Electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement: general

- 47 Where a youth rehabilitation order imposes an electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement, the offender must (in particular)—
- (a) submit, as required from time to time by the responsible officer or the person responsible for the monitoring, to—
 - (i) being fitted with, or installation of, any necessary apparatus, and
 - (ii) inspection or repair of any apparatus fitted or installed for the purposes of the monitoring,
 - (b) not interfere with, or with the working of, any apparatus fitted or installed for the purposes of the monitoring, and
 - (c) take any steps required by the responsible officer, or the person responsible for the monitoring, for the purpose of keeping in working order any apparatus fitted or installed for the purposes of the monitoring.

Restrictions on imposing electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement

- 48 (1) Where—
- (a) it is proposed to include an electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement in a youth rehabilitation order, but
 - (b) there is a person (other than the offender) without whose cooperation it will not be practicable to secure the monitoring,
- the requirement may not be included in the order without that person’s consent.
- (2) A court may not include an electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement in a youth rehabilitation order in respect of an offender unless—
- (a) the court has been notified by the Secretary of State that electronic monitoring arrangements are available in the local justice area proposed to be specified in the order (and the notice has not been withdrawn),
 - (b) the court is satisfied that—
 - (i) the offender can be fitted with any necessary apparatus under the arrangements currently available, and
 - (ii) any other necessary provision can be made under those arrangements, and
 - (c) the court is satisfied that arrangements are generally operational throughout England and Wales (even if not always operational everywhere there) under which the offender’s whereabouts can be electronically monitored.”
