GENERAL PROVISIONS ABOUT RESOLUTIONS

281 Resolutions

- (1) A resolution of the members (or of a class of members) of a private company must be passed—
 - (a) as a written resolution in accordance with Chapter 2, or
 - (b) at a meeting of the members (to which the provisions of Chapter 3 apply).
- (2) A resolution of the members (or of a class of members) of a public company must be passed at a meeting of the members (to which the provisions of Chapter 3 and, where relevant, Chapter 4 apply).

Status: Point in time view as at 04/01/2024.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 13 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Where a provision of the Companies Acts—
- (a) requires a resolution of a company, or of the members (or a class of members) of a company, and
 - (b) does not specify what kind of resolution is required,
- what is required is an ordinary resolution unless the company's articles require a higher majority (or unanimity).
- (4) Nothing in this Part affects any enactment or rule of law as to—
- (a) things done otherwise than by passing a resolution,
 - (b) circumstances in which a resolution is or is not treated as having been passed, or
 - (c) cases in which a person is precluded from alleging that a resolution has not been duly passed.

282 Ordinary resolutions

- (1) An ordinary resolution of the members (or of a class of members) of a company means a resolution that is passed by a simple majority.
- (2) A written resolution is passed by a simple majority if it is passed by members representing a simple majority of the total voting rights of eligible members (see Chapter 2).
- (3) A resolution passed at a meeting on a show of hands is passed by a simple majority if it is passed by [^{F1}a simple majority of the votes cast by those entitled to vote]
- (4) A resolution passed on a poll taken at a meeting is passed by a simple majority if it is passed by members representing a simple majority of the total voting rights of members who (being entitled to do so) vote [^{F2}in person, by proxy or in advance (see section 322A)] on the resolution.
- (5) Anything that may be done by ordinary resolution may also be done by special resolution.

Textual Amendments

- F1 Words in s. 282(3) substituted (3.8.2009) by The Companies \(Shareholders' Rights\) Regulations 2009 \(S.I. 2009/1632\), reg. 2\(1\) (with application as stated in reg. 1\(2\))

283 Special resolutions

- (1) A special resolution of the members (or of a class of members) of a company means a resolution passed by a majority of not less than 75%.
- (2) A written resolution is passed by a majority of not less than 75% if it is passed by members representing not less than 75% of the total voting rights of eligible members (see Chapter 2).
- (3) Where a resolution of a private company is passed as a written resolution—

Status: Point in time view as at 04/01/2024.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 13 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the resolution is not a special resolution unless it stated that it was proposed as a special resolution, and
 - (b) if the resolution so stated, it may only be passed as a special resolution.
- (4) A resolution passed at a meeting on a show of hands is passed by a majority of not less than 75% if it is passed by [^{F3}not less than 75% of the votes cast by those entitled to vote.]
- (5) A resolution passed on a poll taken at a meeting is passed by a majority of not less than 75% if it is passed by members representing not less than 75% of the total voting rights of the members who (being entitled to do so) vote [^{F4}in person, by proxy or in advance (see section 322A)] on the resolution.
- (6) Where a resolution is passed at a meeting—
- (a) the resolution is not a special resolution unless the notice of the meeting included the text of the resolution and specified the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution, and
 - (b) if the notice of the meeting so specified, the resolution may only be passed as a special resolution.

Textual Amendments

- F3 Words in s. 283(4) substituted (3.8.2009) by The Companies \(Shareholders' Rights\) Regulations 2009 \(S.I. 2009/1632\), reg. 2\(2\) (with application as stated in reg. 1\(2\))
- F4 Words in s. 283(5) substituted (3.8.2009) by The Companies \(Shareholders' Rights\) Regulations 2009 \(S.I. 2009/1632\), reg. 5\(2\) (with application as stated in reg. 1\(2\))

284 Votes: general rules

- (1) On a vote on a written resolution—
- (a) in the case of a company having a share capital, every member has one vote in respect of each share or each £10 of stock held by him, and
 - (b) in any other case, every member has one vote.
- [^{F5}(2) On a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a meeting, each member present in person has one vote.]
- (3) On a vote on a resolution on a poll taken at a meeting—
- (a) in the case of a company having a share capital, every member has one vote in respect of each share or each £10 of stock held by him, and
 - (b) in any other case, every member has one vote.
- (4) The provisions of this section have effect subject to any provision of the company's articles.
- [^{F6}(5) Nothing in this section is to be read as restricting the effect of—section 152 (exercise of rights by nominees), section 285 (voting by proxy),
section 322 (exercise of voting rights on poll), section 322A (voting on a poll: votes cast in advance), or section 323 (representation of corporations at meetings).]

