Notes about the Emergency Protection Order

About this order

This is an Emergency Protection Order. This order states what has been authorised in respect of the child(ren) and when the order will end. The court can extend this order for up to 7 days but it can only do this once.

Warning
If you are shown this order, you must comply with it. If you do not, you may commit an offence. Read the order now.

What you may do

You may apply to the court to change the directions or to end the order. You may apply at any time, but the court will only hear an application to end an order when 72 hours have passed since the order was made. If you would like to ask the court to change the directions, or end the order, you must fill in a form. You can obtain the form from a court office.

If the court has directed that the child(ren) should have a medical, psychiatric or another kind of examination, you may ask the court to allow a doctor of your choice to be at the examination.

What you should do

Go to a solicitor as soon as you can. Some solicitors specialise in court proceedings which involve children. You can obtain the address of a solicitor or an advice agency from the Yellow Pages or the Solicitors' Regional Directory. You will find these books at

- a Citizens Advice Bureau
- a Law Centre
- a local library.

A solicitor or an advice agency will be able to tell you whether you may be eligible for legal aid.

CS4 Notice of refusal of a Parental Order

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules amend the Family Proceedings Courts (Children Act 1989) Rules 1991 by substituting a new set of forms for those previously used in Children Act proceedings. It also prescribes forms for use in respect of applications and orders under sections 33 and 34 of the Family Law Act 1986. The main changes are—

- (a) a substantial reduction in the number of forms;
- (b) replacing the requirement of a separate application for each child with a single application which is to be used in respect of all the children in respect of whom an application is being made;
- (c) an improvement in the layout and content of the forms to make them easier to understand and complete.

The Rules also insert a new rule into the 1991 Rules allowing a party to decline to reveal their private address.
