(7) Where the fee-earner who did the work was not assigned by the court under sub-paragraph (6), the fee allowed for his work shall not exceed the rate set out in Schedule 2 as appropriate to the lowest grade of fee-earner which the appropriate officer considers would have been competent to do the work.

(4) In any proceedings in the Crown Court:

- (a) in respect of the classes of work specified in paragraph 6(2) of Schedule 4 (whether or not the proceedings are ones to which that Schedule applies), the appropriate officer shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 15 as if the fee-earner who did the work had been a barrister;
- (b) in respect of all other classes of work, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply.

(5) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), (3), (4) and (6), the appropriate officer shall allow fees for work allowed by it under this paragraph in accordance with Schedule 2 Part 1.

and where a doubt arises whether attendance should be allowed by reason of that circumstance, the doubt shall be resolved in the assisted person's favour.

(10) The circumstances referred to in sub-paragraph (7)(f) shall only justify the allowing of attendance to the extent specified in the representation order.

(11) This paragraph applies to work in respect of which standard fees are payable under Part 2 of Schedule 2, or a graduated or fixed fee is payable under Schedule 4 only to the extent that that Part or that Schedule specifically so provide.

(12) In relation to hearings specified in sub-paragraph (11), work of the class specified in sub-paragraph (1)(c) shall only be allowed in the circumstances mentioned in sub-paragraph (7)(a) to (f).

(13) The following hearings in the Crown Court are specified for the purposes of sub-paragraph (10): trials, hearing of cases listed for pleas of guilty following a pleas and directions hearing, sentencing hearings following committals for sentence and the hearing of appeals against conviction or sentence.

Determination of solicitors' disbursements

13.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, the appropriate officer shall allow such disbursements claimed under paragraph 11 as appears to him to have been reasonably incurred, provided that:

- (a) if they are abnormally large by reason of the distance of the court or the assisted person's residence or both from the solicitors' place of business, reimbursement of the expenses may be limited to what otherwise would, having regard to all the circumstances, be a reasonable amount; and

(7) 1987 c. 38. Sub-section 4(4) was inserted by the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37), section 119, Schedule 8, paragraph 65.

(b) in the case of an appeal to the Court of Appeal, the cost of a transcript, or any part thereof, of the proceedings in the court from which the appeal lies obtained otherwise than through the registrar shall not be allowed except where the appropriate officer considers that it is reasonable in all the circumstances for such disbursement to be allowed.

(2) No question as to the propriety of any step or act in relation to which prior authority has been obtained under CDS Regulations shall be raised on any determination of costs, unless the solicitor knew or ought reasonably to have known that the purpose for which the authority was given had failed or had become irrelevant or unnecessary before the costs were incurred.

(3) Where costs are reasonably incurred in accordance with and subject to the limit imposed by a prior authority given under CDS Regulations, no question shall be raised on any determination of costs as to the amount of the payment to be allowed for the step or act in relation to which the authority was given.

(4) Where costs are incurred in taking any steps or doing any act for which authority may be given under CDS Regulations, without such authority having been given or in excess of any fee so authorised, payment in respect of those costs may nevertheless be allowed on a determination of costs.

Claims for fees by an advocate

14.—(1) Subject to paragraph 23, no claim by an advocate for fees for work done under a representation order shall be entertained unless he submits it within three months of the conclusion of the proceedings to which the representation order relates.

(2) A claim for fees shall be submitted to the appropriate officer in such form and manner as he may direct.

(3) A claim shall:

- (a) summarise the items of work in respect of which fees are claimed according to the classes of fee specified in paragraph 15(5);
- (b) state the dates on which the items of work were done, the time taken where appropriate, the sums claimed and whether the work was done for more than one assisted person;
- (c) give particulars of any work done in relation to more than one indictment or a retrial.

(4) Where an advocate claims that:

- (a) it would be inappropriate to allow a standard fee under paragraph 15(2); or
- (b) paragraph 15(6) should be applied in relation to an item of work

he shall give full particulars in support of his claim.

(5) Where there are any special circumstances which should be drawn to the attention of the appropriate officer, the advocate shall specify them.

