2004 CHAPTER 5

PART 2 E+W

LOCAL DEVELOPMENT

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Pt. 2 modified (temp.) (28.11.2008) by Local Government \(Structural Changes\) \(Transitional Arrangements\) \(No.2\) Regulations 2008 (S.I. 2008/2867), regs. 1(1), 21(1), 23(2) (with reg. 1(2))

Survey

13 Survey of area E+W

- (1) The local planning authority must keep under review the matters which may be expected to affect the development of their area or the planning of its development.
- (2) These matters include—
  - (a) the principal physical, economic, social and environmental characteristics of the area of the authority;
  - (b) the principal purposes for which land is used in the area;
  - (c) the size, composition and distribution of the population of the area;
  - (d) the communications, transport system and traffic of the area;
  - (e) any other considerations which may be expected to affect those matters;
  - (f) such other matters as may be prescribed or as the Secretary of State (in a particular case) may direct.
- (3) The matters also include—
  - (a) any changes which the authority think may occur in relation to any other matter;

Status: Point in time view as at 06/09/2015.

Changes to legislation: Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004, Part 2 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the effect such changes are likely to have on the development of the authority's area or on the planning of such development.
- (4) The local planning authority may also keep under review and examine the matters mentioned in subsections (2) and (3) in relation to any neighbouring area to the extent that those matters may be expected to affect the area of the authority.
- (5) In exercising a function under subsection (4) a local planning authority must consult with the local planning authority for the neighbouring area in question.
- (6) If a neighbouring area is in Wales references to the local planning authority for that area must be construed in accordance with Part 6.

Commencement Information

- I1 S. 13 in force at 6.8.2004 for specified purposes by S.I. 2004/2097, art. 2

14 Survey of area: county councils E+W

- (1) A county council in respect of so much of their area for which there is a district council must keep under review the matters which may be expected to affect development of that area or the planning of its development in so far as the development relates to a county matter.
- (2) Subsections (2) to (6) of section 13 apply for the purposes of subsection (1) as they apply for the purposes of that section; and references to the local planning authority must be construed as references to the county council.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations require or (in a particular case) may direct a county council to keep under review in relation to so much of their area as is mentioned in subsection (1) such of the matters mentioned in section 13(1) to (4) as he prescribes or directs (as the case may be).
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)—
  - (a) it is immaterial whether any development relates to a county matter;
  - (b) if a matter which is prescribed or in respect of which the Secretary of State gives a direction falls within section 13(4) the county council must consult the local planning authority for the area in question.
- (5) The county council must make available the results of their review under subsection (3) to such persons as the Secretary of State prescribes or directs (as the case may be).
- (6) References to a county matter must be construed in accordance with paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 to the principal Act (ignoring sub-paragraph (1)(i)).

Commencement Information

Development schemes

15 Local development scheme E+W

- (1) The local planning authority must prepare and maintain a scheme to be known as their local development scheme.
- (2) The scheme must specify—
  - <sup>F1</sup>(a) .....
  - <sup>F2</sup>(aa) the local development documents which are to be development plan documents;
  - (b) the subject matter and geographical area to which each [<sup>F3</sup> development plan document ] is to relate;
  - <sup>F4</sup>(c) .....
  - (d) which [<sup>F5</sup> development plan documents ] (if any) are to be prepared jointly with one or more other local planning authorities;
  - (e) any matter or area in respect of which the authority have agreed (or propose to agree) to the constitution of a joint committee under section 29;
  - (f) the timetable for the preparation and revision of the [<sup>F6</sup> development plan documents ];
  - (g) such other matters as are prescribed.
- <sup>F7</sup>(3) .....
- (4) The Secretary of State [<sup>F8</sup> or the Mayor of London ] may direct the local planning authority to make such amendments to the scheme as he thinks appropriate [<sup>F9</sup> for the purpose of ensuring effective coverage of the authority's area by the development plan documents (taken as a whole) for that area ].
- <sup>F10</sup>(4A) The Mayor of London—
  - (a) may give a direction under subsection (4) only if the local planning authority are a London borough, and
  - (b) in considering whether to give such a direction, and which amendments to include in the direction, must have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State.]
- (5) [<sup>F11</sup>A direction under subsection (4)] must contain the Secretary of State's [<sup>F12</sup>, or (as the case may be) the Mayor of London's,] reasons for giving it.
- (6) The local planning authority must comply with a direction given under subsection (4). [<sup>F13</sup>In the case of a direction given by the Mayor of London, this subsection is subject to subsections (6A) to (6E). ]
- <sup>F14</sup>(6A) If at any time the Mayor of London gives a direction under subsection (4)—
  - (a) he must at that time send a copy of the direction to the Secretary of State, and
  - (b) [<sup>F15</sup> effect is not to be given to the direction ] until such time as may be prescribed.
- (6B) The Secretary of State may, within such time as may be prescribed, direct the local planning authority—
  - (a) to disregard a direction given under subsection (4) by the Mayor of London, or
  - (b) to give effect to the direction with such modifications as may be specified in the Secretary of State's direction.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/09/2015.

