Content and form of accounts

6.—(1) An income and expenditure account and balance sheet referred to in regulations 4, 5 and 11 must be prepared in accordance with the relevant notes and every such document must, subject to the following paragraphs of this regulation, be prepared in the order and under the headings and subheadings in the format applicable to it.

(2) Regulations 4, 5 and 11 are not to be read as:

- (a) requiring the heading or sub-heading for any item to be distinguished by any letter or number assigned to that item in the format in which it appears;
- (b) prohibiting the showing of any item in a particular account in greater detail than is required by the format for that particular account; or
- (c) prohibiting the insertion of additional items, providing that their contents are not specifically covered by any of the items prescribed in the formats.

(3) Items preceded by lower case letter in any format set out in Schedule 1, 2 or 7 may be combined in a society's annual accounts for any financial year if either:

- (a) their individual amounts are not material to assessing:
  - (i) in respect of any income and expenditure account, the income and expenditure of the society (or, as the case may be, the society and its subsidiaries) for that year; and
  - (ii) in respect of a balance sheet, the state of affairs of the society (or, as the case may be, the society and its subsidiaries) as at the end of that year; or
- (b) their combination facilitates that assessment, provided that where subparagraph (b) above applies, the individual amounts of any items so combined must be disclosed in a note to the annual accounts.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5) below, a heading or sub-heading for an item contained in any format set out in Schedule 1, 2 or 7 must not be included if there is no amount to be shown for that item in respect of the financial year to which the annual accounts relate (and a total need not be included if, as a result of this paragraph, it would be composed of a single item).

(5) For the purpose of comparing particular accounts with those for the preceding financial year:

Status: This version of this Instrument contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to The Friendly Societies (Accounts and Related Provisions) Regulations 1994. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (a) in respect of every item shown in a balance sheet and income and expenditure account, the corresponding amount for the preceding financial year must be shown;
- (b) where that corresponding amount is not comparable with the amount to be shown for the item in question in respect of the financial year to which the annual accounts relate, the former amount must be adjusted and particulars of the adjustment and the reasons for it must be disclosed in a note to the annual accounts; and
- (c) paragraph (4) above does not apply in any case where an amount can be shown for the item to which the heading or sub-heading relates in respect of the preceding financial year, and in such a case that amount must be shown under the heading or sub-heading required for that item.

(6) Subject to the provisions of Schedules 1, 2 and 7, amounts in respect of items representing assets or income may not be set off against amounts in respect of items representing liabilities or expenditure (as the case may be), or vice versa.

(7) In this regulation, “the relevant notes” means, in relation to any particular account, Part III of Schedule 1, Part III and Part IV of Schedule 2 or Part III of Schedule 7, whichever is applicable.

Commencement Information

I6 Reg. 6 in force at 1.9.1994, see reg. 1

Group accounts—supplementary provisions

7.—(1) The annual accounts of a group accounts society must comply with the further provisions of Schedule 3 as to the form and content of the consolidated income and expenditure account and the balance sheet, and the additional information to be provided by way of notes to the accounts.

(2) Subject to the exceptions authorised or required by this regulation, all the subsidiaries of the society must be included in the consolidated income and expenditure account and the balance sheet as required by Regulation 5, and in the notes to the accounts in respect of the society and its subsidiaries in combination, as required by regulation 8(2)(b).

(3) A subsidiary may be excluded from the requirements of paragraph (2) if compliance with those requirements is not material for the purpose of giving a true and fair view for the society and its subsidiaries as a whole, of the matters set out in subsections (2) and (3) of section 70 of the Act.

(4) If a society has two or more subsidiaries, they do not qualify under paragraph (3) for exclusion from the requirements of paragraph (2) if taken as a whole they are material for the purpose enumerated in paragraph (3).

(5) Each particular account which is a group account must combine the information contained in the particular account of the society and the accounts of its subsidiaries from which it is derived, adjusted so far as is necessary to consolidate those accounts.

(6) In the group accounts, the interest of the society in a jointly controlled body and the amount of profit or loss attributable to such an interest, must be shown by the equity method of accounting (which must include dealing with any goodwill arising in accordance with paragraphs 19 to 22 and 24 of Schedule 6).

(7) The equity method of accounting referred to in paragraph (6) need not be applied if the amounts in question are not material for the purpose of giving a true and fair view, for the society and its subsidiaries as a whole, of the matters set out in subsections (2) and (3) of section 70 of the Act.

Status: This version of this Instrument contains provisions that are prospective.

*Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to The Friendly Societies (Accounts and Related Provisions) Regulations 1994. - (b) each associated body of the society which is not a subsidiary must be treated as an associated body of the group.

(4) In paragraph (3) above “relevant provision” means, in relation to Schedule 4 below, a provision thereof other than paragraphs 4 to 14 and 31.

(5) The annual accounts of a non-directive society must include notes to them containing the material from Schedule 4 below as is specified in Part II of Schedule 7 below, (and such material must be, as far as is possible, set out in the manner specified in Schedule 4 below), as well as the notes required to be included by other provisions of these Regulations and in the application of the Schedule to a non-directive society, references in the Schedule to a society are, where appropriate, to be construed as references to a non-directive society.

- (a) is established under the law of a country outside the United Kingdom; or
- (b) carries on its business outside the United Kingdom, if in the opinion of the committee of management of the society the disclosure would seriously prejudice the business of that associated body or the business of the society or any of its subsidiaries and the Commission agrees that the information need not be given.

(4) Where advantage is taken of paragraph (3), that fact must be stated in a note to the accounts.

(5) If the committee of management of the society is of the opinion that the number of associated bodies in respect of which the society is required to give information specified in Schedule 5 is such that to do so would result in information of excessive length being given, the information must only be given in respect of:

- (a) those associated bodies whose results or financial position, in the opinion of the committee of management, principally affected the figures shown in the society's annual accounts; and
- (b) subsidiaries excluded from the requirements of regulation 7(2).

(6) If advantage is taken of paragraph (5), there must be included in the notes a statement that the information specified in Schedule 5 is given only with respect to such associated bodies as are mentioned in that paragraph.