(6) The advocate shall supply such further particulars, information and documents as the appropriate officer may require.

Determination of advocate's fees

15.—(1) The appropriate officer shall consider the claim, any further particulars and information submitted by an advocate under paragraph 14 and any other relevant information and shall allow such work as appears to him to have been reasonably done.

(2) In any proceedings specified in paragraph 2 or 3 of Schedule 4, the appropriate officer shall allow a graduated or fixed fee calculated in accordance with that Schedule in respect of all such work allowed by it as falls into the classes specified in paragraph 6(2) of that Schedule.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(3) Where in any proceedings specified in paragraph 2 of Schedule 4, the trial judge makes adverse observations concerning the advocate's conduct of the case, the appropriate officer may reduce any fee which would otherwise be payable in accordance with that Schedule by such proportion as he shall see fit, having first given the advocate the opportunity to make representations about the extent to which the fee should be reduced.

(4) Where it appears to the appropriate officer that the fixed fee allowed by Schedule 4 in respect of any proceedings specified in paragraph 3 of that Schedule would be inappropriate taking into account all of the relevant circumstances of the case, he may instead allow fees in accordance with sub-paragraphs (5) and (6) below.

(5) The appropriate officer may, except in relation to work for which a graduated or fixed fee is allowed under subparagraph (2), allow any of the following classes of fee to an advocate in respect of work allowed by him under this paragraph:

- (a) a basic fee for preparation including preparation for a pre-trial review and, where appropriate, the first day's hearing including, where they took place on that day, short conferences, consultations, applications and appearances (including bail applications), views and any other preparation;
- (b) a refresher fee for any day or part of a day during which a hearing continued, including, where they took place on that day, short conferences, consultations, applications and appearances (including bail applications), views and any other preparation;
- (c) subsidiary fees for:
 - (i) attendance at conferences, consultations and views not covered by (a) or (b);
 - (ii) written advice on evidence, plea, appeal, case stated or other written work; and
 - (iii) attendance at pre-trial reviews, applications and appearances (including bail applications and adjournments for sentence) not covered by (a) or (b).

(6) In the case of proceedings in the Crown Court, the appropriate officer shall, except in relation to work for which a graduated or fixed fee is allowed under sub-paragraph (2), allow such fees in respect of such work as he considers reasonable in such amounts as he may determine in accordance with Schedule 3, provided that where it appears to the appropriate officer, taking into account all the relevant circumstances of the case, that owing to the exceptional circumstances of the case the amount payable by way of fees in accordance with Part 2 of Schedule 3 would not provide reasonable remuneration for some or all of the work he has allowed, he may allow such amounts as appear to him to be reasonable remuneration for the relevant work.

(7) In the case of proceedings in the Court of Appeal, the appropriate officer shall allow such fees in respect of such work as he considers reasonable in such amount as appears to him to be reasonable remuneration for such work.

(8) Where prior authority has been obtained to instruct a Queen's Counsel alone no question as to the propriety of that act shall be raised on any determination of the advocate's fees, unless the solicitor knew or ought reasonably to have known that the purpose for which the authority was given had failed or become irrelevant or unnecessary before the fees were incurred.

(9) Where:

- (a) a representation order provides for representation by a sole advocate other than a Queen's Counsel, and a Queen's Counsel agrees to appear as the sole advocate; or
- (b) a representation order provides for representation by two advocates other than Queen's Counsel, and a Queen's Counsel agrees to appear as a leading junior that Queen's Counsel shall be treated for all the purposes of this Schedule as having been instructed under that order, and his remuneration shall be determined as if he were not a Queen's Counsel.

16.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), where the court has disallowed the whole or any part of any wasted costs under section 19A of the Prosecution of Offences Act 1985⁽⁹⁾ the appropriate officer, in determining costs in respect of work done by the representatives against whom the wasted costs order was made, shall deduct the amount of the order from the amount otherwise payable in accordance with this Schedule.

(2) Where the appropriate officer, in accordance with this Schedule, is minded to disallow any amount of a claim for work done to which the wasted costs order relates, he shall disallow that amount or the amount of the wasted costs order, whichever is the greater.

