(2) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“the Act” means the Social Security Act 1975;

“educational establishment” includes—

- (a) a place where instruction is provided in any course or part of a course designed to lead to a certificate, diploma, degree or professional qualification; or
- (b) a place where instruction is provided in any course or part of a course being the same as, or substantially similar to, any such course or part of a course as is referred to in (a) above but which is not designed to lead to a certificate, diploma, degree or professional qualification;

- (b) any specific and distinct payment made towards the maintenance or education of a dependant of the person receiving the payment; and other expressions have the same meaning as in the Act.

(3) Any reference in these regulations to any provision made by or contained in any enactment or instrument shall, except in so far as the context otherwise requires, be construed as including a reference to that provision as amended or extended by any enactment or instrument, and as including a reference to any provision which it re-enacts or replaces with or without modification.

(4) The rules for the construction of Acts of Parliament contained in the Interpretation Act 1889 shall apply for the purposes of the interpretation of these regulations as they apply for the purposes of the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Treatment of earners in one category of earners as falling within another category and disregard of employments

2.—(1) For the purposes of the Act an earner in one category of earners shall be treated as falling within another category in accordance with the following provisions of this regulation.

(2) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (4) of this regulation, every earner shall, in respect of any employment described in any paragraph in column (A) of Part I of Schedule 1 to these regulations, be treated as falling within the category of an employed earner in so far as he is gainfully employed in such employment and is not a person specified in the corresponding paragraph in column (B) of that Part, notwithstanding that the employment is not under a contract of service, or in an office (including elective office) with emoluments chargeable to income tax under Schedule E.

(3) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (4) of this regulation, every earner shall, in respect of any employment described in any paragraph in column (A) of Part II of the said Schedule 1, be treated as falling within the category of a self-employed earner in so far as he is gainfully employed in such employment and is not a person specified in the corresponding paragraph in column (B) of that Part, notwithstanding that the employment is under a contract of service, or in an office (including elective office) with emoluments chargeable to income tax under Schedule E.

(4) Every employment described in any paragraph in column (A) of Part III of the said Schedule 1 shall, in relation to liability for contributions otherwise arising from employment of that description, be disregarded, except in so far as it is employment of a person specified in the corresponding paragraph in column (B) of that Part.

Employments treated as continuing

Special provisions with respect to persons declared by the High Court to be persons falling within a particular category of earners

4.—(1) Where, under the provisions of the Act relating to references and appeals to the High Court<sup>(1)</sup>, the High Court decides any question whether in respect of any employment a person is an earner and, if so, as to the category of earners in which he is to be included, and that decision is inconsistent with some previous determination of a question by the Secretary of State<sup>(2)</sup>, then, if the Secretary of State is satisfied that contributions appropriate to another category of earners have been paid by or in respect of any person by reason of that determination or in the reasonable belief that that determination was applicable, the Secretary of State may, if it appears to him that it would be in the interests of the person by or in respect of whom such contributions have been paid, or of any claimant

(2) Where the Secretary of State, on review under section 96(1) of the Act, has revised a determination of a question previously given by him, the provisions of this regulation shall apply with the necessary modifications in the same manner as they apply where the High Court has given a decision inconsistent with a determination previously given by the Secretary of State.

(3) In the application of this regulation to Scotland, for any reference to the High Court, there shall be substituted a reference to the Court of Session<sup>(3)</sup>.

Persons to be treated as secondary contributors

5. For the purposes of section 4 of the Act (Class 1 contributions), in relation to any payment of earnings to or for the benefit of an employed earner in any employment described in any paragraph in column (A) of Schedule 3 to these regulations, the person specified in the corresponding paragraph in column (B) of that Schedule shall be treated as the secondary Class 1 contributor in relation to that employed earner.

(2) Anything whatsoever done under or by virtue of any regulation revoked by these regulations shall be deemed to have been done under or by virtue of the corresponding provision of these regulations and anything whatsoever begun under any such regulation may be continued under these regulations as if begun thereunder.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

These Regulations are made for the purpose only of consolidating the Regulations hereby revoked. They provide for persons in employments of prescribed descriptions to be treated for the purposes of the Social Security Act 1975 as falling within another category of earners. The Regulations also provide for other employments of prescribed descriptions to be disregarded (regulation 2 and Schedule 1).

Provision is also made for the circumstances in which employment as a self-employed earner is treated as continuing (regulation 3 and Schedule 2).

Provision is also made for the special categorisation of a person following a decision of the High Court or a revised decision of the Secretary of State so as to enable the original determination concerning that person's category to stand where this would be in the interests of the person concerned (regulation 4).

The Regulations provide for prescribed persons to be treated for the purposes of the Social Security Act 1975 as the secondary Class 1 contributor in respect of persons in specified employments (regulation 5 and Schedule 3).
