| Laid before the House of Commons | - - - - | 31st July 1998 |
| Coming into force | - - | 6th April 1999 |

The Treasury, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by section 333B of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988(1), hereby make the following Regulations:

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Individual Savings Account (Insurance Companies) Regulations 1998 and shall come into force on 6th April 1999.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations—

“individual savings account business” has the meaning given by regulation 3;

“the principal Regulations” means the Individual Savings Account Regulations 1998(2);

“the Taxes Act” means the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988.

Individual savings account business

3. For the purposes of these Regulations “individual savings account business” in relation to an insurance company means so much of that company’s life assurance business as is referable to any policy of life insurance, or to the reinsurance of liabilities under any such policy, where the policy is, on the date on which the insurance is made, a qualifying investment for an insurance component within the meaning of regulation 9 of the principal Regulations.

(1) 1988 c. 1; section 333B was inserted by section 77(1) of the Finance Act 1998 (c. 36).
(2) S.I. 1998/1870.

Tax credits on distributions to insurance companies

4.—(1) The repeal by section 30(4) of the Finance (No. 2) Act 1997⁽³⁾ of section 231(2) of the Taxes Act (payment of tax credit to a company resident in the United Kingdom) shall not have effect in relation to any distribution made to an insurance company on or after 6th April 1999 but before 6th April 2004 which is a distribution received by the insurance company in respect of investments of so much of its long term business fund as is referable to its individual savings account business.

(2) Schedule 4 to the Finance (No. 2) Act 1997 shall have effect in relation to a distribution to which paragraph (1) applies with the following modifications—

- (a) paragraph 2 shall be omitted;
- (b) in paragraph 3(2) for “1999” there shall be substituted “2004”.

Modifications of the Taxes Act

5. Regulations 6 to 21 specify modifications of provisions of the Taxes Act so far as concerns individual savings account business of insurance companies.

6. In section 76(1)(d)⁽⁴⁾ after the words “pension business,” there shall be inserted “individual savings account business,”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, which come into force on 6th April 1999, make provision in relation to the individual savings account business of insurance companies (“ISA business”).

Regulation 1 provides for citation and commencement, and regulation 2 for interpretation.

Regulation 3 defines ISA business for the purposes of the Regulations.

Regulation 4 provides that the abolition of tax credits payable in respect of distributions made to companies resident in the United Kingdom on and after 6th April 1999 shall not have effect as respects distributions made to insurance companies before 6th April 2004 in respect of investments relating to ISA business of those companies.

Regulations 5 to 21 modify various provisions of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 so as to include references to ISA business.

Regulations 22 and 23 modify sections 212(2) and 214A(11)(a) of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 so as to include a reference to individual savings account business in each of those sections.

Regulations 24 and 25 make similar modifications to the Manufactured Payments and Transfer of Securities (Tax Relief) Regulations 1995 (S.I. 1995/3036) and the Friendly Societies (Modification of the Corporation Tax Acts) Regulations 1997 (S.I. 1997/473).