Changes to legislation: Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004, Part 2 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6C) Such a direction must contain the Secretary of State's reasons for giving it.
- (6D) If at any time the Secretary of State gives a direction under subsection (6B), the Secretary of State must at that time send a copy of the direction to the Mayor of London.
- (6E) The local planning authority must comply with any direction given by the Secretary of State under subsection (6B).]
- [<sup>F16</sup>(7) To bring the scheme into effect, the local planning authority must resolve that the scheme is to have effect and in the resolution specify the date from which the scheme is to have effect.]
- (8) The local planning authority must revise their local development scheme—
- (a) at such time as they consider appropriate;
  - (b) when directed to do so by the Secretary of State<sup>F17</sup> or the Mayor of London ].<sup>F18</sup>In the case of a direction given by the Mayor of London, paragraph (b) is subject to subsections (8B) to (8F). ]
- [<sup>F19</sup>(8A) The Mayor of London—
- (a) may give a direction under subsection (8) only if the local planning authority are a London borough, and
  - (b) in considering whether to give such a direction, must have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State.
- [ A direction may be given under subsection (8)(b) only if the person giving the direction
- <sup>F20</sup>(8AA) thinks that revision of the scheme is necessary for the purpose of ensuring effective coverage of the authority's area by the development plan documents (taken as a whole) for that area.]
- (8B) If at any time the Mayor of London gives a direction under subsection (8)(b)—
- (a) he must at that time send a copy of the direction to the Secretary of State, and
  - (b) the scheme is not to be revised until such time as may be prescribed.
- (8C) The Secretary of State may, within such time as may be prescribed, direct the local planning authority to disregard a direction given under subsection (8)(b) by the Mayor of London.
- (8D) Such a direction must contain the Secretary of State's reasons for giving it.
- (8E) If at any time the Secretary of State gives a direction under subsection (8C), the Secretary of State must at that time send a copy of the direction to the Mayor of London.
- (8F) The local planning authority must comply with any direction given by the Secretary of State under subsection (8C).]
- (9) Subsections (2) to (7) apply to the revision of a scheme as they apply to the preparation of the scheme.
- [<sup>F21</sup>(9A) The local planning authority must make the following available to the public—
- (a) the up-to-date text of the scheme,
  - (b) a copy of any amendments made to the scheme, and
  - (c) up-to-date information showing the state of the authority's compliance (or non-compliance) with the timetable mentioned in subsection (2)(f).]

Status: Point in time view as at 06/09/2015.

Changes to legislation: Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004, Part 2 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

[<sup>F22</sup>(10) Section 38(1) of the Greater London Authority Act 1999 (delegation of functions by the Mayor) does not apply to the Mayor of London's functions under this section of giving a direction.]

16 Minerals and waste development scheme E+W

- (1) A county council in respect of any part of their area for which there is a district council must prepare and maintain a scheme to be known as their minerals and waste development scheme.
- (2) Section 15 (ignoring subsections (1) and (2)(e)) applies in relation to a minerals and waste development scheme as it applies in relation to a local development scheme.
- (3) This Part applies to a minerals and waste development scheme as it applies to a local development scheme and for that purpose—
  - (a) references to a local development scheme include references to a minerals and waste development scheme;
  - (b) references to a local planning authority include references to a county council.
- (4) But subsection (3) does not apply to—
  - (a) section 17(3);
  - (b) section 24(1)(b), (4) and (7);
  - (c) the references in section 24(5) to subsection (4) and the Mayor;
  - (d) sections 29 to 31.

[<sup>F23</sup>(5) Also, subsection (3)(b) does not apply to section 33A(1)(a) and (b).]

Documents

17 Local development documents E+W

- <sup>F24</sup>(1) .....
- <sup>F24</sup>(2) .....
- (3) [<sup>F25</sup>The local planning authority's local development documents ] must (taken as a whole) set out the authority's policies (however expressed) relating to the development and use of land in their area.
- (4) In the case of the documents which are included in a minerals and waste development scheme they must also (taken as a whole) set out the authority's policies (however expressed) [<sup>F26</sup>Where a county council is required to prepare a minerals and waste development scheme in respect of an area, the council's local development documents must (taken as a whole) set out the council's policies (however expressed) for that area ] within the meaning of paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 to the principal Act (ignoring subparagraph (1)(i)).
- (5) If to any extent a policy set out in a local development document conflicts with any other statement or information in the document the conflict must be resolved in favour of the policy.
- (6) The authority must keep under review their local development documents having regard to the results of any review carried out under section 13 or 14.
- (7) Regulations under this section may prescribe—
- [<sup>F27</sup>(za) which descriptions of documents are, or if prepared are, to be prepared as local development documents;]
- (a) which descriptions of local development documents are development plan documents;
- (b) the form and content of the local development documents;
- (c) the time at which any step in the preparation of any such document must be taken.
- (8) A document is a local development document only in so far as it or any part of it—
- (a) is adopted by resolution of the local planning authority as a local development document;
- (b) is approved by the Secretary of State under section 21 or 27.