Status: Point in time view as at 04/01/2024.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 13 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Textual Amendments

- F5 S. 284(2) substituted (3.8.2009) by The Companies \(Shareholders' Rights\) Regulations 2009 \(S.I. 2009/1632\), reg. 2\(3\) (with application as stated in reg. 1\(2\))
- F6 S. 284(5) added (3.8.2009) by The Companies \(Shareholders' Rights\) Regulations 2009 \(S.I. 2009/1632\), reg. 2\(4\) (with application as stated in reg. 1\(2\))

[^{F7}285 Voting by proxy

- (1) On a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a meeting, every proxy present who has been duly appointed by one or more members entitled to vote on the resolution has one vote. This is subject to subsection (2).
- (2) On a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a meeting, a proxy has one vote for and one vote against the resolution if—
 - (a) the proxy has been duly appointed by more than one member entitled to vote on the resolution, and
 - (b) the proxy has been instructed by one or more of those members to vote for the resolution and by one or more other of those members to vote against it.
- (3) On a poll taken at a meeting of a company all or any of the voting rights of a member may be exercised by one or more duly appointed proxies.
- (4) Where a member appoints more than one proxy, subsection (3) does not authorise the exercise by the proxies taken together of more extensive voting rights than could be exercised by the member in person.
- (5) Subsections (1) and (2) have effect subject to any provision of the company's articles.]

Textual Amendments

- F7 Ss. 285, 285A substituted for s. 285 (3.8.2009) by The Companies \(Shareholders' Rights\) Regulations 2009 \(S.I. 2009/1632\), reg. 3 (with application as stated in reg. 1\(2\))

[^{F8}285A Voting rights on poll or written resolution

In relation to a resolution required or authorised by an enactment, if a private company's articles provide that a member has a different number of votes in relation to a resolution when it is passed as a written resolution and when it is passed on a poll taken at a meeting—

- (a) the provision about how many votes a member has in relation to the resolution passed on a poll is void, and
- (b) a member has the same number of votes in relation to the resolution when it is passed on a poll as the member has when it is passed as a written resolution.]

Textual Amendments

- F8 Ss. 285, 285A substituted for s. 285 (3.8.2009) by The Companies \(Shareholders' Rights\) Regulations 2009 \(S.I. 2009/1632\), reg. 3 (with application as stated in reg. 1\(2\))

Status: Point in time view as at 04/01/2024.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 13 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

286 Votes of joint holders of shares

- (1) In the case of joint holders of shares of a company, only the vote of the senior holder who votes (and any proxies duly authorised by him) may be counted by the company.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the senior holder of a share is determined by the order in which the names of the joint holders appear in the register of members [^{F9} [^{F10} (or, if an election under section 128B is in force in respect of the company, in the register kept by the registrar under section 1080)]]].
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) have effect subject to any provision of the company's articles.

Textual Amendments

- F9 Words in s. 286(2) omitted (26.10.2023 but only so far as it confers a power to make regulations or relates to the exercise of the power, otherwise prosp.) by virtue of Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023 \(c. 56\), s. 219(1)(2)(b), Sch. 1 para. 5
- F10 Words in s. 286(2) inserted (30.6.2016) by Small Business, Enterprise and Employment Act 2015 \(c. 26\), s. 164(1), Sch. 5 para. 16; S.I. 2016/321, reg. 6(c)

287 Saving for provisions of articles as to determination of entitlement to vote

Nothing in this Chapter affects—

- (a) any provision of a company's articles—
 - (i) requiring an objection to a person's entitlement to vote on a resolution to be made in accordance with the articles, and
 - (ii) for the determination of any such objection to be final and conclusive,or
- (b) the grounds on which such a determination may be questioned in legal proceedings.

CHAPTER 2

WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

General provisions about written resolutions

288 Written resolutions of private companies

- (1) In the Companies Acts a “written resolution” means a resolution of a private company proposed and passed in accordance with this Chapter.
- (2) The following may not be passed as a written resolution—
 - (a) a resolution under section 168 removing a director before the expiration of his period of office;
 - (b) a resolution under section 510 removing an auditor before the expiration of his term of office.
- (3) A resolution may be proposed as a written resolution—
 - (a) by the directors of a private company (see section 291), or

Status: Point in time view as at 04/01/2024.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 13 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) by the members of a private company (see sections 292 to 295).
- (4) References in enactments passed or made before this Chapter comes into force to—
- (a) a resolution of a company in general meeting, or
 - (b) a resolution of a meeting of a class of members of the company,
- have effect as if they included references to a written resolution of the members, or of a class of members, of a private company (as appropriate).
- (5) A written resolution of a private company has effect as if passed (as the case may be)—
- (a) by the company in general meeting, or
 - (b) by a meeting of a class of members of the company,
- and references in enactments passed or made before this section comes into force to a meeting at which a resolution is passed or to members voting in favour of a resolution shall be construed accordingly.

