1998 No. 218

The Education (Modification of Enactments Relating to Employment) Order 1998

Citation, commencement, transition and revocation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Education (Modification of Enactments Relating to Employment) Order 1998 and shall come into force on 2nd March 1998.

(2) The references to the Disability Discrimination Act 1995(1) in Article 3(2)(b) and in the Schedule hereto shall not apply in respect of any act or omission occurring before the coming into force of this Order.

(3) The Education (Modification of Enactments Relating to Employment) Order 1989(2) is hereby revoked.

Interpretation

2. In this Order—

“the Act” means the Education Act 1996;

“governing body” means the governing body for the time being of a school which is maintained by a local education authority and references to the local education authority are references to the local education authority by which the school is maintained; and

“school” has the meaning assigned to it by section 4 of the Act;

(2) references to employment powers are references to the powers as to appointment, suspension, discipline and dismissal of staff conferred by or under sections 136, 137(6) and 139 of, and Schedule 14 and paragraph 19 of Schedule 19 to, the Act; and

(3) references to governing bodies with delegated budgets are references to governing bodies to whom powers as to the expenditure of the budget share of the school for which they are responsible are for the time being delegated by virtue of section 116 of the Act, or to whom powers in relation to the budget shares of new schools are for the time being delegated by section 126 thereof and Schedule 12 thereto, as the case may be.

General modifications of employment enactments

3.—(1) In their application to governing bodies with delegated budgets, the enactments set out in the Schedule hereto shall have effect as if—

(a) any reference (however expressed) to an employer, a person by whom employment is offered, or a principal included a reference to the governing body acting in the exercise of their employment powers and as if that governing body had at all material times been such an employer, person or principal;

(1) 1995 c. 50.
(2) S.I.1989/901.

- (b) in relation to the exercise of the governing body's employment powers, employment by the local education authority at a school were employment by the governing body of that school;
 - (c) references to employees were references to employees at the school in question;
 - (d) references to dismissal by an employer included references to dismissal by the local education authority following notification of a determination by a governing body under paragraph 23(1) of Schedule 14 to the Act; and
 - (e) references to trade unions recognised by an employer were references to trade unions recognised by the local education authority or the governing body.
- (2) Nothing in paragraph (1) shall be taken as causing—
- (a) the governing body to meet the condition stated in section 96(2)(a) of the Employment Rights Act 1996⁽³⁾; or
 - (b) the exemption in respect of an employer with fewer employees than is specified in section 7(1) of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 to apply,
- if it would not have done so but for the operation of that paragraph.

Dismissals

4. Without prejudice to the generality of article 3, where an employee employed at a school with a governing body with a delegated budget is dismissed by the local education authority following notification of such a determination as is mentioned in article 3(1)(d) above:

- (a) section 92 of the Employment Rights Act 1996 shall have effect as if the governing body had dismissed him and as if references to the employer's reasons for dismissing the employee were references to the reasons for which the governing body made their determination; and
- (b) Part X of the Employment Rights Act 1996 shall have effect in relation to the dismissal as if the governing body had dismissed him, and the reason or principal reason for which the governing body did so had been the reason or principal reason for which they made their determination.

Trade disputes

5. A dispute between staff employed to work at a school which has a governing body with a delegated budget and that governing body, which relates wholly or mainly to one or more of the matters set out in section 244(1) of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992⁽⁴⁾ shall be a trade dispute within the meaning of that Act but, in any case where there is a trade dispute only by virtue of the operation of this article, nothing in section 219 of that Act shall prevent an act from being actionable in tort where the inducement, interference or threat mentioned in that section relates to a contract the performance of which does not affect directly or indirectly the school over which the governing body in question exercises its functions.

Applications to Industrial Tribunals

6.—(1) Without prejudice to anything in articles 3 and 4 and notwithstanding any provision in the Industrial Tribunals Act 1996⁽⁵⁾ or in any regulations made under section 1(1) of that Act, this article applies in respect of any application to an industrial tribunal, and any proceedings pursuant

(3) 1996 c. 18.

(4) 1992 c. 52.

(5) 1996 c. 17.

to such an application, in relation to which by virtue of article 3 or 4 the governing body is to be treated as if it were an employer, person by whom employment is offered, or a principal.

(2) The application shall be made, and the proceedings shall be carried on, against that governing body.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), any decision, declaration, order, recommendation or award made in the course of such proceedings except in so far as it requires reinstatement or re-engagement shall have effect as if made against the local education authority.

(4) Where any application is made against a governing body pursuant to paragraph (2)—

- (a) the governing body shall notify the local education authority within 14 days of receiving notification thereof; and
- (b) the local education authority shall, on written application to the industrial tribunal, be entitled to be made an additional party to the proceedings and to take part in the proceedings accordingly.