29 Joint committees E+W

- (1) This section applies if one or more local planning authorities agree with one or more county councils in relation to any area of such a council for which there is also a district council to establish a joint committee to be, for the purposes of this Part, the local planning authority—
  - (a) for the area specified in the agreement;
  - (b) in respect of such matters as are so specified.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by order constitute a joint committee to be the local planning authority—
  - (a) for the area;
  - (b) in respect of those matters.
- (3) Such an order—
  - (a) must specify the authority or authorities and county council or councils (the constituent authorities) which are to constitute the joint committee;
  - (b) may make provision as to such other matters as the Secretary of State thinks are necessary or expedient to facilitate the exercise by the joint committee of its functions.
- (4) Provision under subsection (3)(b)—
  - (a) may include provision corresponding to provisions relating to joint committees in Part 6 of the Local Government Act 1972 (c. 70);
  - (b) may apply (with or without modifications) such enactments relating to local authorities as the Secretary of State thinks appropriate.
- (5) If an order under this section is annulled in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament—
  - (a) with effect from the date of the resolution the joint committee ceases to be the local planning authority as mentioned in subsection (2);
  - (b) anything which the joint committee (as the local planning authority) was required to do for the purposes of this Part must be done for their area by each local planning authority which were a constituent authority of the joint committee;
  - (c) each of those local planning authorities must revise their local development scheme accordingly.
- (6) Nothing in this section or section 30 confers on a local planning authority constituted by virtue of an order under this section any function in relation to section 13 or 14.
- (7) The policies adopted by the joint committee in the exercise of its functions under this Part must be taken for the purposes of the planning Acts to be the policies of each of the constituent authorities which are a local planning authority.
- (8) Subsection (9) applies to any function—
  - (a) which is conferred on a local planning authority (within the meaning of the principal Act) under or by virtue of the planning Acts, and
  - (b) which relates to the authority's local development scheme or local development documents.

<sup>F57</sup>33A Duty to co-operate in relation to planning of sustainable development E+W

- (1) Each person who is—
  - (a) a local planning authority,
  - (b) a county council in England that is not a local planning authority, or
  - (c) a body, or other person, that is prescribed or of a prescribed description,must co-operate with every other person who is within paragraph (a), (b) or (c) or subsection (9) in maximising the effectiveness with which activities within subsection (3) are undertaken.
- (2) In particular, the duty imposed on a person by subsection (1) requires the person—
  - (a) to engage constructively, actively and on an ongoing basis in any process by means of which activities within subsection (3) are undertaken, and
  - (b) to have regard to activities of a person within subsection (9) so far as they are relevant to activities within subsection (3).
- (3) The activities within this subsection are—
  - (a) the preparation of development plan documents,
  - (b) the preparation of other local development documents,
  - (c) the preparation of marine plans under the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009 for the English inshore region, the English offshore region or any part of either of those regions,
  - (d) activities that can reasonably be considered to prepare the way for activities within any of paragraphs (a) to (c) that are, or could be, contemplated, and
  - (e) activities that support activities within any of paragraphs (a) to (c),so far as relating to a strategic matter.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), each of the following is a “strategic matter”—
  - (a) sustainable development or use of land that has or would have a significant impact on at least two planning areas, including (in particular) sustainable development or use of land for or in connection with infrastructure that is strategic and has or would have a significant impact on at least two planning areas, and
  - (b) sustainable development or use of land in a two-tier area if the development or use—
    - (i) is a county matter, or
    - (ii) has or would have a significant impact on a county matter.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/09/2015.

Changes to legislation: Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004, Part 2 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(5) In subsection (4)—

“ county matter ” has the meaning given by paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 to the principal Act (ignoring sub-paragraph 1(1)(i)),

“ planning area ” means—

(a) the area of—

(i) a district council (including a metropolitan district council),

(ii) a London borough council, or

(iii) a county council in England for an area for which there is no district council, but only so far as that area is neither in a National Park nor in the Broads,

(b) a National Park,

(c) the Broads,

(d) the English inshore region, or

(e) the English offshore region, and

“ two-tier area ” means an area—

(a) for which there is a county council and a district council, but

(b) which is not in a National Park.

(6) The engagement required of a person by subsection (2)(a) includes, in particular—

(a) considering whether to consult on and prepare, and enter into and publish, agreements on joint approaches to the undertaking of activities within subsection (3), and

(b) if the person is a local planning authority, considering whether to agree under section 28 to prepare joint local development documents.

(7) A person subject to the duty under subsection (1) must have regard to any guidance given by the Secretary of State about how the duty is to be complied with.

(8) A person, or description of persons, may be prescribed for the purposes of subsection (1)(c) only if the person, or persons of that description, exercise functions for the purposes of an enactment.

(9) A person is within this subsection if the person is a body, or other person, that is prescribed or of a prescribed description.

(10) In this section—

“ the English inshore region ” and “ the English offshore region ” have the same meaning as in the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009, and

“ land ” includes the waters within those regions and the bed and subsoil of those waters. ]