291 Circulation of written resolutions proposed by directors

- (1) This section applies to a resolution proposed as a written resolution by the directors of the company.
- (2) The company must send or submit a copy of the resolution to every eligible member.
- (3) The company must do so—
 - (a) by sending copies at the same time (so far as reasonably practicable) to all eligible members in hard copy form, in electronic form or by means of a website, or
 - (b) if it is possible to do so without undue delay, by submitting the same copy to each eligible member in turn (or different copies to each of a number of eligible members in turn),or by sending copies to some members in accordance with paragraph (a) and submitting a copy or copies to other members in accordance with paragraph (b).
- (4) The copy of the resolution must be accompanied by a statement informing the member—
 - (a) how to signify agreement to the resolution (see section 296), and
 - (b) as to the date by which the resolution must be passed if it is not to lapse (see section 297).
- (5) In the event of default in complying with this section, an offence is committed by every officer of the company who is in default.
- (6) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to a fine;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum.
- (7) The validity of the resolution, if passed, is not affected by a failure to comply with this section.

292 Members' power to require circulation of written resolution

- (1) The members of a private company may require the company to circulate a resolution that may properly be moved and is proposed to be moved as a written resolution.
- (2) Any resolution may properly be moved as a written resolution unless—

Status: Point in time view as at 04/01/2024.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 13 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) it would, if passed, be ineffective (whether by reason of inconsistency with any enactment or the company's constitution or otherwise),
 - (b) it is defamatory of any person, or
 - (c) it is frivolous or vexatious.
- (3) Where the members require a company to circulate a resolution they may require the company to circulate with it a statement of not more than 1,000 words on the subject matter of the resolution.
- (4) A company is required to circulate the resolution and any accompanying statement once it has received requests that it do so from members representing not less than the requisite percentage of the total voting rights of all members entitled to vote on the resolution.
- (5) The “requisite percentage” is 5% or such lower percentage as is specified for this purpose in the company's articles.
- (6) A request—
- (a) may be in hard copy form or in electronic form,
 - (b) must identify the resolution and any accompanying statement, and
 - (c) must be authenticated by the person or persons making it.

293 Circulation of written resolution proposed by members

- (1) A company that is required under section 292 to circulate a resolution must send or submit to every eligible member—
- (a) a copy of the resolution, and
 - (b) a copy of any accompanying statement.

This is subject to section 294(2) (deposit or tender of sum in respect of expenses of circulation) and section 295 (application not to circulate members' statement).

- (2) The company must do so—
- (a) by sending copies at the same time (so far as reasonably practicable) to all eligible members in hard copy form, in electronic form or by means of a website, or
 - (b) if it is possible to do so without undue delay, by submitting the same copy to each eligible member in turn (or different copies to each of a number of eligible members in turn),
- or by sending copies to some members in accordance with paragraph (a) and submitting a copy or copies to other members in accordance with paragraph (b).
- (3) The company must send or submit the copies (or, if copies are sent or submitted to members on different days, the first of those copies) not more than 21 days after it becomes subject to the requirement under section 292 to circulate the resolution.
- (4) The copy of the resolution must be accompanied by guidance as to—

Agreeing to written resolutions

296 Procedure for signifying agreement to written resolution

- (1) A member signifies his agreement to a proposed written resolution when the company receives from him (or from someone acting on his behalf) an authenticated document—
 - (a) identifying the resolution to which it relates, and
 - (b) indicating his agreement to the resolution.
- (2) The document must be sent to the company in hard copy form or in electronic form.
- (3) A member's agreement to a written resolution, once signified, may not be revoked.
- (4) A written resolution is passed when the required majority of eligible members have signified their agreement to it.

Commencement Information

305 Power of members to call meeting at company's expense

- (1) If the directors—
 - (a) are required under section 303 to call a meeting, and
 - (b) do not do so in accordance with section 304,the members who requested the meeting, or any of them representing more than one half of the total voting rights of all of them, may themselves call a general meeting.
- (2) Where the requests received by the company included the text of a resolution intended to be moved at the meeting, the notice of the meeting must include notice of the resolution.