Payment of costs

17.—(1) Having determined the costs payable to a representative in accordance with this Schedule, the appropriate officer shall notify the representative of the costs payable and authorise payment accordingly.

(2) Where the costs payable under sub-paragraph (1) are varied as a result of any review, redetermination or appeal made or brought pursuant to this Schedule:

- (a) where the costs are increased, the appropriate officer shall authorise payment of the increase;
- (b) where the costs are decreased, the representative shall repay the amount of such decrease; and
- (c) where the payment of any costs of the representative is ordered under paragraph 21(14) or 22(8) or Schedule 2 Part 2 paragraph 8(4), the appropriate officer shall authorise payment.

Recovery of overpayments

18.—(1) This paragraph applies where a representative is entitled to be paid a certain sum (“the amount due”) by virtue of the provisions of this Schedule and, for whatever reason, he is paid an amount greater than that sum.

(2) Where the circumstances in sub-paragraph (1) arise, the appropriate officer may:

- (a) require immediate repayment of the amount in excess of the amount due (“the excess amount”) and the representative shall on demand repay the excess amount to the appropriate officer; or
- (b) deduct the excess amount from any other sum which is or becomes payable to the representative by virtue of the provisions of this Schedule.

(3) The appropriate officer may proceed under sub-paragraph (2)(b) without first proceeding under sub-paragraph (2)(a).

(4) Sub-paragraph (2) shall apply notwithstanding that the representative to whom the excess amount was paid is exercising, or may exercise, a right under paragraphs 20 to 22.

Notification of costs

19. For the purposes of an order which may be made under section 17 of the Act, other than where the proceedings are in the magistrates' court only, having determined the costs payable to a representative in accordance with this Schedule, the appropriate officer shall notify the court before which the proceedings are heard of the amount determined in each case.

(9) 1985 c. 23. Section 19A was inserted by the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990 (c. 41), section 111.

- (b) an advocate in proceedings in the Crown Court is dissatisfied with the decision that Schedule 4 does or does not apply to those proceedings or with the calculation of the remuneration payable under that Schedule; or
- (c) an advocate in proceedings in the Crown Court is dissatisfied with the decision not to allow one of the following fees, or with the number of hours allowed in the calculation of such a fee, namely:
 - (i) a special preparation fee under paragraph 17 of Schedule 4;
 - (ii) a wasted preparation fee under paragraph 18 of Schedule 4; or
 - (iii) an hourly fee under either sub-paragraph of paragraph 19(1) of Schedule 4 he may apply to the appropriate officer to redetermine those costs or to review that decision as the case may be.

(2) Subject to paragraph 23, the application shall be made within 21 days of the receipt of notification of the costs payable under paragraph 17, by giving notice in writing to the appropriate officer specifying the matters in respect of which the application is made and the grounds of objection and shall be made in such form and manner as the appropriate officer may direct.

(3) The notice of application shall be accompanied by the particulars, information and documents supplied under paragraph 11 or 14, as appropriate.

(4) The notice of application shall state whether the applicant wishes to appear or to be represented and, if the applicant so wishes, the appropriate officer shall notify the applicant of the time at which he is prepared to hear him or his representative.

(5) The applicant shall supply such further particulars, information and documents as the appropriate officer may require.

(6) The appropriate officer shall:

- (a) redetermine the costs, whether by way of increase or decrease in the amount previously determined; or
- (b) review the decision to allow standard fees under paragraph 15(2), and confirm it, or allow fees in accordance with paragraph 15(5) and (6),

(7) The applicant may request the appropriate officer to give reasons in writing for his decision and the appropriate officer shall comply with any such request.

(8) Subject to paragraph 23, any request under sub-paragraph (7) shall be made within 21 days of receiving notification of the decision.

Appeals to a Costs Judge

21.—(1) Where the appropriate officer has given his reasons for his decisions under paragraph 20, a representative who is dissatisfied with that decision may appeal to a Costs Judge.

(2) Subject to paragraph 23, an appeal shall be instituted within 21 days of the receipt of the appropriate officer's reasons, by giving notice in writing to the Senior Costs Judge.

