PART V

PUBLIC UTILITY UNDERTAKINGS

36 Duty of public utility undertakers to make reports.

- (1) It shall be the duty of all public utility undertakers, not later than one month from the passing of this Act, to make a report in writing to the appropriate department stating what measures they have taken or are taking or proposing to take to secure that all persons employed by them are trained as respects the routine to be followed in the event of an air-raid and that a suitable proportion of those persons are trained and equipped to give first aid treatment, to deal with the effects of gas, and to fight fires.
- (2) Subject to the special provisions of this Part of this Act as to railway undertakings, the appropriate department may serve a notice in writing on any public utility undertakers requiring them to make, in addition to the report required by the preceding subsection, either or both of the following reports in writing, that is to say,—
 - (a) a report stating what measures they have taken or are taking or proposing to take to provide air-raid shelter for the persons employed by them; and
 - (b) a report stating what measures they have taken or are taking or proposing to take to secure the due functioning of their undertaking in the event of hostile attack, and on receipt of such notice it shall be the duty of the undertakers forthwith to comply with its requirements:

...^{F2}

- (3) If any undertakers fail to make a report which they are required to make under this section, they shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F3}level 3 on the standard scale], and, if the failure in respect of which they were so convicted continues after the conviction, they shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds for each day on which the failure so continues.

62 Power of local authorities and public utility undertakers to appropriate lands and buildings for purposes of civil defence.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section—
 - (a) any local authority having any civil defence functions or any public utility undertakers who have been served with a notice under Part V of this Act may (without any formal appropriation thereof) use any lands or buildings owned by, leased to or under the control of the authority or undertakers for the purpose of discharging any of those functions, or taking measures specified in the notice as the case may be, and
 - (b) any local authority . . . ^{F11} may permit any other local authority having any civil defence functions to use, for the purpose of discharging any of those functions, any lands or buildings owned by, leased to or under the control of the first-mentioned authority, and the provisions of this subsection shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in any Act (including a local or private Act) or any trust or covenant or restriction affecting the use of those lands or buildings.

90 Other provisions as to interpretation.

- (1) In this Act, except where the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:-

“Air-raid shelter” means protection, otherwise than by war-like means or by any article of apparel, from hostile attack from the air, and “an air-raid shelter” means any premises, structure or excavation used or intended to be used to provide air-raid shelter;

“Appropriate department” means—

- (a) in relation to any railway, canal, inland navigation, dock or harbour undertaking, the Minister of Transport;
- (b) in relation to any gas undertaking, the Board of Trade;
- (c) in relation to any electricity undertaking, [^{F28}the Secretary of State]; and
- (d) in relation to any water undertaking, the Minister of Health;

“Civil defence functions” means any functions conferred or imposed by or under ... ^{F29} this Act;

“Factory inspector” means any inspector appointed under [^{F30}the ^{M2}Factories Act 1961];

“Land,” in any provision of this Act relating to the acquisition of land, includes any interest in land and any easement or right in, to, or over land;

...

“Mines inspector” means an inspector appointed under [^{F31}the ^{M3}Mines and Quarries Act 1954];

“Occupier,” in relation to any unoccupied land, premises, building or part of a building, means the person entitled to the possession thereof;

Provided that, where the estate or interest of any person who under the preceding provisions of this definition would be the owner of any commercial building is the subject of a mortgage, and either the mortgagee is in possession or the rents and profits are being received by a receiver appointed by or on the application of the mortgagee, that estate or interest shall be deemed for the purposes of this definition to be vested in the mortgagee;

...

“Public utility undertakers” means any persons authorised by any enactment or order to construct, work or carry on any railway, canal, inland navigation, dock, harbour, ... ^{F32}, ... ^{F33} or water undertaking, and also includes persons who, though not authorised by any enactment or order (other than the ^{M4}Public Health Act 1875, or the ^{M5}Public Health Act 1936,) to do so, are engaged in supplying ... ^{F32} water to the public, and for that purpose make use of pipes or mains laid in any highway; and “public utility undertaking” shall be construed accordingly.

- (2) Any premises occupied, or persons employed, by public utility undertakers who carry on a railway undertaking, shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to be occupied or employed for the purposes of their railway undertaking, unless the occupation or employment is wholly or mainly for the purposes of some harbour, dock or canal undertaking carried on by those undertakers.