Status: Point in time view as at 04/01/2024.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 13 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The meeting must be called for a date not more than three months after the date on which the directors become subject to the requirement to call a meeting.
- (4) The meeting must be called in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings are required to be called by directors of the company.
- (5) The business which may be dealt with at the meeting includes a resolution of which notice is given in accordance with this section.
- (6) Any reasonable expenses incurred by the members requesting the meeting by reason of the failure of the directors duly to call a meeting must be reimbursed by the company.
- (7) Any sum so reimbursed shall be retained by the company out of any sums due or to become due from the company by way of fees or other remuneration in respect of the services of such of the directors as were in default.

306 Power of court to order meeting

- (1) This section applies if for any reason it is impracticable—
 - (a) to call a meeting of a company in any manner in which meetings of that company may be called, or
 - (b) to conduct the meeting in the manner prescribed by the company's articles or this Act.
- (2) The court may, either of its own motion or on the application—
 - (a) of a director of the company, or
 - (b) of a member of the company who would be entitled to vote at the meeting, order a meeting to be called, held and conducted in any manner the court thinks fit.
- (3) Where such an order is made, the court may give such ancillary or consequential directions as it thinks expedient.
- (4) Such directions may include a direction that one member of the company present at the meeting be deemed to constitute a quorum.
- (5) A meeting called, held and conducted in accordance with an order under this section is deemed for all purposes to be a meeting of the company duly called, held and conducted.

Notice of meetings

307 Notice required of general meeting

[^{F13}(A1) This section applies to—

- (a) a general meeting of a company that is not a traded company; and
- (b) a general meeting of a traded company that is an opted-in company (as defined by section 971(1)), where—
 - (i) the meeting is held to decide whether to take any action that might result in the frustration of a takeover bid for the company; or
 - (ii) the meeting is held by virtue of section 969 (power of offeror to require general meeting to be held).

(A2) For corresponding provision(s) in relation to general meetings of traded companies (other than meetings within subsection (A1)(b)), see section 307A.]

- (1) A general meeting of a private company (other than an adjourned meeting) must be called by notice of at least 14 days.
- (2) A general meeting of a public company (other than an adjourned meeting) must be called by notice of—
 - (a) in the case of an annual general meeting, at least 21 days, and
 - (b) in any other case, at least 14 days.
- (3) The company's articles may require a longer period of notice than that specified in subsection (1) or (2).
- (4) A general meeting may be called by shorter notice than that otherwise required if shorter notice is agreed by the members.
- (5) The shorter notice must be agreed to by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority who—
 - (a) together hold not less than the requisite percentage in nominal value of the shares giving a right to attend and vote at the meeting (excluding any shares in the company held as treasury shares), or
 - (b) in the case of a company not having a share capital, together represent not less than the requisite percentage of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the members.
- (6) The requisite percentage is—
 - (a) in the case of a private company, 90% or such higher percentage (not exceeding 95%) as may be specified in the company's articles;
 - (b) in the case of a public company, 95%.
- (7) Subsections (5) and (6) do not apply to an annual general meeting of a public company (see instead section 337(2)).

[^{F14}307A] Notice required of general meeting: certain meetings of traded companies

- (1) A general meeting of a traded company must be called by notice of—
 - (a) in a case where conditions A to C (set out below) are met, at least 14 days;
 - (b) in any other case, at least 21 days.
- (2) Condition A is that the general meeting is not an annual general meeting.
- (3) Condition B is that the company offers the facility for members to vote by electronic means accessible to all members who hold shares that carry rights to vote at general meetings. This condition is met if there is a facility, offered by the company and accessible to all such members, to appoint a proxy by means of a website.
- (4) Condition C is that a special resolution reducing the period of notice to not less than 14 days has been passed—
 - (a) at the immediately preceding annual general meeting, or
 - (b) at a general meeting held since that annual general meeting.
- (5) In the case of a company which has not yet held an annual general meeting, condition C is that a special resolution reducing the period of notice to not less than 14 days has been passed at a general meeting.
- (6) The company's articles may require a longer period of notice than that specified in subsection (1).
- (7) Where a general meeting is adjourned, the adjourned meeting may be called by shorter notice than required by subsection (1). But in the case of an adjournment for lack of a quorum this subsection applies only if—
 - (a) no business is to be dealt with at the adjourned meeting the general nature of which was not stated in the notice of the original meeting, and
 - (b) the adjourned meeting is to be held at least 10 days after the original meeting.
- (8) Nothing in this section applies in relation to a general meeting of a kind mentioned in section 307(A1)(b) (certain meetings regarding takeover of opted-in company).]