(3) The appellant shall send a copy of any notice given under sub-paragraph (2) to the appropriate officer.

(4) The notice of appeal shall be accompanied by:

- (a) a copy of the written representations given under paragraph 20(2);

(6) The Senior Costs Judge may, and if so directed by the Lord Chancellor either generally or in a particular case shall, send to the Lord Chancellor a copy of the notice of appeal together with copies of such other documents as the Lord Chancellor may require.

(7) With a view to ensuring that the public interest is taken into account, the Lord Chancellor may arrange for written or oral representations to be made on his behalf and, if he intends to do so, he shall inform the Senior Costs Judge and the appellant.

(8) Any written representations made on behalf of the Lord Chancellor under sub-paragraph (7) shall be sent to the Senior Costs Judge and the appellant and, in the case of oral representations, the Senior Costs Judge and the appellant shall be informed of the grounds on which such representations will be made.

(9) The appellant shall be permitted a reasonable opportunity to make representations in reply.

(10) The Costs Judge shall inform the appellant (or his representative) and the Lord Chancellor, where representations have been or are to be made on his behalf, of the date of any hearing and, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, may give directions as to the conduct of the appeal.

(11) The Costs Judge may consult the trial judge or the appropriate officer and may require the appellant to provide any further information which he requires for the purpose of the appeal and, unless the Costs Judge otherwise directs, no further evidence shall be received on the hearing of the appeal and no ground of objection shall be valid which was not raised under paragraph 20.

(12) The Costs Judge shall have the same powers as the appropriate officer under this Schedule and, in the exercise of such powers, may:

- (a) alter the redetermination of the appropriate officer in respect of any sum allowed, whether by increase or decrease as he thinks fit;
- (b) confirm the decision to allow standard fees under paragraph 15(2) or allow fees in accordance with paragraph 15(5) and (6).

(13) The Costs Judge shall communicate his decision and the reasons for it in writing to the appellant, the Lord Chancellor and the appropriate officer.

(14) Except where he confirms or decreases the sums redetermined under paragraph 20 or confirms a decision to allow standard fees, the Costs Judge may allow the appellant a sum in respect of part or all of any reasonable costs (including any fee payable in respect of an appeal) incurred by him in connection with the appeal.

Appeals to the High Court

22.—(1) A representative who is dissatisfied with the decision of a Costs Judge on an appeal under paragraph 21 may apply to a Costs Judge to certify a point of principle of general importance.

(2) Subject to paragraph 23, an application under sub-paragraph (1) shall be made within 21 days of notification of a Costs Judge's decision under sub-paragraph 21(13).

(3) Where a Costs Judge certifies a point of principle of general importance, the representative may appeal to the High Court against the decision of a Costs Judge on an appeal under paragraph 21, and the Lord Chancellor shall be a respondent to such an appeal.

(4) Subject to paragraph 23, an appeal under sub-paragraph (3) shall be instituted within 21 days of receiving a Costs Judge's certificate under sub-paragraph (1).

(5) Where the Lord Chancellor is dissatisfied with the decision of a Costs Judge on an appeal under paragraph 21, he may, if no appeal has been made by the representative under sub-paragraph (3), appeal to the High Court against that decision, and the representative shall be a respondent to the appeal.

(6) Subject to paragraph 23, an appeal under sub-paragraph (5) shall be instituted within 21 days of receiving notification of the Costs Judge's decision under paragraph 21(13).

(8) The judge shall have the same powers as the appropriate officer and a Costs Judge under this Schedule and may reverse, affirm or amend the decision appealed against or make such other order as he thinks fit.

Time limits

23.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), the time limit within which any act is required or authorised to be done may, for good reason, be extended:

- (a) in the case of acts required or authorised to be done under paragraph 21 or 22, by a Costs Judge or the High Court as the case may be; and
- (b) in the case of acts required or authorised to be done by a representative under any other paragraph, by the appropriate officer.

