under section 139(1) is in force in relation to the matter at the time when the CMA would (but for this section) be required to publish the report; and
 - (c) the report contains the decision of the CMA that it should make an ordinary reference or a cross-market reference in relation to the matter under section 131.
- (2) This section also applies where—
- (a) the CMA has conducted a consultation under section 169 in respect of a decision of the kind mentioned in subsection (6)(a)(i) of that section;
 - (b) the CMA has decided that it should make an ordinary reference or a cross-market reference in relation to the matter concerned under section 131; and
 - (c) an intervention notice under section 139(1) is in force in relation to the matter at the time when the CMA makes that decision.
- (3) The CMA—
- (a) shall not exercise the power under section 131 to refer the matter;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Enterprise Act 2002, Chapter 2. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) in a case falling within subsection (1), shall not publish the market study report under section 131B(4) and shall instead, within the period mentioned in section 131B(4), give the report to the Secretary of State; and
- (c) in a case falling within subsection (2), shall give to the Secretary of State a document containing—
 - (i) its decision and the reasons for its decision; and
 - (ii) such information as the CMA considers appropriate for facilitating a proper understanding of the reasons for its decision.
- (4) The Secretary of State shall decide whether any public interest consideration which was mentioned in the intervention notice is relevant to the matter in question.
- (5) Where the Secretary of State decides that there is no relevant public interest consideration—
 - (a) the Secretary of State shall (in accordance with the CMA's decision) make a reference in relation to the matter to the chair of the CMA for the constitution of a group under Schedule 4 to the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013; and
 - (b) the reference is to be treated for the purposes of this Part as an ordinary reference or (as the case may be) a cross-market reference made under section 131 in accordance with the requirements imposed by this Part.
- (6) Where the Secretary of State decides that there is one or more than one relevant public interest consideration, the Secretary of State shall (in accordance with the CMA's decision) make a reference in relation to the matter to the chair of the CMA for the constitution of a group under Schedule 4 to the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013.
- (7) The Secretary of State shall specify in a reference made under subsection (6)—
 - (a) the relevant public interest consideration or considerations; and
 - (b) whether the reference is a restricted PI reference or a full PI reference (as to which, see sections 141 and 141A respectively).
- (8) Where the Secretary of State makes a full PI reference under subsection (6), the reference shall also specify whether the Secretary of State proposes to appoint a public interest expert under section 141B.
- (9) For the purposes of this Part, a reference under subsection (6) is to be treated—
 - (a) in a case where the decision of the CMA was that it should make an ordinary reference, as an ordinary reference;
 - (b) in a case where the decision of the CMA was that it should make a cross-market reference, as a cross-market reference.

[^{F34}141A Full PI references: questions to be decided by CMA

- (1) This section applies where the Secretary of State makes a full PI reference.
- (2) The CMA shall, on an ordinary reference, decide whether any feature, or combination of features, of each relevant market (within the meaning given by section 134(3)) prevents, restricts or distorts competition in connection with the supply or acquisition of any goods or services in the United Kingdom or a part of the United Kingdom.
- (3) The CMA shall, on a cross-market reference, decide in relation to each feature and each combination of the features specified in the reference, whether the feature or combination of features, as it relates to goods or services of one or more than one of the descriptions so specified, prevents, restricts or distorts competition in connection with the supply or acquisition of any goods or services in the United Kingdom or a part of the United Kingdom.
- (4) The CMA shall, if it has decided that there is an adverse effect on competition, decide whether, taking account only of any adverse effect on competition and the admissible public interest consideration or considerations concerned, any feature or combination of features which gave rise to an adverse effect on competition operates or may be expected to operate against the public interest.
- (5) The CMA shall, if it has decided that any such feature or combination of features operates or may be expected to operate against the public interest, also decide separately the following additional questions—
 - (a) whether action should be taken by the Secretary of State under section 147A for the purpose of remedying, mitigating or preventing any of the effects adverse to the public interest concerned;
 - (b) whether the CMA should recommend the taking of other action by the Secretary of State, or action by persons other than itself and the Secretary of State, for the purpose of remedying, mitigating or preventing any of the effects adverse to the public interest concerned; and
 - (c) in either case, if action should be taken, what action should be taken and what is to be remedied, mitigated or prevented.
- (6) The CMA shall, if it has decided that there is an adverse effect on competition, also decide separately the following questions (on the assumption that it is proceeding as mentioned in section 148A(2))—
 - (a) whether action should be taken by it under section 138 for the purpose of remedying, mitigating or preventing the adverse effect on competition concerned or any detrimental effect on customers so far as it has resulted from, or may be expected to result from, the adverse effect on competition;
 - (b) whether the CMA should recommend the taking of action by other persons for the purpose of remedying, mitigating or preventing the adverse effect on competition concerned or any detrimental effect on customers so far as it has resulted from, or may be expected to result from, the adverse effect on competition; and
 - (c) in either case, if action should be taken, what action should be taken and what is to be remedied, mitigated or prevented.
- (7) In a case where the Secretary of State has appointed a public interest expert under section 141B in relation to a full PI reference, the CMA shall, in deciding the questions mentioned in subsections (4) and (5), have regard, in particular, to the views of the expert.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Enterprise Act 2002, Chapter 2. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) In deciding the questions mentioned in subsection (5), the CMA shall, in particular, have regard to—
- (a) the need to achieve as comprehensive a solution as is reasonable and practicable to the effects adverse to the public interest concerned; and
 - (b) any detrimental effects on customers so far as resulting from those effects.
- (9) In deciding the questions mentioned in subsection (6), the CMA shall, in particular, have regard to—
- (a) the need to achieve as comprehensive a solution as is reasonable and practicable to the adverse effect on competition concerned; and
 - (b) any detrimental effects on customers so far as resulting from it.
- (10) In deciding the questions mentioned in subsections (5) and (6), the CMA may, in particular, have regard to the effect of any action on any relevant customer benefits of the feature or features of the market or markets concerned.
- (11) In this section, “admissible public interest consideration” means any public interest consideration specified in the reference concerned and which the CMA is not under a duty to disregard.