Members' statements

314 Members' power to require circulation of statements

- (1) The members of a company may require the company to circulate, to members of the company entitled to receive notice of a general meeting, a statement of not more than 1,000 words with respect to—
- (a) a matter referred to in a proposed resolution to be dealt with at that meeting, or
 - (b) other business to be dealt with at that meeting.
- (2) A company is required to circulate a statement once it has received requests to do so from—
- (a) members representing at least 5% of the total voting rights of all the members who have a relevant right to vote (excluding any voting rights attached to any shares in the company held as treasury shares), or
 - (b) at least 100 members who have a relevant right to vote and hold shares in the company on which there has been paid up an average sum, per member, of at least £100.

See also section 153 (exercise of rights where shares held on behalf of others).

- (3) In subsection (2), a “relevant right to vote” means—
- (a) in relation to a statement with respect to a matter referred to in a proposed resolution, a right to vote on that resolution at the meeting to which the requests relate, and
 - (b) in relation to any other statement, a right to vote at the meeting to which the requests relate.
- (4) A request—
- (a) may be in hard copy form or in electronic form,
 - (b) must identify the statement to be circulated,
 - (c) must be authenticated by the person or persons making it, and
 - (d) must be received by the company at least one week before the meeting to which it relates.

315 Company's duty to circulate members' statement

- (1) A company that is required under section 314, to circulate a statement must send a copy of it to each member of the company entitled to receive notice of the meeting—
 - (a) in the same manner as the notice of the meeting, and
 - (b) at the same time as, or as soon as reasonably practicable after, it gives notice of the meeting.
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect subject to section 316(2) (deposit or tender of sum in respect of expenses of circulation) and section 317 (application not to circulate members' statement).
- (3) In the event of default in complying with this section, an offence is committed by every officer of the company who is in default.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to a fine;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum.

316 Expenses of circulating members' statement

- (1) The expenses of the company in complying with section 315 need not be paid by the members who requested the circulation of the statement if—
 - (a) the meeting to which the requests relate is an annual general meeting of a public company, and
 - (b) requests sufficient to require the company to circulate the statement are received before the end of the financial year preceding the meeting.
- (2) Otherwise—
 - (a) the expenses of the company in complying with that section must be paid by the members who requested the circulation of the statement unless the company resolves otherwise, and
 - (b) unless the company has previously so resolved, it is not bound to comply with that section unless there is deposited with or tendered to it, not later than one week before the meeting, a sum reasonably sufficient to meet its expenses in doing so.

329 Right of proxy to demand a poll

- (1) The appointment of a proxy to vote on a matter at a meeting of a company authorises the proxy to demand, or join in demanding, a poll on that matter.
- (2) In applying the provisions of section 321(2) (requirements for effective demand), a demand by a proxy counts—
 - (a) for the purposes of paragraph (a), as a demand by the member;
 - (b) for the purposes of paragraph (b), as a demand by a member representing the voting rights that the proxy is authorised to exercise;
 - (c) for the purposes of paragraph (c), as a demand by a member holding the shares to which those rights are attached.

330 Notice required of termination of proxy's authority

[^{F28}(A1) In the case of a traded company the termination of the authority of a person to act as proxy must be notified to the company in writing.]

- (1) [^{F29}The following provisions apply in the case of traded companies and other companies as regards] notice that the authority of a person to act as proxy is terminated (“notice of termination”).
- (2) The termination of the authority of a person to act as proxy does not affect—
 - (a) whether he counts in deciding whether there is a quorum at a meeting,
 - (b) the validity of anything he does as chairman of a meeting, or
 - (c) the validity of a poll demanded by him at a meeting, unless the company receives notice of the termination before the commencement of the meeting.
- (3) The termination of the authority of a person to act as proxy does not affect the validity of a vote given by that person unless the company receives notice of the termination—
 - (a) before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given, or
 - (b) in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it is demanded, before the time appointed for taking the poll.
- (4) If the company's articles require or permit members to give notice of termination to a person other than the company, the references above to the company receiving notice have effect as if they were or (as the case may be) included a reference to that person.

Status: Point in time view as at 04/01/2024.

- (5) Subsections (2) and (3) have effect subject to any provision of the company's articles which has the effect of requiring notice of termination to be received by the company or another person at a time earlier than that specified in those subsections.

This is subject to subsection (6).

- (6) Any provision of the company's articles is void in so far as it would have the effect of requiring notice of termination to be received by the company or another person earlier than the following time—
- (a) in the case of a meeting or adjourned meeting, 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting;
 - (b) in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it was demanded, 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll;
 - ^{F30}(c)
- (7) In calculating the periods mentioned in subsections (3)(b) and (6) no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day.