(2) Where a representative without good reason has failed (or, if an extension were not granted, would fail) to comply with a time limit, the appropriate officer, a Costs Judge or the High Court, as the case may be, may, in exceptional circumstances, extend the time limit and shall consider whether it is reasonable in the circumstances to reduce the costs; provided that the costs shall not be reduced unless the representative has been allowed a reasonable opportunity to show cause orally or in writing why the costs should not be reduced.

(3) A representative may appeal to a Costs Judge against a decision made under this paragraph by an appropriate officer and such an appeal shall be instituted within 21 days of the decision being given by giving notice in writing to the Senior Costs Judge specifying the grounds of appeal.

4.—(1) Upon a determination the appropriate officer may allow fees at more than the relevant prescribed rate specified in paragraph 1 subject to the provisions of this paragraph where it appears to him, taking into account all the relevant circumstances of the case, that:

Application

1.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (3) and (4), this Part of this Schedule applies to the fees for work done by a fee-earner regardless of his grade in relation to the proceedings in the Crown Court specified in sub-paragraph (2).

(2) The following proceedings are specified for the purpose of sub-paragraph (1):

- (a) committals for trial in which the indictment consisted of counts in respect of an offence which is classified as a Class 3 or 4 offence in accordance with directions given by the Lord Chief Justice under section 75 of the Supreme Court Act 1981⁽¹¹⁾ and
 - (i) where the trial (including any case prepared for trial in which no jury was sworn) lasted two days or less and at the time of listing was reasonably expected to last two days or less; or
 - (ii) where the case was listed and disposed of as a plea of guilty;
- (b) appeals against conviction;
- (c) appeals against sentence; and
- (d) committals for sentence (including proceedings which arose out of a breach of an order of the Crown Court, proceedings in which a sentence was deferred and other similar matters).

(3) Where in any proceedings specified in sub-paragraph (2), the trial judge:

- (a) is dissatisfied with the solicitor's conduct of the case; or
- (b) considers that, for exceptional reasons, the fees should be determined under paragraph 12 of Schedule 1

he may direct that the fees should be determined under paragraph 12 and in that event this Part of this Schedule shall not apply.

(4) If a solicitor so elects, he may claim standard fees under this Part of this Schedule in respect of work done by him notwithstanding that the proceedings in relation to which the work was done are not specified in sub-paragraph (2), and the provisions of this Part of this Schedule shall apply to such a claim with the necessary modifications, save that, where a solicitor elects to claim the principal standard fee for preparation in respect of a trial which lasted more than two days, he shall be paid that fee (together with the appropriate standard fee for the other classes of work specified in paragraph 4(2)) and paragraph 2 shall not apply.

(5) In relation to any hearing specified in paragraph 12(6) of Schedule 1, the fee specified in the Table for attendance at court where an advocate was assigned shall only be payable in the circumstances and to the extent provided by paragraph 12(5) to 12(7) of Schedule 1.

(6) For the purposes of this Part of this Schedule, the standard fees which are payable and the classes of work for which such fees may be paid are specified in paragraph 4 and the "lower fee limit" and the "higher fee limit" have the meanings given by paragraph 4(3).

- (b) request the solicitor to provide a detailed claim in the form directed by him.

(4) Where a solicitor fails to make a request under sub-paragraph (2)(b) or to supply a detailed claim for the purposes of sub-paragraph (2)(c) or (3)(b) within six weeks of the decision to allow the lower fee or the request to supply a detailed claim, whichever is the later, the decision to allow the lower standard fee shall be deemed to be confirmed.

3.—(1) Where a solicitor:

- (a) submits a claim for determination under paragraph 12 of Schedule 1 in a case to which paragraph 1(2) applies; or
- (b) disputes the allowance of the lower standard fee and provides a detailed claim under paragraph 2(2)(c) or (3)(b)

the appropriate officer shall first determine fees for preparation work within the meaning of paragraph 4(2)(a) of this Part of this Schedule.

(2) If the fees so determined are:

- (a) less than the lower fee limit, the appropriate officer shall allow and pay the lower standard fee together with the standard fees for all other classes of work specified in paragraph 4(2);
- (b) not less than the lower fee limit and not more than the upper fee limit, the appropriate officer shall allow and pay the principal standard fee together with the standard fees for all other classes of works specified in paragraph 4(2);
- (c) more than the upper fee limit, no standard fees shall be payable and all fees shall be determined in accordance with paragraph 12 of Schedule 1.

