311 Provision of information about competition in connection with motor fuel

- (1) The CMA may require an undertaking involved in, or connected with, the distribution, supply or retail of motor fuel (“U”) to give specified information to it where it considers that the information would assist the CMA in—
- (a) assessing competition in the United Kingdom in connection with the retail of motor fuel;
  - (b) publishing information about competition in the United Kingdom in connection with the retail of motor fuel;
  - (c) making proposals, or giving information or advice, to the Secretary of State about the need for, or the potential for, action to be taken (whether by the Secretary of State or another person) and what that action should be for the purposes of—
    - (i) increasing competition in the United Kingdom in connection with the retail of motor fuel;
    - (ii) benefiting consumers of motor fuel;
  - (d) assessing the effectiveness of any action taken as a result of proposals made, or information or advice given, under paragraph \(c\).
- (2) The power conferred by subsection \(1\) is to be exercised by giving U a notice (an “information notice”).

- (3) R may consider that it would not be appropriate to assist O unless O undertakes to make such contribution as R considers appropriate towards the cost of R doing so.
- (4) R must consider that it would not be appropriate to assist O where any of subsections \(5\) to \(8\) apply.
- (5) This subsection applies where R considers that—
  - (a) a person or body in the country or territory of O (whether or not O) would not provide corresponding or substantially similar assistance to R, unless R considers that there is an overriding public benefit to the United Kingdom in assisting O;
  - (b) assisting O would be contrary to the public interest.

  - (b) R does not have reasonable grounds for suspecting that there has, or may have, been a breach of the law of the country or territory of O which appears to R to make provision corresponding or similar to the relevant UK law in question.
- (9) For the purposes of subsection \(8\)\(b\), R is to regard as conclusive a certificate issued by O as to whether there has, or may have, been a breach of the law of the country or territory of O.

  - (b) it would be more appropriate, in relation to the matter in respect of which R's assistance is requested, for—
    - (i) any of R's powers under the relevant enactment concerned to be exercised solely on behalf of R (and not by virtue of this Chapter), or
    - (ii) for functions to be exercised by another person or body in the United Kingdom or in a country or territory other than the country or territory of O;
  - (c) R assisting O would be contrary to the public interest.
- (6) In authorising R to assist O, the Secretary of State may impose conditions on R doing so.
- (7) The conditions that may be imposed include conditions—

- (d) whether a person or body in that country or territory would assist the public authority in a way that corresponds or is substantially similar to the assistance that it is proposed the public authority give to the overseas public authority by making the disclosure.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, protection is appropriate if it provides protection in relation to the matter in question which corresponds or is substantially similar to that so provided in any part of the United Kingdom.

- (a) alter any consideration for the time being included in those subsections;
  - (b) add further considerations;
  - (c) remove any considerations.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (5) are to be made by statutory instrument and are subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”