Application to class meetings

334 Application to class meetings

- (1) The provisions of this Chapter apply (with necessary modifications) in relation to a meeting of holders of a class of shares as they apply in relation to a general meeting.
This is subject to subsections [^{F32}(2) to (3)].
- (2) The following provisions of this Chapter do not apply in relation to a meeting of holders of a class of shares—
 - (a) sections 303 to 305 (members' power to require directors to call general meeting), ^{F33} . . .
 - (b) section 306 (power of court to order meeting)^{F34}, and
 - (c) sections 311(3), 311A, 319A, 327(A1), 330(A1) and 333A (additional requirements relating to traded companies).]
- [^{F35}(2A) Section 307(1) to (6) apply in relation to a meeting of holders of a class of shares in a traded company as they apply in relation to a meeting of holders of a class of shares in a company other than a traded company (and, accordingly, section 307A does not apply in relation to such a meeting).]
- (3) The following provisions (in addition to those mentioned in subsection (2)) do not apply in relation to a meeting in connection with the variation of rights attached to a class of shares (a “variation of class rights meeting”)—
 - (a) section 318 (quorum), and
 - (b) section 321 (right to demand a poll).
- (4) The quorum for a variation of class rights meeting is—
 - (a) for a meeting other than an adjourned meeting, two persons present holding at least one-third in nominal value of the issued shares of the class in question (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares);
 - (b) for an adjourned meeting, one person present holding shares of the class in question.

Independent report on poll

342 Members' power to require independent report on poll

- (1) The members of a quoted company may require the directors to obtain an independent report on any poll taken, or to be taken, at a general meeting of the company.
- (2) The directors are required to obtain an independent report if they receive requests to do so from—
 - (a) members representing not less than 5% of the total voting rights of all the members who have a right to vote on the matter to which the poll relates (excluding any voting rights attached to any shares in the company held as treasury shares), or
 - (b) not less than 100 members who have a right to vote on the matter to which the poll relates and hold shares in the company on which there has been paid up an average sum, per member, of not less than £100.

See also section 153 (exercise of rights where shares held on behalf of others).

- (3) Where the requests relate to more than one poll, subsection (2) must be satisfied in relation to each of them.
- (4) A request—
 - (a) may be in hard copy form or in electronic form,
 - (b) must identify the poll or polls to which it relates,
 - (c) must be authenticated by the person or persons making it, and
 - (d) must be received by the company not later than one week after the date on which the poll is taken.

343 Appointment of independent assessor

- (1) Directors who are required under section 342 to obtain an independent report on a poll or polls must appoint a person they consider to be appropriate (an “independent assessor”) to prepare a report for the company on it or them.
- (2) The appointment must be made within one week after the company being required to obtain the report.
- (3) The directors must not appoint a person who—
 - (a) does not meet the independence requirement in section 344, or
 - (b) has another role in relation to any poll on which he is to report (including, in particular, a role in connection with collecting or counting votes or with the appointment of proxies).
- (4) In the event of default in complying with this section, an offence is committed by every officer of the company who is in default.
- (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) If at the meeting no poll on which a report is required is taken—
- (a) the directors are not required to obtain a report from the independent assessor, and
 - (b) his appointment ceases (but without prejudice to any right to be paid for work done before the appointment ceased).

344 Independence requirement

- (1) A person may not be appointed as an independent assessor—
- (a) if he is—
 - (i) an officer or employee of the company, or
 - (ii) a partner or employee of such a person, or a partnership of which such a person is a partner;
 - (b) if he is—
 - (i) an officer or employee of an associated undertaking of the company, or
 - (ii) a partner or employee of such a person, or a partnership of which such a person is a partner;
 - (c) if there exists between—
 - (i) the person or an associate of his, and
 - (ii) the company or an associated undertaking of the company,a connection of any such description as may be specified by regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (2) An auditor of the company is not regarded as an officer or employee of the company for this purpose.
- (3) In this section—
- “associated undertaking” means—
 - (a) a parent undertaking or subsidiary undertaking of the company, or
 - (b) a subsidiary undertaking of a parent undertaking of the company; and“associate” has the meaning given by section 345.
- (4) Regulations under this section are subject to negative resolution procedure.

- (b) any body corporate of which that individual is a director, and
 - (c) any employee or partner of that individual.
- (3) In relation to a body corporate, “associate” means—
- (a) any body corporate of which that body is a director,
 - (b) any body corporate in the same group as that body, and
 - (c) any employee or partner of that body or of any body corporate in the same group.
- (4) In relation to a partnership that is a legal person under the law by which it is governed, “associate” means—
- (a) any body corporate of which that partnership is a director,
 - (b) any employee of or partner in that partnership, and
 - (c) any person who is an associate of a partner in that partnership.
- (5) In relation to a partnership that is not a legal person under the law by which it is governed, “associate” means any person who is an associate of any of the partners.
- (6) In this section, in relation to a limited liability partnership, for “director” read “member”.

