- (d) the 1999 Structural Funds Regulation,
- (e) the 2000 Structural Funds Regulations.

Transitional provisions

4.—(1) There shall be transferred to and vest in the Assembly by virtue of this paragraph all rights and liabilities to which the Secretary of State is entitled or subject, at the coming into force of these Regulations, in connection with any function exercisable by him which is made exercisable by the Assembly by these Regulations.

(2) There may be continued by or in relation to the Assembly anything (including legal proceedings) which relates to—

- (a) any function exercisable by the Secretary of State which is made exercisable by the Assembly by these Regulations, or
- (b) any rights or liabilities transferred by paragraph (1) as the result of any such function being made so exercisable, and which is in the process of being done by or in relation to the Secretary of State immediately before these Regulations come into force.

(3) Anything which was done by the Secretary of State for the purpose of or in connection with—

- (a) any function exercisable by him which is made exercisable by the Assembly by these Regulations, or
- (b) any rights or liabilities transferred by paragraph (1) as the result of any such function being made exercisable by the Assembly by these Regulations, and which is in effect immediately before these Regulations come into force shall have effect as if done by the Assembly.

(4) The Assembly shall be substituted for the Secretary of State in any instruments, contracts or legal proceedings which relate to—

- (a) any function exercisable by him which is made exercisable by the Assembly by these Regulations, or
- (b) any rights or liabilities transferred by paragraph (1) as the result of any such function being made exercisable by the Assembly by these Regulations, and which are made or commenced before these Regulations come into force.

(5) This regulation shall not apply to rights or liabilities relating to the employment of persons in Crown employment (as defined in section 191(3) of the Employment Rights Act 1996(16)).

Minister of State,
Department for Education and Employment

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations provide for the National Assembly for Wales (“the Assembly”) to exercise in relation to Wales certain European Social Fund functions relating to specified Structural Fund programmes. The functions, hitherto exercisable by the Secretary of State, are conferred or imposed on Member States by the following European Community Regulations:

Articles 21, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29 and 32 of Council Regulation (EEC) No. 4253/88, as amended by Council Regulation (EEC) No. 2082/93;

Commission Regulation (EC) No. 1681/1994 concerning irregularities and the recovery of sums wrongly paid in connection with the financing of the structural policies and the organisation of an information system in this field;

Commission Regulation (EC) No. 2064/97 establishing detailed arrangements for the implementation of Council Regulation (EEC) No. 4253/88 as regards the financial control by Member States of operations co-financed by the Structural Funds, as amended by Commission Regulation (EC) 2406/98;

Council Regulation (EEC) No. 1260/1999 laying down general provisions on the Structural Funds;

Commission Regulation (EC) No. 643/2000 on arrangements for using the euro for the purposes of the budgetary management of the Structural Funds;

Commission Regulation (EC) No. 1159/2000 on information and publicity measures to be carried out by the Member States concerning assistance from the Structural Funds;

Commission Regulation (EC) No. 1685/2000 laying down detailed rules for implementation of 1260/1999 as regards eligibility of expenditure of operations co-financed by the Structural Funds.

Regulation 4 contains provisions for the transfer to the Assembly of third party rights and liabilities associated with the functions transferred by these Regulations. These provisions are designed to ensure continuity in respect of on-going matters upon the transfer of functions from the Secretary of State to the Assembly.
