Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Social Security (Miscellaneous Amendments) (No. 2) Regulations 1999 and shall come into force on 4th October 1999.

Amendment of the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987

2.—(1) The Income Support (General) Regulations 1987^{M6} shall be amended in accordance with the following paragraphs of this regulation.

(2) At the end of regulation 5^{M7} (persons treated as engaged in remunerative work), there shall be added the following paragraphs—

“(8) Subject to paragraph (9), a person who has not been treated as engaged in remunerative work in accordance with regulation 6(2) as a consequence of his commencing work shall be treated as engaged in remunerative work for the period specified in paragraph (10) where he ceased to be engaged in that work within the period of five weeks beginning on the date on which he commenced it.

(9) Paragraph (8) shall not apply in the case of a person who is temporarily absent from the work referred to in regulation 6(2)(a).

(10) A person to whom paragraph (8) applies shall be treated as engaged in remunerative work for the period commencing on the day after the day on which he was last engaged in the work referred to in regulation 6(2)(a) and ending on the day on which the length of that period corresponds with the length of the period in respect of which he had not been treated as engaged in remunerative work in accordance with regulation 6(2).”.

(3) Regulation 6 (persons not treated as engaged in remunerative work) shall be renumbered paragraph (1) of regulation 6 and after the renumbered paragraph (1) there shall be added the following paragraphs—

“(2) A lone parent shall not be treated as engaged in remunerative work for the period specified in paragraph (3) in so far as—

(a) he is engaged in work which—

(i) is remunerative work; and

(ii) he is expected to be engaged in for a period of no less than five weeks; and

(b) he had been, for a continuous period of 26 weeks ending on the day before the day on which he commenced the work referred to in sub-paragraph (a)—

(i) entitled to and in receipt of income support or income-based jobseeker’s allowance; and

(ii) a lone parent.

(3) A person referred to in paragraph (2) shall not be treated as engaged in remunerative work for the period of 14 days commencing with the day on which he was first engaged in the work referred to in sub-paragraph (a) of that paragraph.”.

(4) In the definition of “part-time employment” in both regulation 29(4D)(a) (calculation of earnings derived from employed earner’s employment) and regulation 35(3)(c) (earnings of employed earners)^{M8}, for “6” there shall be substituted “6(1) ”.

(5) In regulation 36(2) (calculation of net earnings of employed earners), after “13” there shall be inserted “, 15A or 15B ”.

(6) In regulation 38(2) (calculation of net profit of self-employed earners), after “13” there shall be inserted “ or 15B ”.

(7) In Schedule 1B ^{M9} (prescribed categories of person)—

- (a) in paragraph 8, for the words “regulation 6(a)” there shall be substituted the words “regulation 6(1)(a)”;
- (b) in paragraph 9, for the words “regulation 6(g)” there shall be substituted the words “regulation 6(1)(g)”.

(8) After sub-paragraph (6) in paragraph 12 of Schedule 2 ^{M10} (additional condition for the higher pensioner and disability premiums) there shall be added the following sub-paragraph—

“(7) A person—

- (a) to whom regulation 6(2) (persons not treated as engaged in remunerative work) applies; and
- (b) whose applicable amount immediately before he was engaged in the work referred to in regulation 6(2)(a), included a premium applicable under paragraph 11(a), shall, for the period specified in regulation 6(3), be treated as having continued to satisfy the additional condition specified in this paragraph for the payment of that premium.”.

(9) After paragraph 15A in Schedule 8 ^{M11} (sums to be disregarded in the calculation of earnings) there shall be inserted the following paragraph—

“15B. In the case of a person to whom regulation 6(2) (persons not treated as engaged in remunerative work) applies, any earnings which derive from the work referred to in sub-paragraph (a) of that paragraph but only to the extent that they relate to work performed during the period specified in regulation 6(3).”.

(10) At the end of Schedule 9 (sums to be disregarded in the calculation of income other than earnings) there shall be added the following paragraph—

“70. In the case of a person to whom regulation 6(2) (persons not treated as engaged in remunerative work) applies, any working families tax credit or disabled person’s tax credit to which section 128 or as the case may be 129 of the Contributions and Benefits Act ^{M12} refers which is paid to that person.”.

(11) At the end of Schedule 10 (sums to be disregarded in the calculation of capital) there shall be added the following paragraph—

“57. In the case of a person to whom regulation 6(2) (persons not treated as engaged in remunerative work) applies, the amount of any—

- (a) back to work bonus payable to that lone parent by way of a jobseeker’s allowance or income support in accordance with section 26 of the Jobseekers Act 1995 ^{M13} or a corresponding payment under article 28 of the Jobseekers (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 ^{M14}; or
- (b) child maintenance bonus payable to that lone parent by way of a jobseeker’s allowance or income support in accordance with section 10 of the Child Support Act 1995 ^{M15} or a corresponding payment under article 4 of the Child Support (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 ^{M16}, which is paid during the period specified in regulation 6(3).”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987 (S.I. 1987/1967), the Jobseeker's Allowance Regulations 1996 (S.I. 1996/207), the Housing Benefit (General) Regulations 1987 (S.I. 1987/1971), the Housing Benefit (Supply of Information) Regulations 1988 (S.I. 1988/662), the Council Tax Benefit (General) Regulations 1992 (S.I. 1992/1814) and the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1987 (S.I. 1987/1968).

In particular, regulation 2(3) of these Regulations provides that for the purpose of entitlement to income support, a lone parent may be treated as not engaged in remunerative work for the first 14 days after commencing such work following a period of entitlement to income support or income-based jobseeker's allowance of at least 26 weeks.

These Regulations also provide that during the 14 day period—

- any disability premium which was applicable before commencing such work, shall continue to be applicable for that period (regulation 2(8));
- any earnings from the employment which caused the lone parent to be treated as not engaged in remunerative work shall be disregarded (regulation 2(9));
- any working families tax credit or disabled person's tax credit shall be disregarded as income (regulation 2(10));
- any back to work bonus or child maintenance bonus shall be disregarded as capital when paid during that period (regulation 2(11)).

Regulation 2(5) and (6) makes amendments which are consequential on that made in regulation 2(9). Regulation 2 (4) and (7) makes amendments which are consequential on that made in regulation 2(3).

Regulations 2(2) and 3 provide that in income support and jobseeker's allowance respectively, a lone parent who was previously treated as not engaged in remunerative work in accordance with regulation 2(3), shall be treated as engaged in remunerative work for a specified period if he ceases to be so engaged in such work within five weeks of commencing it.

Regulations 4(2) to (4) and (6)(b) to (e) and 5(2) to (4) and (5)(b) to (e) provide respectively for the treatment of extended payments of council tax benefit and housing benefit in the case of lone parents who are not treated as engaged in remunerative work pursuant to these Regulations. Those provisions also make consequential and minor technical amendments. Regulations 4(5) and 6 provide for the exchange of certain information by authorities in connection with the making of such payments.

Regulations 4(6)(a) and 5(5)(a) provide respectively that extended payments of housing benefit and council tax benefit shall be made to those persons who were in receipt of income support whilst incapable of work or were in receipt of income support or jobseeker's allowance which included the disability premium.

Regulation 7 amends the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1987 so as to provide that certain lone parents who are not treated as engaged in remunerative work pursuant to these Regulations, shall not be required to make a claim for income support in order to be entitled to it.

These Regulations do not impose any charge on business.