346 Effect of appointment of a partnership

- (1) This section applies where a partnership that is not a legal person under the law by which it is governed is appointed as an independent assessor.
- (2) Unless a contrary intention appears, the appointment is of the partnership as such and not of the partners.
- (3) Where the partnership ceases, the appointment is to be treated as extending to—
- (a) any partnership that succeeds to the practice of that partnership, or
 - (b) any other person who succeeds to that practice having previously carried it on in partnership.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)—
- (a) a partnership is regarded as succeeding to the practice of another partnership only if the members of the successor partnership are substantially the same as those of the former partnership, and
 - (b) a partnership or other person is regarded as succeeding to the practice of a partnership only if it or he succeeds to the whole or substantially the whole of the business of the former partnership.
- (5) Where the partnership ceases and the appointment is not treated under subsection (3) as extending to any partnership or other person, the appointment may with the consent of the company be treated as extending to a partnership, or other person, who succeeds to—
- (a) the business of the former partnership, or
 - (b) such part of it as is agreed by the company is to be treated as comprising the appointment.

347 The independent assessor's report

- (1) The report of the independent assessor must state his opinion whether—

- (a) the procedures adopted in connection with the poll or polls were adequate;
 - (b) the votes cast (including proxy votes) were fairly and accurately recorded and counted;
 - (c) the validity of members' appointments of proxies was fairly assessed;
 - (d) the notice of the meeting complied with section 325 (notice of meeting to contain statement of rights to appoint proxy);
 - (e) section 326 (company-sponsored invitations to appoint proxies) was complied with in relation to the meeting.
- (2) The report must give his reasons for the opinions stated.
- (3) If he is unable to form an opinion on any of those matters, the report must record that fact and state the reasons for it.
- (4) The report must state the name of the independent assessor.

348 Rights of independent assessor: right to attend meeting etc

- (1) Where an independent assessor has been appointed to report on a poll, he is entitled to attend—
- (a) the meeting at which the poll may be taken, and
 - (b) any subsequent proceedings in connection with the poll.
- (2) He is also entitled to be provided by the company with a copy of—
- (a) the notice of the meeting, and
 - (b) any other communication provided by the company in connection with the meeting to persons who have a right to vote on the matter to which the poll relates.
- (3) The rights conferred by this section are only to be exercised to the extent that the independent assessor considers necessary for the preparation of his report.
- (4) If the independent assessor is a firm, the right under subsection (1) to attend the meeting and any subsequent proceedings in connection with the poll is exercisable by an individual authorised by the firm in writing to act as its representative for that purpose.

349 Rights of independent assessor: right to information

- (1) The independent assessor is entitled to access to the company's records relating to—
- (a) any poll on which he is to report;
 - (b) the meeting at which the poll or polls may be, or were, taken.
- (2) The independent assessor may require anyone who at any material time was—
- (a) a director or secretary of the company,
 - (b) an employee of the company,
 - (c) a person holding or accountable for any of the company's records,
 - (d) a member of the company, or
 - (e) an agent of the company,
- to provide him with information or explanations for the purpose of preparing his report.

Status: Point in time view as at 04/01/2024.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 13 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 September 2024. - (3) For this purpose “agent” includes the company's bankers, solicitors and auditor.
- (4) A statement made by a person in response to a requirement under this section may not be used in evidence against him in criminal proceedings except proceedings for an offence under section 350 (offences relating to provision of information).
- (5) A person is not required by this section to disclose information in respect of which a claim to legal professional privilege (in Scotland, to confidentiality of communications) could be maintained in legal proceedings.

350 Offences relating to provision of information

- (1) A person who fails to comply with a requirement under section 349 without delay commits an offence unless it was not reasonably practicable for him to provide the required information or explanation.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.
- (3) A person commits an offence who knowingly or recklessly makes to an independent assessor a statement (oral or written) that—
 - (a) conveys or purports to convey any information or explanations which the independent assessor requires, or is entitled to require, under section 349, and
 - (b) is misleading, false or deceptive in a material particular.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (3) is liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on summary conviction—
 - (i) in England and Wales, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both);
 - (ii) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both).
- (5) Nothing in this section affects any right of an independent assessor to apply for an injunction (in Scotland, an interdict or an order for specific performance) to enforce any of his rights under section 348 or 349.