Standard fees

4.—(1) The classes of work for which standard fees shall be payable are those specified in sub-paragraph (2) and the fees for classes of work which are not so specified shall be determined in accordance with paragraph 12 of Schedule 1.

(2) Where a hearing to which this paragraph applies is held on any day of the main hearing of a case on indictment, no separate fee shall be payable in respect of attendance at the hearing, but the hearing shall be included in the length of the main hearing for the purpose of calculating remuneration.

(2) This paragraph applies where, in any case or indictment in the Crown Court in respect of which a graduated fee is payable under this Schedule, it has been necessary for the trial advocate to do work by way of preparation substantially in excess of the amount normally done for cases of the same type because the case involves a very unusual or novel point of law or factual issue.

(3) The amount of the special preparation fee shall be calculated from the number of hours' preparation in excess of the amount normally done for cases of the same type, using the rates of hourly fees set out in the table following paragraph 22 as appropriate to the category of trial advocate.

(4) A trial advocate claiming a special preparation fee shall supply such information and documents as may be required by the appropriate officer as proof of the unusual nature or novelty of the point of law or factual issue and of the number of hours of preparation.

- (b) the case is a cracked trial, and the number of pages of prosecution evidence exceeds 150.

(3) The amount of the wasted preparation fee shall be calculated from the number of hours of preparation reasonably carried out by the trial advocate, using the rates for hourly fees set out in the Table following paragraph 22; but no such fee shall be payable unless the number of hours of preparation is eight or more.

(4) A trial advocate claiming a wasted preparation fee shall supply such information and documents as may be required by the appropriate officer as proof of the circumstances in which he was prevented from representing the assisted person and of the number of hours of preparation.

19.—(1) The hourly fee set out in the Table following paragraph 22 as appropriate to the category of trial advocate shall be payable in respect of work of the following types, provided that the trial advocate satisfies the appropriate officer that the work was reasonably necessary, namely:

- (a) attendance by the trial advocate at conferences with prospective or actual expert witnesses; or
- (b) travel for the purpose of attending a conference with the assisted person, where the appropriate officer is satisfied that the assisted person was unable or could not reasonably have been expected to attend a conference at the trial advocate's office or chambers;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

and where that fee is allowed the trial advocate shall also be paid the reasonable expenses of travelling to and from the conference.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order makes provision for the funding and remuneration of services provided under Part I of the Access to Justice Act 1999 as part of the Criminal Defence Service.

It provides that, subject to some exceptions, the Lord Chancellor (rather than the Legal Services Commission) shall fund representation in criminal proceedings in the House of Lords, Court of Appeal and Crown Court until 4th April 2005 as part of the Criminal Defence Service.

It makes provision, in Schedules 1 to 4, for the remuneration of those supplying those services. Those provisions draw to a large extent on the Legal Aid in Criminal and Care Proceedings (Costs) Regulations 1989, which related to criminal representation provided under Part V of the Legal Aid Act 1988, and which are being superseded by this Order.

Schedule 1 deals with the manner in which costs are to be determined and paid. There are specific provisions dealing with interim payments and staged payments in long trials. There are also provisions dealing with the redetermination of costs by an appropriate officer, appeals from the appropriate officer to a Costs Judge, and appeals from the Costs Judge to the High Court.

Schedules 2 and 3 deal respectively with solicitors' fees, and counsel's fees to which the fees in Schedule 4 do not apply. Schedule 4 deals with fees for advocacy in the Crown Court.

The Order provides that the Commission may fund services by making payments in respect of the provision of those services only where representation is provided in proceedings for contempt, and special provision is made for remuneration in respect of proceedings for contempt.

Where services are provided under the Criminal Defence Service under contract remuneration is limited to the rates set out in Part E of the Specification to the Legal Services Commission's General

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Criminal Contract. Special maximum rates are provided for services in very high cost cases, funded by the Lord Chancellor, or provided under individual contracts.
