- (c) it appears to those Secretaries of State that it is appropriate, following those consultations, to proceed with the making of the Order;
- (d) a document setting out the proposals of those Secretaries of State has been laid before Parliament as required by section 3 of the 1994 Act and the period for Parliamentary consideration under section 4 of that Act has expired;

- (f) a draft of this Order with a statement giving details of those representations has been laid before Parliament;
- (g) a draft of this Order has been approved by resolution of each House of Parliament;

Now, therefore, the Secretary of State for Transport, Local Government and the Regions, as respects England, and the Secretary of State for Wales, as respects Wales, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by section 1 of the 1994 Act hereby make the following Order:

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends section 135 of the Leasehold Reform, Housing and Urban Development Act 1993.

Under section 135 of the Act the Secretary of State may make a disposals programme for the disposal of dwelling-houses by local authorities in a financial year. The local authorities included in the programme may only make disposals under a disposals programme in that financial year. Article 2 of the Order removes the restriction limiting the period for disposals to a single financial year and extends it to two financial years.