351 Information to be made available on website

- (1) Where an independent assessor has been appointed to report on a poll, the company must ensure that the following information is made available on a website—
 - (a) the fact of his appointment,
 - (b) his identity,
 - (c) the text of the resolution or, as the case may be, a description of the subject matter of the poll to which his appointment relates, and
 - (d) a copy of a report by him which complies with section 347.
- (2) The provisions of section 353 (requirements as to website availability) apply.

Status: Point in time view as at 04/01/2024.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 13 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 September 2024. - (3) In the event of default in complying with this section (or with the requirements of section 353 as it applies for the purposes of this section), an offence is committed by every officer of the company who is in default.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (3) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.
- (5) Failure to comply with this section (or the requirements of section 353) does not affect the validity of—
 - (a) the poll, or
 - (b) the resolution or other business (if passed or agreed to) to which the poll relates.

Supplementary

352 Application of provisions to class meetings

- [^{F49}(1) The provisions of section 341 (results of poll to be made available on website) apply (with any necessary modifications) in relation to a meeting of holders of a class of shares of a quoted company or traded company in connection with the variation of the rights attached to such shares as they apply in relation to a general meeting of the company.
- (1A) The provisions of section 342 to 351 (independent report on poll) apply (with any necessary modifications) in relation to a meeting of holders of a class of shares of a quoted company in connection with the variation of the rights attached to such shares as they apply in relation to a general meeting of the company.]
- (2) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) any amendment of a provision contained in a company's articles for the variation of the rights attached to a class of shares, or the insertion of any such provision into the articles, is itself to be treated as a variation of those rights, and
 - (b) references to the variation of rights attached to a class of shares include references to their abrogation.

Textual Amendments

- (3) Access to the information on the website, and the ability to obtain a hard copy of the information from the website, must not be conditional on the payment of a fee or otherwise restricted.
- (4) The information—
 - (a) must be made available as soon as reasonably practicable, and
 - (b) must be kept available throughout the period of two years beginning with the date on which it is first made available on a website in accordance with this section.
- (5) A failure to make information available on a website throughout the period specified in subsection (4)(b) is disregarded if—
 - (a) the information is made available on the website for part of that period, and
 - (b) the failure is wholly attributable to circumstances that it would not be reasonable to have expected the company to prevent or avoid.

354 Power to limit or extend the types of company to which provisions of this Chapter apply

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
 - (a) limit the types of company to which some or all of the provisions of this Chapter apply, or
 - (b) extend some or all of the provisions of this Chapter to additional types of company.
- (2) Regulations under this section extending the application of any provision of this Chapter are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
- (3) Any other regulations under this section are subject to negative resolution procedure.
- (4) Regulations under this section may—
 - (a) amend the provisions of this Chapter (apart from this section);
 - (b) repeal and re-enact provisions of this Chapter with modifications of form or arrangement, whether or not they are modified in substance;
 - (c) contain such consequential, incidental and supplementary provisions (including provisions amending, repealing or revoking enactments) as the Secretary of State thinks fit.

CHAPTER 6

RECORDS OF RESOLUTIONS AND MEETINGS

355 Records of resolutions and meetings etc

- (1) Every company must keep records comprising—
 - (a) copies of all resolutions of members passed otherwise than at general meetings,
 - (b) minutes of all proceedings of general meetings, and
 - (c) details provided to the company in accordance with section 357 (decisions of sole member).
- (2) The records must be kept for at least ten years from the date of the resolution, meeting or decision (as appropriate).
- (3) If a company fails to comply with this section, an offence is committed by every officer of the company who is in default.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.

356 Records as evidence of resolutions etc

- (1) This section applies to the records kept in accordance with section 355.
- (2) The record of a resolution passed otherwise than at a general meeting, if purporting to be signed by a director of the company or by the company secretary, is evidence (in Scotland, sufficient evidence) of the passing of the resolution.
- (3) Where there is a record of a written resolution of a private company, the requirements of this Act with respect to the passing of the resolution are deemed to be complied with unless the contrary is proved.
- (4) The minutes of proceedings of a general meeting, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of that meeting or by the chairman of the next general meeting, are evidence (in Scotland, sufficient evidence) of the proceedings at the meeting.
- (5) Where there is a record of proceedings of a general meeting of a company, then, until the contrary is proved—
 - (a) the meeting is deemed duly held and convened,
 - (b) all proceedings at the meeting are deemed to have duly taken place, and
 - (c) all appointments at the meeting are deemed valid.

357 Records of decisions by sole member

- (1) This section applies to a company limited by shares or by guarantee that has only one member.
- (2) Where the member takes any decision that—
 - (a) may be taken by the company in general meeting, and
 - (b) has effect as if agreed by the company in general meeting,
