ELECTROMAGNETIC COMPATIBILITY

The Electromagnetic Compatibility Regulations 1992

Made - - - - 5th October 1992
Laid before Parliament 7th October 1992
Coming into force 28th October 1992

PART I

PRELIMINARY

1. Citation and commencement
2. Repeal and disapplication
3. Interpretation
4. Electromagnetic disturbance
5. Protection requirements

PART II

APPLICATION

General application

6. Relevant apparatus
7. General conditions of application

Modified application

8. Educational electronic equipment
9. Test apparatus

Transitional exclusions

10. Apparatus supplied or taken into service before 28th October 1992
11. Transitional exclusion until 31st December 1995 of apparatus where the manufacturer opts to comply with such requirements as are in force in a member State on 30th June 1992

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

General exclusions

12. Apparatus for export to a third country
13. Excluded installations
14. Spare parts
15. Supply to the authorised representative
16. Second-hand apparatus
17. Electromagnetically benign apparatus

Specific exclusions

18. Apparatus for use in a sealed electromagnetic environment
19. Radio amateur apparatus
20. Military equipment

Apparatus wholly covered by other Directives

21. Active implantable medical devices
22. Medical devices

Apparatus partly covered by other Directives

23. Electrical Energy Meters
24. Spark-ignition engines of vehicles
25. Spark ignition engines of tractors
26. Non-automatic weighing instruments
27. Telecommunications terminal equipment

PART III

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

28. General duty for supply
29. General duty for taking into service
30. Requirements for supply
31. Conformity assessment requirements—the three routes to compliance
32. Presumption of conformity
33. The CE mark
34. EC declaration of conformity
35. Retention of documentation

PART IV

THE STANDARDS ROUTE TO COMPLIANCE

36. Application of Part IV
37. The standards route to compliance
38. Applicable EMC standards
39. Publication of reference numbers of standards
40. EC declaration of conformity pursuant to the standards route to compliance

PART V

THE TECHNICAL CONSTRUCTION FILE ROUTE TO COMPLIANCE

General

41. Application of Part V

42. Applicability of the technical construction file route to compliance
43. Technical construction files
44. The technical construction file route to compliance
45. Competent bodies

United Kingdom competent bodies

46. Appointment
47. Eligibility and verification
48. Termination of appointment and transfer of functions
49. Power of competent body other than the Secretary of State to charge fees
50. Applications for technical reports and technical certificates
51. Limitations on duty to exercise functions
52. Contractors etc
53. Form of technical reports and technical certificates
54. Conditions of technical reports or technical certificates
55. Withdrawal of technical reports or technical certificates
56. Procedure where United Kingdom competent body is minded to make a decision unfavourable to the applicant

EC declaration of conformity

57. EC declaration of conformity where conformity assessment requirements are complied with by reference to a technical construction file

Final provisions

58. Interpretation of Part V

PART VI

THE EC TYPE-EXAMINATION ROUTE TO COMPLIANCE FOR RADIOCOMMUNICATION TRANSMISSION APPARATUS

General

59. Application of Part VI
60. The EC type-examination route to compliance
61. Notified bodies

United Kingdom notified bodies

62. Bodies and scope of authority
63. Power of CAA and BABT to charge fees
64. Applications for EC type-examination certificates
65. Limitations on duty to exercise functions
66. Contractors etc.
67. Conditions of EC type-examination certificates
68. Withdrawal of EC type-examination certificates
69. Procedure where United Kingdom notified body is minded to make a decision unfavourable to the applicant

EC declaration of conformity

70. EC declaration of conformity for radiocommunication transmission apparatus

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Final provisions

- 71. Savings
- 72. Interpretation of Part VI

PART VII
ENFORCEMENT

Enforcement authorities and powers

- 73. Enforcement authorities
- 74. Test purchases
- 75. Powers of search etc.
- 76. Provisions supplemental to regulation 75
- 77. Appeals against detention of apparatus
- 78. Prohibition notices
- 79. Suspension notices
- 80. Appeals against suspension notices
