14.—(1) Any sum paid to the Secretary of State in accordance with paragraph 6(2) shall be retained by him, whether or not there is an assignment of the relevant registration mark, except where the conditions specified in sub-paragraph (2) are fulfilled, in which case the Secretary of State shall refund the sum (but not interest on the sum) to the purchaser of the relevant right in respect of which it was paid.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

These Regulations revoke all previous regulations relating to the sale of rights relating to registration marks and the schemes made under them and make a new scheme providing for registration marks to which section 27 of the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 applies to be assigned to vehicles registered in the names of, or of the nominees of, persons who have acquired rights under the scheme to have the marks so assigned. The revoked schemes, however, continue to apply to unexercised rights granted before these Regulations come into force. Apart from drafting changes the main difference between the scheme made by these Regulations and earlier schemes is that the new scheme enables a right to be acquired to assign a registration mark to a vehicle registered in the Northern Ireland register of mechanically propelled vehicles.