145 Restrictions where public interest considerations not finalised: Part 4

- (1) The [^{F67}CMA] shall terminate its investigation under section 142 if—
- the intervention notice concerned mentions a public interest consideration which was not finalised on the giving of that notice or public interest considerations which, at that time, were not finalised;
 - no other public interest consideration is mentioned in the notice;
 - at least 24 weeks has elapsed since the giving of the notice; and
 - the public interest consideration mentioned in the notice has not been finalised within that period of 24 weeks or (as the case may be) none of the public interest considerations mentioned in the notice has been finalised within that period of 24 weeks.
- (2) Where the intervention notice concerned mentions a public interest consideration which is not finalised on the giving of the notice, the [^{F67}CMA] shall not give its report under section 142 to the Secretary of State in accordance with section 143(3) [^{F68}or (as the case may be) 143A(3)] unless the period of 24 weeks beginning with the giving of the intervention notice concerned has expired or the public interest consideration concerned has been finalised.
- (3) The [^{F67}CMA] shall, in reporting on any of the questions mentioned in section 141(3) [^{F69}or (as the case may be) 141A(4) and (5)], disregard any public interest consideration which has not been finalised before the giving of the report.
- (4) The [^{F67}CMA] shall, in reporting on any of the questions mentioned in section 141(3) [^{F70}or (as the case may be) 141A(4) and (5)], disregard any public interest consideration which was not finalised on the giving of the intervention notice concerned and has not been finalised within the period of 24 weeks beginning with the giving of the notice concerned.
- (5) Subsections (1) to (4) are without prejudice to the power of the [^{F67}CMA] to carry out investigations in relation to any public interest consideration to which it might be able to have regard in its report.

150 Power of veto of Secretary of State

[F90(A1) Where an intervention notice under subsection 139(1) is in force, the CMA shall not, without the consent of the Secretary of State, accept any proposed undertaking under section 154 in relation to the matter concerned.]

- (1) Where an intervention notice under section 139(2) is in force, the [F91CMA] shall not, without the consent of the Secretary of State, accept the proposed undertaking concerned or a proposed undertaking which does not differ from it in any material respect.
- (2) The Secretary of State shall withhold his consent if he believes that it is or may be the case that the proposed undertaking will, if accepted, operate against the public interest.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) a proposed undertaking will, if accepted, operate against the public interest only if any public interest consideration which is mentioned in the intervention notice concerned and has been finalised, or any public interest considerations which are so mentioned and have been finalised, outweigh the considerations which have led the [F92CMA] to propose accepting the undertaking.
- (4) In making his decision under subsection (2) the Secretary of State shall accept the [F93CMA's] view of what undertakings, if the only relevant consideration were how to remedy, mitigate or prevent the adverse effect on competition concerned or any detrimental effect on customers so far as resulting from the adverse effect on competition, would be most appropriate.

- (5) Where a public interest consideration which is mentioned in the intervention notice concerned is not finalised on the giving of the notice, the Secretary of State shall not make his decision as to whether to give his consent under this section before—
- (a) the end of the period of 24 weeks beginning with the giving of the intervention notice; or
 - (b) if earlier, the date on which the public interest consideration concerned has been finalised.
- (6) Subject to subsections (2) to (5), the Secretary of State shall not withhold his consent under this section.
