NORTHERN IRELAND
REPRESENTATION OF THE PEOPLE

The Northern Ireland Elections
(Returning Officer's Charges) Order 1996

Made - - - - 23rd May 1996
Coming into force - - 24th May 1996

In exercise of the powers conferred upon me by section 29(3) and (4) of the Representation of the People Act 1983(1), as applied by article 3 of, and Schedule 1 to, the Elections (Northern Ireland) Order 1996(2), I hereby make the following Order:

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Northern Ireland Elections (Returning Officer's Charges) Order 1996 and shall come into force on the day after it is made.

(2) This Order extends to Northern Ireland only.

2.—(1) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of section 29(3) of the Representation of the People Act 1983, as applied by article 3 of, and Schedule 1 to, the Elections (Northern Ireland) Order 1996, (which provides that a returning officer is entitled to recover his charges in respect of services properly rendered or expenses properly incurred for or in connection with an election under the Northern Ireland (Entry to Negotiations, etc.) Act 1996(3) if the services or expenses are of a kind specified in an order made under that provision and the charges are reasonable), expenses of a kind described in paragraphs 1(1), 2(1), 3(1) and 4(1) of Part A of the Schedule to this Order (hereafter referred to as "expenses specified in Part A of the Schedule") and expenses of a kind described in Part B of the Schedule to this Order are hereby specified.

(2) The maximum recoverable amounts at a contested election in respect of the expenses specified in Part A of the Schedule are hereby specified as the amounts set out in the right-hand column of that Part in respect of each entry set out opposite thereto in the left-hand column of that Part.

(3) The maximum recoverable amount at an uncontested election is here specified as £853.19 in respect of the expenses specified in Part A of the Schedule.

(1) 1983 c. 2; section 29 has been amended by section 1 of the Representation of the People Act 1991 (c. 11) and by the Transfer of Functions (Returning Officers' Charges) Order 1991 (S.I. 1991/1728) and the functions formerly conferred on the Treasury have been transferred to the Secretary of State by that Order.
(2) S.I. 1996/1220.
(3) 1996 c. 11.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(4) In the Schedule to this Order—

- (a) “election” means an election under the Northern Ireland (Entry to Negotiations, etc.) Act 1996; and
- (b) any reference to the register of electors is to the register of electors used at the election at which the expenses were incurred and to that register as first published.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order makes provision for the returning officer's charges at the elections to be held under the Northern Ireland (Entry to Negotiations, etc.) Act 1996.

Under section 29(3) of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (as amended and as applied by the Elections (Northern Ireland) Order 1996) the entitlement of a returning officer at such elections to recover his charges in respect of his expenses for or in connection with such an election depends upon—

- (a) the expenses being of a kind specified in an order under that provision,
- (b) the expenses being properly incurred, and
- (c) the charges in respect of them being reasonable.

Parts A and B of the Schedule to this Order specify the kinds of expenses incurred by a returning officer for or in connection with such an election in respect of which he is entitled to recover his charges, together (in the case of Part A) with the maximum recoverable amounts in respect of those charges. The Chief Electoral Officer for Northern Ireland is the returning officer for each constituency in Northern Ireland by virtue of section 26 of the Representation of the People Act 1983, as applied by the Elections (Northern Ireland) Order 1996.
